SEASON OUTLOOK

Optimism runs high for the 1994 season after a strong bowl performance against Big Ten co-champion Ohio State and several additions for a defense which was plagued by injuries a year ago.

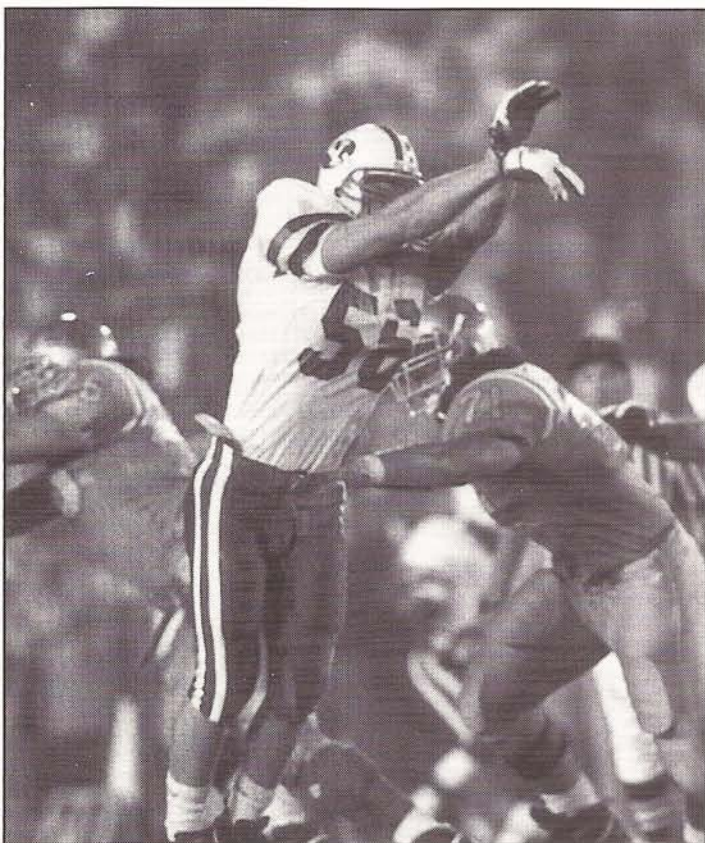

On the offensive side, quarterback John Walsh--fifth in the nation in total offense--returns to direct the attack and has a good supporting cast.

The schedule opens with four Western Athletic Conference games, the same situation which proved helpful last season because the Cougars won all four and wound up tying for the championship.

This year's schedule includes a visit to Notre Dame, the first trip to Fresno State since the Bulldogs joined the WAC, the first game with Arizona State since the Sun Devils left the league in 1978 and a nationally televised game with San Diego State.

Another returnee is BYU's veteran coach, LaVell Edwards, who starts his 23rd season with 197 career victories. That makes him fifth among active coaches in wins and eighth in winning percentage (.727).

Coach Edwards has directed BYU to 16 straight bowl games (18 overall in 22 years) and to 16 WAC championships. The Cougars are going for their sixth straight piece of the crown after a 10-year streak between 1976-85.

Defensive End Travis Hall

There will be two changes on the sideline for BYU. Barry Lamb from San Diego State and DeWayne Walker (Utah State) will combine with the secondary in replacing long-time assistant head coach Dick Felt. Ken Schmidt will have all the linebackers as Claude Bassett accepted a high school head coaching job in Texas.

Last year, the six teams which defeated BYU sent 27 players to the NFL, 10 from Notre Dame and five each from Fresno State, Ohio State and UCLA. Utah had two.

First-round selections were Ohio State's Dan Wilkinson (1), San Diego State's Marshall Faulk (2), Fresno State's Trent Dilfer (6), Notre Dame's Bryant Young (7), UCLA's Jamir Miller (10), Notre Dame's Aaron Taylor (16) and Notre Dame's Jeff Burris (27).

And the Holiday Bowl loss, while frustrating, restored some pride against a team which won its first eight games to rank third in the nation. Ohio State's only loss was in the final game of the regular season and the Buckeyes finished 10th in the CNN/USA Today (coaches) poll and 11th in the Associated Press poll.

The Cougars battled to a 21-21 tie at halftime and, in the second half, BYU had first downs at the Ohio State 20, the eight, the 25 and the six-yard lines. The defense, hampered by injuries throughout the final two months of the season, was near full strength for the first time.

Bright spots from the bowl effort carried over to spring practice, which pleased Edwards and his staff. "Obviously, after last season our chief concern was defense," Edwards explains. "We recruited heavily for defense and it worked out well. The junior college players have proven to be very good additions."

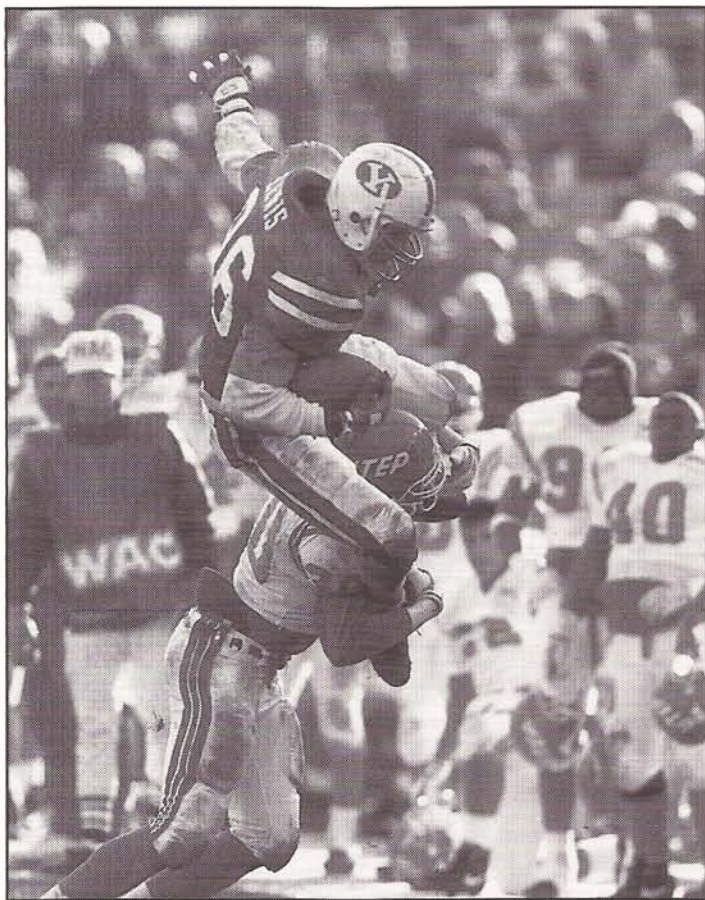

Here's a look at the 1994 Cougars by positions:

Defense

Defensive Backs

Three of the four starters who finished the season return but there's almost no experience behind them. Patrick Mitchell, who was bothered with ankle problems last season, will be starting for the third year at right cornerback and "has worked hard," according to Edwards.

Jack Damuni, who had three of the team's five interceptions last year, will be back at strong safety and Cory Cook returns at weak safety. Both earned starting nods midway through last season. The other cornerback is redshirt freshman Greg Steele, who nearly lost his life in an automobile accident. He bounced back and was able to play and win the starting nod in the spring.

Three junior college cornerbacks weren't in school during the spring but could make an immediate impact. Dermell Reed from Laney College was a late signee. Jamie Cook was a standout at Ricks College last season and Trinity Valley's Tyrone Marshall was spectacular in his team's bowl victory over Ricks. Lettermen Jon Pollock and Scott Merkley are the backup safeties while redshirt freshmen Philip Giordano and Dewayne Nobles are cornerbacks.

Defensive Line

"Quicker and better pass rushers" is the way Coach Edwards describes his defensive line after spring practice. Key additions are redshirt Mike Ulufale and transfer John Raass, both tackles. They join Greg Pitts, who has started the past three years, letterman Duaine Williams and redshirt Larry Harmer.

Randy Brock, also a starter for the past three seasons, will stay at end, where he played most of last year. Travis Hall is back at the other end and they will have relief from Matt Redden and Brian Hughes, moved from linebacker. Coach Edwards is pleased with the intensity of what should be the most improved area on the team.

Linebackers

There are a lot of new faces but the Cougars think this group will keep improving greatly from week to week. The only starter back is Shay Muirbrook in the middle. He has competition from Stan Raass, one of the Tongan twins.

On the strong side will be either Jim Freeland from Ricks or Scott Albrecht from Grand Rapids Junior College. The weak side will have much-improved letterman Dennis Simmons or Ed Lamb, another Ricks transfer. Wayland Hickman, used primarily on special teams, also could help.

Special Teams

Alan Boardman, who surprised the league by finishing ninth nationally in punting as a freshman, returns along with kicker David Lauder, who led the team in scoring in 1992 before sitting out last season. Morris Unutoa is back as the deep snapper and holder Tim Nowatzke returns. The top punt returner, Mike Johnston gave up baseball to participate in spring football and also will join Nowatzke as kickoff return men.

Offense

Quarterbacks

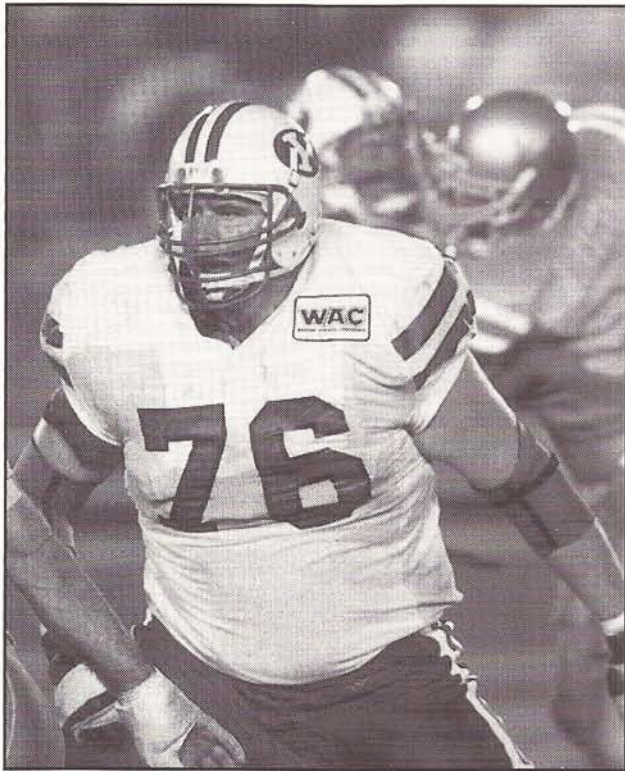

BYU was second in the nation in passing last year and all three quarterbacks return. John Walsh set a school record last season with 619 against Utah State and had 439 in the second half (plus one series) against Fresno State. He accounted for 31 touchdowns. Steve Clements and Tom Young, who both have started games the last two years, are seniors and can run the offense, if needed.

Offensive Line

Three good ones--tackle Eli Herring (6-8, 335), guard Evan Pilgrim (6-5, 285), guard Jim Edwards (6-4, 275)--return although Edwards will move to center. Tim Hanshaw (6-5, 285), who started three games, and redshirt William Knight (6-8, 350) could fill the other spots. Redshirts Elias Faupula (6-3, 275) and Jason Andersen (formerly Jason Young, 6-5, 305) also could see action. Lettermen Morris Unutoa, Nathan Gibbs and Matt Meservey provide depth.

Receivers

This is the area, along with linebacker, hit by graduation but Coach Edwards is pleased with the returning lettermen, led by Bryce Doman, last year's number-two receiver in catches with 36. He and Tim Nowatzke have played a lot in the Cougars' system of rotating wide receivers. Mike Johnston will play a bigger role this year along with lettermen Kaipō McGuire, Tyler Bolli and Jason Cooper.

Offensive Tackle Eli Herring

The tight end position will be manned by Chad Lewis, the offensive surprise of last year's team. Although not listed as the starter, he came up with some big plays in the latter part of the season. Itula Mili, a starter as a freshman in 1991, is back from a mission and will see action and reserve Tom Baldwin, who played in goalline situations, also returns.

BYU lost standout wide receivers Eric Drage (the all-time leading receiver), Micah Matsuzaki and speedy Tyler Anderson. However, Edwards is confident the system will turn out another sure-handed group.

Running Backs

Workhorse Kalin Hall has departed but the Cougars have breakaway threats in Jamal Willis and Hema Heimuli. The question mark is their durability after a season of assorted injuries a year ago. As a sophomore, Willis became only BYU's third player ever to go over 1,000 yards in a season and Heimuli could have an excellent year. Lettermen T.D. Biegel, who had a good spring, and Chad Knowles provide depth.

Redshirt Tefua Bloomfield was impressive in pre-season practice last year and could see playing time. Tony Hicks, who was expected to help, is still recovering from a broken leg and cartilage damage to a knee from spring practice and probably won't be available. Freshman Kalani Fifita, who was on hand in the spring, could be a surprise. Mark Atuaia, who played a lot as a freshman, is back from a mission.

Summary

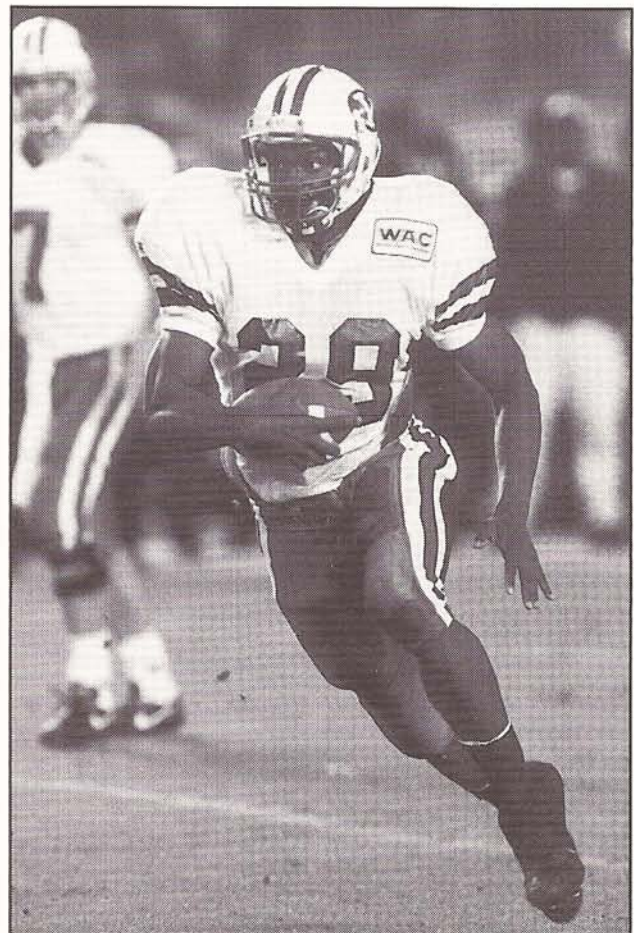

Coach Edwards was very pleased with the progress in the spring but says "one of the keys is to bring all the elements together."

BYU returns one of the country's top quarterbacks, the makings of an excellent line and one of the best runners its ever had. Even though there are receivers without impressive game stats, they've had a lot of practice repetitions.

The kicking game should be solid and the defensive front should be good. Most of the question marks are on defense, where depth is a concern--especially in the secondary--and lack of major college experience a factor among the linebackers. If the defense jells and key offensive players stay healthy, the Cougars should be in the thick of the title hunt once again.

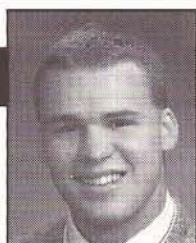

As for Coach Edwards, he says, "I don't give a lot of thought to winning 200 games but it would be nice to get there soon just because we open with league games."

As for when he might end his illustrious career, he explains, "I think about it once in awhile and what I come up with is deciding I don't want to think about it."

LAVELL EDWARDS

Since LaVell Edwards became BYU's head coach in 1972, the Cougars have won 197 games, 16 WAC championships (including 10 in a row from 1976-85) and played in 18 bowl games (including 16 in a row).

Honors and recognition have rolled in as the football program has risen to national prominence. Edwards has coached more years, won more games and had a better winning percentage than any coach in Cougar football history.

Six times in his 22 years as head coach ('72, '79, '80, '83, '84 and '90), the 63-year-old Edwards has been selected WAC Coach-of-the-Year, and five times he has been named Kodak District Eight Coach-of-the-Year ('74, '77, '79, '80 and '84). The post-season games that LaVell has coached in include the East-West Shrine game (four times), Hula Bowl (three times), the Blue-Gray Classic (twice), the Japan Bowl (twice) and the Coaches' All-America Game.

Edwards won the Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year in 1979 and picked up NCAA Coach-of-the-Year honors from the American Football Coaches, the Football Writers and the Pigskin Club of Washington, D.C., after guiding the Cougars to the national championship in 1984.

In 1988, he completed a term as president of the 5,700-member American Football Coaches Association (AFCA).

Edwards received the Dale Rex Memorial Award in 1974 as the Utahn who contributed the most to amateur athletics in the state and he has been Utah's Sportsman of the Year. Last year he was named to Utah State University's All-Century Team.

Such accolades are justly deserved for one of the great minds in the coaching profession who also is a husband, father, grandfather, church leader, author, teacher and doctor of education.

His 197 victories rank fourth among the nation's active college coaches. Under Edwards, BYU averaged over 10 wins a season in the 1980's. In 1986, he passed Frank Kush as the all-time leader in WAC coaching victories.

Edwards was born Oct. 11, 1930, in Provo. He was all-state at Lincoln High School in Orem in 1946 and 1947 and attended Utah State, where he was a three-year letterman and captain of the team as a center and linebacker. He earned all-league honors as a center in 1950 and 1951.

