We sincerely appreciate your coverage of BYU football and look forward to working with you this season.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

All requests for credentials to cover BYU football should be sent on company letterhead to: Jeff Reynolds, Associate Director; Athletic Media Relations; 30 SFH; Provo, UT 84602. Fax requests may be sent to (801) 422-0633.

All single-game credential requests should be received no later than one week prior to the date of the game. Requests received later than noon on the day prior to the game will not be accepted. Credentials for working media, including print and electronic (radio & television) media outlets are restricted in accordance with BYU, Mountain West Conference and NCAA rules and guidelines. It is our intention to ensure proper, professional use is made of the space available for credentialed media.

Credentials, complete with parking pass (if requested), will be mailed to the requesting individual or organization if time permits, or sent to the visiting school's sports information director for distribution. Otherwise, all credentials will be available at the Media Will-Call window, located at the ticket office west of the stadium.

PRESS BOX

Working press box credentials shall be issued only to accredited newspapers, radio and television reporters only. Requests from other media sources shall be evaluated on a game-by-game basis. Reporters representing newspapers with next-day editions, daily editions, national magazines, wire services, live television and radio broadcasts and television and radio stations covering for nightly news shall be given priority. Spouses, dates, children and other non-working persons will not be credentialed and are not allowed in the working media areas during the game as dictated by NCAA guidelines.

Credentials must be displayed prominently throughout the game, including pre- and post-game coverage. Credentials must be displayed at all times. Pregame interviews with players and/or coaches will not be permitted under any circumstances. Properly credentialed media representatives shall be allowed field access with four minutes remaining on the game clock. Interviews with players and/or coaches may not be conducted until the NCAA-mandated 10-minute cooling off period has expired. Individuals or organizations violating this policy may be required to surrender their credentials and be removed from the stadium

PHOTOGRAPHY

Sideline credentials will be issued only to accredited photographers and television reporters/camera operators on assignment. Television organizations shall be restricted to one camera operator and one reporter on the field at all times, except by prior approval from the BYU athletic media relations office. Freelance and amateur photographers not on assignment are not eligible for sideline credentials, except by prior approval from the BYU Athletic Media Relations office.

All Mountain West Conference and NCAA rules shall be enforced regarding media representatives on the sidelines. Photographers are not permitted to shoot between the 25-yardlines. Sideline supervisors will patrol both sidelines to make certain all rules are enforced. Live or taped pregame interviews with players and/or coaches will not be permitted under any circumstance. Individuals or organizations violating sideline policies may be required to surrender their credentials and be removed from the stadium. For additional questions regarding photography guidelines, please contact University photographer Mark Philbrick at (801) 422-7322.

MEDIA SERVICES

The working media area is located on the third floor of the press box, situated on the west side of LaVell Edwards Stadium. Access to the press loge may be obtained via the north or south elevator.

The BYU athletic media relations staff will provide working media with game notes, season stats, depth charts, flip cards, programs and media guides for both BYU and the visiting team prior to the game. Additional information, such as lineup, roster or jersey changes will be distributed as the information becomes available. An official statistical package complete with individual and team stats, play-by-play, scoring summaries, quotes, end-of-quarter stats and defensive stats will be distributed following the game. "Quickie Stats" will be available during timeouts and at the end of each quarter.

With four minutes remaining on the game clock, media are invited to take the south elevator to ground level in preparation for the post-game press conference. BYU head coach Gary Crowton and selected players will be available in the media room following the mandatory 10-minute cooling-off period. The BYU locker room is closed to all media. The media room is located next to the BYU locker room under the southeast corner of east grandstands. Quotes from both coaches and selected players will be available in the finals stats package.

Several courtesy telephones (with campus extensions) will be available in the working area of the press box, while a limited number of phones will be available in the media room. All phones are available on a first-come, first-serve basis. Phone lines can be purchased for your organization's exclusive use on a season-long basis. Collect or credit card calls can be made from each of these telephones.

