1986 Season Outlook

Anytime a team loses a Heisman Trophy candidate, four first team all-conference players and four second team all-conference selections, a rebuilding year would appear to lie ahead.

But despite the heavy losses of several "high-profile" players, BYU Head Coach LaVell Edwards has 31 returning lettermen from which to fashion another championship-contending team in 1986. Given some adequate replacements at the vacated positions, the Cougars will be in the hunt for their 11th straight Western Athletic Conference crown.

Of most interest to BYU followers is the quarterback situation. Robbie Bosco, who finished third in balloting for the Heisman Trophy for the past two seasons, has gone the way of his quarterbacking predecessors—to the pros. Trying to fill his shoes are senior Steve Lindsley (6-0, 185), junior Mike Young (6-2, 190) and sophomores Bob Jensen (6-2, 195) and Sean Covey (6-0 $\frac{1}{2}$, 173).

Coming out of spring practice, it appeared Lindsley and Young were the frontrunners, followed closely by Jensen and Covey. Lindsley, an All-American quarterback at Ricks Junior College (Rexburg, Ida.), saw some mop-up action last year with the varsity as a third stringer. Young played a couple of impressive games with the junior varsity before being sidelined with a broken collar bone. He is the younger brother of former BYU All-American Steve Young. Jensen redshirted last year following an LDS mission, and Covey returned from a mission in January.

Although the quarterback battle is receiving most of the attention, BYU's coaches are more concerned about finding replacements for the offensive line, the secondary and the linebacking corps. Four of the five starters along the offensive line graduated. Three starting linebackers are gone, two of which were all-conference picks. And three of the four starters in the secondary were seniors last year.

The most solid position for BYU likely will be the defensive line, where the Cougars have good size and speed. Heading the list is defensive tackle Jason Buck (6-6, 270), last year's WAC defensive player of the year and an Associated Press third team All-American. He had 11.5 sacks and 26.5 quarterback hurries last season.

Hawaii head coach Dick Tomey said of Buck: "In my estimation, he's the best defensive player that's been in the conference since I've been here (nine years). He's the most dominating player I've seen. On film, nobody's blocked him."

Joining Buck at the other tackle slot will be senior Shawn Knight (6-6, 288), who had 2.5 sacks and 11.5 quarterback hurries in 1985. Both Buck and Knight are capable of running 4.7 forties. Coach Edwards calls Buck and Knight possibly the best defensive tackle tandem in college football this year. The nose tackle duty likely will fall upon junior David Futrell (6-2, 272), who has seen a lot of action the past two seasons.

In contrast, the linebacking corps was hurt by the graduation of three-year starters Leon White and Cary Whittingham and Butkus Award finalist Kurt Gouveia. This year the Cougars will be counting on returnees Ladd Akeo (6-3, 225) and Steve Sanders (6-0, 228) to plug the inside. Both missed spring practice because of injuries. At the outside linebacking position, sophomore redshirt Thor Salanoa (6-0 $\frac{1}{2}$, 234) has been moved from fullback and junior Richard Hobbs (6-4 $\frac{1}{2}$, 216) was a reserve last year. Steve Kaufusi (6-4, 239) has been moved from defensive end to outside linebacker and has made the transition well. Other linebackers who should see time include redshirts Brad Cahoon (5-11, 223) and Regan Hansen (6-0 $\frac{1}{2}$, 213) and sophomore J.C. VonColln (6-2, 225).

Junior Rodney Thomas (6-0, 190) is the only starter returning in the secondary. He led the team in interceptions last year with five. Joining Thomas at the cornerback position will be senior Shane Shumway (5-9 $\frac{1}{2}$, 180) and junior college transfers Darrin Lambert (5-8, 167) and Rodney Rice (5-8, 176).

At safety, senior Korey Rasmussen (6-1, 196) returns at strong safety after a redshirt year to recuperate from an eye injury. Troy Long (6-1 $\frac{1}{2}$, 188) played a lot as a freshman last year and should contribute again this year. Senior Jeff Wilcox (6-0, 184) is the leading candidate for weak safety, along with returned missionary Scott Peterson (6-4, 214).

A strong area offensively for the Cougars will be in the receiving department. Mark Bellini (6-0, 180) was named second team Associated Press All-American wide receiver last year after catching 63 passes for 1,008 yards. Junior tight end Trevor Molini (6-4 $\frac{1}{2}$, 235) also received All-America honors with 63 catches for 849 yards. Others likely to help out as wide receivers include senior Jim Edwards (6-1, 184), junior David Miles (6-3, 190) and junior college All-American Richard Zayas (6-0, 172).

Returning for his third year as a starter in the backfield will be All-WAC fullback Lakei Heimuli (5-11, 216). He rushed for 857 yards and 14 touchdowns last year and caught a team-high 66 passes for 459 yards. A serious knee injury suffered by halfback Tom Tuipulotu during spring practice will keep him out of the lineup this year and will require Heimuli to play some halfback in addition to his fullback duties. Filling in for Tuipulotu in the backfield likely will be seniors Bruce Hansen (6-0, 218) and Robert Parker (6-1, 190).

Along the offensive line, the only returning starter is guard John Borgia (6-3, 281). Another guard, David King (6-4 $\frac{1}{2}$, 267), has seen some starting time but has been slowed by injuries. Tackles John Hunter (6-7 $\frac{1}{2}$, 272) and Doug Rawlinson (6-5, 297) missed much of spring practice because of injuries and are hoping to be back in shape by fall.

All of last year's kickers and punters have graduated. However, the Cougars signed JC All-American Leonard Chitty to handle the placekicking chores. He set many records while playing for the junior college national champion Snow College Badgers, including a 57-yard field goal.

Sophomore Pat Thompson appears to be the frontrunner to handle punting chores. He averaged 44.2 yards per punt for the junior varsity last year and is known for his placement accuracy.

All in all, the Cougars appear to have a good mixture of youth and experience. A key for the Cougars is to stay healthy and to develop the young players quickly.

BYU's season opens on Sept. 6, when the Cougars host Utah State in Cougar Stadium. WAC play begins the next weekend with New Mexico at Provo. Perhaps the most difficult game of the season will be Sept. 20 at Washington. The Huskies will be out to avenge last year's 31-3 shellacking by the Cougars. Temple, another team BYU beat last year, will come to Provo on Sept. 27, and Pac-10 member Oregon State will be the Cougars' last home game on Nov. 15.

The WAC schedule will be difficult this year, as BYU plays at San Diego State, at Wyoming, at Air Force, at Hawaii and at Utah.

LaVell Edwards Quotes

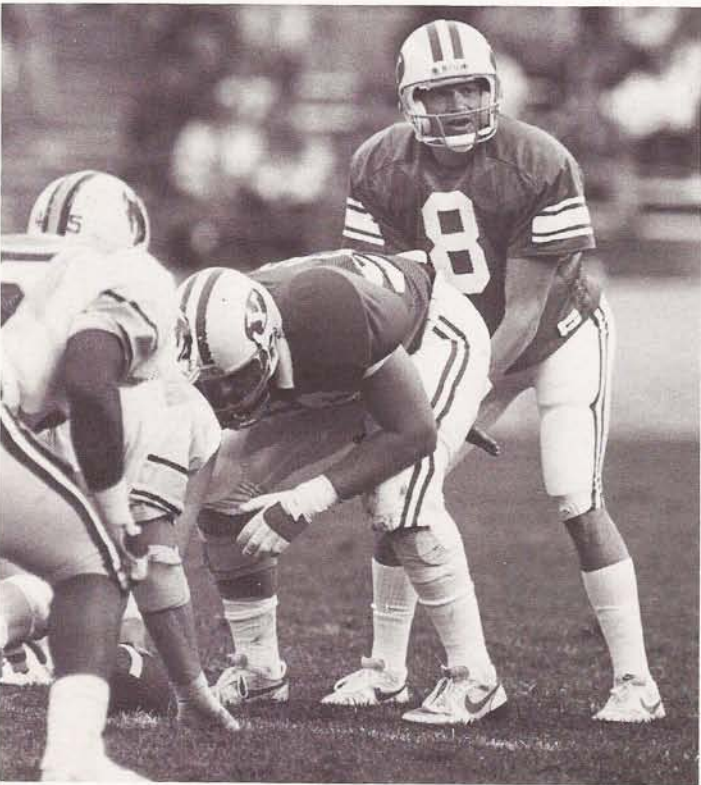

On the quarterback situation:

"If we have difficulty this year, it will not be because of our quarterbacks. There is not much difference between the four of them really. Mike Young and Bob Jensen made about as much improvement as any of them this spring. I feel good about all four of them.

Bill Walsh once said, and I believe it is very true, that, 'You can win with our kind of offense with a quarterback that can't throw the ball very well. But you can never win with an inconsistent quarterback, no matter how well he throws the ball or the kind of arm he has.' That pretty much has been our philosophy in determining the kind of quarterback we'll use. He (the quarterback) has got to be able to execute the offense, read the coverage, make the right judgements and know how to throw the ball at the right place at the right time."

On Jason Buck and Shawn Knight:

"Our defensive line is returning pretty much intact. Regarding Jason Buck and Shawn Knight, there isn't a set of tackles anywhere in the country of the calibre of these two players. They not only have tremendous size, but they are great football players; both have speed and great intensity. They are the hardest working people I believe we have ever had in our program. Along with David Futrell and others, this is going to be a very good group."

Senior Steve Lindsley saw limited action at quarterback last year. He was the frontrunner for the position coming out of spring practice.

All-American Mark Bellini will combine with new and returning receivers to give the Cougars depth in that area.

On the offensive line:

"Our offensive line is pretty much like it has been in the past: a major overhaul every year. Of the six offensive linemen we recruited last year, four have gone on missions. Injuries have proved frustrating because some of the younger players needed to get more work and contact in spring practice. Their attitude all spring has been outstanding."

On the runningback situation:

"If we were to start tomorrow, we would put Lakei Heimuli at tailback and Bruce Hansen at fullback. Lakei, who is All-America calibre, will play at both running back positions. Hansen will play fullback, and Robert Parker will definitely help us at tailback. Since we recruited five running backs who will be with us this fall, we may eventually get some help from them as well."

On the receivers and tight ends:

"We are in good shape with our receivers, and have a fine performer in transfer Richard Zayas and Chuck Cutler, a walkon from Snow College, to go along with Mark Bellini, David Miles, Kevin Doman, Jim Edwards and others. At tight end, Trevor Molini has been recovering from a foot operation, which gave two young tight ends, George Tavita and Darren Handley, more opportunity for playing time."

On the kicking game:

"As for the kicking game, we are looking for more consistency this year. Pat Thompson, who punted for the jayvee team last year, hopefully can do the job for us. Chris Germann, Snow transfer Leonard Chitty and Jason Chaffetz are all new people we are looking at as place kickers."

Coaching Staff

LaVell Edwards, Head Coach

129-40-1
15th Year
(Utah State '52)

Best time to call Coach Edwards: 10 a.m.

Anyone who has followed BYU football through the years understands why LaVell Edwards is revered so highly by Cougar fans.

Prior to LaVell's accepting the head coaching position in 1972, BYU had won a total of 171 games in 47 seasons. The Cougars had won one Western Athletic Conference championship (1965) and had never been to a bowl game.

Since 1972, BYU has won 129 games, 11 WAC championships (the last 10 in a row) and has played in 10 bowl games.

The 55-year-old Edwards reached what many would consider the pinnacle of the college coaching profession in 1984 when he led the Cougars to their first-ever football national championship. Along the way he picked up NCAA Coach of the Year honors from the American Football Coaches, the Football Writers and the Pigskin Club of Washington, D.C.

Such honors are justly deserved for the coach-churchman-husband-father-grandfather-author-teacher-doctor, who, in his 14 years with BYU, has led the Cougars to national prominence in the sport of football.

LaVell's winning percentage (.762) ranks fifth among the nation's active college coaches. And BYU has won more games in the 1980's (66) than any other Division I school.

A 1952 graduate of Utah State, Edwards has added to his academic honors a master's degree from the University of Utah (1960) and an Ed.D. from BYU (1978). His attitude toward education is contagious in that several of his assistants have gone on to attain doctorates.

The football philosophy practiced by Coach Edwards is one of high-powered offense and rugged defense. Under his guidance, BYU has led the nation in passing eight times ('76, '77, '79, '80, '81, '83, '84 and '85), in total offense five times ('79, '80, '83, '84 and '85) and in scoring ('79).

In 1979, LaVell was recognized as national Coach-of-the-Year by two organizations: the Bobby Dodd Award Board and the Churchmen's Hall of Fame. Five times ('72, '79, '80, '83 and '84) he has been selected WAC Coach-of-the-Year, and five times he has been Kodak District Eight Coach-of-the-Year ('74, '77, '79, '80 and '84). Some of the post-season bowl games he has coached include the Hula Bowl (twice), the Blue-Gray Classic (twice), the East-West Shrine game (three times), the Japan Bowl (twice) and the Coaches' All-America Game.

Born in Orem, Utah, LaVell was raised not far from BYU's stadium. He was graduated from Lincoln High School in Orem and attended Utah State, where he was a three-year letterman and captain of the football team. Twice he earned all-conference honors at center for the Aggies.

At USU he met his wife-to-be, Patti Covey. LaVell entered the Army, where he played on two service football teams: Fort Lee, Va., in 1952 and Fort Meade, Md., in 1953 as a player-coach with a 6-3 record.