At USU he met his wife-to-be, Patti Covey from Big Piney, Wyo. LaVell entered the Army, where he played on two service teams: Fort Lee, Va., in 1952, and Fort Mead, Md., in 1953 as a player-coach with a 6-3 record.

From there, Edwards went into his first full-time coaching job at Granite High in Salt Lake City, where he coached from 1954-61 before joining Hal Mitchell's BYU staff in 1962. Ten years later, Edwards was named Tommy Hudspeth's successor.

The football philosophy practiced by Coach Edwards is one of high-powered offense and rugged defense. Under his guidance, BYU has led the nation in passing eight times ('76, '77, '79, '80, '81, '83, '84 and '85), in total offense five times ('79, '80, '83, '84 and '85) and in scoring ('79).

A 1952 graduate of Utah State, Edwards added to his academic honors a master's degree from the University of Utah ('60) and an Ed.D. from BYU ('78).

His wife, Patti, is scheduled to complete her degree at BYU in August and has written sports columns for the Provo Daily Herald. They have three married children: Ann Edwards Cannon (Salt Lake City), a writer; John (Bountiful, Utah), a doctor; and Jim (Henderson, Nevada), a lawyer.

1972-LaVell Edwards, defensive coordinator for the Cougars, is named head coach in January...had been a member of the BYU staff since 1962...halfback Pete Van Valkenburg wins NCAA rushing title with a 138.6 yards-per-game average...the Cougars also lead the league in defense against the rush.

1973-The Cougars begin to move offensively...quarterback Gary Sheide is runnerup in NCAA passing and third total offense...teammate Jay Miller leads the nation in pass receiving (100 receptions for 1,181 yards)...Cougars finish second nationally in passing and eighth in total offense...Miller sets an NCAA record for most pass receptions (22) in one game (record still stands).

1974-Team ranks high in two NCAA statistical categories: seventh in passing offense, fourth in rushing defense...Gary Sheide is runnerup in passing for the second year in a row (behind Steve Barkowski of California)...Gary's career completion percentage is fourth on the all-time list...Barkowski's final pass completion edged Sheide (182-181) for title...LaVell wins first WAC championship and a trip to the Fiesta Bowl against Oklahoma State.

1975-A year of adjustment: the Cougars falter through the first part of the season, then win six of their last eight games...Gifford Nielsen, a sophomore reserve, comes off the bench in the fourth game (New Mexico) to spark a come-from-behind victory...Nielsen sets WAC record with 10-of-12 passing...becomes starter...Cougars finish 10th in team passing.

1976-Gifford Nielsen places fourth in NCAA passing (18.8) with only one-tenth completion separating him from Jack Thompson (Washington State) in second place...Nielsen finishes second to Tommy Kramer (Rice) in total offense...Cougars finish first in passing (307.8), sixth in total offense (424.4) and eighth in NCAA scoring (31.9)...Nielsen voted first team All-American...BYU ties for WAC title and plays Oklahoma State in the Tangerine Bowl.

1977-Gifford Nielsen unexpectedly exits scene with injury in fourth game (Oregon State) and Marc Wilson takes over...by the end of the year, the two have combined for 40 TD passes, 3,585 yards passing and a .605 completion percentage...Wilson finishes eighth in passing and third in total offense...Cougars lead nation in passing (341.6), finish second in scoring (39.4) and third in total offense (470.2)...BYU's 341.6 yards per game is third highest in history, and 41 TDs second...Cougars top the nation in "takeaways" with a total of 56 defensive takes (fumbles recovered or interceptions)...Cougars tie for first in WAC and make a post-season trip to play two Japanese all-star teams.

1978-Both Marc Wilson and sophomore quarterback Jim McMahon see action in 10 games as they share quarterback duties...Wilson is injured in the third game of the year...Cougars are eighth in passing and fourth in fumble recoveries...Cougars win the WAC, play their final regular-season game in Yokohama, Japan, against UNLV, and meet Navy in the first Holiday Bowl.

1979-With two all-conference quarterbacks to choose from, Edwards decides to redshirt McMahon in favor of senior Wilson...Cougars upset Texas A&M in season opener and go on to record 11 straight wins...Wilson leads the nation in total offense (325.5) and is fourth in pass efficiency (147.1)...finishes the year as consensus All-American with 10 NCAA records to his credit...Cougars lead the nation in four categories: passing (368.3), total offense (521.4), scoring (40.6) and kickoff returns (26.3)...Cougars are 11th in scoring defense (11.4) and sixth in punting (40.1)...BYU becomes first Division I school to pass for more than 4,000 yards in a season...LaVell receives the Bobby Dodd coach-of-the-year award...Cougars win WAC again and play Indiana in Holiday Bowl II.

1980-The school's first 12-win season...BYU leads the nation in three statistical categories: total offense (535.0), scoring (46.7) and passing (409.8)...quarterback Jim McMahon is named to the Kodak All-America team along with tackle Nick Eyre...McMahon is the first Division I player to pass for more than 4,000 yards in a season (4,571)...sets or ties 26 NCAA records, most in total offense and passing...pass efficiency (176.9) was the highest ever...also led the nation in total offense (385.6)...after losing the first game to New Mexico, BYU wins 12 straight...Cougars win WAC and play SMU in Holiday Bowl III.

1981-Another 11-win season for the Cougars...have a 17-game win streak and rank eighth in the polls before losing to Nevada-Las Vegas...BYU leads the nation in passing for the third consecutive year...McMahon earns All-America honors and finishes his career with 71 NCAA records (plus the first Davey O'Brien Award) and sets record with all-time high in career pass efficiency (156.9)...Cougars win WAC and play Washington State in Holiday Bowl IV...LaVell coaches West team to a victory in the Hula Bowl...also coaches in the Japan Bowl...Edwards' 86-32-1 record ranks among top 10 in the nation.

1982-BYU expands Cougar Stadium to 65,000 seats and sells out each game...loses home opener to Air Force (39-38) but comes back to win seventh straight WAC title and plays Ohio State in Holiday Bowl V...Gordon Hudson is named consensus All-America...BYU finishes third nationally in total offense...Steve Young is named WAC Offensive Player of the Year.

1983-Another 11-win season...Cougars are ranked seventh in final polls, highest ever for a BYU team...quarterback Steve Young and tight end Gordon Hudson both named consensus All-America...after losing to Baylor in the opening game, BYU wins final 11 games...BYU leads the nation in passing and total offense and is second in scoring...Cougars set NCAA total offense record with 584.2 yards per game...BYU wins eighth straight WAC title and defeats Missouri in Holiday Bowl VI...Edwards surpasses the 100-victory milestone.

1984-Cougars win the National Championship by becoming only the third team in NCAA history to win 13 games in a season...win streak is extended to 24 games...quarterback Robbie Bosco leads the nation in passing and finishes second to Doug Flutie in pass efficiency (151.8)...defensive back Kyle Morrell named first team All-America...team leads the nation in passing (346.2) and total offense (486.5)...defensively, Cougars finish 10th in scoring defense...another WAC championship and victory over Michigan in Holiday Bowl VII...Edwards named NCAA Coach of the Year by most organizations.

1985-Cougars' defense of the National Championship begins with win over Boston College in the Kickoff Classic...that game plus a bowl and playing at Hawaii allows BYU to become the only collegiate team to play 14 games in a season...defensive tackle Jason Buck is named third team All-America and WAC Defensive Player of the Year...Mark Bellini earns second-team All-America honors...a tie with Air Force for the WAC championship...quarterback Robbie Bosco ranks second in total offense and seventh in pass efficiency...finishes third in the Heisman Trophy balloting...BYU defense ranks 19th against the rush and 18th overall...Cougars lose to Ohio State in the Florida Citrus Bowl and end the season ranked 16th in both polls.

1986-Edwards passes Frank Kush as the winningest coach in WAC football history...Jason Buck becomes only the third player in the Western United States to win the Outland Trophy and is named consensus All-American...Shawn Knight is also named to several All-American teams...Lakei Heimuli comes on strong toward the end of the season to break Jeff Blanc's record for career rushing yards...Cougars fail to win WAC championship for the first time in 11 years but post an 8-5 record and play in the Freedom Bowl.

1987-BYU defense leads the nation with 50 take-aways (28 interceptions and 22 fumble recoveries) with Troy Long getting the most defensive points...after offensive line is decimated in pre-season camp, Cougars bounce back from 1-2 start to win eight of final nine regular season games...young backfield shows promise of things to come in getting within a two-point conversion of another WAC title...Chuck Cutler begins the first of two years as a GTE Academic All-America first teamer...Leonard Chitty sets career records for consecutive conversions (42) and for field goals (34)...Cougars rank ninth nationally in passing offense and 22nd in scoring offense...Cougars win Gridiron Bowl (the final regular-season game against Colorado State) in Melbourne, Australia, but injuries prove costly in the All American Bowl.

1988-Cougars win seven straight but drop to third in WAC race...punter Pat Thompson named All-America and finishes second nationally while team is first in punting and net punting...behind quarterbacks Sean Covey and Ty Detmer, BYU is fourth in passing, 10th in total offense and 13th in scoring...BYU plays second-ranked Miami on even terms for three quarters...Bob Davis is a finalist for the Butkus Award as the country's top linebacker...11th straight bowl trip (Freedom Bowl) is 20-17 upset over Colorado.

1989-BYU returns to the top of the WAC after a three-year absence...offensive lineman Mohammed Elewonibi becomes the second BYU player in four years to win the Outland Trophy and is consensus All-America...Bob Davis and Chris Smith are named to several All-America teams...Fred Whittingham is first team Academic All-America...sophomore Ty Detmer breaks 11 NCAA records and ties two others...Cougars make 12th straight bowl appearance but drop a tough game to Penn State in the Holiday Bowl.

1990-Ty Detmer, a consensus first team All-American, becomes the first player in the Rockies to win the Heisman Trophy...finishes with 5,188 yards passing--the most ever--and increases his NCAA records to 47...Chris Smith also is consensus All-America and has more receptions yards (1,156) than any tight end in history...Andy Boyce gains more yards receiving (1,241) than anyone who has played at BYU...Matt Bellini breaks the career record for catches with 204...BYU shocks the nation by upsetting top-ranked Miami but loses a shot at being number one with a loss at Oregon...BYU wins the WAC and goes to its 13th straight bowl game.

1991-Cougars go undefeated in the final 10 games as Ty Detmer finishes his incredible career with 62 NCAA records, including an amazing 15,031 yards passing and a career passing efficiency of 162.7 (nearly five points above Jim McMahon's previous record)...BYU ties seventh-ranked Iowa, 14-14, at the Holiday Bowl, its 14th straight bowl game...Shad Hansen sets a school record with 325 career defensive points...Peter Tuipulotu winds up with the all-time best career rushing average (5.5).

1992-Cougars are forced to use three different quarterbacks (and a fourth in the bowl game) but finish fifth nationally in passing and seventh in total offense...23rd in rushing defense...among the highlights were beating powerful Penn State (30-3 until the closing minutes), a first-ever game against Notre Dame, finally taking the series lead against Utah State and the 19th win by Coach Edwards in 21 games against Utah...Ryan Hancock finishes third in total offense and passing...BYU wins WAC title and goes to 15th straight bowl.

1993-BYU ties for the WAC title and goes to the Holiday Bowl (16th straight bowl game), nearly beating Big Ten co-champ Ohio State...Cougars win all four league games in September before injuries hit and team loses four games in October...BYU gains 20th straight non-losing season...team ranks second in passing and ninth in total offense and John Walsh is fifth in total offense and ninth in passing efficiency...freshman Alan Boardman finishes ninth nationally in punting and Eric Drage sets career records for touchdown passes (29) and yardage (3,066)...BYU's NCAA record of 50 straight games with a touchdown pass ends at Colorado State but Cougars extend the nation's longest streak without being shut out to 236 consecutive games.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Robbie Bosco (BYU '86) Quarterbacks, Receivers

Robbie Bosco is in his fifth year as a full-time assistant and was a graduate assistant in 1989.

The Roseville, Calif., native is best known for leading BYU to the national championship in 1984, when he guided the Cougars to a 13-0 record, led the nation in passing and was second in voting for the Davey O'Brien Award.

In 1985, he finished second in NCAA total offense and was third in the Heisman Trophy balloting for the second straight year. He set 10 NCAA records and was a second team All-America.

Drafted by the Green Bay Packers, Bosco had his pro career cut short by an arm injury. He graduated with a degree in communications and has a master's degree in physical education. He is married to Karen Holt and they have three children.

Norm Chow (Utah '68) Asst. Head Coach/QBs, Receivers

Norm Chow, the 1993 Athlon National Assistant Coach of the Year, has been an integral part of BYU's successful offense for the past 17 seasons.

He replaces Dick Felt as the assistant head coach and will continue to call the plays and direct the quarterbacks and receivers.

Prior to joining the staff full time, he spent two years as a graduate assistant. Chow graduated from Punahou High ('64) in Honolulu, where he was named "Athlete of the Year."

He attended the University of Utah (1968), where he achieved All-WAC (1967-68) and honorable mention All-America honors as an offensive guard.

After a career in the Canadian Football League was cut short due to a knee injury, he was head coach for three years at Hawaii's Waialua High.

Chow received a master's degree in special education from Utah and a doctorate in educational psychology from BYU in 1979. He and his wife, Diane, have four children.

Roger French (Minnesota) Offensive Coordinator/Offensive Line

Roger French has been in charge of BYU's offense for the past 14 years.

French joined Edwards' staff in 1980 and has since helped produce numerous All-WAC and All-America offensive linemen, including 1989 Outland Trophy winner Moe Elewonibi.

Before coming to BYU, Roger coached at Minnesota and Wisconsin for 14 years. His responsibilities at Minnesota included the offensive line and receivers.

Since French came to BYU, the Cougars have won the National Championship (1984) and set the NCAA total offense record of 584 yards per game (1983). They also led the nation in passing and total offense three times.

Born in Minneapolis, French played linebacker, tight end and fullback at Minnesota, graduating in 1956. He obtained a master's degree and played with the Philadelphia Eagles and the Cleveland Browns.

He began coaching at Memphis State, where he was defensive coordinator. In 1962, MSU finished second in the nation defensively. He has coached several All-American linemen in his career, and more than 35 have gone on to play pro ball.

French and his wife, Dody, have two daughters.

Barry Lamb (Oregon '78) Safeties

Barry Lamb joined the BYU staff when secondary coach Dick Felt retired after the 1993 season and will work with the safeties. He was the linebacker coach at San Diego State last year after being defensive coordinator for the Aztecs from 1989-92.

Lamb is a native of Santa Barbara, Calif., where he attended San Marcos High and Santa Barbara City College, earning junior college All-American and Academic All-American honors.

He transferred to Utah, where he suffered a career-ending back injury, and then to Oregon, receiving a degree in history in 1978. He received a master's degree from Arizona State in 1988.

Lamb was a graduate assistant at Oregon and Arizona State and was an assistant from 1981-85 at UNLV, which played in the 1984 California Bowl.

The three seasons (1986-88) he coached at Idaho, the Vandals reached the Division I-AA playoffs three times and compiled a 28-9 record.

He is married to former BYU All-American volleyball player Karen Curtis, who has been the head coach at UNLV and Washington State. They have three sons.

Chris Pella (Utah State '66) Recruiting, Kickers, Tight Ends

Chris Pella joined the BYU coaching fraternity in 1986 after spending 18 years as a coach at Utah State. He was the Aggies' head coach from 1983-85.

A native of Brigham City, Utah, Pella attended Box Elder High and Dixie Junior College, where he was team captain and a junior college All-American. He then joined the Utah State Aggies as a fullback, offensive lineman and kicker, setting a school record with nine PATs against New Mexico State.

After graduating in 1965, Pella was hired as an assistant coach, a position he held for 15 years under coaches Tony Knap, Chuck Mills, Phil Krueger and Bruce Snyder.

Over that time, he worked with every position on the team. He also was head wrestling coach for two years. Pella worked for the U.S. Navy in Yokosuka, Japan as the athletic director and football coach at the Navy base from 1969 to 1972. His 1971 team won the Interservice Championship and played in the Rice Bowl.

He returned to Utah State in the fall of 1972. In 1983 he was named head football coach.

Pella and his wife, Rita, are the parents of three children.

Tom Ramage (Utah State '57) Defensive Line, Special Teams

Tom Ramage has perhaps the most varied football coaching background in the state of Utah. He joined the BYU staff 21 years ago after coaching high school, junior college and at a four-year school.

Since Ramage was hired, the Cougars have traditionally ranked high in the WAC in rushing defense.

Ramage came to BYU from Dixie College in St. George, Utah, where he was head coach for two seasons (13-7 overall). He was born in Price, Utah, and enrolled at Utah State, where he won All-Skyline Conference and All-America honors as a tackle in 1956 and lettered in wrestling four years. He graduated in 1957.

He began his coaching career at Bear River, Utah, then returned to USU, where he served as an assistant four years and obtained his M.S. degree (1962).

He left Logan in 1965 to serve as chief assistant and defensive coordinator at Weber State under Sark Arslanian. In 1971 he took the head job at Dixie College. Sandwiched into his stay at Weber, he served as a commissioned officer in the Army and was discharged as a captain in 1967. Ramage has coached two Outland Trophy winners: Merlin Olsen (Utah State) and Jason Buck (BYU).

Tom and his wife, Winona, have six children.

Lance Reynolds (BYU '77) Running Backs

For more than a decade, Lance Reynolds has played a key role in BYU's football successes as a player and as a coach. He joined the BYU staff in 1983 after successful coaching jobs at Snow College and Ricks College.

A Salt Lake native, Lance was all-state at Granite High. He played both offensive tackle and guard at BYU before serving an LDS mission to Seattle.

When he returned for his final two years, he earned All-WAC honors at offensive tackle and played in the East-West Shrine game and the Senior Bowl. After graduating in 1970, he played one season with both the Pittsburgh Steelers and Philadelphia Eagles.