PARKING

LaVell Edwards Stadium is located on the northwest corner of the BYU campus, just off Canyon Road (200 East) and University Parkway (1650 North) in Provo. Media parking is in Lot No. 2, immediately west of the stadium. Parking passes are required and must be obtained in advance.

Live, real-time updates will not be permitted.

SPORTS RADIO

All interviews must be arranged through the media relations office. The media relations office will not facilitate the broadcast of live guests during regular class hours. ## NATIONAL & REGIONAL TV

On February 1, 1999, ESPN, Inc., signed a seven-year contract with the Mountain West Conference, giving ESPN exclusive national television rights to football and men's basketball beginning with the 1999-2000 academic year. ESPN will also televise the Mountain West Conference Women's Basketball Championship game and one regular season game on the network.

Voice of Cougar football: Greg Wrubell

An average of 21 football games will be televised per year, three of which will be broadcast on Thursday nights. Last season, ESPN televised five BYU football games

LOCAL TELEVISION BROADCASTS

KSL has been televising BYU football games since 1984. Now KSL-TV has pioneered a new and unique sports production entity — Bonneville SportsWest Productions. SportsWest broadcasts are produced by an award winning team and serve as the benchmark for the market and beyond.

BYU and SportsWest have an agreement to local market broadcast rights to BYU athletic events that have not been acquired by ESPN.

Under the arrangement, sponsors may contact Dan Checketts (VP, General Manager) or Dave Champlin (Director of Sales and Marketing) at (801) 575-5823.

SportsWest is currently offering category exclusive site-line signage among other advertising opportunities. For production assistance contact Mikel Minor (Executive Producer) at (801) 575-5822.

RADIO

The exclusive home of BYU Football and radio flagship of the Cougar Sports Network is 50,000-watt KSL Newsradio 1160 in Salt Lake City—celebrating 80 years of broadcasting in 2002.

The "Voice of the Cougars" is Greg Wrubell, entering his second season in the broadcast booth.

A BYU graduate in 1990, Wrubell joined the on-air team in 1992, reporting from the sidelines and locker-room, in addition to hosting the "Cougar Countdown Show." He has called BYU Basketball games since 1996.

Wrubell's broadcast partner is former BYU quarterback Marc Lyons, entering his 21st season as game analyst. Lyons, a math teacher at Olympus High School, also contributes to KSL's comprehensive pregame and postgame shows.

Record-setting BYU wide receiver Andy Boyce returns for his second season on the sidelines. Boyce, who doubles as KSL's Director of BYU Sports Sales, played alongside Ty Detmer as a Cougar wideout, setting a single-season receiving yards mark in 1990 that still stands.

Bill Riley is back for his second season as studio host of BYU's pregame, halftime and postgame coverage. Riley, who anchors "Sports Final" nightly on KSL, also hosts the midweek "Gary Crowton Show".

KSL Chief Engineer John Dehnel begins his 17th season on the BYU broadcast crew, while longtime spotter Doug Martin and veteran statistician Ralph Sokolowsky round out KSL's lineup in the booth.

national television exposure

MEDIA ATTENTION

From national publications to live television broadcasts, BYU football is one of the more visible programs in the country. Since its first national television appearance in 1974, BYU has posted a 48-30-2 record while playing in front of a national audience, including a 23-15 mark on ABC and a 27-17-2 mark on ESPN. Dating back to 1980, the Cougars have appeared on national television an average of three times per season. The Cougars have played at least five games on national T.V. over six different seasons, including the 2001, 2000, 1998, 1996, 1988 and 1985 seasons. Since 1980, BYU has played in at least one nationally-televised game per season. On Sept. 1, 1984, Robbie Bosco (right) led BYU to a 20-14 victory over Pitt in the first live ESPN College Football broadcast. Last year BYU played two ESPN games (Colorado State, Louisville), five ESPN2 match-ups (Tulane, Air Force, Utah, Mississippi State and Hawaii), and one ABC game (UNLV).