His first coaching job was secured at Granite High School in Salt Lake City, where he coached from 1954-61 before joining Hal Mitchell's BYU staff in 1962. LaVell succeeded Tommy Hudspeth as head coach in 1972.

Edwards has coached more years, won more games and had a better winning percentage than any coach in Cougar football history. He is an active member of the College Football Association. His wife, Patti, writes an occasional column for the Provo Daily Herald.

University, Administration

BYU—The School

Brigham Young University is a private, church-sponsored institution which has earned an admirable reputation for successfully blending scholarly learning with moral and spiritual education.

BYU began modestly in 1875 as Brigham Young Academy with 29 elementary school students. It is now a fully accredited, internationally recognized university with a student body of nearly 27,000, making it the largest private university in the nation in terms of full-time students.

Academic excellence is increasingly evident as students and faculty show their competence. Almost three-quarters of the 1,300 full-time faculty hold doctoral degrees, and the university is accredited by more than 100 education, business, professional and government organizations.

Admission standards for students continue to rise as competition for acceptance increases. The average ACT composite score for entering BYU freshmen is now 23, compared to the national average of 19. BYU graduated four Rhodes Scholars between 1975 and 1978, a record matched only by Harvard, Yale and Princeton. In 1976, it was one of two schools to place three Danforth fellows in a single year.

The J. Reuben Law School, founded just 13 years ago, is establishing a reputation as one of the elite top-40 law schools in the nation, with three of its graduates already selected as clerks to the U.S. Supreme Court.

Other highly respected programs include the School of Management, with its fifth-ranked accountancy department and top-rated MBA program; the computer-aided design/computer-aided manufacturing program, with state-of-the-art computer ability and a reputation for innovation; a large team of researchers in several disciplines studying coal's promise as an alternative to oil; the Ezra Taft Benson Agriculture Food Institute, which is contributing knowledge to help solve the world's food problems.

BYU's music and drama departments are also particularly noteworthy, as are its language programs, with an unusually extensive course offering, and its large number of faculty researching family issues.

BYU is committed to the idea of educating the whole person and has recently devised a new, rigorous general education program in keeping with that commitment. The GE curriculum consists of requirements in basic reading, writing and mathematics, arts and sciences and religion.

To fill the 14 semester hours of religion required, students can take courses ranging from the history of the LDS Church to comparative world religions. Four of the 14 credit hours are spent in study of the Book of Mormon, a text regarded by Mormons as scripture alongside the Bible.

The 631-acre campus is a superb facility. It is unusually clean and well-kept, with beautiful landscaping and spacious quads. The Lee Library, with more than two million volumes and a seating capacity of 4,000, is at the heart of the campus. The Harris Fine Arts Center features five theatres, two art galleries, nine pipe organs, 65 music practice rooms, a National Public Radio station and a Public Broadcasting Service television studio. Laboratories all over campus boast up-to-date equipment and full computerization.

Academic accomplishments and physical facilities aside, many BYU students and faculty point to the character of its people and their commitment to traditional values as the school's most important attributes. Each student signs a Code of Honor, promising to abstain from alcohol, tobacco, tea and coffee and to be honest and chaste—all in accord with tenets of the LDS Church.

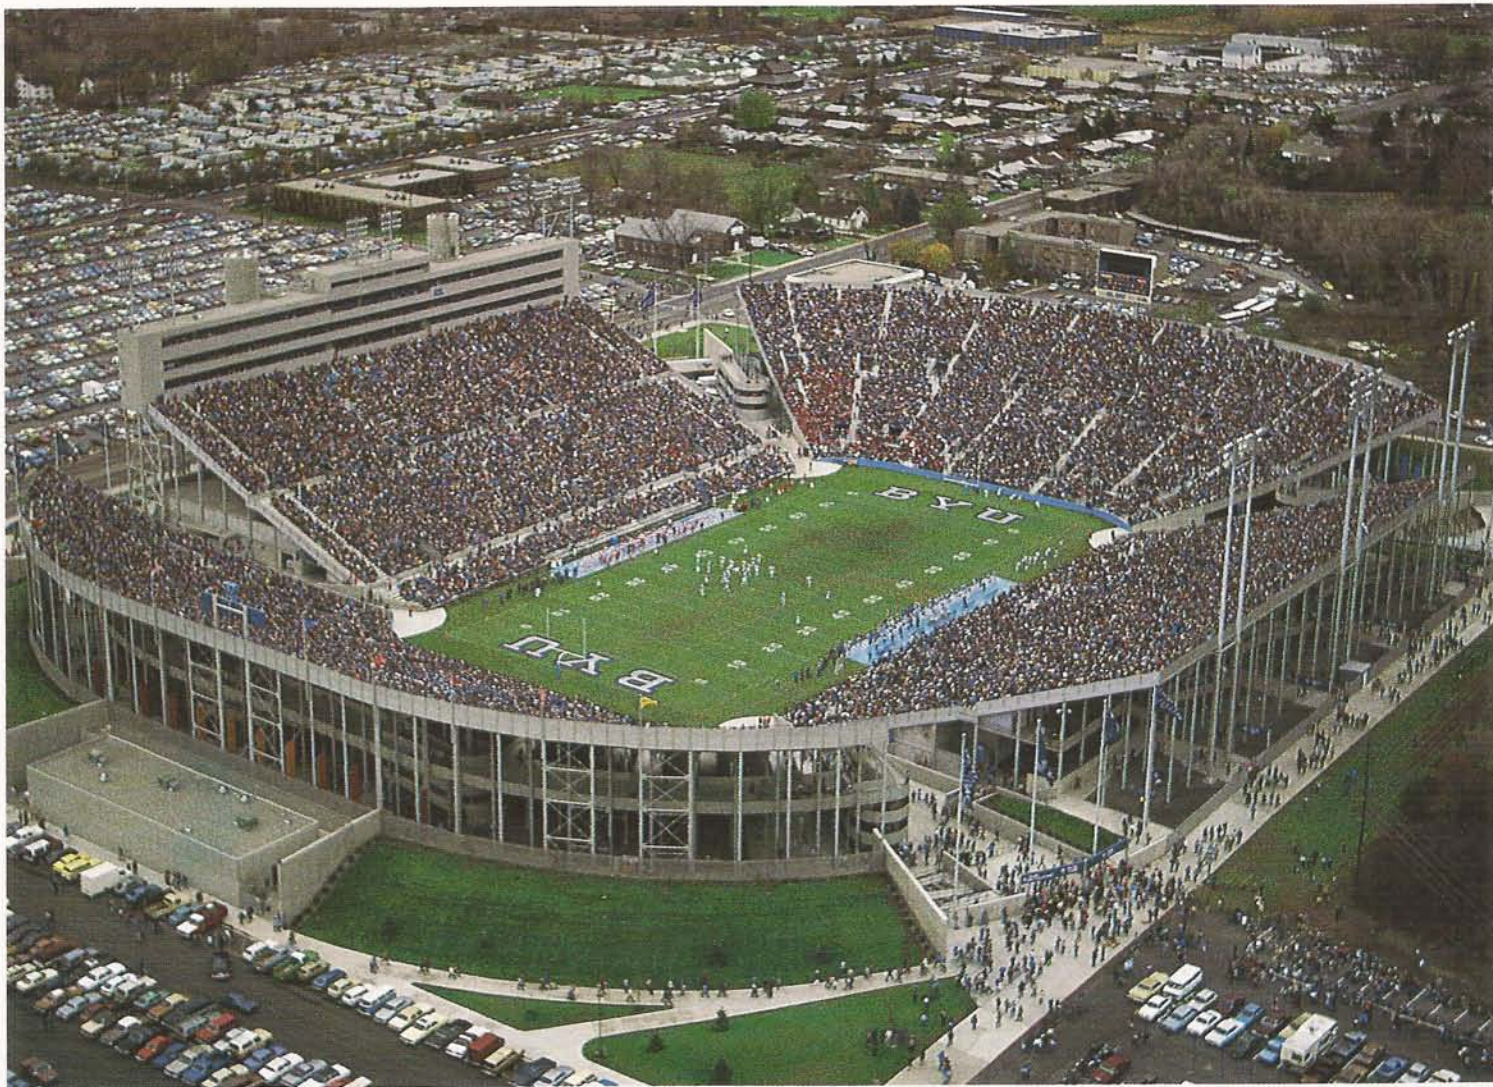

Although 98 percent of the student body is Mormon, admission is open to those of any race, color, creed or national origin, provided they meet the university's academic requirements and their conduct conforms to the standards of the LDS Church.

Non-Mormons come from over 25 other denominations, and about 22 percent of the student body is married. Students come from every state (32 percent from Utah) and more than 70 countries. More than 8,000 students are bi-lingual, having learned a foreign language while serving a mission for the Mormon Church in another country.

BYU is on a three-semester system (4-4-2-2) with fall and winter semesters each being four months long, and the summer semester being divided into spring and summer terms.

Athletic Department

Cougar Stadium is one of many outstanding athletic facilities at BYU.

In keeping with the tradition of excellence established by the academic programs and BYU, the Athletic Department has become known around the country for its successes in various sports.

A poll published by The Knoxville Journal lists the top overall athletic programs in the country each year. BYU has finished in the top-20 11 of the last 16 years. The Cougars have finished in the top-10 nine times and in the top-five five times. In the Western Athletic Conference, the Cougars have won the all-sports supremacy title nine straight years.

The University's athletic program boasts 11 NCAA-sanctioned sports: football, basketball, baseball, track, golf, cross country, tennis, gymnastics, soccer, swimming and wrestling.

Besides football, the golf (1981) and track (1970) teams have won national championships. Cougar basketball teams have won the NIT twice (1951, 1966) and have been ranked in the top-20 several times. They reached the final eight in the NCAA playoffs in 1980. BYU's baseball team has won 19 WAC division titles in 20 years and was ranked as high as No. 1 nationally in 1983.

Part of the success of these teams can be attributed to the fine athletic facilities at BYU. The football team plays its games in the beautiful, 65,000-seat Cougar Stadium. Practices are held on the fields north of the George Albert Smith Fieldhouse. The practice area incorporates four full-size football fields and other workout stations. The team's locker room and training facilities are located inside the Smith Fieldhouse. Construction was begun this past summer on a 9,350 square-foot weight room which will be one of the finest in the country when it is completed this winter.

The Fieldhouse, a multisport complex, contains facilities for nearly every sport. A one-fifth mile rubberized track surrounds three basketball courts, weight rooms and an artificial turf practice area. The west annex of the fieldhouse is used by baseball, football, soccer, track and golf teams for indoor practice.

Attendance at BYU basketball games consistently ranks among the best in the nation. Games are played in the spacious 23,000-seat Marriott Center, the second largest on-campus basketball arena in the country. The facility is also used for concerts, forums and other activities.

BYU's track is acclaimed by coaches and athletes as one of the finest in the nation. It was the site of the 1982 NCAA track and field championships. All running and field events can be viewed from the grandstand area. An animated, electronic scoreboard entertains fans and keeps athletes current with running times, splits, etc.

The BYU baseball diamond is adjacent to the Marriott Center, the football stadium and the track and field complex. Bleachers provide seating for as many as 4,000 people.

Geographic Location

BYU is located 45 miles south of Salt Lake City in Provo, Utah, a city of 75,000. It sits on a bench above the city at the Western foot of the Wasatch Mountains in the Rocky Mountain Range. The mountain-trimmed valley provides a beautiful setting, with 12,000-foot Mount Timpanogos on the east and 23-mile-long Utah Lake on the west.

No less than eight world-class ski resorts are within an hour's drive of the campus, the closest being only a half hour up Provo Canyon. Mountain lakes, streams and scenic terrain provide limitless opportunities for waterskiing, fishing, hunting and hiking.

President Jeffrey R. Holland

In his six years as president of Brigham Young University, Dr. Jeffrey R. Holland has made "excellence" his byword for all areas of the university.

"We cannot do everything at BYU," President Holland has said. "Perhaps we will not even continue to pursue all of the things we have tried to do in the past. But what we choose to do, we intend to do superbly well."

Cougar Stadium

With 65,000 seats, Cougar Stadium is the fourth-largest collegiate stadium in the West.

When BYU expanded its football stadium to 65,000 seats in 1982, it marked the beginning of a new era for the Cougar football program.

In each of its first four seasons, the stadium has been sold out with season tickets. Last year 392,447 fans watched the Cougars play at home, an average of 65,408 per game. BYU has ranked near the top 20 in the country in football attendance every year since the expansion.

The fan support has helped BYU schedule home-and-home non-league games with teams like UCLA, Washington, Temple, Pittsburgh, Texas and others.

Since its expansion, the facility has been applauded by fans, players and the media as one of the best in the country. Among its many features are a box-bowl configuration, a natural turf playing surface and a four-level press box.

Prior to 1982, the stadium seated 35,000 comfortably, but as many as 47,000 crammed into the facility to see a game. Expansion efforts included lowering the field eight feet, adding end zone seating, constructing the press box and adding box seating in the West stands.

More than 15,000 yards of concrete were used in the expansion effort. Each end zone contains about 4.3 million pounds of steel and seats about 15,000 people.

The playing field has a special sand-based drainage system capable of disposing up to 13 inches of rainfall per hour.