Lance and his wife, Leslie, have five children.

Ken Schmidt (Utah '64)
Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers

Ken Schmidt took over the title of defensive coordinator in 1992.

Ken came to BYU in 1982 after successful high school and junior college coaching.

A Murray, Utah, native, Schmidt enrolled at the University of Utah, where he was a center and linebacker under Coach Ray Nagel. He graduated in 1964 and obtained his M.S. degree from Utah in 1969.

He began his coaching career as an assistant at Granger High School (1964-68). Later, he was named head coach at Skyline High School (Salt Lake City), where his teams posted a 105-24-1 record and won five state championships between 1968-79.

In 1980, he was named head coach at Ricks College (Rexburg, Idaho). The Vikings won the conference championship two years, posting a 17-3 record. In 1981, Ricks defeated Arizona Western in the Valley of the Sun Bowl.

Ken married Yvonne Youngberg of Murray and they have five children.

DeWayne Walker (Minnesota '81)
Cornerbacks

DeWayne Walker joined the staff in March just in time for spring practice. He will work with the cornerbacks as the Cougars go to two secondary coaches.

Walker comes to BYU after a season at Utah State and five years at Mt. San Antonio Junior College in Walnut, Calif.

A native of Pasadena, Calif., he played at Pasadena City College, earning all-conference and all-state honors in 1978 and 1979.

He transferred to Minnesota, where he was a starter for two seasons, and graduated in 1981. He spent two years in the USFL with Arizona and Oakland.

Walker also played for Edmonton in the Canadian League before getting into coaching.

He is married to the former Zan Parker and they have three children.

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY

Brigham Young University is a private church-sponsored institution which has earned an admirable reputation for successfully blending scholarly learning with moral and spiritual education.

BYU began modestly in 1875 as Brigham Young Academy with 29 elementary school students. It is now a fully accredited internationally recognized university with a student body of 27,000, making it the largest private university in the nation in terms of full-time students.

Academic excellence is increasingly evident as students and faculty show their competence. Almost three-quarters of the 1,300 full-time faculty hold doctoral degrees, and the university is accredited by more than 100 education, business, professional and government organizations.

Admission standards for students continue to rise as competition for acceptance increases. The average ACT composite score for entering BYU freshmen is now 27, and the average grade point for new students is 3.7. BYU is in the top 10 rankings for National Merit Scholars in attendance.

The J. Reuben Clark Law School is establishing a reputation as one of the elite top-40 law schools in the nation, with three of its graduates already selected as clerks to the U.S. Supreme Court.

Other highly respected programs include the School of Management, with its fifth-ranked accountancy department and top-rated MBA program; the computer-aided design/computer-aided manufacturing program, with state-of-the-art computer ability and a reputation for innovation; a large team of researchers in several disciplines studying coal's promise as an alternative to oil; the Ezra Taft Benson Agriculture Food Institute, which is contributing knowledge to help solve the world's food problems.

The music and drama departments are also particularly noteworthy, as are its language programs, with their unusually extensive course offerings, and a large number of faculty researching family issues.

To fill the 14 semester hours of religion required, students can take courses ranging from the history of the LDS Church to comparative world religions. Four of the 14 credit hours are spent in study of the Book of Mormon, a text regarded by Mormons as scripture, along with the Bible.

The 631-acre campus is a superb facility. It is unusually clean and well-kept, with beautiful landscaping and spacious quads. The Lee Library, with more than two million volumes and a seating capacity of 4,000, is at the heart of the campus.

The Harris Fine Arts Center features five theaters, two art galleries, nine pipe organs, 65 music practice rooms, a National Public Radio station and a Public Broadcast Service television studio. Laboratories all over campus boast up-to-date equipment and full computerization. A new Museum of Art was recently completed.

In addition to the Utah and Hawaii campuses, BYU maintains Study Abroad programs in China, Austria, England, France, Italy, Canada, Mexico, Brazil and Jerusalem.

Academic accomplishments and physical facilities aside, many BYU students and faculty point to the character of its people and their commitment to traditional values as the school's most important attributes. Each student signs a Code of Honor, promising to abstain from alcohol, tobacco, tea and coffee and to be honest and chaste--all in accord with tenets of the LDS Church.

Although 98 percent of the student body is Mormon, admission is open to those of any race, color, creed or national origin, provided they meet the university's academic requirements and their conduct conforms to the standards of the LDS Church.

Non-Mormons come from over 25 other denominations, and about 22 percent of the student body is married. Students come from every state (32 percent from Utah) and more than 70 countries. More than 8,000 students are bilingual, many having learned a foreign language while serving a mission for the LDS Church in another country.

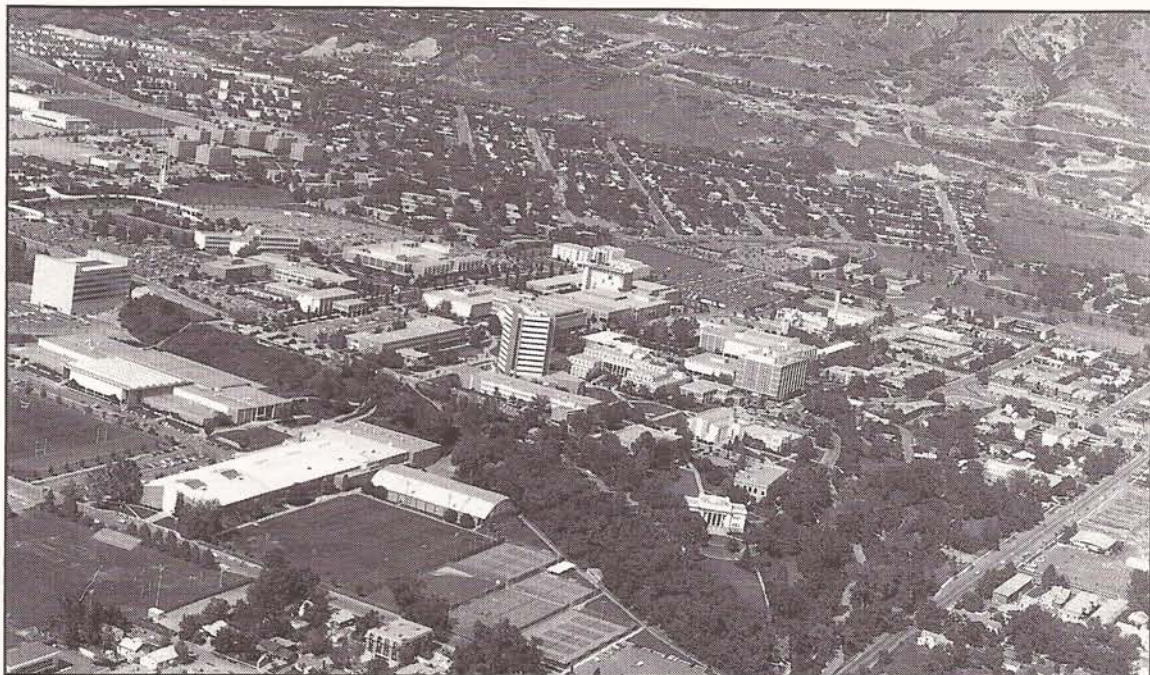

BYU is on a three-semester system (4-4-2-2-) with fall and winter semesters each being four months long, and the summer semester being divided into spring and summer terms.

The university traces its roots to Utah's rich pioneer heritage. In establishing the original school on October 16, 1875--first known as Brigham Young Academy--on a little over one acre of land in what is today downtown Provo, Brigham Young, then second president of the LDS Church, charged that all secular learning at the institution should be fused with teachings from the scriptures.

No longer an obscure primary school in a little pioneer town, BYU is a world-renowned center of learning that remains true to that original charge from its namesake.

One of the academy's first principals, Karl G. Maeser, echoed President Young's directive in his own belief that even the multiplication tables should be taught with the Spirit of God.

Despite steady growth during those early years, the fledgling institution was nearly overcome by a series of setbacks, including persistent financial problems and the destruction by fire of the school's original building in 1884.

The campus eventually moved to a new location on Provo's University Avenue, where new facilities were completed in 1891.

As its high school and college curriculum improved and strengthened, the academy officially became Brigham Young University on Oct. 23, 1903. In 1909, under the administration of George H. Brimhall, work began on the Maeser Memorial Building, the first of many structures on "Temple Hill," the university's present site.

Throughout the administrations of Franklin S. Harris and Howard H. McDonald, the university gradually increased its enrollment and facilities.

President Ernest L. Wilkinson, who began his tenure in 1951, oversaw the university's greatest era of physical growth, greatly increasing both the number of buildings and the size of the student body. He also inaugurated the school's first doctoral program in 1957.

President Dallin H. Oaks' administration, begun in 1971, saw a deepening and refining of the scholastic mission of BYU, which by then had an enrollment of 26,000. His commitment to academics has continued during the administrations of Presidents Jeffrey R. Holland and Rex E. Lee as the university maintains its quest to provide excellent instruction in a gospel-centered atmosphere.

BYU is located 45 miles south of Salt Lake City in Provo, Utah, a city of 92,000 in a valley of 300,000, and is situated 4,560 feet above sea level.

The campus sits at the western base of the Wasatch Mountains, part of the Rocky Mountain Range. The valley offers a beautiful setting, with 11,750-foot Mount Timpanogos north of the campus and 23-mile-long Utah Lake on the west.

PRES. REX E. LEE

Rex E. Lee, a former Solicitor General of the United States, became the 10th president of Brigham Young University on July 1, 1989.

He is responsible for the large Provo campus as well as for BYU-Hawaii in Laie on Oahu.

He has been chair of a special NCAA committee to review rules enforcement and the infractions process. Among those serving under him was Warren E. Burger, former Chief Justice.

Prior to being named President of BYU, Rex Lee was a partner in the law firm of Sidley & Austin in Washington, D.C. He joined the firm June 1, 1985, after having served four years as Solicitor General.

President Lee was the founding dean of the J. Reuben Clark Law School at BYU from 1971 through 1975. He served as Assistant Attorney General in the Civil Division of the Department of Justice until 1977.

He has been the holder of the George Sutherland Chair of Law at BYU since returning to the Law School in 1985.

He taught Constitutional Law and maintained a private appellate practice which has been almost exclusively before the U.S. Supreme Court where he has argued 57 cases.

Lee, 57, is a 1960 graduate of BYU and earned a juris doctorate from the University of Chicago in 1963.

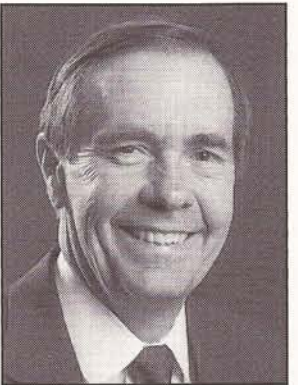

He served as law clerk to Justice Byron R. White of the U.S. Supreme Court and then practiced law in Phoenix for eight years. He also holds five honorary Doctor of Law degrees.

President Lee served a mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Mexico from 1955-58. He is married to the former Janet Griffin. They are the parents of seven children and have six grandchildren. With a June wedding in the family, five of the children are now married.

As a young boy in St. Johns, Arizona, he earned the distinction of being the first boy in that community to become an Eagle Scout.

Rex Edwin Lee was born in Los Angeles, California, on Feb. 27, 1935, a son of Rex E. and Mabel Whiting Lee.

His father died before President Lee was born and his mother married Wilford J. Shumway, now deceased, two years later.

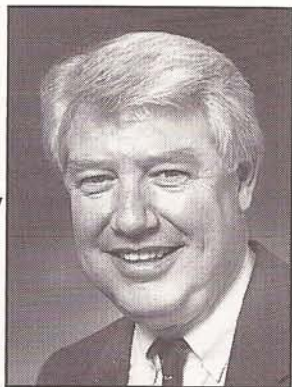

R.J. SNOW, CLAYNE JENSEN

Dr. R.J. Snow moves to the position of Advancement Vice President this year after four years as Student Life Vice President.

He will continue to be responsible for intercollegiate athletics. Dr. Snow came to BYU in 1990 from Johannesburg, South Africa, where he was the mission president three years.

Before his mission call, Dr. Snow was president and director of The Jacobsen Company from 1984-87. He previously had been Vice President of University Relations and Student Affairs at the University of Utah for nearly a decade.

He also served as Director of the Hinckley Institute of Politics and as a member of the political science faculty during his tenure at Utah.

A native of St. George, Dr. Snow moved to Washington, D.C. at age 13 and attended junior high and high school there, returning to Utah to attend Dixie College, receiving an A.S. degree in 1957.

He served a mission in France and then enrolled at Utah, where he earned both his bachelor (1962) and master of arts (1964) degrees in history.

Dr. Snow continued his graduate education at Northwestern, where he completed master of arts (1965) and doctoral degrees (1967) in political science. He also completed post-doctoral work at Oregon and Harvard.

In 1967, Dr. Snow moved to Santa Barbara, Calif., where he was on the political science faculty at UCSB until 1973. During his tenure there, he was assigned to direct the University of California's Education Abroad Program for two years at the University of Bordeaux and the University of Pau in southwest France.

Dr. Snow has been very active in civic and community service, having been on the committee for Executive Reorganization of the State of Utah, as a board member of the Utah Symphony, LDS Hospital and on task forces for the homeless and mentally ill.

His service with more than 25 other civic and charitable organizations includes board membership of the Salt Lake and Provo United Way, Provo-Orem Chamber of Commerce and board chairman for the Utah affiliate of the American Diabetes Association.

Dr. Snow currently serves as president of one of the student stakes at BYU.

He married the former Marilyn Melville in the St. George Temple in 1962 and they are the parents of four children, including two current BYU students. They also have one grandchild.

Dr. Clayne Jensen, who is in his second year as Athletic Director, has served as a senior athletic administrator at BYU more than 20 years.

He has been an Associate Vice President with responsibility over the men's and women's athletic departments for the past three years and was the Faculty Representative to the NCAA from 1976-1993.

Dr. Jensen was Dean of the College of Physical Education (1973-91), during which time the men's and women's programs reported through him. He served as Associate Dean for seven years and was a member of the Athletic Council 14 years, including eight years as its chair.

He was a member of the WAC Council 17 years, twice serving as its chair. He has been on a number of WAC committees and spent eight years on the High Country Athletic Conference Council.

In NCAA circles, Dr. Jensen has been a member or chair of seven NCAA committees and served a four-year term on the NCAA Governing Council (1985-89). In addition, he has been active in national and international Olympic programs for 20 years.

A native of Gunnison, Utah, Dr. Jensen obtained bachelor's and master's degrees from Utah (1952, 1956) and a doctorate from Indiana (1963).

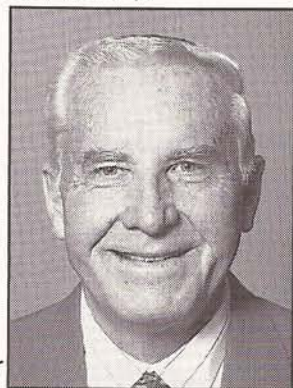

From 1953-55 he was a captain in the U.S. Marine Corps and coached two All-Marine championship teams in track and field. He was on the faculty at Utah State from 1956-64, a member of Phi Kappa Phi, and recipient of the Briethbard Athletic Foundation Award.

Dr. Jensen has held the academic rank of Full Professor for 26 years and taught a variety of professional courses during his first 20 years on the faculty.

He has authored many professional articles and written numerous textbooks (and revisions) totalling 5,000 pages of printed and copyrighted material. The books are used in 600 colleges and universities.

Dr. Jensen has been included in 17 national and international biographies, including Who's Who in America, Who's Who in American Education, Outstanding Educators of America, Noteworthy Americans and 2000 Outstanding Americans.

He married the former Elouise Henrie and they have four sons (three were on BYU's football team).

ATHLETIC PERSONNEL

Pete Witbeck, Associate AD

Associate Athletic Director Alan "Pete" Witbeck has been involved with BYU athletics 45 years.

Witbeck, a native of Raymond, Alberta, Canada, came to BYU in 1949 as a long distance runner on the track team.

While in Provo, he acquired bachelor's (1952) and master's (1954) degrees before joining the P.E. staff in 1955.

Three years later, Witbeck began six years as the freshman basketball coach. During that time, his teams posted a 62-9 record, losing only three times in his last three years.

The 1963-64 Kittens were undefeated and ranked first in the nation among freshman teams. That group went on to win the NIT title in 1966.

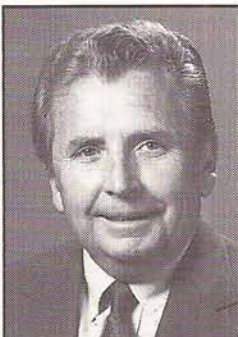

Witbeck has received the Dale Rex Memorial Award, given annually to the person who has contributed most to amateur athletics in Utah.

As a member of that NIT championship team, he was inducted into BYU's Hall of Fame in 1980.

Witbeck joined the varsity staff in 1962 as Stan Watts' top assistant. During Witbeck's tenure, the team won five of 10 WAC championships and was nationally ranked.

He has been in the athletic director's office since 1972. Some of his responsibilities include eligibility, game management and serving as liaison between BYU, the NCAA and the WAC.

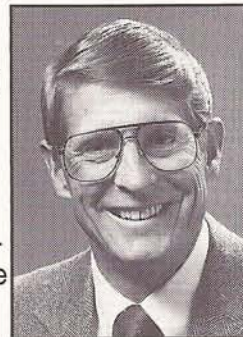

He is married to the former Kathy Pickering and they have three children.

Mike King, Asst. AD-Finance

Mike King has been the Cougars' business manager 15 years and became an assistant AD in 1989. He came from BYU-Hawaii, where he was controller and director of financial services.