The Cougars were seen on national television a record eight times last season with six victories and two losses. Because of BYU's winning tradition, exciting offenses and supportive alumni and fans across the country, the Cougars continue to draw a large national audience for each of their games.

cougar football—a great choice

BOWL GAMES Few teams can compare to BYU's bowl history. Since 1974, BYU has played in 23 bowl games, 19 of them as conference champion. At it's highest, BYU's bowl streak had reached 17 straight games. The Cougars look to start another streak under new coach Gary Crowton.

BIG GAMES Averaging more than seven games on national/regional television each of the last three years, BYU is looking to get even more exposure. With upcoming games against the ACC, PAC-10 and Notre Dame, the Cougars are ready to display their talents to a national audience against some of the nation's best competition.

BIG CROWDS There is nothing quite like Edwards Stadium, where over 65,000 screaming fans electrify the game-day experience. Rated the best stadium atmosphere in the Mountain West by Sporting News (April, 2000), BYU is home to some of the most loyal fans in the country.

BIG PLAYS How else can you rack up 7,118 yards in a season? Known for its offensive attack, BYU is always striving to improve breaking offensive records for yards in a season, first downs and rushing yards during the 2001 season.

BIG WINS Under Lavell Edwards' 29-year reign, BYU claimed the League championship 20 times. Crowton's first year as head coach at BYU saw the Cougars claim their first outright Mountain West Conference Championship after sharing the 1999 title. BYU's excellence on the field has reached outside the conference as the Cougars have posted wins over Miami, Washington, Notre Dame, Penn State, Kansas State and Texas A&M.

BIG TIME With a regular national audience, one of the nation's most prolific offenses and one of the most storied histories in college football, there's no better place to play football than BYU. Coach Gary Crowton is committed to taking the Cougars to even greater heights and adding to the tradition that is BYU football. Get ready.

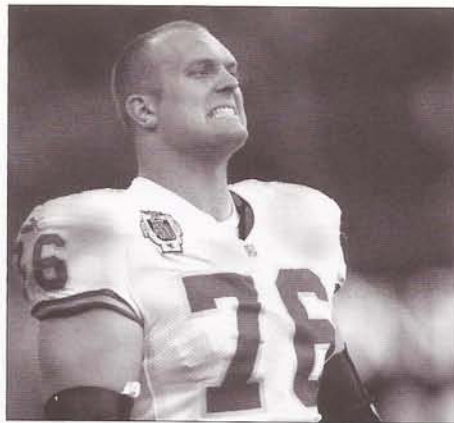

"I love BYU because it's mission is clear: To prepare young men and women to become leaders and influences of good in their communities. I know what it has done for me. I desperately want it for my own children and anyone who might have that opportunity. For those who have the opportunity to come to BYU, they are about to enjoy a life-changing experience. It's going to be a great ride."

and current sports anchor for NBC-10 Philadelphia

FACILITIES: Expanded in 1982 to seat 65,000, Lavell Edwards Stadium is considered one of the nation's finest natural grass fields. With a new artificial turf practice field and a state-of-the-art indoor facility soon to come, it's only going to get better at BYU.

NFL PREPARATION: Although nicknamed the quarterback factory, BYU has had first-round selections at linebacker and offensive lineman in the past four years. Five Cougars were selected in the 2002 NFL Draft, two in the second round, to join 24 former BYU players currently on NFL rosters.

ACADEMICS: With 18 players on the 2001-2002 All-MWC Academic team to lead the Mountain West Conference, BYU has demonstrated where its academics are headed. Assisted by academic coach E. J. Caffaro, the Cougars look to stay on top of the MWC not only on the field but also in the classroom.

UNIQUE ATMOSPHERE: BYU provides an opportunity for athletes to grow mentally, physically and spiritually. Sponsored by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, BYU encourages religious learning in addition to a secular education, while its honor code requires a drug and alcohol-free commitment from its students, helping them to focus on academic and athletic endeavors.

WINNING TRADITION: Along with 23 bowl appearances since 1974, the Cougars haven't suffered a losing season in 28 years, helping Lavell Edwards become the sixth winningest coach in college football history. Coach Gary Crowton looks to continue the Cougars' run after posting a 12-2 record in what many considered to be a rebuilding year for BYU.