Perhaps the most impressive feature of the stadium is the press box, which runs the entire length of the west stands and sits over 10 stories high. It contains 42 loges (glass enclosed booths capable of seating up to 12 people) on the first two levels. The third level is reserved for working media, and the fourth level is the TV deck. Three elevators transport guests to the press box.

In 1982 and 1985, the Football Writers Association of America cited BYU for its "Outstanding Press Box Working Area."

The single-game attendance record is 65,508, set in 1984 against Utah State. Cougar Stadium is the 24th largest on-campus football facility in the country and is the fourth largest university-owned stadium in the West (Stanford, California and ASU seat more).

Western Athletic Conference

Only in its 24th year, the Western Athletic Conference is beginning to leave its mark on collegiate football. In 1984, Brigham Young University won the National Championship, and last year two teams finished the regular season ranked in the top 10. Also, for the fourth year in a row, two WAC teams were invited to bowl games.

The league is the most geographically diverse in the country, spreading from the 7,000-foot heights of Laramie, Wyo., to the sea-level sprawls of Hawaii and San Diego. Each of the league's nine members adds its distinct personality to the overall flavor of the conference.

Founded July 1, 1962, the charter members included Arizona, Arizona State, Brigham Young, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming. In September, 1967, Colorado State and Texas-El Paso were added to make the WAC an eight-team league.

A major change occurred in July, 1978, when Arizona and Arizona State left for the Pac-10. But on the same day, San Diego State made its official entry into the conference. Hawaii became the eighth member the following year, and the Air Force Academy entered in 1980.

One of the rewards of WAC membership has been the league's affiliation with the Holiday Bowl in San Diego. The conference football champion receives an automatic bid to the post-season game against an at-large team. Because of a new contract, however, last year's WAC champion did play in the Holiday Bowl. This year the contract calls for the conference champion to again play in the San Diego. Every third year, the Holiday Bowl will be free to invite two at-large teams instead of the conference champion.

Based in Denver, Colorado, the WAC is led by Commissioner Joe Kearney, who assumed the post in 1980. Kearney, former athletic director at Arizona State, Washington and Michigan State, is the fourth conference commissioner since formation of the league. Jeff Hurd is in charge of conference relations. He is assisted by Mark Hollis.

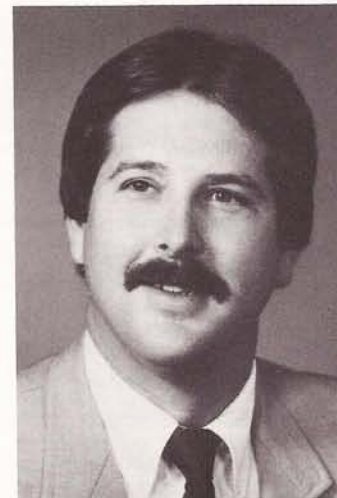

The office is located at 14 West Dry Creek Circle, Littleton, Colorado 80120. Phone number for the WAC office is (303) 795-1962.

Coach Shelton

Location: Logan, Utah 84322
Conference: PCAA
Enrollment: 12,000
School Colors: Blue and White

Nickname: Aggies
Offense: Pro I
Defense: 52
Head Coach: Chuck Shelton (Pittsburgh St. '61) 1st year

Series Record With BYU: 32-26-3, Utah State

League Record, Standing: 3-5, Fifth

Sports Information Director: Craig Hislop (801) 750-1361, Home: (801) 752-7101

1986 Outlook: First-year head coach Chuck Shelton will receive a baptism by fire with his first three games being played at BYU, at Missouri and at Kansas. He inherits 42 returning lettermen from last year's 3-8 team, including All-PCAA linebacker Al Smith and Jim Pauciello, an all-conference defensive end. Mark Mraz, the PCAA's leader in quarterback sacks last year, also returns at defensive end. With seven starters back, defense appears to be the strong point of the Aggies this year. James Jenkins, a three-year starter at inside linebacker, has been moved outside. Safety Darrin Long and corner Ray Farris return to give experience to the secondary. Offensively, the top rusher, Glen Crawford, and the top passer, Brett Stevens, return. Also, kicker Dene Garner is back after making 16 of 20 field goals in '85. The offensive line promises to be one of the biggest in Aggie history. Greg Sinnott and Navy Tuiasosopo, both 305 pounders, will anchor the line, which averages 6-4 and 270 pounds. The leading quarterback candidates include Stevens, a sophomore; senior Tom Ponich; redshirt Eric Jensen; junior Tony Michelson; and freshman Desmond Cerceo.

Nickname: Lobos
Offense: Run and Shoot
Defense: Multiple
Head Coach: Joe Lee Dunn (Tennessee-Chattanooga '68) 4th year, 13-22.

1985 Record: 3-8

League Record, Standing: 1-7, eighth

Sports Information Director: John Keith (505) 277-2026, Home: (505) 296-3349

1986 Outlook: The Lobos return their offense from 1985 almost intact. It's the defense that needs immediate help, and New Mexico put a lot of emphasis on signing defensive linemen and players to man the secondary. The Lobos signed 19 junior college players and three players from schools that dropped football. On offense, the Lobos will stick with the "Run and Shoot" offense that helped them rank third nationally in total offense at 469.5 yards per game. Quarterback Billy Rucker and running backs Willie Turrall and Terance Mathis practically rewrote the individual record books. Defensively, New Mexico hired a new defensive coordinator, Jim Berryman, but the Lobos will continue to utilize a blitzing, unpredictable attack. Coach Joe Lee Dunn is in his fourth season and describes this season as "a win-or-else situation."

Nickname: Huskies

Sports Information Director: Chuck Niemi (206) 543-6441 Home: (206) 543-2230

1986 Outlook: A 7-5 record and Freedom Bowl victory weren't enough to satisfy Coach Don James and his Washington Huskies last year. So this year they will be out to prove they belong with the nation's best. With 14 returning starters and 14 other players who started at least once during 1985, it appears Washington could be one of the teams to beat in the Pac-10. At quarterback, junior Chris Chandler returns after showing his talents in the latter part of 1985 while filling in for injured Hugh Millen. Chandler was the Freedom Bowl MVP. Also, fullback Rick Fenny, (2nd All-Pac-10), placekicker Jeff Jaeger (2nd team All-American), split end Lonzell Hill (2nd team All-Pac-10), defensive tackle Reggie Rogers (1st team All-PAC-10) will cause headaches for the opposition. It appears the Huskies will have depth and experience at nearly all positions. The question marks include the offensive line and the cornerbacks. Both Jaeger and punter Thane Cleland will be starters for the fourth straight season. They will be a big plus in the special teams department. Once again Washington has a difficult schedule, facing Ohio State, Brigham Young and Southern Cal in the first three games.

Conference: Independent
Enrollment: 31,001

Stadium: Veterans Stadium (73,200, artificial turf)
Nickname: Owls
Offense: Walking "I"
Defense: "40"
Head Coach: Bruce Ariens (Virginia Tech '74) 4th year, 14-19

Series Record: 1-0, BYU

1985 Record: 4-7

Sports Information Director: Al Shrier (215) 787-7445, Home: (215) 561-5656

1986 Outlook: Coach Bruce Ariens claims this is the best team he's had in his four years at Temple. With 43 lettermen returning, including All-America running back Paul Palmer, All-America receiver Willie Marshall and quarterback Lee Saltz, his optimism appears well founded. Defensively, the Owls will start seven seniors on defense. The entire secondary returns, led by Sophomore All-American Eddie Parker who had four interceptions in 1985. Palmer finished second nationally in rushing (168.4) and all-purpose rushing last year (193.7). Saltz finished 20th nationally in pass efficiency. Marshall caught 40 passes for 893 yards, an average of 22.3 yards per catch. The kicking game is the main concern for Ariens this year. Temple lost four games last year by less than a touchdown to some pretty good teams. Once again, the Owls have a very difficult schedule featuring some of the best teams in the country.

League Record, Standing: 4-4, fifth

Sports Information Director: Gary Ozzello (303) 491-5067, Home: (303) 493-5574

1986 Outlook: Head coach Leon Fuller has 46 lettermen returning from his 1985 squad, including 19 starters. On offense, the Rams are led by All-America fullback Steve Bartalo and quarterback Kelly Stouffer. Defensively, Fuller must replace both safeties and one defensive end. Still, veterans return at each spot. Nose tackle Todd Schmidt and cornerback Jim King, both four-year starters, return to anchor the defensive unit that was injuryplagued throughout the '85 campaign. Fuller has optimism for 1986, for many of the Ram veterans are now much more seasoned after facing five teams a year ago that made post-season bowl appearances.

Coach Erickson

Location: Laramie, Wyoming (82071)
Conference: Western Athletic
Enrollment: 10,000
Colors: Brown and yellow
Stadium: War Memorial (33,500, Natural grass)
Nickname: Cowboys, Pokes
Offense: Pro
Defense: 4-3
Head Coach: Dennis Erickson (Montana State '70), 1st year

1985 Record: 3-8

League Record, Standing: 2-6, seventh

Sports Information Director: Kevin McKinney (307) 766-2256, Home: (307) 742-3181.

1986 Outlook: New head coach Dennis Erickson will try to restore winning to a Wyoming program that has struggled in recent years. Forty lettermen and 27 redshirts return from the '85 squad that finished 3-8. Learning Erickson's system may take time since he is plans to throw the ball a lot as opposed to the run-oriented wishbone utilized by Al Kincaid. The new offense features only one running back, probably junior Toriano Taylor. Of biggest concern to Erickson are the tight end and secondary slots. Perhaps the linebackers are the strongest area of the team. The biggest question on the team involves quarterback, where returnees Scott Runyan and Randy Welniak handled chores last year. However, they will be challenged by JC transfer Craig Burnett and Tom Kilpatrick. On defense, Erickson promises to use a blitzing, 4-3. The Cowboys' schedule features teams from the Southwest Conference, the PCAA, the Big 10 and the Big 8, in addition to WAC games.

Stadium: Sun Bowl (52,000, artificial surface)
Nickname: Miners

Defense: 50
Head Coach: Bob Stull (Kansas St. '68) First year.

League Record, Standing: 1-7, ninth

Sports Information Director: Eddie Mullens (915) 747-5330 Home: (915) 584-6625

1986 Outlook: First-year coach Bob Stull enters his first year at UTEP knowing the Miners have not experienced a winning season since 1970. But he is no stranger to difficult situations. He turned the program around at Massachusetts before accepting the UTEP position. An assistant for 14 years to Washington's Don James, Stull will likely install a wide-open offense and a stubborn defense. He inherits 14 starters, six on offense and eight on defense, from last year's squad, plus placekicker Hugo Castellanos. Perhaps the brightest prospect is quarterback Sam Garza, who threw for 1,645 yards last year. John Harvey, a sophomore this season, rushed for 777 yards, despite missing a few games with injury. The offense averaged 327.8 yards per game in 1985. Last year's problems rested mainly with the defense, which gave up 5,215 yards. One obstacle Stull faces in his first year is the schedule. The Miners face four teams who played in bowl games last season.

Sports Information Director: Ed Inouye (808) 948-7523, Home: (808) 955-2368

1986 Outlook: Last year Coach Dick Tomey experienced his first losing season since 1977. This year he has seven starters returning on offense and eight on defense to help turn things around at Hawaii. Receiver Walter Murray has been drafted into the NFL, leaving a big hole to fill. However, senior quarterback Gregg Tipton returns, as does receiver David Dyas and tight end Ron Hall. On the offensive line, starters Charlie Moetului, Mark Nua and Joe Onosai will be the anchors. In the backfield, fullback Heikoti Fakava will fill the hole left by Nu'u Faaola's graduation. Defensively, the linebackers will be solid with returnees Thad Jefferson, M.L. Johnson and Pete Noga. Al Noga and Colin Scotts return at the tackles, and nose guard Matt Follner will shore up the middle. The secondary is a question mark. Kyle Kafentzis and Sam Moku are starters who will give the Rainbows experience at that position. Hawaii's schedule includes eight home games this year. Among the non-conference opponents on the Rainbow's schedule are Wisconsin, Fullerton State, Fresno State and Michigan.

Sports Information Director: Hal Cowan (503)754-2611 or 754-3720, Home: (503) 757-1446

1986 Outlook: In his second season at OSU, Coach Dave Kragthorpe is counting heavily on junior college transfers to help the Beavers turn the corner. Sixteen JC players will be expected to fill the holes left by graduation, but Kragthorpe is optimistic about the talent. At quarterback, Erik Wilhelm and Rich Gonzales return after seeing a lot of action last year. They'll be pressed by Dave McLaughlin, who transferred after starting five games for Tulane in 1984. Defensively, the Beavers will be led by second team All-Pac 10 cornerback Lavance Northington. He is the brightest star in what looks to be a strong secondary. One area where JC transfers will be called upon to help out immediately is the linebackers. The big question mark offensively surrounds the running backs. In addition to their Pac 10 schedule, the Beavers play non-conference opponents Fresno State, Michigan, Boise State and Brigham Young.