King was athletic business manager at Idaho State from 1974-78 and managed the ISU Minidome from 1970-74. He received a B.A. degree at Idaho State in 1970. Mike, an LDS bishop at BYU, is married to the former Jeannette Bertoch and they have four children.

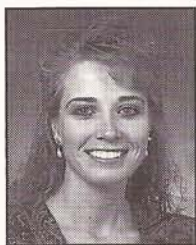

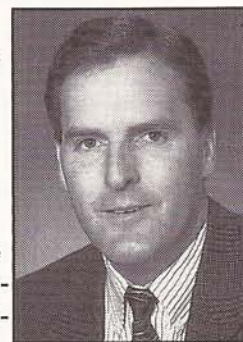

Val Hale, Asst. AD-Public Relations

Val Hale is in his sixth year as assistant athletic director for public and media relations. He has the responsibility of overseeing the Sports Information operation and promotional efforts.

Hale has been assistant director of BYU Development, where he supervised and managed fund-raising efforts in several clubs and academic areas. He was promotions and publications coordinator for the Athletic Department from 1982-87.

He was a cum laude graduate at BYU in 1981 and received his M.A. degree in communications in 1987. Hale and his wife, the former Nancy Allred, have three children. He serves as an LDS bishop.

ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT

BYU fans were among the national leaders in attendance (16th) again last season.

In keeping with the tradition of excellence established by the University's academic programs, BYU's Athletic Department has become known around the country for its successes in various sports.

BYU has finished in the top-20 in overall national rankings more than half the time in the last two decades (12 times). The Cougars have finished in the top-10 nine times and in the top-5 five times.

Last year BYU won league titles in football, cross country, baseball and indoor track. The wrestling team had the country's highest academic average and volleyball was second in its league. Women's titles were won in volleyball (Final Four participant), cross country, swimming, tennis and track.

The University's athletic program for men boasts 12 NCAA-sanctioned sports: football, basketball, baseball, indoor and outdoor track, golf, cross country, tennis, gymnastics, swimming, wrestling and volleyball.

Besides football, the golf (1981) and track (1970) teams have won national championships.

Cougar basketball teams have won the NIT twice (1951, 1966) and have been ranked in the top-20 several times. They reached the final eight in the NCAA playoffs in 1981.

BYU's baseball team has won 20 WAC division titles in 21 years and was ranked as high as No. 1 in 1983.

Part of the success of these teams can be attributed to the fine athletic facilities at BYU.

The football team plays its games in beautiful 65,000-seat Cougar Stadium.

Practices are held on the field north of the George Albert Smith Fieldhouse. The practice area incorporates four full-size football fields and other workout stations.

The team's locker room and training facilities are located inside the Smith Fieldhouse.

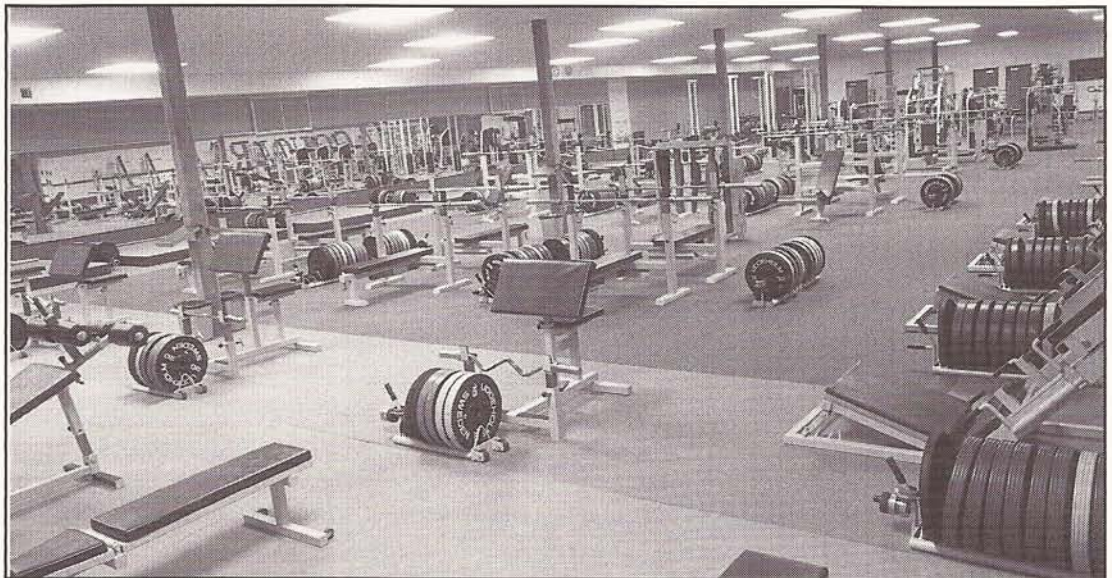

The track also hosts three weekends of state high school meets.

The fieldhouse contains facilities for nearly every sport. A one-fifth mile rubberized track surrounds three basketball courts and an artificial turf practice area.

The west annex of the fieldhouse is used by baseball, football, track and golf teams.

Attendance at BYU basketball games consistently ranks among the best in the nation. Games are played in the spacious 23,000-seat Marriott Center, the second largest on-campus basketball arena in the country. The facility is also used for concerts, forums and other activities.

Nation's Top Programs

At the Sports Information Directors' Convention at the end of June, the first Sears Directors Cup was awarded for combined success of men's and women's programs for the 1993-1994 school year. It is given by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics. The top 25 schools are as follows:

BYU's track is acclaimed by coaches and athletes as one of the finest in the nation. The NCAA Track and Field Championships were held there in 1982 and 1989.

All running and field events can be viewed from the grandstand area. An animated electronic scoreboard entertains fans and keeps athletes current with running times, splits and other information.

The BYU baseball diamond is adjacent to the Marriott Center, the football stadium and the track and field complex. Bleachers can provide seating for 4,000 people.

A beautiful $1.1 million tennis complex was completed in time for this year's men's and women's WAC Championships. Construction began last autumn with removal of the old courts, fences and lights.

Work continued during the winter with with the laying of concrete, the installation of fencing plus new light poles and fixtures. Three storage buildings and a pavilion were added to enhance the function of the 14-court facility.

With 10,000 square feet, the state-of-the-art conditioning facility ranks among the nation's best. It features 106 stations enhanced by beautiful blue and gray carpeting and by a stereophone sound system with 40 speakers.

The BYU facility is both functional and attractive with variety and ample space provided. Athletes do more in less time and can work out in large groups.

A platform diving board and new sound system are additions to the pools.

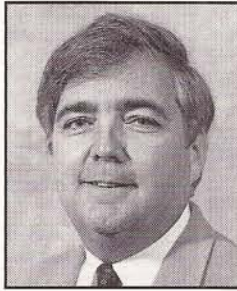

COUGAR CLUB

Organized in 1964, the BYU Cougar Club is the largest athletic support group of its kind in the Western Athletic Conference and one of the nation's premier booster organizations. The club's 4,000 members are some of BYU's most ardent fans.

This year, the Cougar Club's 30th anniversary, crowns the club's three decades of commitment to promoting Athletic Excellence, Scholarship, Sportsmanship, and Integrity among BYU student athletes, coaches, and fans.

Since 1975, the club's executive director has been Dale R. McCann, a BYU business management graduate who worked for General Dynamics and Signetics prior to being hired by BYU. He and his wife, Andrea, have 10 children and make their home in Orem, Utah, where Dale is the bishop of their LDS ward.

Other Cougar Club staff members include Gaylene Harward (Office Manager), Michael Middleton (Club Communications), Leah Hanson (Secretary), and Cameron Martin (Cougar Pride).

Dale McCann

Cougar Club also annually sponsors the BYU Athletic Awards Banquet and the club's Reception for Female Athletes. And each month club members and BYU coaches meet together at club luncheons held in the Cougar Room at Cougar Stadium and at the Joseph Smith Memorial Building in Salt Lake City.

Before each BYU home football game, club members enjoy a preview of the upcoming contest and a delicious buffet at the Cougar Club Pre-Game Briefings. When the Cougars play on the road, Cougar Club members enjoy discount accommodations and exciting tour packages co-sponsored by the Cougar Club and the BYU Alumni Association.

President Rex Lee congratulates Steve Young, who was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1994.

Events

The Cougar Club's annual events and frequent activities are enjoyed by club members and athletic personnel alike. Each year the club sponsors the Pigskin Family Picnic, the "Meet the Football Team" watermelon bust, and the Mens' Varsity Basketball Preview.

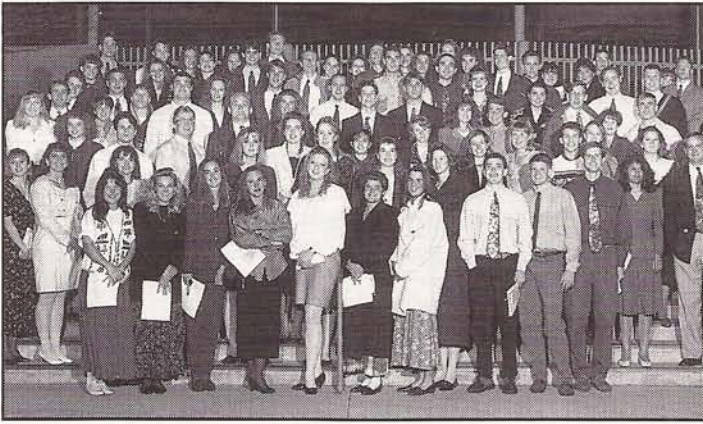

Cougar Club luncheons and pre-game briefings are held in the beautiful Cougar Room at Cougar Stadium.

The Cougar Club is also the proud sponsor of BYU's Athletic Hall of Fame. Since 1975 more than 100 former BYU athletes, coaches, and athletic administrators have been inducted into the Hall of Fame and honored at the club's annual Hall of Fame Banquet.

Programs

Funds raised by the Cougar Club support and enhance BYU athletics. Each year the Cougar Club sponsors all of BYU's athletic recruiting, bringing some of the best athletes from across the country to Provo, Utah, and allowing BYU coaches to make national and international recruiting trips.

Once athletes commit to attend Brigham Young University, the club encourages each of them to achieve their athletic and scholastic potential. Along with improving athletic facilities, Cougar Club revenues provide academic tutoring and help to fund the Athletic Academic Advisement Center. Each year all BYU athletes that earn a grade point average of 3.2

In 1994, 64 percent of the student-athletes at BYU qualified as Cougar Club Academic Athletes.

or higher are recognized as Cougar Club Academic Athletes and honored at a banquet.

The Cougar Club recently established a half million dollar endowment for post-eligibility scholarships.

After student athletes complete their athletic eligibility, funds made available by the Cougar Club's Athletic Scholarship Endowment to help athletes complete their degrees before they leave the university.

The Cougar Club also helps sponsor the Blue and White Network, local football and basketball replays, live satellite broadcasts of BYU sports events, and KBYU summer replays of some of the greatest games in the history of BYU athletics.

Cougar Club programs and revenues help student-athletes achieve their potential—in competition and in the classroom.

Benefits

The Cougar Club is pleased to provide club members with many benefits including priority seating for football, basketball, and bowl games; parking passes; membership cards, decals, and plaques; monthly BYU sports publications, and much more. Club memberships are available at many contribution levels, starting as low as $100 a year, as detailed in the chart below.

COUGAR STADIUM

Since the expansion of Cougar Stadium to 65,000 seats in 1982, BYU has ranked among the nation's top-20 in football attendance every year. The 1993 season marked the 13th straight year BYU has sold out of season tickets.

Fan support at home has enabled BYU to schedule home and home contests with the likes of Notre Dame, Penn State and UCLA. Home-and-away games with 1992 national champion Alabama had to be canceled due to the expansion of the Southeastern Conference.

Since the expansion, the facility has been applauded by fans, players and the media as one of the best in the country. Among its many features are a box-bowl configuration, a natural turf playing surface and a four-level press box.

In 1982 and 1988, the Football Writers of America cited BYU for its "Outstanding Press Box Working Area."

The press box runs the entire length of the west stands, rising more than 10 stories high. It contains 42 loges (glass enclosed booths which seat up to 12 people) on the first two levels.

The third level is reserved for working media and the fourth level is for television coverage and game filming. Three elevators assist guests.

Originally, the stadium seated 30,000 but as many as 47,000 crammed into the stands and the hillside. Expansion included lowering the field eight feet, taking out the track (which hosted the 1967 and 1975 NCAA Track and Field Championships), adding end zone seating and box seats along the west stands.

Each end zone structure contains 4.3 million pounds of steel and seats 15,000 people. Concession and picnic areas are on the ground level under the end zone seats.

The playing field has a special sand-based drainage system capable of disposing of two inches of rain per hour.

Besides fall and spring football, the stadium is used for the July 4th Spectacular, Stadium of Fire, which is part of America's Freedom Festival at Provo.

The stadium also houses the Athletic Hall of Fame in the Cougar Club Room, which is used for pre- and post-game activities as well as for meetings, and banquets throughout the year.

In addition to office areas, the stadium has a great deal of storage space, including one of North America's largest Jurassic dinosaur collections. It is also used for popular monthly sales of surplus campus equipment and furniture.

WESTERN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

The Western Athletic Conference goes into the 1994 football season with a new commissioner and with the task of future scheduling for new members Nevada-Las Vegas, Rice, San Jose State, Southern Methodist, Texas Christian and Tulsa.

Karl Benson, 42, is the new WAC Commissioner, succeeding Dr. Joe Kearney, who retired after 14 years.

Benson joins the WAC after serving four years as the commissioner of the Mid-American Conference. As the MAC commissioner, he was instrumental in the formation of the Las Vegas Bowl and recently helped pilot its restructuring.

Benson worked closely with the MAC universities in regards to football attendance, assuring that the league maintained its NCAA Division I-A status. He oversaw the MAC's expansion to 10 teams in 1992, when Akron joined the league as a full member, becoming the league's first addition since 1973-74.

The 1994 MAC Basketball Tournament drew sell-out crowds for the first time in league history. Benson successfully negotiated an 18-game basketball television package, including both men's and women's games, for the MAC in 1993-94.

Benson initiated the MAC's Corporate Partnership program. Funds generated through those corporate sponsorships supplemented the league's budget.

He was on the NCAA staff four years. Benson held the position of director of NCAA championships when he was selected as MAC commissioner. In that position, he supervised eight assistant directors in their administration of 68 NCAA championships.

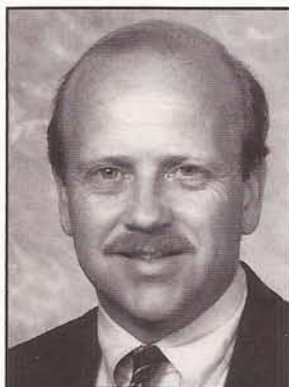

A native of Spokane, Wash., Benson received a bachelor of science degree in physical education from Boise State University in 1975. He has completed course work toward his master's degree in athletics administration at the University of Utah.

Prior to joining the NCAA staff, Benson served eight years as baseball coach and five as athletic director at a junior college in Tacoma, Wash.

From 1984-86, he was an assistant baseball coach and an administrative assistant in the Athletic Department at Utah.

Benson and his wife, Sharon Ryan Benson, have a two-year-old daughter, Jessica.

The WAC was founded July 1, 1962, with Arizona, Arizona State, BYU, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming. Texas-El Paso and Colorado State were added in 1967 and the Arizona schools went to the Pac-10 in 1978.

Karl Benson
WAC Commissioner

Next were San Diego State (1978), Hawaii (1979), Air Force (1980) and Fresno State (1992).

Paul Brechler was the WAC Commissioner from 1962-68, Wiles Hallock from 1968-71 and Stan Bates from 1971-80. The WAC office, currently located in Littleton, Colo., has been in the Denver area with the exception of two years in Phoenix from 1964-66.

The WAC merged with the women's High Country Athletic Conference in 1990 to form a single league under one administrative structure.

Women compete in basketball, cross country, golf, gymnastics, indoor track, outdoor track, softball, swimming, tennis and volleyball.

Men's sports are baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track, outdoor track, swimming/diving and tennis. Gymnastics, volleyball and wrestling championships are combined on a regional basis (the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation).

For six consecutive years, the WAC has produced at least three bowl teams. Last year, the league was represented by BYU (Holiday), Fresno State (Aloha), Utah (Freedom) and Wyoming (Copper).

The WAC champion has been host team in the Holiday Bowl since 1978 except for 1985 when Arizona State and Arkansas played.

Sea World sponsored the bowl from 1988-91. Thrifty Car Rental has been the title sponsor since 1992. This year's game is on Friday, Dec. 30, at 5 p.m. PST, in San Diego's Jack Murphy Stadium.

The Expanded Conference

In June, the WAC Council of Presidents announced the approval of four quadrants beginning with the 1996-97 academic year.

Two of the four quadrants will be joined to form two divisions for football and men's and women's basketball.

The divisional alignments will be rotated on an annual or bi-annual basis to enable competition involving all 16 members institutions.

The sub-divisions are:

Quadrant 1

Rice
Southern Methodist
Texas Christian
Tulsa

Quadrant 2

Air Force
Colorado State
Nevada-Las Vegas
Wyoming

Quadrant 3

BYU
New Mexico
Texas-El Paso
Utah

Quadrant 4

Fresno State
Hawaii
San Diego State
San Jose State

THE COUGAR NETWORKS

KSL-TV

KSL Television, the CBS affiliate in Salt Lake City, has been televising BYU football games on a regular basis since 1984.

Craig Bolerjack, a graduate of Kansas State University, provides play-by-play for the fans. Blaine Fowler, a former BYU quarterback, provides the color commentary for telecasts.

The KSL sports director is Doug Miller.