COACHING STAFF: The Cougars are led by a young and excited coaching staff headed by Gary Crowton, one of the finest offensive minds in the game. The coaches expect excellence, and much to the fan's delight, the players have responded. Behind Crowton's innovative and often daring play calling, the Cougars led the nation in total offense and scoring throughout the 2001-2002 season.

ATHLETIC EXCELLENCE: BYU's eight NCAA team championships, 805 All-Americans, and 245 Conference Championships have created a tradition of excellence. Today, success thrives in 21 varsity sports. Each of the past six seasons, BYU has been ranked among the best all-around athletic departments in the Sears Cup standings.

SCHEDULE: Having faced the likes of Miami, Texas A&M, Florida State and Washington, BYU always looks to take on top competition. The Cougar's upcoming schedule will bring Stanford, Georgia Tech, Syracuse and Notre Dame to Lavell Edwards Stadium.

NATIONAL EXPOSURE: With 22 nationally and regionally televised games over the last three years BYU football is in the spotlight. The excitement created by Gary Crowton's inaugural campaign, together with the Cougars' high-profile schedule in the upcoming years, is sure to increase the national exposure of BYU football.

game day at edwards stadium

With 65,000 screaming fans and a stadium atmosphere that is hard to beat, it is no wonder that the Cougars went undefeated last season at home. It was BYU's 12th undefeated home season since 1967. Since BYU's football stadium was renamed LaVell Edwards Stadium on Nov. 18, 2001, the Cougars have never lost a game in Provo. BYU has posted seven straight wins in Edwards Stadium and eight straight over the past two seasons in Provo.

THE 2002 SEASON

cougars gear up for an ENCORE PERFORMANCE

The 2002 Season Preview

Paul Walkenhorst

When Gary Crowton was named as the man who would take over for LaVell Edwards as the head coach of the BYU football program, he brought with him a new type of energy and excitement that was felt from the moment he arrived in Provo. Yet, even with his coaching accomplishments, and a new vigor surrounding campus, most expected it would take Crowton a year or two to implement his high-powered offense and restore the proud tradition of BYU football.

What Crowton, his coaching staff, and the 2001 Cougars accomplished in only one season will not soon be forgotten; a 12-2 record and the program's first-ever outright MWC Championship. Now, with expectations soaring above the clouds, Crowton has the task of re-tooling the nation's top-rated offense and defending the MWC title. To some, it's a task as arduous as climbing Mount Everest, but to Crowton it's just part of the job.

"Last season we had a lot of success," he says. "We had great leadership and some talented players. They are gone now, and it is our job to find new leaders and equally talented players to continue winning championships. That's our job.

"We have a lot of growing to do from the player's standpoint. I'm excited about this new team. It's kind of fun, going out there trying to figure out where everybody goes. There's good energy with this team and everybody is excited. We won't know for sure how everything will all come together, with all the incoming freshman and junior college transfers, but we feel like we're going to be pretty good."

Gone from the 2001 MWC Championship season are Doak Walker Award winner, consensus All-American and the nation's leading scorer, Luke Staley. In addition, the Cougars will look to replace quarterback Brandon Doman, offensive linemen Jason Scukanec, Aaron McCubbins and Teag Whiting, tight end Doug Jolley, defensive line book ends Ryan Denney and Brett Keisel, linebackers Justin Ena and Isaac Kelley, as well as safety Dustin Staley.

However, the Cougars return 20 offensive lettermen, including five offensive starters. On defense, BYU will welcome back 19 defensive letterwinners, including six starters. In addition to a solid list of returning players, Crowton and the BYU coaching staff managed to assemble one of the nation's top recruiting classes, many of whom will have an opportunity to contribute this season.