League Record, Standing: 5-3, third

Sports Information Director: Bruce Woodbury (801) 581-3510, Home: (801) 295-3594

1986 Outlook: The Utes appear to have a potent offense again this year as they return nine starters from the '85 squad that was ranked 10th nationally in passing (266.6) and averaged 33.7 points per game. Quarterback Larry Egger, Western Athletic Conference rook of the year last year, threw for 2,988 yards and 18 touchdowns last year. He passed for more than 200 yards in 11 straight games. Egger's top receiver, Loren Richey, also returns for his final season. Richey caught 73 passes for 971 yards last year. Most of the offense line is intact, and, as always, the Utes have some fast running backs to carry the ball. Defense appears to be the question mark. Only three starters return. However, Coach Jim Fassel claims he will have more depth defensively this year than last. Placekicker Andre Guardi returns after leading the Utes in scoring last year with 94 points. He has 18 of 22 field goals and has made 88 consecutive extra points. Outside the conference, Utah will have its hands full with Ohio State, Arizona State and Utah State.

Sports Information Director: John Rosenthal (619) 265-5547, Home: (619) 451-2439

1986 Outlook: Coach Denny Stolz appears to have inherited a fine group of players from which he will build his first Aztec squad. Tops on the list is quarterback Todd Santos, who passed for 2,877 yards and 21 touchdowns last season. He is joined by All-WAC running back Chris Hardy and split end Kenny Moore. Defensively, the Aztecs return six starters. Tackle Levi Esene should be healthy after an injury in the second game sidelined him for the season in 1985. Stolz has changed the defensive alignment from 3-4 to 4-3 in an effort to pressure the quarterbacks more. Four of the top five linebackers of last year are gone, leaving a big hole to fill. Richard Brown is the only player with any experience at that position. The secondary appears solid with the likes of Clarence Nunn, Mario Mitchell, Steve Lauter and Ellis Powers returning as starters. Wayne Ross returns to handle the punting chores, but the kicking position is up for grabs.

Sports Information Director: Dave Kellogg (303) 472-2313/1894, Home: (303) 528-5390

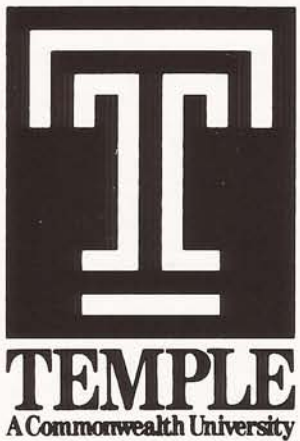

1986 Outlook: When looking at Air Force this year, the most obvious thing is the absence of names like Bart Weis, Ken Carpenter, Scott Thomas and a host of others who helped the Falcons to a share of the WAC title and a top-10 finish in 1985. Filling those shoes will be the main challenge of Fisher DeBerry, last year's national coach of the year. He'll be depending on players like fullback Pat Evans, the 1985 Bluebonnet Bowl MVP who rushed for over 1,000 yards as a sophomore and shook off injuries last year to finish with 492 yards. Defensive tackle Chad Hennings was an All-American last year, and linebacker Terry Maki was an All-WAC first team selection. Tom Rotello is the lone returnee in one of the best secondaries in the country last year. He had eight interceptions last year, ranking him among the top three nationally in that category. Punter Mark Simon led the nation with a 47.3-yard average. He, too, was first team All-WAC. The Falcons will play the other service academies, Notre Dame and Rice, in addition to their regular WAC games.

1985 in Review

1985 Highlights

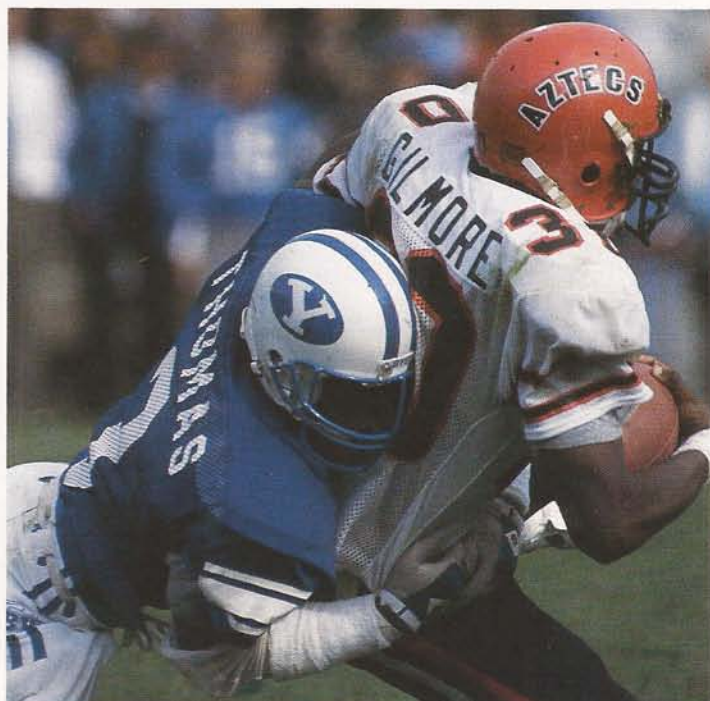

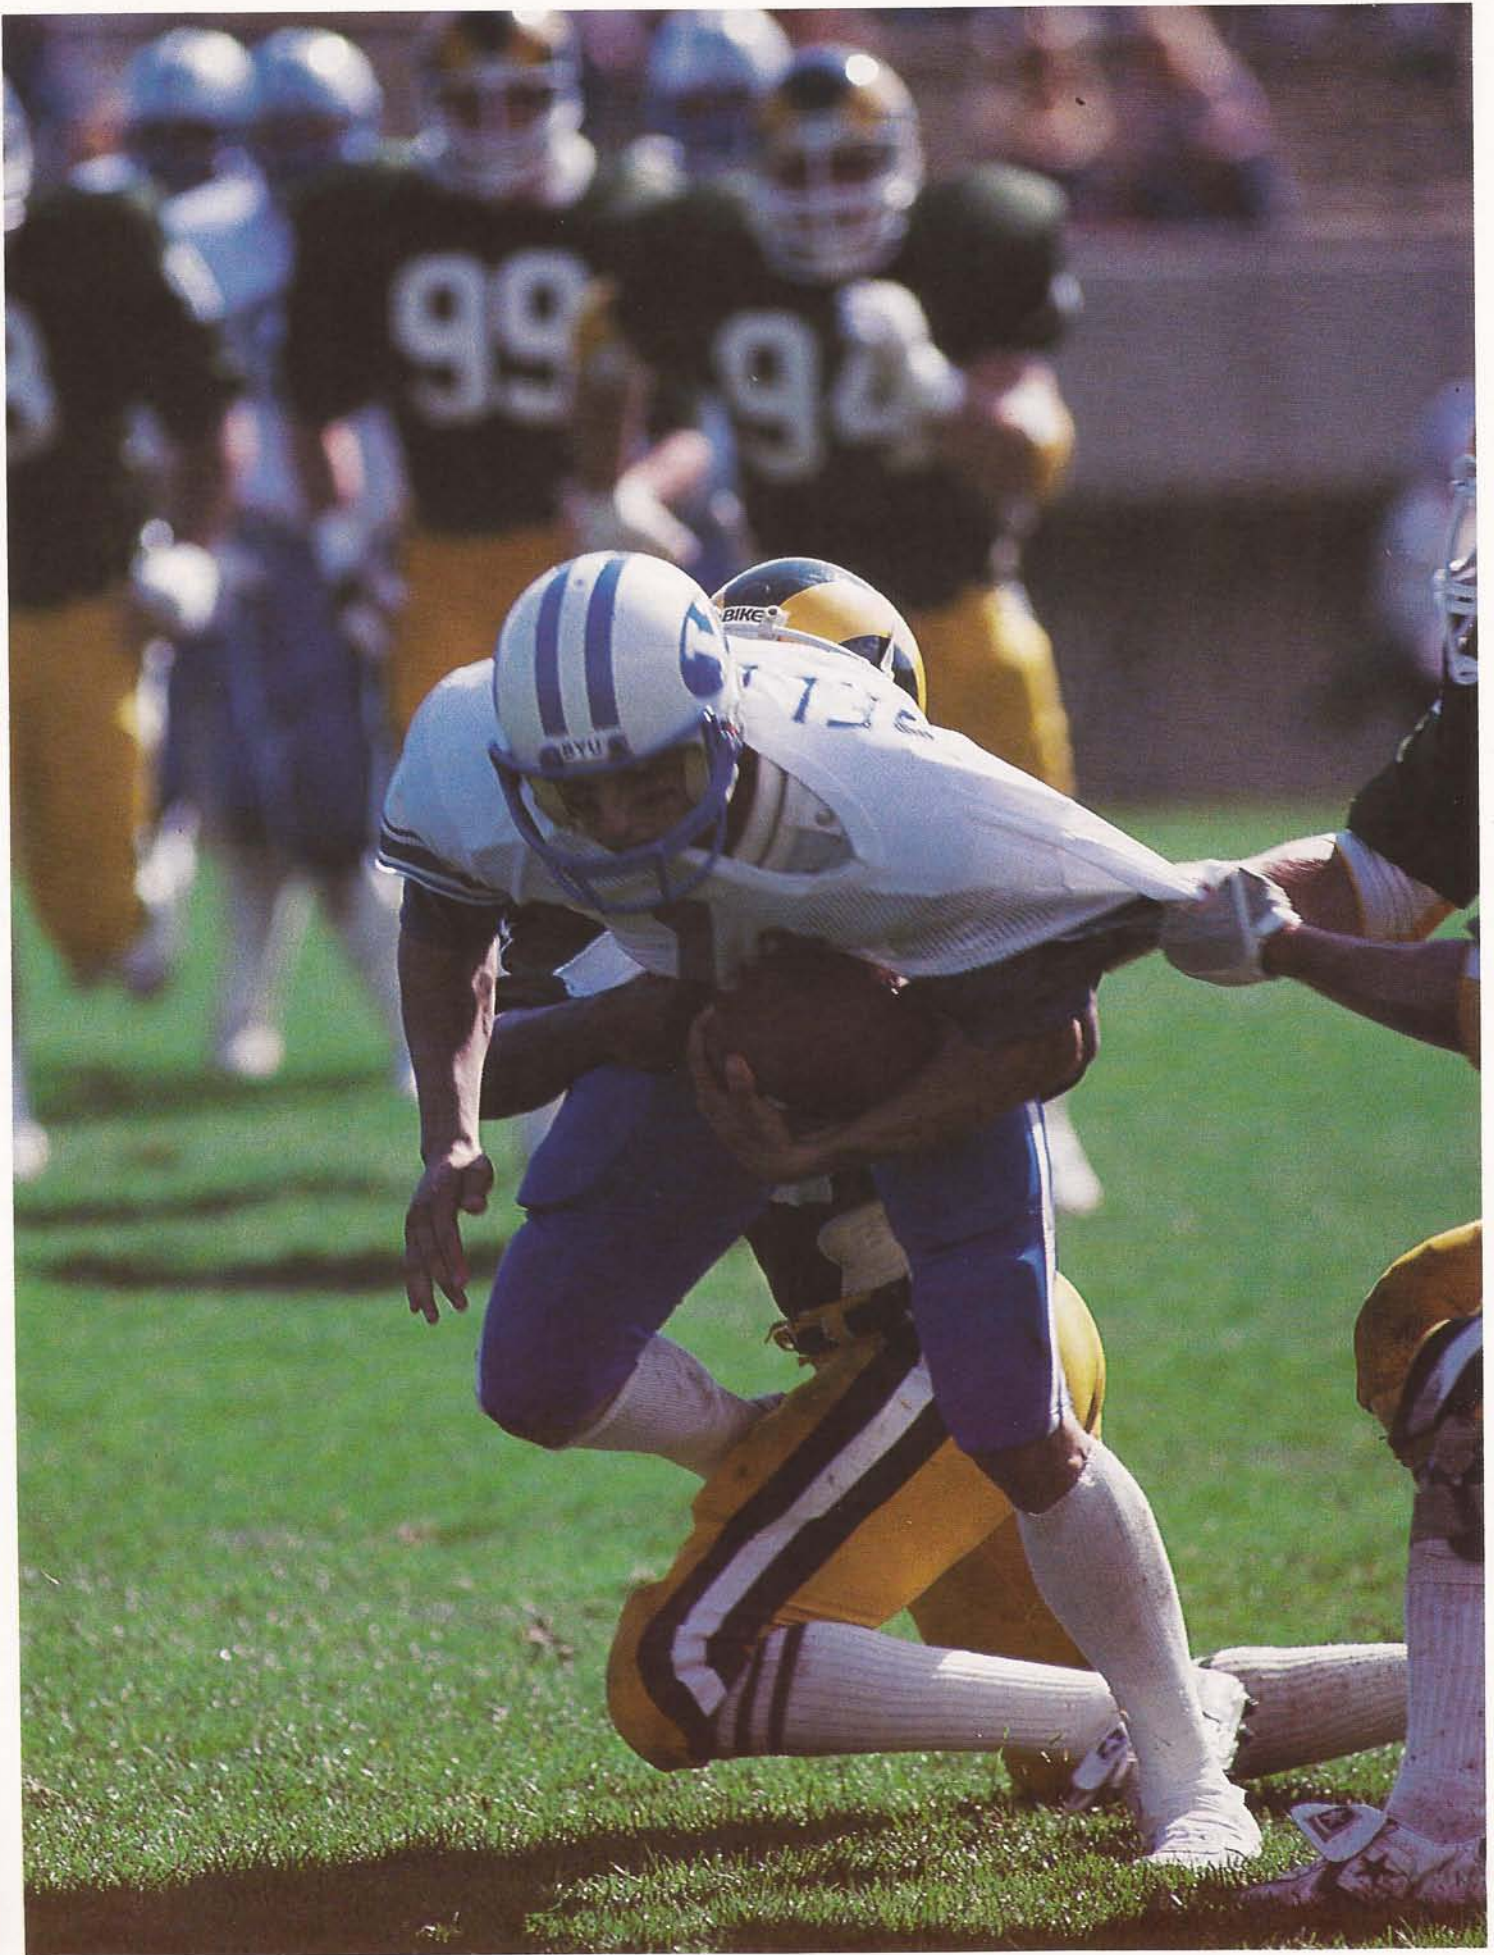

Many of the 1985 highlights focused on the defense, which ended the season ranked 18th in the nation. The Cougars' vicious pass rush was led by Jason Buck and Kurt Gouveia (left), who terrorized every quarterback BYU faced.