KSL's Craig Bolerjack (right), shown with commentator Blaine Fowler, does Arena League games for ESPN.

KBYU-TV

The tradition continues between KBYU and Cougar football. All home games are televised on a tape delay basis by Channel 11 with Jay Mosen.

In addition, the station carries replays of key games on Friday nights from June through August. This past summer "Friday Night Fandemonium" featured the 1984 championship season.

An experienced sports crew and state-of-the-art equipment have enabled KBYU to develop a reputation for outstanding coverage of football, basketball and other major "remote" events in the western United States.

KBYU has won numerous awards for its sports productions and is frequently employed by the major cable networks.

KBYU owns and operates a fully-equipped, 48-foot production truck, designed by experienced professionals. It has a full complement of on-board audio and video equipment.

KSL Radio

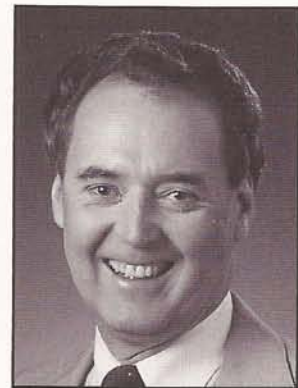

For more than 43 years, BYU fans have been following Cougar athletics via 50,000-watt KSL Radio (1160 AM), located in Salt Lake City.

The "Voice" of the Cougars is play-by-play man Paul James, a veteran broadcaster with 44 years' experience.

An Ogden High and Utah graduate, James began radio work in 1950.

For six years, he broadcast Utah basketball and football games before joining the staff at KSL Radio and Television in July of 1965. James has been calling BYU games for 29 years.

Marc Lyons, a BYU quarterback from 1967-69 and former coach at Olympus High School in Salt Lake City does the commentary. Assisting with the broadcasts will be Kent Rupe and Greg Wrubell.

Paul James

KSL and the Cougars

The BYU Athletic Department and KSL Radio and Television have an agreement to market broadcast rights to BYU athletic events.

The agreement is designed to help advertisers reach BYU's large sports audience via electronic media and in-arena promotions.

Under the arrangement, sponsors may contact a single source, KSL/BYU Sports. Advertisers may purchase packages which include television and radio exposure, as well as in-arena exposure.

The agreement between KSL and BYU affects local broadcast rights only. BYU is a member of the Collegiate Football Association and honors all contractual obligations with that organization and the Western Athletic Conference.

Blue & White Network

BYU Football is syndicated by the Blue & White Network on station affiliates located in all 50 states and serving more than 53 million households.

The network, with veteran announcers Jay Mosen and Irv Brown, started syndication in 1989. For affiliate information in your area, call (801) 378-8455.

Rainbow Notes

The Rainbows, who surprised the league two years ago by tying for the title and winning a bowl game, are in a position to catch people looking past them again this time around...Rainbows lose 14 starters and among the eight on offense is quarterback Michael Carter...replacement prospects include lettermen Rodney Glover (the nephew of actor Danny), John Hao and Glenn Freitas...not so well known but with strong credentials is defensive lineman George Tupuola, who is the last of the Noga brothers ...although young and inexperienced, the team does return punter Stephen Wilson (43.0 yards), placekicker Carlton Oswalt and kickoff man Bach Stabile...strength of the squad is the secondary, led by Demitreus Henderson and Carlos Anderson...linebacker Victor Santa Cruz is a good one and nose guard Nalei Cox has impressive quickness ...receiver Matthew Harding is the team's fastest player.

Falcon Notes

After a rare losing season, the Falcons hope to move up a few notches this year...having quarterback Demond Cash returning to run the Wishbone should help...the linebackers are tough...ILB Steve Russ and cornerback Brian Watkins (two interceptions for touchdowns) are among the WAC's best...OLB Johnny Harrison is an excellent pass rusher...other corner, Kevin Williams, also is a good one...if tackles Erik Davis and Jason Tone are consistent, the defense could be strong...Falcons need to find halfbacks to go along with FB Jake Maloy...blocking by receiver Richie Marsh should help the running game...as usual, Falcons hope to improve their passing game...they also must replace punter/kicker Chris MacInnis and return specialist Obasi Onuoha...staff changes include Bill Stewart (defensive line) becoming the head coach at Virginia Military and Bill Mitchell, JV head coach, taking his place.

Lobo Notes

Don't look now but New Mexico was only seven points away from the Holiday Bowl (see results below)...last year was the first winning season since 1982...included in the seven road games are last season's WAC tri-champions ...Stoney Case is back for his senior year and should be an outstanding quarterback...Carl Winston, who set an NCAA record with receptions in 46 straight games, is gone but Winslow Oliver returns...Abe Ghoston stepped in a year ago when Oliver was hurt and performed well at tailback ...Manley Woods, also a kick returner, could be the top receiver...there are a lot of big offensive linemen but also four starters missing...Lobos led the league in scoring defense and pass defense last year...front seven are strong but team lost two All-WAC players in the secondary--cornerback Eric Jack and free safety Ray Wilson...soph Buddy Billingsley is the best of the defensive line...OLBs Roston Thomas and Dan Coverley are good ones...punter Mike Nesbitt is gone but kicker Nathan Vail returns.

Aggie Notes

After a dismal start, the Aggies tied for the Big West title and reeled off six straight victories...gone is Anthony Calvillo, who finished ninth nationally in total offense and engineered 58 points against the Cougars...he was MVP in the bowl win over Ball State...other key losses were receivers Mike Lee and Aubrey Thompson along with linebacker Jermaine Younger...the top rusher, Profail Grier, returns...kicker Nathan Morreale and punter Micah Knorr are back...USU is high on guard Darrin Mitchell, linebacker Willie Jackson and defensive tackle Pratt Lyons...four starters on the offensive line have to be replaced and a quarterback, maybe JC transfer Jorge Munoz, must emerge...Shawn Griswold has been shifted from defensive tackle to offensive center...the defense will have to carry the team early...BYU had won 10 straight prior to last season...four Cougar coaches either played or coached for the Aggies.

Bulldog Notes

The good news on offense is there's a four-year starter at center in Jason James...the bad news is the quarterback is not Trent Dilfer--it's Adrian Claiborne, Rich Donati or Jeff Tuss...there's a big rebuilding job after the Bulldogs shared the WAC title the first two years in the league...new guards and tackles also must be developed...strength is the receiving corps with Charlie Jones and David Dunn, who can play tight end or flanker...Mike Pittman looks like the heir apparent to Ron Rivers at tailback...JC transfer Reggie Brown could push incumbent Sal Mejico at fullback...there's a lot of talent in the secondary and Gene Smith and Ron Papzian are solid linebackers...two of the three down linemen are gone so freshman Jerry Lemon could see action...FSU must replace kicker Derek Mahoney, who also punted...Mahoney set an NCAA record with 216 career PATs.

Irish Notes

The last six Irish teams have finished sixth or higher in the final polls...last season Notre Dame was second ...Coach Lou Holtz has a lot of talent to replace but it was the same situation a year ago and his team romped past the Cougars...tailback Lee Becton should be the star on offense along with guard Ryan Leahy, who is the lineman to watch now that Aaron Taylor is gone...fullback Ray Zellars probably will share time with sophomore Marc Edwards...neither of the quarterbacks was in full-contact drills in the spring--sophomore Ron Powlus was protecting a broken collarbone and senior Paul Failla was playing baseball...Derrick Mayes is the big threat at wide receiver with Lake Dawson gone...new players have to be found to replace kicker Kevin Pendergast and punter Adrian Jarrell...Michael Miller is a dangerous return man...inside linebacker Justin Goheen and end Brian Hamilton anchor a defense which will feature a lot of new faces...their new coordinator is Bob Davie, very successful at Texas A&M.

Coach Charlie Bailey didn't have a victory in his five games as head coach last season...should get some wins this year with all but two offensive starters returning and all except four on the defensive side...also returning is All-WAC kicker Marshall Young, who does both the placekicking and punting...quarterback Corey Tucker returns but might not be the starter...J.J. Rowlett and Alvin Black head a list of good receivers as UTEP goes to a pro-set offense...fullback Kaio Aumua was the leading rusher with 642 yards...not to be overlooked are return men Sam Rogers (26.5 yards on kickoffs and 15.0 on punts) and Cedric Johnson (21.1) on kickoffs...the defense returns a lot of experience but replacements have to be found for the top three tacklers--linebacker Barron Wortham, end Pookie Floyd and linebacker Steve Thompson...Pete Kuharchek from the World League replaced Bailey as defensive coordinator and Darrell Dickey from LSU is the new offensive coordinator.

Sun Devil Notes

Sun Devils are coached by former Utah State Coach Bruce Snyder...assistants Kent Baer and Donnie Henderson also played and coached for the Aggies while Dan Henson was at Utah the past four years...ASU must replace two superstars and the middle of its offensive line from a year ago but could be a very good team by the end of October...gone are prolific pass rusher Shante Carver and 1,100-yard rusher Mario Bates...Sun Devils will be led by sophomore quarterback Jake Plummer, a Boise, Idaho product, who started the last six games of 1993 and led the Sun Devils to a 4-2 mark ...offensively, the Sun Devils are experienced in the receiving and rushing corps... the backs will have two huge linemen on the left side, tackle Jeff Kysar (6-7, 320) and guard Juan Roque (6-8, 312)...cornerback Craig Newsome is the only returner who started every game on defense...Kysar and receiver Clyde McCoy did the same on offense...all of the 1993 specialists return...ASU has won two straight against BYU and 11 of the last 13...Sun Devils were 11-3 in the WAC.

Aztec Notes

Ted Tollner is back at SDSU (he was an assistant from 1973-80 before becoming the quarterback coach at BYU for a year) but NFL first-round picks Marshall Faulk and Darnay Scott aren't...defensive improvement is the key for a team which gave up as many points (49 per game) in its last four contests as it had in the first eight...Steve Shafer, who spent the past 11 seasons coaching the Rams and Tampa Bay, will build around linemen Jamal Duff, La'Roi Glover and Doug Tom...linebackers and safeties need to be replaced...offense could feature a no-huddle attack...Tim Gutierrez, who took over the quarterback role midway through the third game, wound up 11th nationally in passing efficiency...senior Wayne Pittman could replace Faulk in the one-back formation...Ray Peterson, Curtis Shearer and DeAndre Maxwell are the best receivers returning but red-shirt freshman Will Blackwell could see a lot of action...punter Ed Kaszycki and kicker Peter Holt return...Aztecs have good offensive talent again but lack experience.

Ute Notes

Quarterback Mike McCoy and defensive end Luther Elliss are the mainstay of a team which has been in back-to-back bowl games...McCoy was second nationally in total offense and finished the regular season with three straight 400-yard passing games...Elliss has been All-WAC for two years...Utes lost big-play men Jamal Anderson at fullback and Bryan Rowley at wide receiver but return standout line-men Lance Scott and Anthony Brown...slot back Henry Lusk was Utes' MVP at the Freedom Bowl...after Elliss, the best on defense are linebacker Mark Rexford, last year's leading tackler, and end Bronzell Miller...Utah brought in six junior college players: DL Michael Baulkman (Dodge City), CB Artis Jackson (Trinity Valley), DL Jeff Kaufusi (Dixie), TE Derrick Marston (American River), TE Rick Tucker (Bakersfield), WR Jamil Williams (Grossmont)...kicker Chris Yergensen is gone but punter Jason Jones returns...Utes could be on a roll after their three non-WAC games.

HISTORICAL VIEW

At one time, having a top program--not to mention winning a national championship--seemed out of the realm of possibility for BYU.

After all, it was 29 years ago that the Cougars won their first Western Athletic Conference football title. And the team had managed only 171 victories and 16 winning seasons before the 1972 season.

It was in 1972, however, that BYU's football program shifted gears. LaVell Edwards was named head coach in that year, and things have not been the same since. The Cougars have won 197 games and been to 18 bowl games (16 in a row). Sixteen times BYU has won the WAC title under Edwards' direction, including 10 in a row from 1976-85.

Coach Edwards holds a national championship (1984), been national coach of the year, served as president of the Coaches Association, had a Heisman Trophy winner and coached two Outland Trophy winners in the past decade.

Things weren't always so rosy, however. Football got its beginning at BYU in 1922. That first season, BYU won only one game and scored a total of 10 points during the season. Now, BYU is among national leaders in scoring and total offense.

Football was introduced at BYU in the late 1890's but a fatality prompted its discontinuance. The game returned in 1922 and, minus three years during World War II, the Cougars have played 69 seasons. BYU initially joined ranks with the old Rocky Mountain Conference and later became part of the Mountain States, Skyline and Western Athletic Conferences.

Some of the more noted athletes who have helped propel BYU into the national limelight have been quarterbacks. Virgil Carter (1966), Gary Sheide (1974), Gifford Nielsen (1976), Marc Wilson (1979), Jim McMahon (1981), Steve Young (1983) and Robbie Bosco (1984-85) have all left their mark on BYU's record books. And Ty Detmer (1988-91) finished his incredible career by achieving 15,031 yards passing--the first player ever to go over 12,000.

Nielsen, Wilson, McMahon, Young, Bosco and Detmer were All-American quarterbacks, and each erased marks set by his predecessor. McMahon, Wilson, Bosco were third-place finishers in the Heisman Trophy balloting, while Steve Young finished second.

Detmer won the school's first Heisman Trophy in 1990 and was third in the voting in 1991. Both McMahon and Young were recipients of the Davey O'Brien Award, given to the outstanding collegiate quarterback, and Detmer won it twice.

While passing has been the name of the game at BYU since Edwards took over, there also have been some impressive running backs.

Eldon "The Phantom" Fortie (1961-62), a single-wing back, won All-America honors in 1962. "Fleet Pete" VanValkenburg (1970-71), led the nation in rushing and was second-team All-America.

Fullback John Ogden (1964-66) was the leading rusher in the WAC three consecutive years. And fullback Todd Christensen (1975-77) did such a good job running with and catching the football he later became an all-pro tight end. He was the leading receiver on BYU's team for three years. Lakei Heimuli (1983-86) is the school's rushing leader. Eric Drage (90-93) became the receiving leader last year, breaking yardage and touchdown records set by Phil Odle (65-67).

A good passing team must have good personnel on the offensive line, and BYU has had its share of honors recipients in that area.

Mohammed Elewonibi won the Outland Trophy in 1989, BYU's second such honor in four years. Other standouts include Gordon Gravelle (1970), Paul Howard (1972), Brad Oates (1973-75), Orrin Olsen (1972-75), Tom Bell (1974-79), Nick Eyre (1977-80), Bart Oates (1977-82) and Trevor Matich (1979-84).

There also have been several outstanding tight ends at BYU, most recently Clay Brown (1978-80), Gordon Hudson (1979-83), David Mills (1980-84), Trevor Molini (1985-86) and Chris Smith (1987-90).

Top defensive players include Wayne Baker (1972-74), Paul Linford (1972-74), Mekeli Ieremia (1975-77), Glen Titensor (1978-80), Glen Redd (1976-80), Kyle Whittingham (1979-81), Todd Shell (1980-83), Kyle Morrell (1980-84) and Jason Buck (1985-86), the 1986 recipient of the Outland Trophy.

At various times in the past 25 years, the Cougars have had some great return specialists. Chris Farasopoulos (1968-70), the Galloping Greek, led the nation in punt returns and set two NCAA records. Golden Richards (1970-71) is still listed as a holder of several NCAA records. Vai Sikahema (1980-85) set an NCAA record for most punt returns and later earned All-Pro status with the Cardinals.

BYU was 16th nationally in attendance in 1993, averaging 65,203. Washington was the only school in the West (Pacific and Mountain time zones) which averaged more. Among schools below BYU were Oklahoma, Texas A&M, Notre Dame, Southern California, Colorado, Arizona State, Miami and UCLA.

COUGAR BOWL HISTORY

Holiday Bowl XVI, 1993

Ohio State 28, BYU 21

December 30

San Diego

Just as they did in 1991 against Iowa, the Cougars took a favored Big 10 team to the wire at the Thrifty Car Rental Holiday Bowl and came up just short. This time it was the 11th-ranked Ohio State Buckeyes, who thwarted a last-minute BYU scoring drive to take a 28-21 victory.

The Cougars had four downs and 32 seconds to tie or win the game from the OSU six-yard line, but four straight John Walsh passes into the end zone fell to the ground and OSU snuck away with the win. Two of the passes were dropped and two were underthrown because of the Buckeye pass rush.

BYU got to the Ohio State 14, six, 22 and six-yard lines without scoring in the second half.

Raymont Harris, OSU's senior halfback, battered the BYU defense all night long. In the first half, Harris scored two touchdowns and racked up 101 yards on 13 carries. He got another touchdown late in the third quarter and finished the game with a Holiday Bowl record 235 yards rushing on 39 carries.