QUARTERBACK

While last year's play-maker, Brandon Doman, is now panning for NFL glory with the San Francisco 49ers, Crowton will have four up-and-coming QBs in camp. Bret Engemann has been listed as the early front-runner in this talented pack of signal callers. Engemann started for the Cougars in 2000 before suffering a season-ending shoulder injury at Syracuse. The 6-foot-4, 235-pound junior is best remembered for leading the Cougars to a come-from-behind, over-time victory at Virginia in only his second game as a starter. Engemann red-shirted last season and spent the year learning Crowton's complex offense.

One of the Cougars' top recruits in 1999 is back after serving a two-year, LDS Church mission to Panama City, Panama. Matt Berry, a 6-foot-5, 218-pound freshman redshirted in 1999, prior to serving his mission. Berry will benefit from working out with the team during spring drills and will be competing for playing time in 2002.

Todd Mortensen, a 6-foot-4, 221-pound sophomore returns for his second season under Crowton. Mortensen saw limited action as a freshman, competing in just five games behind Doman and back-up Charlie Peterson. Mortensen completed four-of-eight attempts as a freshman, including one for a touchdown (at Hawaii).

Lance Pendleton, a 6-foot-0, 180-pound redshirt freshman will also get plenty of reps during fall camp. Pendleton has great quickness and adds a Doman-like dimension to the Cougars' offense.

Even though the 2001 season was officially over in December, it seemed like the Cougars continued winning when the nation's top quarterback prospect signed to play for BYU. Ben Olsen, a 6-foot-4, 210-pound Parade and USA Today High School All-American arrived in Provo early to begin learning the ropes. Olsen threw for 2,989 yards and 30 touchdowns as a senior at Thousand Oaks High School. While not listed on the depth chart at the beginning of Fall camp, it is expected Olsen will quickly move his way up the depth chart and challenge the veterans for playing time.

"Some might see this as a rebuilding year at quarterback," Crowton said. "I'm not sure that's the case. I think we have a lot of talent at quarterback, but we'll just have to see how everyone does. We're going to make sure we get a good look at everyone and then make decisions from there."

RUNNING BACK

One of the biggest challenges the BYU coaching staff will face this fall is replacing the nation's top running back. Luke Staley, gone to the NFL's Detroit Lions, not only accounted for 28 touchdowns, but he was responsible for nearly 30 percent of the Cougars' total offense. Though a daunting task, the Cougars believe Marcus Whalen will be able to climb into those shoes and lend credibility to BYU's run game. Whalen is back after a red-shirt season, and with a strong recruiting effort at running back, the BYU ground attack should continue to be keep defenders on guard.

Whalen competed in nine games as a true freshman in 2000. He carried the ball 38 times for 209 yards, averaging 5.5 yards per carry. Against Utah State, Whalen carried the ball 10 times for 91 second-half yards, giving Cougar fans a sense of great things to come.

"Marcus is very explosive, he's very quick through the line," Crowton says. "We are expecting he will be able to come off his red-shirt year and do some great things. We'll have to see what happens with some of the younger guys, so we're counting on Marcus to play a fairly significant roll."

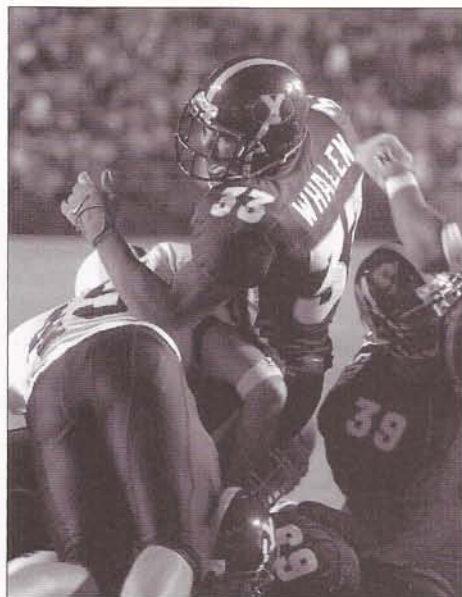

The Cougars will also look to a few underclassmen to develop and hopefully, see some playing time at running back. During spring drills, Logan Deans, a 6-foot-0, 220-pound sophomore took many of the first-team reps, while Whalen was out with hamstring and groin problems. Deans showed signs of being a powerful runner, as well as effective blocker. He's physical and showed his ability to run through the line, as well as beating defenders to the corner.