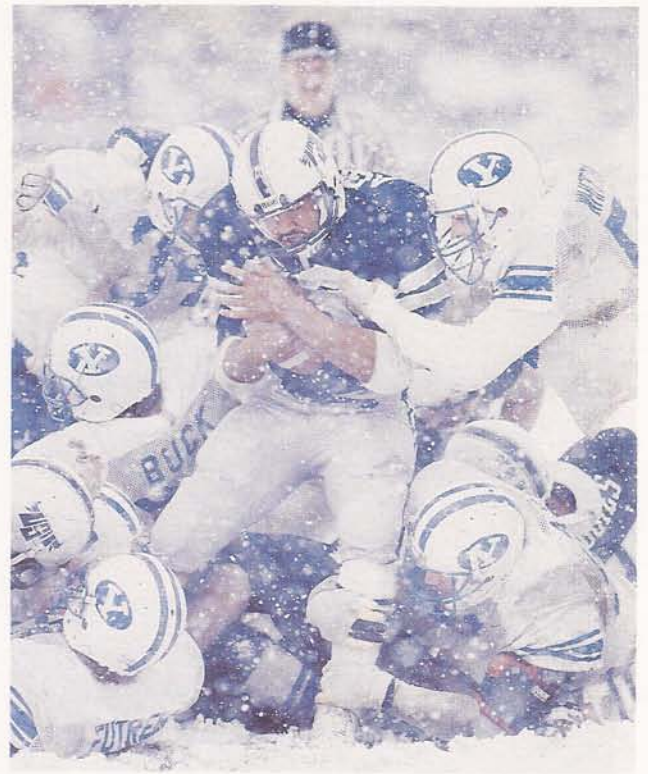

The defense upended a powerful Air Force offense (lower left), limiting the Falcons to only 136 yards rushing and 101 yards passing.

Rodney Thomas (below), led the team with five pass interceptions and seven pass deflections.

Opponents tried everything to stop receiver Mark Bellini, (opposite page), a second team All-American. Despite missing two games because of a separated shoulder, he ended the season ranked 10th nationally in receiving with 5.7 catches per game.

Running back Lakei Heimuli (upper left) showed his versatility by catching 66 passes and rushing for 857 yards.

The Cougars played in weather ranging from 80-plus degrees in Hawaii to blinding snowstorms (above).

BYU showed last season that it could line up head to head with the big name schools. The Cougar defense held UCLA to one touch-down, allowed Washington only three points and gave up only a field goal to Ohio State (below) in the Florida Citrus Bowl.

1985 Season Summary

Never before in the history of NCAA football has there been a season like that experienced by Brigham Young University in 1985. Called "The Year of the Challenge" by some, 1985 produced plenty of moments for BYU fans to savor and a few to forget. All in all, it was another banner year for the Cougars.

Besides the pressure of being defending National Champions and owning the nation's longest win streak (24 games), BYU faced the most grueling regular season schedule in the history of the NCAA. The Cougars opened the 1985 collegiate football season on Aug. 29 against Boston College in a nationally televised game from The Meadowlands in East Rutherford, N.J. They also closed the regular season with a nationally televised game from Hawaii on Dec. 7. It was the first time in NCAA history a team had played 13 regular-season games, and the Cougars responded by winning 11 and losing only two. In addition, the Cougars were invited to play in the Florida Citrus Bowl Dec. 28 against Big-10 power Ohio State.

While critics had blasted BYU's schedule in 1984, no one was critical about the Cougars' 1985 opponents. BYU's first three games were against opponents who had won New Year's Day bowl games the previous year. A fourth opponent, Air Force, also won a bowl game in 1984.

The season started with a bang as BYU thumped Boston College in the Kickoff Classic. Then the Cougars lost a heartbreaker to UCLA in the final minutes of the game. Rebounding the next week, BYU blasted Washington 31-3 and continued climbing in the polls until they re-entered the top 10 by mid-October.

The biggest disappointment of the season came when BYU was upset by a winless UTEP team at El Paso. It was a night when everything backfired for the Cougars. Turnovers, the Cougars' undoing all year, again were the culprit in the loss.

Its back to the wall, BYU could not afford to lose another WAC game and still hope to win the conference. After a couple of confidence-building wins, BYU hosted the Air Force Academy, an undefeated team ranked in the top 10. After falling behind 14-0 on costly turnovers in the first quarter, BYU finally mounted a comeback and won 28-21 in the most dramatic game of the season.

BYU then finished off Utah and Hawaii and accepted a bid to play Ohio State in the Florida Citrus Bowl. Once again the Cougars had climbed into the top 10 and were considered a slight favorite in the game.

Unfortunately, the old nemesis, turnovers, again plagued the Cougars. The Buckeyes won the defensive struggle 10-7.

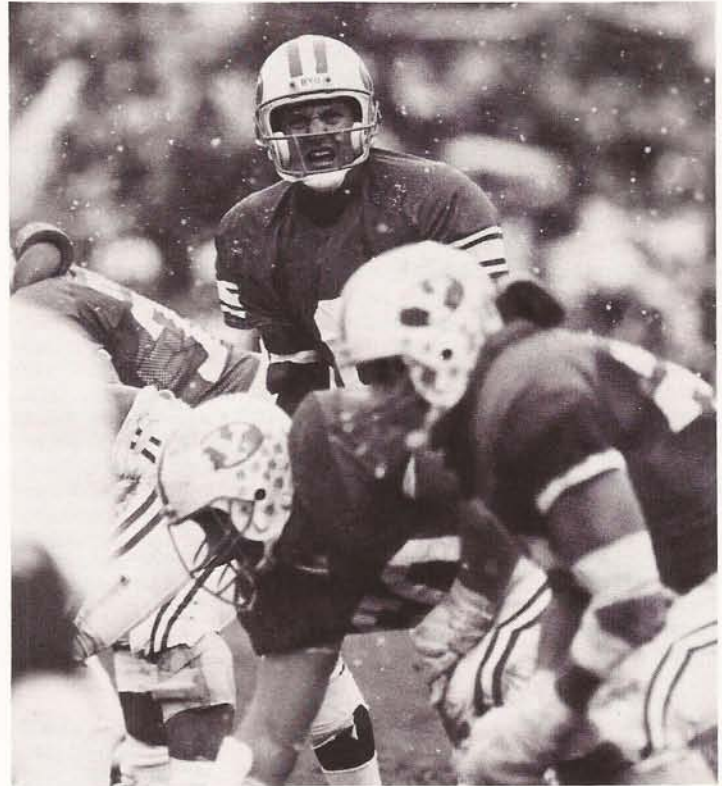

Despite the three close losses, the 1985 season was one of the most successful in BYU history. There were 11 wins. There were national records. There were All-America honors for defensive tackle Jason Buck, wide receiver Mark Bellini and tight end Trevor Molini.

BYU led the nation in passing (354.5 yards per game) and total offense (500.2 yards per game) and ranked 18th in total defense (297.9 yards per game). Robbie Bosco was second in total offense (318.5).

But also there were injuries to wide receiver Glen Kozlowski, Bellini, linebacker Cary Whittingham and several other key players. There were two or three key plays that meant the difference between another undefeated season and an 11-3 season.

BYU 28, Boston College 14 Aug. 29, 1985—evening game (80 degrees, variably cloudy) in Giants Stadium (51,227)

In front of the Eastern press corps and a national television audience, BYU and Heisman Trophy candidate Robbie Bosco defeated Cotton Bowl Champion Boston College despite a heroic one-man performance by Outland Trophy candidate Mike Ruth. The Kickoff Classic at the Meadowlands in New Jersey was the inaugural game for collegiate football, highlighted by Bosco, Ruth and Glen Kozlowski. Kozlowski was sensational with a personal best of 10 catches for 241 yards. He scored one touchdown, but had several clever

Were it not for a few key plays last year, Robbie Bosco and Co. would have had a legitimate shot at a second National Championship.

receptions, including a pivotal 51-yard catch where he out-maneuvered a pair of Eagle defenders in the third quarter. That third quarter scoring drive was set up by BYU safety Mark Sherman who made a diving interception when the score was deadlocked 14-14. Ruth had 12 unassisted tackles and four Bosco sacks, but Bosco's 508 yards passing sufficiently impressed the media to select the Cougar QB for MVP of the game. The game was not without injuries, however, as Cougar guard John Borgia was sidelined early in the game. BYU moved up from 10th to eighth in the Associated Press poll, while UPI did not poll its balloters and a pre-season seventh place remained intact. BYU now 1-0.

UCLA 27, BYU 24

Sept. 7, 1985—evening game (76 degrees, partly cloudy) in Cougar Stadium (65,455)

BYU's 25-game winning streak, which had led the nation, ended before a nationally-televised ESPN audience and its second largest home crowd when a last minute pass was intercepted. Moments before, UCLA's reserve quarterback completed a 62-yard bomb to set up a winning touchdown, but the Bruins stayed in the game from the beginning thanks to the foot of Jon Lee, who booted field goals of 25, 35, 20 and 25-yards. Lee might have hit a fifth field goal had BYU cornerback Rodney Thomas not intercepted a late first half pass in the endzone. Linebacker Cary Whittingham broke his thumb despite leading the team defensively and was lost for several games. Tailback Kelly Smith twisted his knee early in the game, but was replaced by Vai Sikahema who led BYU in rushing and pass receiving. Linebacker Leon White broke a finger early in the game as well. UCLA scored a field goal following a block of a Cougar punt, returned a pass interception for a TD and kicked another field goal following a fourth-quarter BYU fumble. In all, the Bruins capitalized on five Cougar turnovers. BYU ranked 13th in UPI and 16th in AP. BYU now 1-1.

Sept. 14, 1985—afternoon game (81 degrees, clear, mostly sunny, slight wind) in Cougar Stadium (65,476)

BYU's NCAA record 37-game touchdown pass streak ended, but the Cougar rushing game came alive with 90 of fullback Lakei Heimuli's 112 rushing yards coming in the second half. Heimuli also scored two touchdowns, as did fellow backfield starter Vai Sikahema. The Cougar defense snuffed out four Washington fourth-down attempts, two of which were goal line stands. The Huskies' only score came off a 48-yard field goal by Jeff Jaeger. Washington lost three fumbles which didn't lead to any BYU scoring, but the Cougars did score TD's following each of two interceptions thrown by the Huskies. Defensive tackle Jason Buck led the Cougar defenders with five tackles, a fumble caused, a fumble recovery and two quarterback hurries. Linebacker Kurt Gouveia had six unassisted tackles. Two of kicker Gary Webster's three field goal attempts were in vain, one blocked and one awry. BYU ranked 10th in UPI and 13th in AP. BYU now 2-1.

BYU 26, Temple 24

Sept. 21, 1985—evening game (69 degrees, partly cloudy, wind 7 mph) in Veteran Stadium at Philadelphia (31,085)

Four hours prior to the start of this grid contest, Philadelphia's Phillies got a homerun in a losing effort to Chicago's Cubs, but the city of brotherly love received two more homeruns when Temple's football team scored second quarter touchdowns off an 82-yard kickoff return and a 52-yard pass. But a city-wide newspaper strike didn't afford any headlines. The Owls appeared to have the Cougars on the ropes several times, but missed three field goals. BYU had it's own kicking problems with a missed extra point and a missed field goal, but punter Kevin Towle bailed out the Cougars seven times. Penalties, too, dogged BYU and cost BYU at least one touchdown. Among the keys to BYU's winning was a fourth quarter interception by linebacker Ladd Akeo to give the Cougars possession 28 yards away from the goal. The next BYU play after that interception proved to be a costly one—receiver Glen Kozlowski carried a reverse handoff for three yards, but injured his left knee as he was tackled on the Astro-Turf and was lost for several games during the season. Robbie Bosco also bruised his shoulder, an injury which plagued him for several games to come. Tom Tuipulotu rushed three times on that drive and receiver Mark Bellini caught his third TD of the evening. BYU now 3-1 and ranked 12th in UPI and 14th in AP.

BYU 42, Colorado State 7

Oct. 5, 1985—afternoon game (60 degrees, clear) in Hughes Stadium at Ft. Collins, Colo. (26,881)

It took 192 yards total offense before BYU scored its first points of the game in the second quarter. CSU repeatedly dropped eight men into its secondary, so Robbie Bosco had to patiently pick apart the Rams' defense. Bosco did not rush a single play or throw any interceptions and he achieved personal bests in pass completions and percentage to earn WAC offensive player of the week honors. He left the game with nearly 12 minutes remaining. Kelly Smith miraculously returned to the BYU offense following a knee injury. Mark Bellini had three TD catches with Fiesta Bowl observers watching. Defensively, the Cougars held the WAC's leading rusher, Steve Bartalo to 19 of CSU's 25 yards on the ground. BYU nearly got a shutout except for a mishandled punt snap. The deepest CSU penetration into BYU territory aside from the punt miscue were two drives which ended on the Cougar 44-yard line. BYU now 4-1 overall, 1-0 in the WAC, ranked 10th in UPI and 11th in AP.