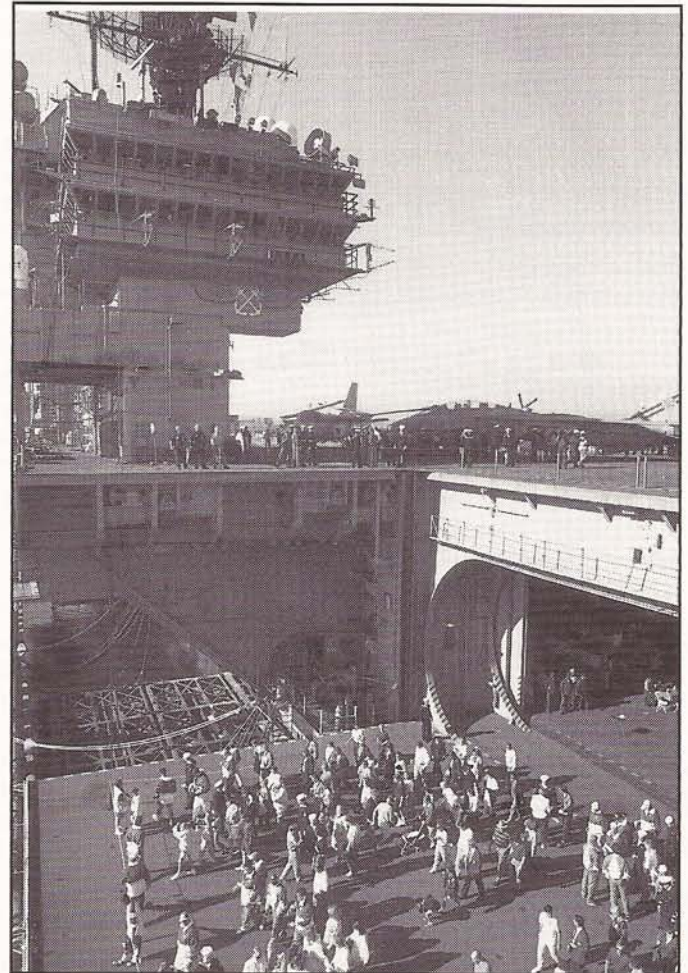

Despite Harris' outstanding first-half output, the Cougars managed to go to the halftime break tied with the Buckeyes at 21. Cougar sophomore Walsh kept BYU in a game many believed would be an OSU blowout by throwing three first-half touchdowns.

Jamal Willis and Bryce Doman each collected 27-yard Walsh offerings and walk-on tight end Chad Lewis made a spectacular one-handed touchdown grab in the corner of the end zone to bail the Cougars out of a fourth-and-eight situation.

Lewis used his outstanding high jumping ability to outleap OSU's Marlon Kerner to make a catch that will surely be on the highlight reels for years to come.

After Harris' short touchdown run late in the third, BYU and OSU traded possessions until late into the fourth quarter. Each team was able to penetrate deep into opponent territory, but neither was able to score. After forcing a rare Buckeye punt, BYU got the ball back on its own 42 with 43 seconds left.

On first down, Walsh hooked up with senior co-captain Eric Drage on a crossing pattern. The Cougars' all-time leader in receiving yards ran away from Buckeye defenders and advanced the ball 52 yards to the OSU 6-yard-line before being cut off and forced out of bounds.

Walsh completed the night with 389 yards on 25 completions and senior fullback Kalin Hall rushed for 42 yards on 11 carries, including some critical runs on the Cougar scoring drives. Senior sprinter Tyler Anderson had a great night returning kicks. The 6-2 speedster returned five balls for 145 yards, including an exciting 45-yarder. Harris and Walsh shared the game's Most Valuable Player honors.

This trip to San Diego marked the 16th consecutive year BYU played in a postseason bowl game and the 18th time BYU qualified in LaVell Edwards' 22 years as head coach.

Kansas 23, BYU 20

December 25

Honolulu, Hawaii

Kansas kicker Dan Eichloff booted a 48-yard field goal with 2:57 left to play, giving the Jayhawks a victory over BYU, the WAC tri-champion.

Tom Young, who completed 15 of 31 passes for 262 yards in his first varsity start, was named Most Valuable Player for BYU. Tackle Dana Stubblefield, who had three of the six sacks on Young, won the honor for Kansas.

Young had been pressed into action when Ryan Hancock suffered knee ligament damage against Utah in the final regular-season game. Hancock was the third quarterback to suffer a season-ending injury. The backup quarterback for the bowl was Chris Gulstad, who had dropped out of football earlier in the season to concentrate on baseball but returned when injuries began to mount.

Special teams play helped the Cougars on the opening kickoff when Hema Heimuli scrambled 94 yards to score. But the kicking game would prove the downfall as the Cougars missed a 36-yard field goal later in the quarter, missed a 31-yarder and misplayed an extra point attempt in the third quarter.

Kansas, which went 7-1 to start the season, tied the game two plays later when wide receiver Matt Gay threw a 74-yard touchdown pass to tight end Rodney Harris. Another big play came midway through the quarter when Chris Maumalanga tackled BYU's Jamal Willis in the end zone for a safety. BYU took a 14-9 lead with 10 minutes left in the second quarter when Willis ran 29 yards for a score. Eichloff then cut the halftime score to 14-12 with a 42-yard field goal.

Young threw 10 yards to Otis Sterling for the only score of the third quarter. Kansas quarterback Chip Hilleary then tied the game by directing a 75-yard drive in a minute and a half, scoring the touchdown and then running for a two-point conversion.

After the field goal, Young hit Bryce Doman with a 31-yard strike. But two plays later Charley Bowen intercepted a pass at the Kansas 36 with 1:55 left to play.

December 30

San Diego, California

A tipped pass that was picked off in the end zone with less than 30 seconds remaining stifled BYU's hopes of knocking off seventh-ranked Iowa in a Holiday Bowl that will be remembered for Josh Arnold of BYU earning Defensive MVP honors.

Ty Detmer turned in another great performance in his last appearance as a Cougar, passing for 350 yards and two touchdowns against a team that led the Big 10 in defense and sacks.

Iowa quarterback Matt Rodgers led the Hawkeyes on a 74-yards scoring march on the game's opening drive. The score came on a 13-yard rumble by Iowa fullback Mike Saunders. Iowa scored after another long drive in the second quarter. Again it was Saunders who scored, this time on a five-yard dive play.

Down 13-0, BYU finally got things rolling. After an Iowa punt put the Cougars on their own 22 with 4:43 left to play in the first half, Detmer connected on five of six passes to move the Cougars to the Iowa nine. From there, Detmer found fullback Peter Tuipulotu for the touchdown. The PAT failed and the halftime score was 13-6.

Neither team scored in the third quarter. BYU opened the fourth with an 87-yard drive that culminated with a Detmer-to-Tyler Anderson touchdown score from 29 yards out. Earl Kauffman connected on the PAT to tie the score at 13.

Each team threatened to score late in the fourth quarter. Iowa moved the ball to the Cougar 23, but missed on a 40-yard field goal attempt with 4:19 remaining.

On the game's final drive, clutch receptions by Eric Drage, Jamal Willis and Tuipulotu helped the Cougars move inside the Iowa 20-yard line with 33 seconds left to play. Then Detmer scrambled left and launched a pass intended for tight end Byron Rex. The ball was tipped and picked off by Hawkeye safety Carlos James in the end zone to preserve the tie.

BYU finished the season ranked 23rd in the AP and CNN/USA Today polls. Iowa finished 10th.

Holiday Bowl XIII, 1990

Texas A&M 65, BYU 14

December 29

San Diego

Led by quarterback Bucky Richardson and All-America running back Darren Lewis, underdog Texas A&M showed it belonged among the nation's elite.

Going into the game, the Cougars were fighting injury problems, especially in the secondary. DBs Tony Crutchfield and Norm Dixon weren't able to suit up and Heisman Trophy winner Ty Detmer was playing with a slight separation in his non-throwing shoulder that was suffered in the regular season finale.

The second largest Holiday Bowl crowd ever (61,441) watched the Aggies march 80 yards in 13 plays to take a 7-0 lead. The Cougars were able to tie the score on an eight-yard Detmer-to-Chris Smith touchdown pass, but after that, the game was all Texas A&M's. The Aggies went on to score 23 points in the second quarter enroute to a 37-7 halftime lead.

With the game out of hand, the big story was William Thomas' crunching sack that separated Detmer's throwing shoulder and put him out of the game early in the third quarter. After playing valiantly with one separation, this one proved to be too much. Detmer would have surgery a few days later to repair the damage.

The Aggies continued to dominate by racking up nearly 200 yards rushing in the second half. The fact Texas A&M's Lewis was still in the game with eight minutes left and a 58-14 lead caused a slight stir among Cougar fans. A bright spot was backup QB Joe Evans' first touchdown pass as a Cougar.

Texas A&M's Richardson would go on to be named Offensive Player of the Game by piling up 344 yards in total offense. Thomas was named the top defensive player with six tackles, two sacks and an interception.

BYU finished the season ranked 17th by UPI, 20th by CNN/USA Today and 22nd by AP. BYU had been as high as fourth prior to its first loss.

Obvious highlights of the year were a win in BYU's first-ever meeting with a top-ranked team (Miami) and the first Heisman Trophy ever by a WAC player.

Holiday Bowl XII, 1989

Penn State 50, BYU 39

December 29

San Diego

Two very unusual plays late in the game kept BYU from toppling the East's best team, Lambert Trophy winner Penn State. Two stunning defensive plays offset 576 yards passing by Ty Detmer--the highest total ever in a bowl game.

For his heroics, and thanks to excellent blocking from Outland Trophy winner Mohammed Elewonibi, Detmer had the rare privilege of sharing MVP honors despite playing on the losing team. The other co-MVP was the Nittany Lions' Blair Thomas, who rushed for 186 yards and picked up some key first downs for Joe Paterno's team.

BYU, which trailed 41-26 with nine and a half minutes remaining, scored twice to cut the lead to 41-39 with 2:30 to play.

The Cougars went for a two-point conversion to tie the game, but Detmer's pass was intercepted in the end zone by Penn State linebacker Andre Collins and returned 102 yards to give the Lions two points.

Down 43-39, the Cougars tried an on-side kick, but Penn State fell on the ball at the BYU 46-yard line. Two tackles behind the line of scrimmage by Bob Davis forced the Lions to punt and the Cougars got the ball back on their own 12 with two minutes left.

Passes to Brent Nyberg, Matt Bellini, Chris Smith and Andy Boyce moved the ball to the Penn State 38 with a minute left to play.

Then, what most Cougar fans thought was a sack by Penn State safety Gary Brown turned into a score for the Nittany Lions. Brown stripped the ball from Detmer at the Penn State 47 and raced 53 yards for the touchdown.

The Cougars got one more chance and moved the ball from their own 32 to the Penn State 40, but time ran out. Bellini had 10 catches for 124 yards while Boyce had 127 yards in receptions and Nyberg 117.

Penn State finished the season ranked 14th by UPI and 15th by AP and CNN/USA Today. BYU was 18th in the UPI poll and 22nd in the others.

BYU finished the year as WAC champion after three seasons out of the top spot.

Freedom Bowl V, 1988

BYU 20, Colorado 17

December 29

Anaheim

A tough second-half defense, Ty Detmer coming off the bench to earn Most Valuable Player honors and two fourth-quarter field goals by Jason Chaffetz enabled the Cougars to upset Colorado.

Cool weather (42 degrees) by southern California standards didn't hamper diminutive Eric Bieniemy, who rushed 33 times for 144 yards and two touchdowns.

But his heroics couldn't offset Detmer's 11 for 19 and 129 yards in the second. Scott Peterson made an interception to set up the game-winning field goal.

It was an exciting contest for the 35,941 fans (49,694 tickets were sold) although a big show failed to materialize in a matchup of the nation's top two punters. Colorado's Keith English averaged only 39 yards on two punts and BYU's Pat Thompson had four punts for a 33.5 average.

A fumble at midfield led to the Buffaloes' first score and then Sean Covey found Mike Salido to tie the score. An interception in the end zone stopped a BYU drive early in the second quarter and the Cougars trailed at the half, 14-7.

A Detmer to Chuck Cutler pass tied the game in the third quarter but Colorado took a 17-14 lead early in the final quarter.

The Cougars then moved from their own four to the Colorado 14 and tied the game with 4:11 left on a 31-yarder by Chaffetz. Three plays later, Peterson's interception and a 15-yard penalty put the ball at the Colorado 32. With 2:33 left, Chaffetz booted a 35-yarder for the victory.

A key performer for BYU was halfback Matt Bellini, who carried eight times for 78 yards and caught four passes for 41 yards.

A sad note for the Buffs came early in 1989 when quarterback Sal Aunese was hospitalized with stomach cancer.

He died during the 1989 season, when Colorado went unbeaten during the regular season and went to the Orange Bowl as the number-one team in the nation.

All American Bowl, 1987

Virginia 22, BYU 16

December 22

Birmingham

The 11th annual All American Bowl was cool (temperature in the high 40s and two days of rain) and the Cougars never got warmed up despite taking a 3-0 lead.

BYU's 10th consecutive bowl appearance saw several records set but the Cougars were edged 22-16 in their first-ever meeting with Virginia. Sean Covey attempted 61 passes, David Miles had 188 yards in receptions and Pat Thompson only punted once--all bowl records--but BYU fell short several times.

Covey, who had led the Cougars to five straight wins as a starter, thought he had a first down at the BYU 46 with four minutes remaining but the ball was marked just short on a fourth-down play.

Darren Handley, BYU's leading receiver for the season, dropped a touchdown pass in the first quarter before BYU settled for a 20-yard field goal by Leonard Chitty. However, Chitty, who set a season mark for field goals (18) and consecutive PATs (29), missed 51 and 47-yarders in the second quarter and Virginia took a 14-3 lead.

BYU got to the Virginia two-yard-line midway through the third quarter only to have a fourth-down pass tipped at the last second. Fred Whittingham scampered eight yards to cut the lead to 14-9 at the end of the third quarter.

Virginia, led by quarterback Scott Secules, the game's MVP, made a crucial 76-yard drive to go ahead 22-9 with 11 minutes left. BYU then went the same distance to score on a one-yard pass to Whittingham with seven minutes remaining.

The Cougars were hurt by the absence of running back/returner Mike O'Brien and linebacker Thor Salanoa, who both suffered knee injuries in the Australia game. Salanoa's loss was magnified when linebacker Richard Hobbs was sidelined in the first half of the bowl game.

Ironically, nine years earlier on the same date (his wedding anniversary), Virginia Coach George Welsh led his Navy team to a 23-16 win over BYU in the inaugural Holiday Bowl.

Freedom Bowl III, 1986

UCLA 31, BYU 10

December 30

Anaheim

Although BYU failed to win the WAC title, the Cougars kept alive an impressive streak of nine bowl appearances in a row by being invited to the third annual Freedom Bowl. There they met familiar foes UCLA and Gaston Green.

The two teams had met in 1985 when the Bruins came from behind to win a closely contested struggle in Provo, 27-24. Green, UCLA's outstanding tailback, was limited to 59 yards in that game and much of UCLA's offense came on four John Lee field goals.

The Freedom Bowl, however, proved different as UCLA and Green broke open a close game in the third quarter and went on to win 31-10. He finished with 266 yards on 33 carries.

The first half was marked by a defensive struggle. The two teams punted nine times in the first 30 minutes with the only scores coming after a turnover and a trick play.

BYU struck first. Linebacker Andy Katoa recovered a UCLA fumble at the Bruin 47 early in the first quarter, and after a Bob Jensen to Mark Bellini pass, Leonard Chitty put the Cougars ahead 3-0 with a 32-yard field goal.

Soon afterward, UCLA stormed ahead to stay with a 71-yard touchdown drive highlighted by a 49-yard run on a reverse by Bruin receiver Karl Dorrell. He also caught six passes for 83 yards.

From there on, it was UCLA most of the way. Midway into the third quarter, Bruin fullback David Greenwood dashed 70 yards through the BYU defense and set up Green's one-yard touchdown run.

David Franey followed with a 49-yard UCLA field goal and later, Green bolted 79-yards with 52 seconds left in the period.

Cougar quarterbacks Bob Jensen and Mike Young managed to pass for over 200 yards, but UCLA and Green did most of the damage.

Costly injuries to standouts Mark Bellini (ankle) and Andy Katoa (knee) hindered the Cougar effort but Outland Trophy winner Jason Buck turned in another strong effort.

Ohio State 10, BYU 7

December 28

Orlando

In what promised to be an offensive showdown between pass-happy BYU (11-2) and rough and tumble Ohio State (8-3), two of the nation's top defenses took center stage. In fact, the game's only touchdowns were produced by a noseguard on an interception and a reserve wide receiver on a broken play.

The rest of the contest was marked by intense hitting, and as is the case with most defensive struggles, the team that made the fewest mistakes won the ball game.

Buckeye kicker Rich Spangler tallied the first points of the game with a 47-yard field goal early in the second quarter to give Ohio State a 3-0 lead. BYU attempted to answer with a long drive of its own, only to come away empty after Vai Sikahema fumbled on an apparent touchdown plunge.

Before the first half ended, however, the Cougars again mounted a long drive and finally hit paydirt when quarterback Robbie Bosco rolled left, whirled right and found wide receiver David Miles on a 38-yard strike to give the Cougars a 7-3 halftime lead.

When the teams returned to the field for the second half, misfortune immediately struck the Cougars. Deep in his own territory, Bosco attempted to throw a pass underneath the dropping Buckeye linebacker and instead found Ohio State noseguard Larry Kolic, who took it in for a touchdown and a 10-7 lead with 13:52 left in the third quarter.

Leon White and Kyle Whittingham recovered fumbles but Kolic got another interception and the Cougars had to punt, stopping the two drives.

Then Terry White intercepted two passes in the end zone to stop BYU threats--once with 3:38 to play and again with three seconds left.

On the day, Bosco was 26 of 50 and a touchdown, but miscues told the story. Ohio State was the benefactor of six Cougar turnovers, and the Buckeyes went home the victor.

John Wooldridge led Ohio State with 92 yards rushing and Matt Bellini had 89 yards receiving for BYU. Lakei Heimuli added 77 yards with 10 catches.

Holiday Bowl VII, 1984

BYU 24, Michigan 17

December 21

San Diego

Holiday Bowl VII lived up to all the glamour and excitement of the previous six bowls, plus it had a new dimension--national championship luster--thanks to BYU's undefeated, untied season and No. 1 ranking. The 24-17 Cougar victory marked the first time in years that a non-New Year's Day bowl game determined the national championship.

The contest was played in typical Holiday Bowl fashion. After a scoreless first quarter in which Cougar quarterback Robbie Bosco was forced to the sideline with an injured knee and ankle, the game began to develop drama.