Other players who competed at running back during the spring, and are expected to compete for playing time in the Fall are Jared Harper, a 6-foot-0 225-pound sophomore, Curtis Holder, a 5-foot-7, 175-pound sophomore and Kyle Wilson, a 6-foot-0, 226-pound junior college transfer from Dixie State College.

During the off-season, the Cougars signed additional running backs who are expected to make an immediate impact on the running game; most notably, Curtis Brown, a 5-foot-11, 185-pound speedster out of Palmdale, Calif. An honor-roll student at Paraclete High School, Brown recorded over 7,000 career rushing yards, including a 1,500-yard, 27-touchdown performance as a senior.

Reynaldo Brathwaite, a 5-foot-10, 170-pound back out of Grossmont Junior College is also expected to make an immediate impact, although an off-season operation to repair ACL damage in his knee may prevent the All-CIF record holder from competing for playing time early on. Thomas Stancil is another back BYU coaches are excited to get in camp. Stancil led Bakersfield High School to an undefeated season and CIF title as a senior, scoring 20 touchdowns and rushing for 1,772 yards.

Other signees at running back include Taufui Vakapuna from East High School in Salt Lake City, Aaron Singh, who plans to serve a church mission before coming to BYU and Mulivai Pula from Kahuku High School in Kahuku, Hawaii.

RECEIVERS

Probably the least effected position, in terms of losing players to graduation, the Cougars return an experienced and physical group of receivers. All totaled, eight of the 10 BYU receivers who were credited with at least one reception last season are back. The receiving corps is led by All-American candidate Reno Mahe.

Mahe, a 5-foot-11, 185-pound senior, has made a name for himself with his soft hands and shifty moves. Best remembered for his gritty performance against Utah last season, just days after having his appendix removed, the ever-joking Mahe ranked ninth in the nation with an average 9.0 receptions per game. He also ranked among the nation's top receivers, averaging over 93 receiving yards per game.