BYU 28, San Diego State 0

Oct. 12, 1985—afternoon game (57 degrees, overcast, showers) in Cougar Stadium at Provo (65,407)

An unusual seven straight running plays set up BYU's initial touchdown pass in BYU's first shutout since the 1984 New Mexico game. This was BYU's first game of 1985 without a miscue in the kicking game. Running back Tom Tuipulotu had his best game as a Cougar with 45 of his 120 yards rushing coming from a third quarter TD scamper. Wide receiver Mark Bellini suffered a shoulder separation. Linebacker Cary Whittingham returned to starting action. San Diego State mounted two scoring drives, one in each half, which were snuffed out by BYU's defense. In the second quarter immediately following Bosco's second interception, Cougar linebacker Leon White blocked an Aztec pass and then intercepted it on the BYU 21 yardline. And in the fourth quarter, BYU stymied SDSU for five plays, beginning with a first and goal. Cotton and Bluebonnet Bowl observers also saw defensive tackle Jason Buck lead the Cougar defense with a quarterback sack and three quarterback hurries, which earned him WAC defensive player of the week honors. BYU now 5-1 overall, 2-0 in WAC play and ranked eighth in UPI and ninth in AP.

BYU 45, New Mexico 23

Oct. 19, 1985—evening game (57 degrees, partly cloudy) in Lobo Stadium at Albuquerque, N. M. (20,918)

Blitzes in at least 25 different forms enabled New Mexico to grab a rare 14-10 halftime lead. Defensively for BYU, Jeff Sprowls had a pair of interceptions and Jason Buck had five quarterback hurries and a pair of sacks. The Lobos benefited from an interception which they punched in from the three yard line to take a 7-0 lead and a second BYU interception on the UNM four yard line killed the Cougars' chance to equal a first quarter score. BYU got on the scoreboard with a 46-yard fieldgoal from Gary Webster, but UNM countered with a 76-yard TD pass over the middle after a pair of Cougar defenders collided with a referee. Also in the second quarter, tight end Trevor Molini had one of several BYU TD's called back, but the Cougars eventually scored with a TD pass to Kelly Smith. UNM shut down a pair of Cougar efforts when Molini was stopped following a 52-yard reception and when Bosco was intercepted for the third time on the three yard line just before the half. Among the second half highlights was an 89-yard nonscoring pass from Bosco to Smith, who was tackled on the one yard line. The Cougars regained their poise despite a endzone safety because of intentional grounding. When the smoke cleared, Bosco had several personal bests, including a new WAC record for most yards passing. BYU now 6-1 overall, 3-0 in the WAC and ranked seventh in both polls.

UTEP 23, BYU 16

Oct. 26, 1985—evening game (75 degrees, clear) in the Sun Bowl at El Paso, Tex. (22,121)

The 146 yards passing UTEP allowed BYU was the lowest Cougar aerial production in 46 games, and quarterback Robbie Bosco had a career low. UTEP broke BYU's 25-game WAC winning streak and defeated LaVell Edwards for the first time in his 14 years. The Cougars scored quickly off their first five plays with a touchdown pass. UTEP bounced back in the game with a 52-yard pass play, then went ahead on a 50-yard field goal, plus a 100-yard TD return off an intercepted pass. That pass interception for a TD was one of two occasions that BYU had first and goal situations from the three-yard-line and came up empty. UTEP running back John Harvey returned to the lineup after several weeks' absence and rushed for 102 yards. While things were going good for the Miners, the luck was terrible for the Cougars. BYU surrendered 13 points off first half miscues and lost seven points via the kicking game. The Cougars took their initial second half possession to pay dirt with 11 straight running plays. In the third quarter, BYU was one-for-four in passing. The final BYU drive ended deja vu UCLA, with a Hail Mary pass which was ruled an intercepted in the endzone, although later TV replays showed the defender actually dropped the ball. BYU now 6-2 overall, 3-1 in the WAC and ranked 16th in UPI and 17th in AP.

BYU 59, WYOMING 0

Nov. 2, 1985—afternoon game (57 degrees, partly cloudy) in Cougar Stadium (65,243)

BYU hadn't scored two shutouts in a season since 1962. In this game against Wyoming, the Cougars allowed only three of 17 Cowboy possessions to penetrate BYU territory, and they resulted in a punt, a missed field goal and a fumble. Wide receivers Glen Kozlowski and Mark Bellini returned to the starting lineups following several weeks' absence due to injury. BYU scored on its first three possessions. Kozlowski reinjured his knee 11 minutes into the third quarter and didn't have a reception. Fullback Lakei Heimuli rushed for three touchdowns, and Robbie Bosco passed for three TDs. Bosco had his best day ever percentage-wise passing 17 of 21 for 81 percent completion in playing a little over two quarters. Cougar quarterbacks Blaine Fowler and Steve Lindsley also got playing time. Wyoming quarterbacks were sacked seven times. Safety Rob Ledenko intercepted a Cowboy pitch and returned it 27 yards for BYU's final score. BYU now 7-2 overall, 4-1 in the WAC and ranked 18th in both polls.

BYU 44, UTAH STATE 0

Nov. 9, 1985—Noon game (34 degrees, snow storm) in Romney Stadium at Logan, Utah (29,024)

Nearly six inches of snow fell, mostly in the first half before the largest crowd ever to witness this rivalry in Logan. BYU was impressive in two long first-quarter drives which were some of the best of the season, according to LaVell Edwards. Robbie Bosco only played 28 minutes in the first half of the contest. Bosco suffered a left shoulder bruise, but could have returned to the game were it not for the poor weather conditions. Bosco passed for a pair of touchdowns in the first half, while Vai Sikahema rushed for a pair of TDs in the second half. Defensive back Rodney Thomas accounted for two of the Cougars' five interceptions, one in each half. Another interception by Leon White was returned for a 34-yard TD. The Cougars racked up 400 of their 600 yards total offense in the first half. Bosco reported the snow flurries to be so strong that he could only see the lower half of his receivers' bodies—their blue pants. All of the Cougar starters were rested on the sidelines by the fourth quarter, with many of the reserves seeing extensive action. BYU now 8-2 overall following this non-WAC contest and ranked 15th in UPI and 16th in AP.

BYU 28, AIR FORCE ACADEMY 21

Nov. 16, 1985—Noon game (36 degrees, cloudy, overcast) in Cougar Stadium (65,393)

Eleven different bowl representatives were on hand to watch BYU upset undefeated (10-0), fourth-ranked (both polls) Air Force. The Cougars dug an early hole for themselves in the first three minutes of the game when AFA intercepted a pair of Robbie Bosco passes which resulted in easy touchdowns. The Falcons' third TD came off a second quarter interception return as well. Bosco switched his jersey number from 6 to 7 to honor wide receiver Glen Kozlowski. The BYU offense didn't cash in big until the second half. Return specialist Vai Sikahema was a big catalyst for the Cougars. At the beginning of the second half, Sikahema returned a punt 72 yards for a TD and scored another TD on a 69-yard fourth quarter pass from Bosco. Cougar injuries sidelined linebacker Ladd Akeo, tight end Trevor Molini and running back Kelly Smith. The BYU defense was outstanding, stopping the Falcons on 12 offensive thrusts through various stunts. On the Falcons' final drive, it appeared to be deja vu 1982 when another Cougar pass interception was nullified by a roughing the passer penalty. But safety Rob Ledenko leaped to intercept AFA's last-ditch attempt to score six yards away from the endzone. BYU now 9-2 and 5-1 in the WAC, ranked 11th in AP and 13th in UPI.

Nov. 23, 1985—Noon game (28 degrees, cloudy, snow showers) in Cougar Stadium (65,473)

Utah scored first in a game that saw the score tied three times at 7-7, 14-14 and 21-21. BYU fullback Lakei Heimuli scored three touchdowns rushing, including the game-winning 83-yard run with seven minutes left in the game. Heimuli scored the final TD on an off-tackle play immediately following linebacker Kurt Gouveia's interception which stopped a Ute drive on the Cougar 16 yardline. Utah also had some big plays with a second-quarter 100-yard kickoff return by Erroll Tucker and a fourth-quarter flea-flicker lateral which netted a 64-yard TD. Utah had two TDs called back, one on a punt return and the other on a TD pass, due to penalties. BYU converted a Ute fumble and a Ute interception into TDs, while Utah didn't force any Cougar fumbles and fumbled after intercepting a BYU pass. Snow started falling after halftime, and Bosco completed enough passes to secure the NCAA record for completions in a season. The Florida Citrus Bowl extended its invitation to BYU following the game. BYU now 10-2 overall, 6-1 in the WAC ranked ninth in AP and 10th in UPI.

BYU 26, HAWAII 6

Dec. 7, 1985—afternoon game (83 degrees, humidity 61 %, sunny) in Aloha Stadium at Honolulu, Hawaii (47,482)

Heisman trophy results became available before this nationally-televised game on ESPN, but BYU quarterback Robbie Bosco didn't learn of his third-place outcome until after the game. Bosco added three more NCAA records to his tally with a respectable performance against the blitzing Rainbow-Warriors. One of his two touchdown passes came as a result of fancy footwork on an 80-yard first quarter play by tailback Vai Sikahema. Hawaii made it tough on BYU when it blocked the Cougars' extra point. Sikahema, who was named ESPN's player of the game, repeatedly ignited BYU and scored a second 29-yard TD rushing in the third quarter. This game was originally scheduled for the evening of Sept. 28, but because of the ESPN contract it was moved to this December afternoon. Because of the daytime heat, BYU platooned a lot, especially on the defensive line, which recovered two key fumbles. Tight end Trevor Molini played sparingly and linebacker Ladd Akeo did not play at all. The Cougars' Tom Tuipulotu scored the final touchdown after Hawaii mysteriously called timeout with seven seconds remaining. BYU now 11-2 overall and 7-1 in the WAC, thus tying for the conference championship. BYU ranked ninth in AP and UPI.

Cougar Bowl History

1985 Florida Citrus Bowl

The 40th Florida Citrus Bowl was to be one of the top offensive showdowns of the season's postseason classics. After all, it pitted the pass-efficient 11-2 Cougars against the perennial midwestern powerhouse Buckeyes at 8-3. The Florida classic was also to be the showcase for two of the nation's top offensive players: BYU quarterback Robbie Bosco and Ohio St. tailback Keith Byars.

Funny how things work out. The only touchdowns scored in the 10-7 Buckeye victory were made by a noseguard off an interception and a reserve wide receiver on a broken play. On the Buckeye's first offensive series, Byars, the nation's leading rusher in 1984 with 1,764 yards, aggravated the foot injury that had limited him to just 208 yards during the season. The preseason Heisman Trophy favorite finished the day with five yards on two carries. Bosco didn't fare much better, throwing four interceptions on the day, including two in the game's waning moments.

As a team, BYU turned the ball over six times, none coming at very opportune times. Return specialist Vai Sikahema returned a punt 38 yards to the OSU 23, but fumbled on the play. Luckily, the Cougars recovered the ball with no harm done. However, on the very next play, Sikahema fumbled a handoff from Bosco and this time was not so lucky: linebacker Thomas Johnson recovered the ball for the Buckeyes.

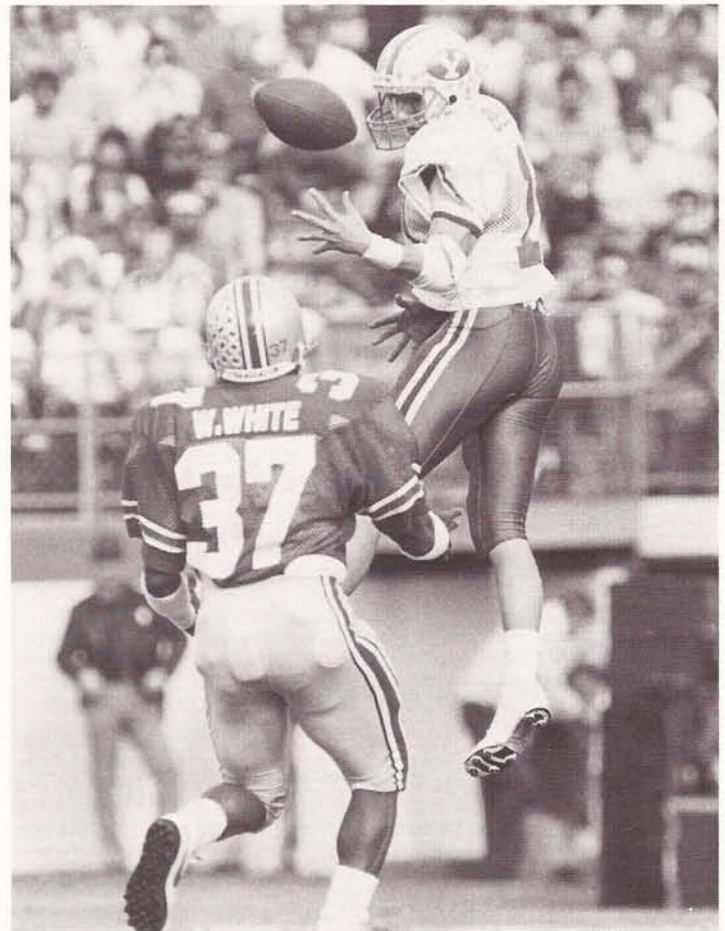

Rich Spangler tallied the first points of the game on a 47-yard field goal to give Ohio St. a 3-0 lead early in the second period. The BYU offense, which had seemed dormant for the first quarter and one-half was in high gear, driving the ball to the Buckeye six yard-line with under five minutes to play in the half. But Bosco's pass was intercepted by Greg Rogan to apparently end the drive. However, the Buckeye defense was hit with a facemasking penalty on the play, thereby negating the interception and giving the Cougars new life. On the next play, Sikahema took the ball up the middle for what appeared to be the go-ahead touchdown. It was ruled, however, that he had coughed up the ball before crossing the goal line and another opportunity was thwarted.