BYU scored first with 8:37 left in the first half on a five-yard run by Kelly Smith. The touchdown was set up when a limping Bosco returned to the lineup and engineered an 80-yard drive.

The Wolverines responded by putting together an 80-yard scoring drive of their own, culminating on Rick Rogers' five-yard touchdown run up the middle. The PAT tied the score at seven. The tie was short-lived however, as a 31-yard field goal by Lee Johnson with time running out in the first half gave BYU a 10-7 lead at the break.

Midway through the third period, Michigan went on top for the first time at 14-10 on a 10-yard scoring strike from Bob Zurbrugg to Bob Perryman. The Wolverines added to their lead when Bob Bergeron nailed a 32-yard field goal to make the Michigan lead 17-10 with 14:14 to play.

The Cougar offense then produced an 80-yard drive that culminated with a seven-yard Bosco-to-Glen Kozlowski touchdown pass to tie the game at 17 with 10:51 to go.

Bosco's 13-yard scoring toss to Smith with 1:23 remaining made it 24-17. Two plays later Marv Allen intercepted a pass to clinch a 13-0 season and the Cougars' first-ever national championship.

David Mills finished with 11 catches for 103 yards receiving and Smith had 10 for 88. Lakei Heimuli led BYU with 82 yards rushing while Bob Perryman had 110 for Michigan.

Holiday Bowl VI, 1983

BYU 21, Missouri 17

December 23

San Diego

Yet another chapter was added to the saga of impossible, thrilling Holiday Bowl finishes when BYU defeated Missouri, 21-17.

The game was billed as a classic matchup between Missouri's stubborn defense and BYU's explosive offense, led by quarterback Steve Young.

For most of the game, the defenses were in control. Missouri held BYU to just 167 yards of total offense in the first half and gave up only one touchdown to the Cougars.

BYU's defense, however, allowed the Tigers only 157 yards total offense and 10 points in the first half. Missouri got its first-half points on a two-yard run by Eric Drain and a 37-yard field goal by Brad Burditt.

BYU's touchdown came on a 10-yard quarterback draw by Young. In the second half, Young hit Eddie Stinnett with a 33-yard touchdown pass. But Missouri came right back with another two-yard plunge by Drain. A valiant goal-line stand by BYU's defense gave the offense the ball on the six-yard-line with 3:57 left in the game.

Led by Young, the Cougars moved down the field to the Missouri 15 with under a minute to play. On first-and-10 at the Tigers' 15 BYU capitalized on a trick play. After taking the snap, Young handed to Stinnett, who faked a sweep right and lofted the ball back across the field to Young.

The Stinnett pass barely cleared the outstretched hands of Missouri's Bobby Bell allowing Young to gather it in and ramble 15 yards to the end zone. The PAT gave BYU a 21-17 lead with 23 seconds left.

Kyle Morrell then intercepted a Missouri desperation pass at the BYU two-yard line and returned it to the 17 to seal the win.

Mike Eddo led BYU's receivers with 70 yards and Stinnett had 60. Tiumalu was the leading rusher with 57 while Drain had 115 for the Tigers and freshman Jon Redd added 68.

The win over Missouri was part of four bowl victories in five years between 1980-84, the Cougars' most successful post-season stretch ever.

Holiday Bowl V, 1982

Ohio State 47, BYU 17

December 17

San Diego

The Cougars had their two-game Holiday Bowl win streak snapped by Ohio State, 47-17.

BYU's bubble burst at the outset of the third quarter, when the Buckeyes reeled off 17 unanswered points, while BYU only got one snap--an interception at that. The OSU damage came mainly on the ground, as the Buckeyes won their seventh consecutive game.

Tim Spencer was the main gun for the Buckeyes, as he blew through the Cougar defense for 167 yards, including a record-setting 61-yard touchdown run in the second quarter that put Ohio State up, 10-7.

As usual, the BYU quarterback rolled up impressive marks, but the Cougars had trouble making points out of Steve Young's 341 yards passing on 27 of 45 throws.

The Cougars turned the ball over to Ohio State three times inside the 30 and saw the Buckeyes convert each turnover into a score.

The Cougars took the lead early in the second quarter with a seven-yard strike to Neil Balholm. The key plays were a 33-yard pass to Kirk Pendleton and a 16-yarder to Scott Collie.

But Spencer's long gallop and a blocked punt put the Buckeyes up, 17-10, at halftime. Big fullback Vaughn Broadnax scored on the opening drive of the second half and on the next play, Young was intercepted and Spencer ran 18 yards to put Ohio State solidly in control.

BYU's only other score came midway through the fourth quarter when Gordon Hudson caught a 13-yard pass. Ohio State quarterback Mike Tomczak had only 132 yards passing and no touchdowns but his fleet of running backs scored six times on the ground.

Ten different BYU players caught passes, led by Hudson with seven receptions for 81 yards and Balholm with 58 yards receiving.

The Cougars managed only 19 net yards rushing in playing catchup throughout the night. Besides Spencer's big total, Jimmy Gayle rushed for 80 yards and Broadnax for 58.

Holiday Bowl IV, 1981

BYU 38, Washington State 36

December 18

San Diego

The 1981 edition of the Holiday Bowl fit the mold of its predecessors. This time it was the Cougars of BYU versus the Cougars of Washington State playing before a crowd of 52,419. Again it was like two different games.

BYU held a 24-7 lead at halftime, then pushed the score to 31-7 as Tom Holmoe intercepted a pass and returned it 35 yards to give the WAC champions a comfortable 31-7 edge.

But as the second half progressed, it appeared BYU would be the come-from-behind victim in this one. With only 59 seconds left in the third quarter, Washington State made it 31-28 and from there, BYU had to hold on to its life.

In a crucial third-and-12 situation on BYU's 18-yard line with 30 seconds remaining in the third quarter, BYU's Jim McMahon began completing passes and moved BYU 82 yards for a score to stretch the lead to 38-28.

The big play was a 45-yard toss to Gordon Hudson on third down. McMahon then hit Hudson for 26 yards to set up the 11-yard touchdown to Scott Pettis.

Statistically, it was a typical McMahon game--27 of 43 with no interceptions and three touchdowns. But he will be remembered most in the game, perhaps, for turning a fumbled snap into a first down.

That came on a third-and-one play at the BYU 29. McMahon not only grabbed the loose ball, he ran for a first down to help time run out on Washington State.

Tight end Hudson had an excellent game, collecting seven catches for 126 yards and a touchdown. Dan Plater also caught a touchdown pass and Waymon Hamilton scored on the ground.

Washington State quarterbacks Clete Casper and Ricky Turner completed only eight passes for 106 yards but Turner had 82 yards rushing while Don LaBomme had 79.

Each team scored five touchdowns so the difference actually came midway through the second quarter when Kurt Gunther connected on a 20-yard field goal after BYU got to the Washington State three.

Holiday Bowl III, 1980
BYU 46, Southern Methodist 45
December 19
San Diego

One observer said the 1980 Holiday Bowl was actually two ball games--a contest which lasted most of four quarters and another of four minutes duration.

SMU seemed in control the "first game," leaving the Cougars behind 20 points with only minutes remaining.

Unfortunately, many fans either turned off their TV sets or left the stadium in San Diego before the "second game" began. In the final four minutes, BYU surged to a stunning 46-45 victory.

For 56 minutes the Mustangs taught the Cougars a lesson in running the football. The Mustangs' two great running backs, Craig James and Eric Dickerson, rushed for a combined total of 335 yards.

With 4:07 remaining in the game, SMU scored to go ahead, 45-25. From there the Cougars connected on a TD pass, recovered an on-side kick, scored on a one-yard run by Scott Phillips, blocked a punt and, finally (with three seconds left on the clock), scored on a "Hail Mary" pass of 41 yards from Jim McMahon to Clay Brown.

With the score tied, Kurt Gunther kicked the extra point to send BYU fans streaming onto the field.

McMahon completed 32 of 49 passes for 446 yards in what may have been the most exciting bowl game ever with the Cougars getting 21 points in the final 2:33.

Ironically, four passes on conversion attempts had failed before McMahon hit Phillips after the next-to-last touchdown to cut a 45-31 deficit to 45-39 and put the Cougars in a position to win the game with one more score.

The 50-yard drive was set up when Todd Shell recovered SMU's kickoff at midfield.

SMU got the ball back with 1:57 but had to punt. The kick was blocked by defensive back Bill Schoepflin and recovered by the SMU punter, Eric Kaifes, with 13 seconds left.

McMahon threw one incomplete pass intended for Brown and another for Lloyd Jones before unleashing the famous pass to Brown in the end zone.

Holiday Bowl II, 1979
Indiana 38, BYU 37
December 21
San Diego

The 1979 season ended with BYU leading the nation in three major categories: scoring, passing and total offense. Moreover, the Cougars were one of the few undefeated, untied teams in the nation with an 11-0 mark.

Those kinds of credentials, along with their national rankings in the polls (9th UPI and AP), made the Cougars favorites over the at-large entry, Indiana.

It was BYU's first-ever meeting with the Big-10 school, and the net result was one of the most exciting bowl games of the season.

The opportunistic Hoosiers played BYU even in the first quarter, then had a 21-17 lead after a first half in which Indiana had only four more yards total offense than the Cougars.

BYU sputtered ahead in the third quarter, 24-21, on a 13-yard pass from All-American Marc Wilson to Homer Jones. The Cougars fell behind, 31-24, but regained the lead at 34-31 on a 15-yard pass to Eric Lane. With 12:14 left to play, BYU padded the lead on the third field goal of the game by Brent Johnson.

But midway through the fourth quarter, Indiana's Tim Wilbur returned a punt 62 yards to push the Hoosiers ahead 38-37.

On the first play after the kickoff, Indiana's Evans intercepted a pass to set up a drive to BYU's 11-yard line, where the Hoosiers botched a fake field goal attempt.

With 2:06 remaining, the Cougars moved the ball 69 yards to the Indiana 10 with a key play being a 26-yard pass to Scott Phillips.

Then with 11 seconds left, Johnson missed a 27-yard field goal that would have won the game. Wilson was voted the MVP on offense (28 of 43 for 380 yards) and Indiana's Wilbur won the honor for defense.

Clay Brown caught nine passes for 142 yards and Lane grabbed nine passes for 79 yards and also scored a rushing touchdown. Jones scored a touchdown and had 126 yards on seven kickoff returns.

Holiday Bowl, 1978

Navy 23, BYU 16

December 22

San Diego

The inaugural game of the Holiday Bowl pitted two teams with local drawing power, the Naval Academy and Brigham Young. Despite chilly temperatures (for San Diego) the two teams engaged in a hard-hitting battle.

Defense dominated the first two quarters. Brent Johnson put the Cougars on the scoreboard first with a 33-yard field goal with 8:26 left in the first quarter. But Navy's Bob Tata boomed through a 40-yard field goal to tie the score at 3-3.

Jim McMahon sent the Cougars ahead with a 10-yard pass to Mike Chronister, but Johnson missed the PAT. McMahon ran another in from two yards out in the third period for a 16-3 BYU lead.

Navy cut the lead to 16-10 after three quarters and then tied the game on two field goals in the fourth quarter, but it was a 65-yard pass to Phil McConkey that did the Cougars in.

Some 48,003 witnessed the game in person. McConkey was named Best Offensive Player and BYU's Tom Enlow won Best Defensive Player honors. Navy finished the year at 9-3, BYU at 9-4.

Tangerine Bowl, 1976

Oklahoma State 49, BYU 16

December 18

Orlando

Powerful Oklahoma State, sparked by All-American Terry Miller (173 yards rushing on 23 carries), used four pass interceptions and a fumble recovery to capture the Tangerine Bowl contest. Defensively, the Cowboys yielded only 46 yards rushing.

The Cougars, however, stayed close in the first half, which ended 28-14. But Dave Lowry returned the second-half kickoff 102 yards (a Tangerine Bowl record) to move the Cougars to within seven at 28-21. From there, it was all Cowboys.

BYU's Gifford Nielsen completed 23 of 34 passes for 209 yards and one touchdown, but the Cougars could only roll up 255 yards to Oklahoma State's 402.

BYU entered the game with a 9-2 record, while Oklahoma State came in after tying for the Big-8 title. The Cowboys missed out on the Orange Bowl because of the conference tie-breaking formula.

Later, the stadium was expanded and the name changed to the Florida Citrus Bowl.

Oklahoma State 16, BYU 6

December 28

Tempe

Competing in its first post-season bowl game ever, BYU played Western Athletic Conference host to the Oklahoma State Cowboys before a crowd of 50,878.

The Cougars got off to a quick start with two field goals during the first quarter before All-WAC quarterback Gary Sheide suffered a dislocated shoulder in the last moments of the quarter. He was replaced by junior reserve Mark Giles.

The Cowboys took the scoring lead during the second quarter on a touchdown run around left end, so the halftime score was 7-6 for Oklahoma State.

OSU regained possession of the ball on the Cougars' 17-yard line after intercepting Giles, but the Cowboys were unable to convert on the turnover.

A field goal from 32 yards out put the Cowboys in front 10-7 at the end of the third quarter. With 1:14 remaining in the game, Oklahoma State scored another touchdown on a 40-yard halfback pass to complete the scoring.

The Cougars outgained Oklahoma State in total yardage, 301-214. Giles was 11 of 26 for 138 yards. After three losses and a tie to open the season, the Cougars reeled off seven straight victories prior to the bowl game.

1993 GAME SUMMARIES

1 BYU 34, NEW MEXICO 31

Sept. 4, Albuquerque, NM

Bryce Doman caught two touchdown passes and scored on a fumble recovery in the end zone as the Cougars held off the fired-up Lobos in front of the largest crowd (33,659) ever to see a football game in the state.

New Mexico had taken a 31-27 lead in the final minute of the third quarter but John Walsh struck minutes later with a 52-yard strike to Tim Nowatzke. BYU got a scare with a minute left to play when the Lobos had a chance for a tie but Nathan Vail's 41-yard field goal attempt was barely wide to the left.

The Lobos' final drive started with 2:04 left to play after BYU fumbled the snap on a fourth-and-one play at the New Mexico 47. A pass to Zack Wesley and a pass interference call moved the ball to the BYU 23. But three incompletions forced the Lobos to try a field goal.

Eric Drage caught seven passes for 124 yards and Doman had five receptions for 111 yards. A preview of things to come during the season surfaced in this opening game with fullback Kalin Hall on the sidelines with an ankle injury and halfback Jamal Willis leaving after two carries with an ankle sprain.

Walsh completed 24 of 38 attempts for 384 yards and BYU appeared to be in control with a 27-17 lead with five minutes left in the third quarter.

But the Lobos scored twice before the end of the quarter on a night when Stoney Case ran for two touchdowns and passed for two others. After BYU took the lead for good, Oliver returned the kickoff 57 yards and New Mexico got to the Cougars' 13-yard line.

But, with 8:11 left to play, Nathan Hall sacked Case and forced a fumble, which was recovered by Randy Brock. Hall, a linebacker, led BYU with 10 tackles and weak safety Casey Mazzotta had nine.

2 BYU 41, HAWAII 38

Sept. 11, Provo, UT

A second-straight see-saw battle wound up being decided when Joe Herrick booted a 40-yard field goal with 18 seconds left to play. Moments earlier, Hawaii's Carlton Oswald missed a 21-yard attempt.

BYU got the ball on its 20-yard line with 39 seconds remaining. After an incomplete pass over the middle, John Walsh found Eric Drage down the right sideline and the talented receiver angled across the field to the Hawaii 22-yard line--a gain of 58 yards. BYU immediately sent in Herrick for the game-winning kick.

Hawaii had time for two desperation passes. The second was intercepted by BYU's Frank Christianson at the Cougars' 34.

BYU took a 14-0 lead but the Rainbows tied the game at 14 and BYU tied it at 21 and 38. A key turn of events occurred late in the first half after BYU had taken a 24-21 lead with 1:27 left to play.

On the second play, Hawaii fumbled and Christianson recovered to give BYU the ball at the Rainbows' 35. Walsh threw 13 yards to Tyler Anderson and then 24 to Drage for a touchdown.

The Rainbows' 454 yards rushing was a stadium record. Doing the most damage were Calvin Melvin with 172 yards and Brian Gordon with 166.

Kalin Hall made his debut with 89 yards and Hema Heimuli added 71 but Jamal Willis was unable to play. Drage's heroics made him the leading receiver with 100 yards on four catches.

The defensive leaders were Nathan Hall with 12 tackles and Todd Herget, the other outside linebacker, with 10. BYU entered the game with the third-best home record (51-8) over the last decade.

3 BYU 27, COLORADO STATE 22

Sept. 18, Fort Collins, CO

BYU blocked two field goal attempts and a punt in a game delayed five minutes by a lightning storm. The Rams fumbled the opening kickoff and BYU went 26 yards in three plays to take the lead on a Jamal Willis touchdown.

A 30-yard field goal by Joe Herrick and a one-yard run by Kalin Hall gave the Cougars a 17-0 lead in the first quarter.

But CSU took advantage of a BYU fumble for a 33-yard drive in the second quarter and then the Rams cut the lead to 17-13 with 11 seconds left in the first half when Andre Strode returned a pass interception 82 yards in a rain storm.

The Rams made it even more interesting by taking the second-half kickoff and getting in position for a 36-yard Mike McGee field goal to cut the margin to 17-16.

Midway through the quarter, Rob Morris (later switched to linebacker) caught his only pass of the season for 27 yards as the Cougars went 58 yards in seven plays to take a 24-16 lead.

Quarterback Anthoney Hill got flushed out of the pocket and scrambled 61 yards to set up another CSU score. A 10-yard pass to Mark Smith cut the lead to 24-22 but a pass for a two-point conversion was dropped.

BYU got some insurance points when Herrick kicked a 20-yard field goal with 6:51 left to play.