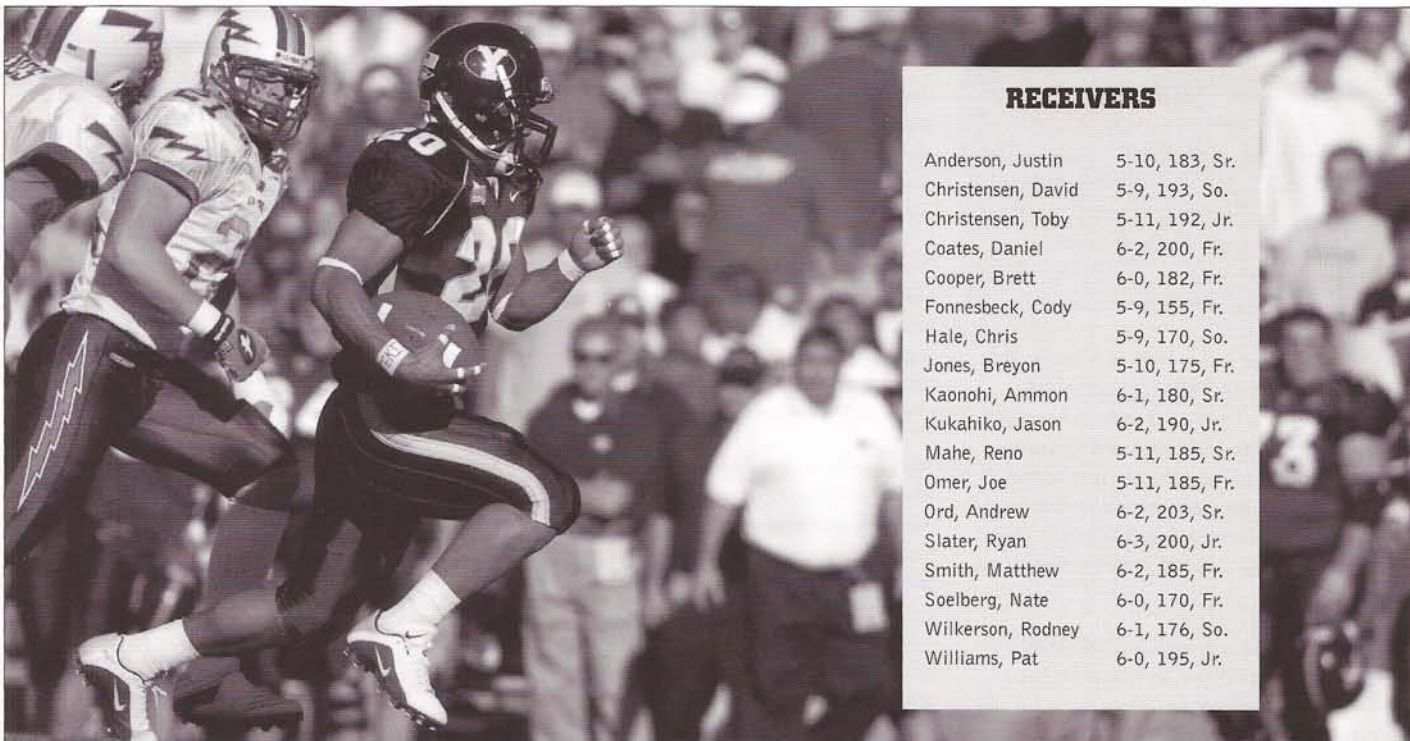

Initially recruited for his speed, Rodney Wilkerson proved to be a deep threat for the Cougars last season. He was credited with 15 receptions for 292 yards and had three touchdowns as a freshman. Back, with a solid year of experience under his belt, the 6-foot-1, 180-pound speedster is expected to play a major roll in the BYU passing game this season.

Senior Andrew Ord is back for a final season, coming off a solid campaign as a junior. Ord competed in all 14 games for the Cougars, recording 17 receptions for 183 yards. Ord was also credited for the game-winning touchdown at New Mexico.

Junior Toby Christensen is slated to see significant time at receiver after a solid sophomore season. Christensen, at 5-foot-11, 195-pounds, will not only be used for his sure hands, but can handle physical defenders in his down-field blocking assignments. Christensen will be joined by David Christensen, who sat out last season due to injury. In addition, Justin Anderson returns for his final season at BYU, while Ryan Slater, Jason Kukahiko, Ammon Kaonohi, Pat Williams, Chris Hale, David Tafuna, Breyon Jones and Brett Copper are all expected to see significant playing time this season.

The Cougars will also look to newcomer Daniel Coates, a 6-foot-2, 200-pound receiver from Layton, Utah to make an immediate impact. Coates, the 5-A Most Valuable Player and Utah Player of the Year, will enter fall camp after recording 2,386 yards and 23 touchdowns in his final two seasons at Northridge High School. Joining Coates will be all-state performer Ferron Fonoimoana from Kahuku High School in Kahuku, Hawaii.

OFFENSIVE LINE

While the Cougars will be without Mr. Versatility Aaron McCubbins, the quote machine Jason Scukanec and the team's most physical player, Teag Whiting, BYU will be in good hands with returning starters Dustin Rykert and Ben Archibald. Both players anchor the offensive line at tackle and will be assisted by returning lettermen, Ryan Keele at left guard, Isaac Herring at right guard and Scott Jackson at center. This year's projected starters average nearly 6-foot-5 and weigh in at 308 pounds per man.

With depth as a key to this year's offensive line, other players with significant experience include Hanale Vincent, Cade McMullin, Quinn Christensen, Vincent Xanthos and Jeff Rhea.

TIGHT ENDS

While to some, losing a second-round draft pick like Doug Jolley would mean a re-building year at tight end, the Cougars are in very good hands. In fact, the Cougars return one of the top tight end duos in the Mountain West, and arguable in the country.