With three minutes to play in the half, a 22-yard pass reception by Mark Bellini, a 15-yard run by fullback Lakei Heimuli and runs of three and eight yards by Tom Tuipulotu gave BYU the ball at the Buckeye 29. After an intentional grounding call against BYU and a 15-yard pass to Bellini put the ball at the 38, Bosco rolled to his left, then whirled right and threw to wide receiver David Miles cutting across the middle of the field. Miles grabbed the ball over his shoulder in the right corner of the end zone to give BYU a 7-3 halftime advantage.

The luck that appeared to have sided with the Cougars did an about-face when Bosco's pass was intercepted by Larry Kolic early in the second half and returned 14 yards for an Ohio St. touchdown and a 10-7 lead.

The circumstances seemed to be leading the game into yet another bowl-game miracle scenario for the Cougars. But it was not to be. After a nine-play drive gave the Cougars the ball at the Buckeye 37 yard-line, safety Terry White wrestled the ball away from receiver Scott Norberg in the end zone to kill the drive. Then with 10 seconds to play and the ball at the Ohio St. 30, Bosco fired one last miscue—his fourth interception of the game—into the waiting arms of William White, who was camped under it in the end zone. The play preserved the victory and gave the Buckeyes their second bowl-game win over the Cougars in four years.

On the day, Bosco completed 26 passes out of an arm-wearying 50 attempts and was sacked twice. On the other side of the coin, Ohio St. quarterback Jim Karsatos found life in the pocket to be as difficult as his BYU counterpart. Karsatos, the nation's fifth-rated passer, completed 19 of 35 passes for 196 yards, but found himself running from the persistent Cougar defense all day. With Byars out of the lineup, the backup tandem of John Wooldridge and Vince

Mark Bellini jumps in the air to snag a pass from Robbie Bosco in last year's Florida Citrus Bowl in Orlando.

Workman were unexpected thorns in the side of the BYU defense. The two combined for 115 yards (92 by Wooldridge) to keep the ball out of the hands of the Cougar offense and use up valuable time off the clock late in the game.

Holiday Bowl VII, 1984

BYU 24, Michigan 17

Dec. 21, San Diego

Holiday Bowl VII lived up to all the glamour and excitement of the previous six bowls, plus it had a new dimension—national championship luster—thanks to BYU's undefeated, untied season and No. 1 ranking. The 24-17 Cougar victory marked the first time in years that a non-New Year's Day bowl game determined the national championship.

The contest was played in typical Holiday Bowl fashion. After a scoreless first quarter in which Cougar quarterback Robbie Bosco was forced to the sideline with an injured knee and ankle, the game began to develop drama. BYU scored first with 8:37 left in the first half on a five-yard run by Kelly Smith. The touchdown was set up when a limping Bosco returned to the lineup and engineered an 80-yard scoring drive.

The Wolverines responded by putting together an 80-yard drive of their own, culminating on Rick Rogers' five-yard touchdown run up the middle. The PAT tied the score at 7-7. The tie was short-lived, however, as a 31-yard field goal by Lee Johnson with time running out in the first half gave BYU a 10-7 lead.

Midway through the third period, Michigan went on top for the first time at 14-10 on a 10-yard scoring strike from Bob Zurbrugg to Bob Perryman. The Wolverines added to their lead when Bob Bergeron nailed a 32-yard field goal to make it 17-10 with 14:14 to play in the game. The Cougar offense then produced an 80-yard drive that culminated with a seven-yard Bosco-to-Glen Kozlowski touchdown pass to tie the game at 17-17 with 10:51 to go.

Bosco's 13-yard scoring toss to Smith with 1:23 remaining made it 24-17 and clinched a 13-0 season and the Cougars' first-ever national championship. For the game, BYU passed for 371 yards and rushed for another 112. The Cougar defense, meanwhile, held Michigan to 120 yards rushing and 80 yards passing. Attendance: 61,243.

Holiday Bowl VI, 1983

BYU 21, Missouri 17

Dec. 23, San Diego

Yet another chapter was added to the saga of impossible, thrilling Holiday Bowl finishes when BYU defeated Missouri 21-17. The game was billed as a classic matchup between Missouri's stubborn defense and BYU's explosive offense, led by quarterback Steve Young. For most of the game the defenses were in control. Missouri held BYU to just 167 yards of total offense in the first half and gave up only one touchdown to the Cougars. BYU's defense, however, allowed the Tigers only 157 yards of offense and 10 points in the first half. Missouri got its first-half points on a two-yard run by Eric Drain and a 37-yard field goal by Brad Burditt. BYU's touchdown came on a 10-yard quarterback draw by Young. In the second half, Young hit Eddie Stinnett with a 33-yard pass. But Missouri came right back with another two-yard plunge by Drain. A valiant goal-line stand by BYU's defense gave the offense the ball on the six yard line with 3:57 left in the game. The Cougars marched down field until, with a first-and-10 situation on the Missouri 15 yard line, Young handed the ball to Stinnett, who faked a sweep and lofted the ball back to Young. The ball barely cleared the outstretched hands of Missouri's Bobby Bell, but Young hauled in the throw and rambled into the end zone. The extra point gave BYU the lead 21-17 with only 23 seconds left. Kyle Morrell intercepted Missouri's desperation pass. Young finished the game 24 of 36 passing for 314 yards and three interceptions. Casey Tiernalu picked up 57 yards on 27 carries. Attendance: 51,480.

Holiday Bowl V, 1982

Ohio State 47, BYU 17

Dec. 17, San Diego

The Cougars had their two-game Holiday Bowl win streak snapped by Ohio State, 47-17, in a game that took the fun out of the usually raucous affair in San Diego. The BYU bubble burst at the outset of the third quarter, when the Buckeyes reeled off 17 unanswered points, while BYU only got one snap...an interception at that. The OSU damage came mainly on the ground, as Buckeye runners rolled up 329 yards en route to their seventh consecutive win. Tim Spencer was the main gun for the Bucks, as he blew through the Cougar defense for 167 yards, including a record-setting 61-yard touchdown run in the second quarter that put OSU up 10-7. As usual, the BYU quarterback rolled up impressive marks, but the Cougars had trouble making points out of Steve Young's 341 yards passing of 27 of 45 accuracy. The Cougars turned the ball over to OSU three times inside the 30 and saw the Bucks convert each turnover into a score. The Cougars' two touchdowns were at each end of the game, with the first, a seven-yard strike to Neil Balholm, coming in the opening quarter and the final tally, a 16-yard Young-to-Hudson connection, in the final stanza. Attendance: 52,533.

Holiday Bowl IV, 1981

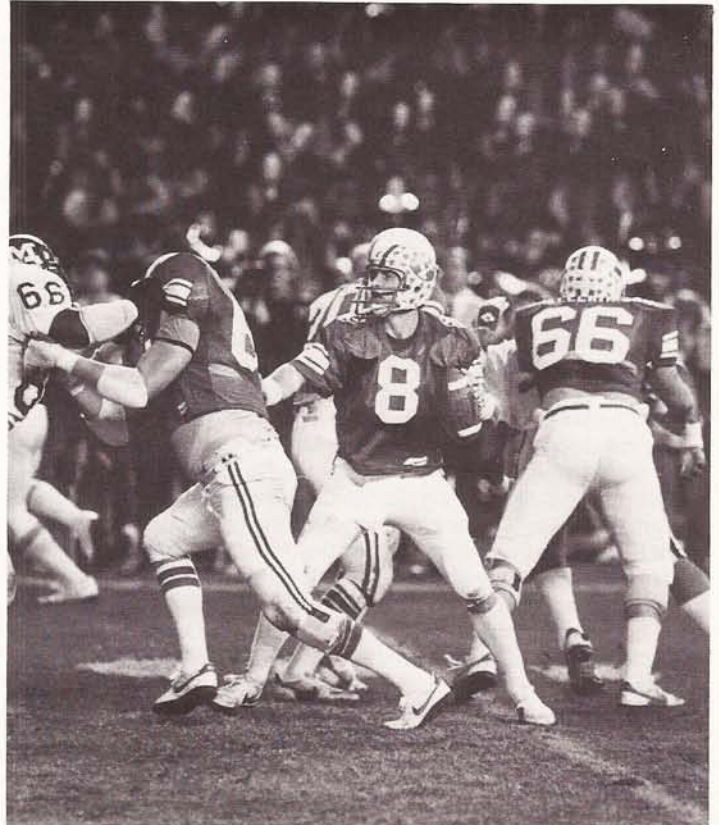

BYU 38, Washington St. 36

Dec. 18, San Diego

The 1981 edition of the Holiday Bowl fit the mold of its predecessors. This time it was the Cougars of BYU versus the Cougars of Washington State playing before a crowd of 52,419. Again it was like two different games. BYU held a 24-7 lead at halftime, then pushed the score to 31-7, as Tom Holmoe intercepted a pass and returned it 35 yards to give the WAC team a comfortable 31-7 edge. But as the second half progressed, it appeared BYU would be the come-from-behind victim in this one. With only 59 seconds left in the third period, WSU brought the score to 31-28, and from there the team from Provo had to hold on for its life. In a crucial third-and-12 situation on BYU's 18 yard line with 30 seconds remaining in the third period, McMahon began completing passes that covered 82 yards and put BYU in the end zone again to stretch the lead to 38-28. Statistically, it was a typical McMahon game: 27 of 43 with no interceptions, 342 yards and three touchdowns. But he will be remembered most, perhaps, for turning a fumbled snap into a carry for a first down. Tight end Gordon Hudson had seven receptions for 126 yards and a TD.

Holiday Bowl III, 1980

BYU 46, Southern Methodist 45 Dec. 19, San Diego

One pundit said the 1980 Holiday Bowl was actually two ball games—the first a contest that lasted most of four quarters, the other that was of four minutes duration. SMU seemed in control the first game, while the Cougars, behind 20 points with only minutes remaining, surged to a stunning 46-45 win. Unfortunately, many fans either turned off their TV sets or left the stadium in San Diego before the "second game" began. For 56 minutes the Mustangs taught the Cougars a lesson in running the football. The Mustang's two great runners, Craig James and Eric Dickerson, rushed for a combined total of 335 yards. With 4:07 remaining in the game, the score was 45-25, SMU. From there, the Cougars connected on a TD pass, recovered an on-side kick, scored on a one-yard scamper by Scott Phillips, blocked a punt and, finally (with three second left on the clock), scored on a "Hail Mary" pass of 46 yards from Jim McMahon to Clay Brown. With the score tied, Kurt Gunther kicked the extra point to send BYU fans streaming onto the field. Statistically, McMahon completed 32 of 49 passes for 446 yards. It may have been the most exciting bowl game ever.

Holiday Bowl II, 1979

Indiana 38, BYU 37 Dec. 21, San Diego

The 1979 season ended with BYU leading the nation in three major categories: scoring, passing and total offense. Moreover, the Cougars were one of the few undefeated, untied teams in the nation with an 11-0 mark. Those kinds of credentials, plus their national rankings in the polls (9th UPI and AP), made the Mountain Cats favorites over the at-large entry, Indiana. It was BYU's first-ever meeting with a Big Ten school, and the net result was one of the most exciting bowl games of the season. The opportunistic Hoosiers played BYU even in the first quarter, then carried a 21-17 lead at the half. BYU spurted ahead in the third period, 34-31, on a 15-yard pass from All-American Marc Wilson to fullback Eric Lane. But midway through the fourth quarter, Indiana's Tim Wilber returned a punt 62 yards to push the Hoosiers ahead 38-37. With 2:06 remaining, the Cougars moved the ball 69 yards to the Indiana 10 yard line. Then, with 11 seconds left, Brent Johnson missed a 27-yard field goal that would have made the score 40-38. Marc Wilson was voted the MVP on offense (28 of 43 for 380 yards) and Indiana's cornerback, Tim Wilber, won the honor on defense. Attendance: 52,200.

Holiday Bowl, 1978

Navy 21, BYU 16 Dec. 22, San Diego

The inaugural game of the Holiday Bowl pitted two teams with local drawing power, the Naval Academy and Brigham Young University. Despite chilly temperatures, (for San Diego that is), the two teams engaged in a hard-hitting battle. The Cougars had a 16-3 lead at one point, even though the score was 9-3 at the end of the first half. Defense dominated the first two quarters. Brent Johnson put the Cougars on the scoreboard first with a 33-yard field goal with 8:26 left in the first quarter. But Navy's Bob Tata boomed through a 40-yard field goal to tie the core at 3-3. Jim McMahon sent the Cougars ahead with a 10-yard pass to Mike Chronister, but Johnson missed the extra point. McMahon ran another in from two-yards out in the third period before the Middies took charge. Navy scored two field goals in the fourth quarter, but it was a 65-yard pass to Phil McConkey that did the Cougars in. Some 48,003 witnessed the game in person. McConkey was named Best Offensive Player, BYU's Tom Enlow won Best Defensive Player honors for the game. Navy finished the year with a 9-3 record, BYU with a 9-4 mark.