CSU was unable to get a first down and had to punt. With the ball on its own 34, two BYU fumble recoveries--one by center Ron Simmons on a bobbled snap and the other by Jamal Willis--preserved the victory. Walsh then got the Cougars out of trouble by throwing 36 yards to Willis and BYU was able to run out the clock.

Todd Herget, switched to middle linebacker for this game, led the defensive pressure and made eight tackles. Nathan Hall and Greg Pitts had six each.

4 BYU 30, AIR FORCE 3

Sept. 25, Provo, UT

Eric Drage moved into first place on the career list for touchdown catches and yards and the Cougars had their best defensive day of the season in crushing Air Force. Drage broke the record of 25 touchdown receptions held by Phil Odle (65-67) and of 2,635 yards held by Matt Bellini (87-90).

Drage's two touchdown catches in the second quarter broke open a close game and put the Cougars in front, 23-3, at halftime. The defense limited the Falcons to 244 yards in total offense as BYU won for the 11th straight time against Air Force and the 15th time in 16 tries.

John Walsh completed 28 of 37 passes for 422 yards and Jamal Willis and Kalin Hall produced 98 and 87 yards rushing. Hall had 46 of those on the first series when he raced for a score.

Todd Herget had 12 tackles and Lenny Gomes 10 for BYU and Vic Tarleton got the team's second interception of the season (Frank Christianson got one against Hawaii).

A blocked field goal attempt and a pass interference call helped the Falcons get in position for a 52-yard field goal by Chris MacInnis with five minutes left in the first quarter. A pass interception foiled BYU's next series but Walsh got the Cougars clicking in the second quarter.

A six-yard pass to Drage completed a 73-yard drive and then he found Drage for a 69-yard scoring strike. Just before halftime, BYU moved close enough for Joe Herrick to kick a 28-yard field goal.

Air Force opened the second half by having a field goal attempt hit the cross bar and then BYU drove 80 yards to complete the scoring with 9:45 left in the third quarter.

Quarterbacks Steve Clements and Tom Young got into the game in a fourth quarter which saw three punts by Alan Boardman. The Cougars got to the Air Force one-yard line in the final minute before being pushed back by a penalty.

5 UCLA 68, BYU 14
Oct. 9, Pasadena, CA

BYU came off a bye week as one of the 19 unbeaten teams in the country but left the Rose Bowl with its most lopsided loss ever. UCLA could do no wrong after one punt. And every Cougar mistake seemed to result in a touchdown.

After giving BYU some hope by settling for a pair of field goals, the Bruins reeled off five touchdowns before John Walsh hit Tyler Anderson with a 20-yard pass on the final play of the half. There was 1:06 left on the clock when Chad Lewis caught a four-yard pass from Tom Young to give BYU its other score.

"We played a red hot football team," said Coach LaVell Edwards. "UCLA executed well and our turnovers definitely hurt us." The Bruins came up with three pass interceptions and three fumble recoveries and added 11 sacks. UCLA converted the turnovers into two field goals and four touchdowns.

BYU's frustration was never more evident than when Marvin Goodwin intercepted a pass three yards deep in the end zone with four minutes left in the third quarter. A terrific burst of speed by Anderson brought Goodwin down at the other end of the field just short of the goal line but there was a 14-point turnaround.

Wayne Cook, who didn't play in the 17-10 win over BYU in 1992, completed only 12 passes but four were for touchdowns--three to J.J. Stokes. BYU had no one with more than 27 yards rushing as the Cougars were forced to pass often because of the deficit.

With the sacks, the rushing total for the night was only 25 yards. The Cougars outpassed UCLA, 292-171, but the Bruins had 318 yards net rushing, including an 83-yard romp by Ayers. UCLA also scored on a 42-yard interception return by Donovan Gallatin.

Eleven players had pass receptions for BYU as Walsh was 19 for 36 (222 yards) and Young and Steve Clements were four for five each.

6 NOTRE DAME 45, BYU 20
Oct. 16, Provo, UT

The Fighting Irish made their first visit ever to BYU and provided a record crowd (66,247) and an ESPN audience with an impressive display of talent. Notre Dame coasted after building up a 31-0 lead before Eric Drage caught a touchdown pass from Tom Young (John Walsh suffered a knee sprain late in the first quarter). Quarterback Kevin McDougal dismissed any thoughts that he would be benched in favor of Paul Failla by completing 10 of 16 passes for 177 yards, a touchdown and some key first downs. Meanwhile, Lee Becton rushed for 122 yards and Ray Zellars added 72. Flanker Mike Miller caught a touchdown pass from each of the quarterbacks. His 66-yarder earlier in the second quarter came after BYU had driven to the Irish 30 before missing a field goal and the 24-0 lead couldn't be overcome.

Young engineered another score in the third quarter and Steve Clements directed a scoring drive late in the game but Notre Dame would move into second place in the rankings after Alabama was tied. The statistical star for BYU was punter Alan Boardman with a 46-yard average on seven kicks. Drage caught seven passes for 55 yards but he was the only receiver with more than 18 yards. The Cougars did cut down their turnovers, giving up only one fumble and one interception but the difference was Notre Dame's big offensive line, which opened up big holes, and the Irish speed on defense, which limited the Cougars to only 140 yards passing and 95 on the ground.

Coach Lou Holtz, whose team completed a turnover-free game against BYU for the second straight year, called the Cougar crowd, "the loudest and most loyal I've witnessed in my coaching career. There were times when we tried to check off and couldn't hear."

Besides Walsh, the Cougars lost running back Hema Heimuli, who broke the index finger on his right hand and had surgery the next day.

7 FRESNO STATE 48, BYU 45

Oct. 23, Provo, UT

John Walsh hobbled off the bench late in the first half to turn a one-sided game into an exciting passing duel with Trent Dilfer. Neither team could stop each other going down the wire but Fresno State controlled the ball last. BYU got the game's final score with 3:43 left to play but didn't get the ball back.

The Bulldogs led, 17-3, when Walsh entered the game and had a 41-24 lead with 10:45 left to play. A two-yard run by Jamal Willis and an 18-yard pass to Tyler Anderson cut the lead to 41-38 with 6:30 remaining. However, Dilfer hit Anthony Daigle with a 59-yard pass with five minutes left to play. Walsh was unstoppable but so was the FSU offense.

BYU's final score was an 80-yard drive in a minute and 16 seconds and included a sack. Key plays were a 20-yard pass to Kalin Hall and a 23-yarder to Eric Drage. After a 10-yard pass to Steve Christensen, Micah Matsuzaki hauled in a 35-yard pass for the score.

For the second straight week BYU had 95 yards rushing. Ron Rivers was the FSU ground attack with 143 yards. In just over a half Walsh was 22 of 35 for 439 yards and five touchdowns. Dilfer was 21 of 34 for 456 yards and four touchdowns, including bombs of 72 yards to Charlie Jones, 59 to Daigle and 55 to Malcolm Seabron.

The matchup was the second confrontation of the season between any of the Western Athletic Conference tri-champions from 1992. The Cougars escaped with a three-point win over Hawaii but fell short by that same margin against the Bulldogs.

The passing action overshadowed impressive kickoff returns by BYU's Steve Christensen (three for 98 yards) and FSU's David Dunn (three for 73 yards). Steve Clements played the first quarter at quarterback and led the Cougars to a field goal. Tom Young played most of the second quarter and had passes picked off by Sam Watson and Ron Papazian.

8 UTAH STATE 58, BYU 56

Oct. 30, Logan, UT

It sounded like a basketball score but it was a fun football game--especially for the Aggies, who went on to three more victories to offset a slow start and qualify for the Silver Bowl. USU quarterback Anthony Calvillo took advantage of a BYU defense minus linebackers Todd Herget (neck stinger) and Nathan Hall (heart arrhythmia).

Less than two weeks after BYU Coach LaVell Edwards had been named to the Aggies' All-Century Team (linebacker), Calvillo completed 31 of 57 passes for 472 yards and five touchdowns. Meanwhile, John Walsh set a BYU record with 619 yards passing on 27 of 44 and five touchdowns. With Eric Drage forced out with five broken ribs, wide receiver Micah Matsuzaki (7-164), and running back Steve Christensen (4-128) picked up the slack.

BYU had its only leads at 7-3 and 14-13. USU was up, 20-14, at halftime and then got a crucial score when Cotie McMahon caught a 40-yard pass. The Aggies scored on the first drive of the fourth quarter to take a 44-28 lead. BYU cut the lead to 44-42 and 51-49 and then recovered an on-side kick but there was a penalty so the play was nullified.

BYU's final score came with 59 seconds left to play on a 42-yard pass to Micah Matsuzaki. The Aggies recovered an on-side kick attempt and ran out the clock.

The crowd of 26,328 was the third largest in Romney Stadium history and BYU's 56 points tied an NCAA record set earlier this season when Purdue lost to Minnesota, 59-56. Among highlights for BYU were a one-handed catch for a 72-yard scoring reception by Jamal Willis and a 100-yard kickoff return by Tyler Anderson.

USU's Aubrey Thompson hauled in 12 passes for 122 yards. Calvillo's 65 yards rushing put him just behind Willis as the game's top ground gainer. The win broke BYU's string of 10 straight going back to USU's last win in 1982.

9 BYU 45, SAN DIEGO STATE 44

Nov. 11, San Diego, CA

A trend toward exciting, high-scoring games continued with BYU winning a key WAC game to stay in the running for another championship on an ESPN Thursday night telecast. The Cougars forced Tim Gutierrez to fumble on a two-point conversion attempt with a minute left to preserve the win. He recovered the ball but was short of the goal line.

BYU led, 45-31, early in the fourth quarter but Gutierrez hit Keith Williams for a 30-yard score after a pass interference call and a 23-yard run by Marshall Faulk. Then Shawn Smith intercepted a pass and SDSU had the ball on BYU's 15-yard line. Will Tate caught an eight-yard pass for a score and the Aztecs had a chance to tie. But, with two league losses already, they elected to go for a win instead of a tie.

The wild game continued a trend between the two rivals. In the past four meetings, the teams had combined to average 89.5 points per game. Each team was without its top receiver as SDSU's Darnay Scott (back) and BYU's Eric Drage (ribs) sat out. Marshall Faulk had his fourth best game rushing with 252 yards. The third best had been in 1992 against the Cougars with 299 in Provo. Steve Christensen caught TD passes of 63 and 39 yards in the second half.

A key play came late in the third quarter with the game tied at 31. SDSU had moved to the BYU 16 but Jack Damuni got an interception, only the Cougars' third of the season, to stop the drive. Three plays later Walsh hit Christensen for the 63-yarder on a fake reverse and BYU was ahead to stay.

Freshman middle linebacker Shay Muirbrook had his best game of the season with eight tackles and the Cougars got an emotional boost when Nathan Hall returned to the lineup after being cleared from heart problems. BYU had a scare in the fourth quarter when the game was delayed 10 minutes when special teams player Scott Merkley suffered a concussion and was kept overnight at a hospital.

10 UTAH 34, BYU 31

Nov. 20, Provo, UT

Chris Yergensen booted a 55-yard field goal with 25 seconds remaining to give the Utes their first win in Provo since 1971. The win clinched a winning season for the Utes and sent BYU into its final regular season game needing a victory to stay in contention for a bowl game. Wyoming's loss to Colorado State the same afternoon would have left the Cougars alone in first place and in control of their own destiny.

BYU squandered a 14-3 first quarter lead when Utah tied the contest at 17 midway through the third quarter. An 84-yard pass from Mike McCoy to Curtis Marsh gave Utah a 23-17 lead earlier in the fourth quarter. Yergensen's extra point was no good and he had missed two field goals earlier but his time for heroics was still ahead.

John Walsh moved the Cougars down the field and Kalin Hall scored from four yards out. Joe Herrick's PAT gave BYU a 24-23 lead with 10 minutes remaining. Utah regained the lead at 31-24 with 4:39 left when Jamal Anderson scored on a four-yard run and then caught a pass for the conversion.

Passes of 14 and 19 yards to Hema Heimuli (playing with a large cast on his right hand) and a 30-yarder to Tyler Anderson moved the ball downfield in a hurry. Walsh scored on a one-yard sneak and Herrick's kick tied the game with 3:16 remaining. However, McCoy found Greg Hooks for a 17-yard completion and Jamal Anderson ran twice to get a first down and put Utah at the BYU 37. BYU forced three incomplete passes before Coach Ron McBride, who would call the game his biggest win ever, sent in Yergensen.

Utah won the yardage battle, 629-501, despite the return to the lineup of Todd Herget. Eric Drage was limited to carrying in two plays (both running) as his recovery from broken ribs continued. Jamal Willis was still recovering from a knee injury (SDSU). Steve Christensen caught six for 57 yards.

11 BYU 47, UTEP 16

Nov. 27, Provo, UT

Kalin Hall rushed for four touchdowns as the Cougars clinched a tie for the Western Athletic Conference championship and became bowl eligible with a 6-5 regular-season record. Later in the day, Wyoming's win over San Diego State made the WAC a tri-championship and the tie-breaker formula put BYU in the Thrifty Car Rental Holiday Bowl--the Cougars' 16th straight bowl appearance. The home finale was played under clear, but cold (temperatures in the 20's), skies and the Cougars dominated a game for the first time since Air Force in September.

Hall rushed for 108 yards to give the team 203--the only time besides Air Force that the Cougars went over 200 yards. Eric Drage returned to duty, catching four passes for 28 yards to finish his career with school records of 29 touchdowns and 3,036 yards receiving. Jamal Willis had to leave after aggravating his knee sprain after gaining 10 yards. He finished his junior year shy of 2,000 yards rushing (1,928) and is still fifth on the career list.

BYU played without defensive end Travis Hall. Todd Herget (shoulder stinger) played part of the game but offensive guard Evan Pilgrim (ankle) did not. The win continued BYU's NCAA record of 235 games without being shut out and gave LaVell Edwards his 21st winning season in 22 years and increased his career victories to 197.

BYU jumped to a 10-0 lead in the first quarter on a 42-yard field goal by Joe Herrick and a five-yard run by Walsh. Marshall Young got a 28-yard field goal for UTEP but a nine-yard run by Hall made it 17-3 with five minutes left in the first half. Then Tim Nowatzke blocked a punt just before halftime and Walsh hit Drage with five seconds remaining for a score.

John Haqq scored for the Miners to cut the lead to 24-10 early in the third quarter but a 35-yard field goal by Herrick and another score by Hall gave the Cougars a comfortable 33-10 margin after three quarters. Steve Clements directed BYU to its final score as BYU beat UTEP for the eighth straight time and 21st in the 22 years under Coach Edwards.

NEWS MEDIA INFORMATION

The BYU Football Media Guide is designed to provide the media with useful information about the 1994 football team. The following information also will help the media in covering the Cougars during the season. Please review it.

Player Interviews

Please schedule all player and coach interviews through the Sports Information Office. To assure a better chance of obtaining the interview, please notify the Sports Information Office at least 24 hours in advance of the interview. Coach LaVell Edwards is available to media from 10-11 a.m. Members of the print media requesting interviews should contact Ralph Zobell, Sports Information Director. Requests for broadcast interviews should be made to Jay Mosen, Electronic Media Coordinator. No player interviews will be given the day before, or on, game day.

Big Five Huddle

Coach Edwards and two football players attend the Big Five Huddle at noon each Tuesday at the Red Lion Inn in Salt Lake City. The coach and players will be available for individual interviews immediately after the luncheon.

Home Game Coverage

Requests for press box and photography credentials should be made no later than one week prior to the game. These credentials will be issued to working members of the media only, with preference given to media representatives who regularly cover college football. No requests will be processed later than noon on the day prior to the game. Requests should be written on company letterhead and directed to: BYU Sports Information, 30 SFH, BYU, Provo, UT 84602. Phone (801) 378-4911.

Stadium Location, Media Parking

BYU's stadium is located on the northwest corner of the campus, just off Canyon Road and University Parkway (1650 North) in Provo. Press parking is in Lot #2, immediately west of the stadium near the ticket booth. Media parking passes must be requested. The press box is accessible via elevators located on the west side of Cougar Stadium.

Press Box Arrangements

The Sports Information staff will provide working media members with official statistics. A press box public address announcer will keep the media informed of play-by-play information, broken records and other interesting information. A meal will be served before each home game.

Several telephones (campus extensions) will be available in the main area of the press box. Collect or credit card calls can be made from these telephones. In the past, there have been sufficient phones to meet the needs of the media. However, if guaranteed availability is desired, visitors may wish to order their own phones.

Please notify the Sports Information Office in advance if FAX transmissions are necessary. The press box staff will be glad to assist in transmitting copy and statistics. Score updates are available by calling (801) 378-2609.

The BYU Sports Information staff will accompany the media to the locker room. With two minutes remaining in the game, the media group will take the south elevator to ground level.

Coach LaVell Edwards will speak to the media after the mandatory 10-minute cooling off period, which begins after the team enters the locker room. Quotes from both coaches will be available as soon after the game as possible for those unable to get to the interview room.

Photo credentials will be issued to newspapers and magazines which regularly cover college football. Mark Philbrick, BYU's photographer, will supervise the distribution of photo vests at the game. Photographers on the sidelines must wear the required vest at all times.

Television photographers and still cameramen are not allowed on the sidelines between the 25-yard lines. Please use north elevator to access press box. Pick up photo vests at the press box and return them after the game.

Fan Hotline

BYU fans can get up-to-date Cougar sports information each day by calling 378-TEAM. The hotline is sponsored by Universal Campus Credit Union and features scores and statistics from previous athletic events, information about upcoming events, and general information about the men's and women's athletic programs.

More Information

For pictures, media guides, video tapes, and other information, contact BYU Sports Information, 30 SFH, BYU, Provo, UT 84602. Phone: (801) 378-4911.