Tangerine Bowl, 1976

Oklahoma St. 49, BYU 21 Dec. 18, Orlando

Powerful Oklahoma State, sparked by All-American Terry Miller (173 yards rushing on 23 carries), used four pass interceptions and a fumble recovery to capture the Tangerine Bowl contest. Defensively, the Cowboys yielded only 46 yards rushing. The Cougars, however, stayed close in the first half, which ended 28-14. But Dave Lowry returned the second-half kickoff 102 yards (a Tangerine Bowl record) to bring the score to 21-28. The crowd of 37,812 fans saw the two teams roll up 70 points between them. Quarterback Gifford Nielsen completed 23 of 34 passes for 209 yards and one touchdown, but the Cougars could only roll up 255 total yards to 402 for OSU. BYU's record was 9-2 prior to the Tangerine Bowl game.

Fiesta Bowl, 1974

Oklahoma State 16, BYU 6 Dec. 28, Tempe

Competing in their first post-season bowl game ever, BYU played Western Athletic Conference host to the Cowboys of Oklahoma State before a crowd of 50,878. The Cougars got off to a quick start with two field goals during the first quarter before All-WAC quarterback Gary Sheide was injured in the last moments of the first quarter. He was replaced by junior reserve Mark Giles. The Cowboys took the scoring lead during the second quarter on a TD run around left end, so the halftime score was OSU 7, BYU 6. OSU regained possession of the ball on the Cougars' 17 yard line after intercepting a Giles-to-Tom Toolson pass, but was unable to convert on the turnover. A field goal from 32 yards out put the Cowboys in front 10-7 at the end of the third quarter. With 1:14 remaining in the game, OSU scored another TD on a 40-yard halfback pass to complete the scoring. The Cougars outgained the Cowboys in total yardage 301 to 214. Giles was 11 out of 26 for 138 yards. BYU's record was 7-3-1 prior to the Fiesta Bowl.

An Historical View

Until the last couple of years, there were always those who claimed BYU could never become a legitimate national power in football. They cited drawbacks such as geographic location, lack of television exposure, weak schedules, lack of media coverage, etc.

Indeed, being recognized as one of the country's top programs—not to mention winning a national championship—seemed out of the realm of possibility for the Provo, Utah, school. After all, it was little more than 20 years ago that the Cougars won their first Western Athletic Conference football title. And the team had managed only 171 victories and 16 winning seasons before the 1972 season.

It was in 1972, however, that BYU's football program took a drastic turn for the better. LaVell Edwards was named head coach in that year, and things began to happen. Since then, BYU has won 129 games and been to 10 bowl games. Eleven times BYU has won the WAC title under Edwards' direction, the last 10 in a row. And the Cougars won their first National Championship in 1984.

Things weren't always so rose in BYU's program, however. Football got its beginning at BYU in 1922. That first season, BYU won only one game and scored a total of 10 points during the season. Now, BYU is traditionally one of the nation's leaders in scoring and offense.

It was near the turn of the century when football was introduced at BYU, but a fatality prompted its discontinuance. The game returned in 1922 and, minus three years during World War II, the Cougars have played a total of 59 seasons. BYU initially joined ranks with the old Rocky Mountain Conference and later became part of the Mountain States, Skyline and Western Athletic Conferences.

Some of the more noted athletes who have helped propel BYU into the national limelight have been quarterbacks. Virgil Carter (1966), Gary Sheide (1974), Gifford Nielsen (1976), Marc Wilson (1979), Jim McMahon (1981), Steve Young (1983) and Robbie Bosco (1984-85) have all left their mark on BYU's record books. Nielsen, Wilson, McMahon, Young and Bosco were named All-American quarterbacks, and each seemed to erase marks set by his predecessor. McMahon, Wilson and Bosco were third-place finishers in the Heisman Trophy balloting, while Steve Young finished second. Both McMahon and Young were recipients of the Davey O'Brien Award, given to the outstanding collegiate quarterback.

While passing has been the name of the game at BYU since Edwards took over, there also have been some impressive running backs. Eldon "The Phantom" Fortie (1961-62), a single-wing back, won All-America honors in 1962. "Fleet Pete" VanValkenburg (1970-71), led the nation rushing his senior year and was second-team All-America. Fullback John Ogden (1964-66) was the leading rusher in the WAC for three consecutive years. And fullback Todd Christensen (1975-77) did such a good job running with and catching the football he later became an all-pro tight end. He was the leading receiver on BYU's team for three years.

A good passing team must have good personnel on the offensive line, and BYU has had its share of honors recipients in that area. Gordon Gravelle (1970), Paul Howard (1972), Brad Oates (1973-75), Orrin Olsen (1972-75), Tom Bell (1974-79), Bart Oates (1977-82) and Trevor Matich (1979-84) are just a few standouts.

There also have been several outstanding tight ends at BYU, most recently Clay Brown (1978-80), Gordon Hudson (1979-83) David Mills (1980-84) and Trevor Molini (1985).

Top defensive players include Wayne Baker (1972-74), Paul Linford (1972-74), Mekeli Ieremia (1975-77), Glen Titensor (1978-80), Glen Redd (1976-80), Kyle Whittingham (1979-81), Todd Shell (1980-83), Kyle Morrell (1980-84) and Jason Buck (1985).

At various times in the last 15 years, the Cougars have had some great return specialists. Chris Farasopoulos (1968-70), the Galloping Greek, led the nation in punt returns and set two NCAA records. Golden Richards (1970-71) is still listed as a holder of several NCAA records.

Virgil Carter, a scrambler, was BYU's first All-American quarterback.

Cougar Club

Celebrating its 22nd year of service to BYU athletic teams and coaches, the BYU Cougar Club is one of the nation's most prestigious and effective booster organizations. Its membership of over 3,600 also makes Cougar Club one of the nation's largest booster clubs.

"Most of our members are avid sports fans and die-hard Cougar supporters," explains Dale R. McCann, Cougar Club executive director. "However, all our members agree that affecting the lives of young male and female athletes in a positive way is our first priority."

One of the ways Club members provide support for BYU athletes is through the freshman sponsor program. In this program, new freshmen and junior college transfer athletes are welcomed into the homes of local Cougar Club members. The idea is to give the athletes a "home-away-from-home," and to help them feel comfortable in Provo and at BYU.

Other Cougar Club services include funding recruiting trips and honoring present and past athletes at the annual Awards Banquet and through the BYU Athletic Hall of Fame.

Cougar Club members donate annually to the BYU athletic program. There are numerous donor levels, ranging from $100 to $1,000. Lifetime memberships also are available. In return, contributors receive parking passes from home games, football and basketball press guides, the satisfaction of helping to build athletic excellence at BYU, and other benefits.

Interested persons are invited to visit the Cougar Club room (West side of Cougar Stadium), where they can view the Athletic Hall of Fame, and meet Cougar Club officials. They may also write or call: BYU Cougar Club, Alumni House, Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah 84602, (801) 378-2717.

KBYU TV

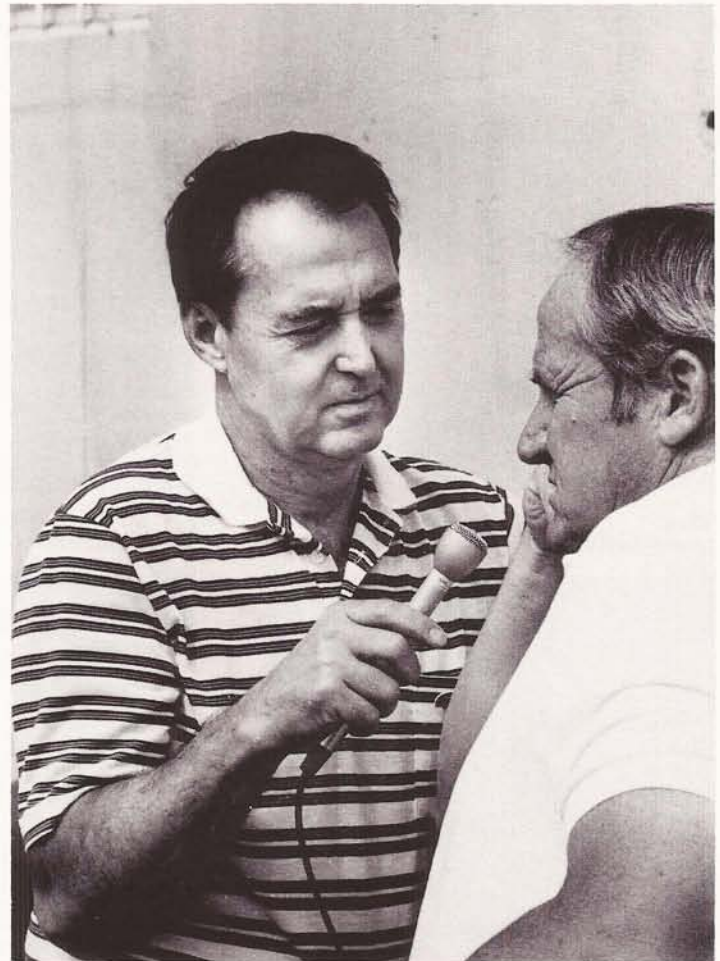

The tradition continues . . . KBYU and Cougar football. Again this year, KBYU Television will provide delayed broadcasts of all home and selected road football games. With Jay Monsen doing the play-by-play, the Channel 11 broadcasts offer the insightful analysis that viewers have come to expect.

An experienced sports crew and state-of-the-art equipment have enabled KBYU to develop a reputation for outstanding coverage of football, basketball and other major "remote" events in the Western U.S. At Cougar games, KBYU regularly provides feed for visiting television stations and networks, special satellite broadcasts and Bonneville International Corporation's sports broadcasts in South America.

The KBYU remote production system includes five Ikegami HL 79E cameras; a 2 ME, 16 input Grass Valley 1680 switcher; dual channel Chyron 4100 graphics system; shotgun sideline microphones; and other equipment all operated from KBYU's 48-foot-long aluminum body remote production trailer. Using this system, KBYU is accustomed to providing tailor-made television for as many as six different clients at one time.

Questions concerning availability of the KBYU remote facilities can be directed to one of the following:

Jay Sumsion, KBYU Production Manager, (801) 378-6903
Russ Merrill, KBYU Sports Producer/Director, (801) 378-7032
Lynn Edwards, KBYU Engineer, (801) 378-6889
Jay Monsen, Asst. Sports Info. Director, (801) 378-4906

Paul James has been at the microphone calling BYU football and basketball games for the past 18 years.

KSL Radio

For more than a quarter of a century, BYU fans in the Intermountain West and other parts of the country have been following Cougar athletics via 50,000-watt KSL Radio (1160 on the AM dial), located in Salt Lake City.

"The Voice" of the Cougars has been play-by-play man Paul James, a veteran broadcaster with 34 years' experience behind him. A University of Utah graduate, James entered broadcasting in 1950. For six years, he broadcast Utah basketball and football games before joining the staff at KSL Radio and Television in July of 1965. James has been at the microphone calling BYU games for the past 18 years.

Live broadcasts of football games can be heard on the following Cougar Network: KID (590 AM), Idaho Falls, Idaho; KBAR (1230 AM), Burley, Idaho; KART (1400 AM), Jerome, Idaho; KCID (1490 AM) Caldwell-Boise, Idaho; KWIK, Pocatello, Idaho; KNEU (1250 AM), Roosevelt, Utah; KUTA (790 AM), Blanding, Utah; KBRE (940 AM), Cedar City, Utah; KZEZ, St. George, Utah; KRFM (96.5 FM), Showlow, Arizona. Stations also will carry the games in Phoenix, Arizona, and Las Vegas, Nevada.

For advertising or other information concerning the BYU network, contact: Jan Bagley, KSL Radio, (801) 575-7600.

Home Game Coverage

Requests for press box and photography credentials should be made no later than a week prior to the game. These credentials will be issued to working members of the media only. Requests should be directed to the SID Office, 30, SFH, Brigham Young University, Provo, UT 84602. Phone (801) 378-4911.

Stadium Location, Parking

BYU's stadium is located on the northwest corner of the campus, just off Canyon Road and University Parkway (1430 North) in Provo. Press parking is in Lot #2, immediately west of the stadium. Parking for the media will also be issued on request.

Press Box

Several telephones (campus extensions) will be available in the main area of the press box. In the past we have had sufficient phones to meet the needs of the media. However, if guaranteed availability is desired, visitors may wish to order their own telephones. One or two telecopiers will also be available on a first-come-first-serve basis, and the press box staff will be glad to assist in transmitting copy and statistics.

Post-Game Interviews

With three minutes remaining on the game clock, press box representatives from both teams will take the media by elevator to the ground level for post-game interviews with the coaches and players. Locker room passes will be issued before leaving the press box, and there will be the usual mandatory 10-minute cooling off period before entering the dressing room. For those unable to get to the locker room, quotes from both coaches will be available as soon after the game as possible.