Spencer Nead, a strapping 6-foot-4, 250-pound senior, returns after an impressive junior campaign. In addition to rating as one of the Cougars' top blockers, the "Teton Terror" racked up 22 receptions for 266 yards and five touchdowns. Equally as intimidating to defenders, Gabriel Reid returns for his senior season. Reid had five receptions for 79 yards and three touchdowns as a junior.

Other tight ends expected to compete for playing time include Aissac Aiono, Justin Jory, Trevor Halverson and Jeremy Gillespie.

DEFENSIVE LINE

There is no question the Cougars will miss the presence of all-conference performers Ryan Denney and Brett Keisel along the defensive line, but with new line coach Steve Kaufusi and key players returning to the defensive line, the Cougars are expected to fair well in the trenches.

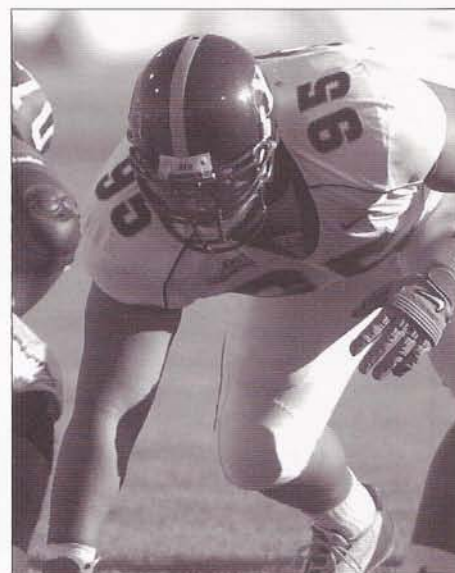

John Denney, who redshirted the 2001 season, has been penciled as a starter at left end, along with C.J. Ah You, who is expected to start on the right side. Ah You showed signs of great things to come as a freshman, but his season was cut short with a season-ending knee injury. Brandon Stephens also returns to the defensive line, having racked up significant playing time last season. Switching from linebacker to defensive end, Moa Peaua and Brady Poppinga will also compete for playing time. Senior Jeff Cowart will also see significant minutes at defensive end.

While defensive coordinator Ken Schmidt and the BYU defensive coaching staff experimented with different defensive fronts during spring drills, one thing is for sure, the defensive tackle position will be in good hands with junior Ifo Pili. Pili played in all 14 games as a sophomore after returning from a Church mission. He racked up 28 tackles on the season, including five tackles for a combined loss of 24 yards. He will be joined by the likes of junior Ryan Gunderson and freshman Daniel Marquardt. Gunderson saw significant playing time along the defensive line last season, accounting for a combined 43 tackles, including seven tackles for a loss. After redshirting last season, Daniel Marquardt made great strides during spring drills and will see playing time along the defensive line this season as well.

Perhaps the biggest key to the Cougars' defensive line play this season will hinge upon Junior College All-American, Scott Young. Young, a 6-foot-5, 300-pound bruiser has quick feet and is very physical. Needless to say, Young is expected to play a major roll in the Cougars' defensive line play this Fall. Shortly after arriving at BYU, Young started to display his physical abilities. He was clocked in the 40 at 4.9, and recorded 38 reps in the 225-pound bench press.

The Cougars also added some depth to the defensive line when Mania Brown, a transfer from Nebraska, signed with BYU early in the spring. Due to NCAA transfer rules however, Brown must sit out a year, but will be ready to go in 2003.

LINEBACKERS

It's one thing to say that two of the three starting linebackers were lost to graduation, but it is something quite different to say that the Cougars will be without their top two defenders from a season ago. Justin Ena and Isaac Kelley accounted for a combined 190 tackles last season, including 19 tackles for a combined loss of 56 yards.

| Walkenhorst, Paul | 6-5, 250, Jr.  |
| Wright, Bill      | 6-3, 234, Jr.  |

Replacing Ena and Kelley will be up to junior Paul Walkenhorst. Lucky for the 6-foot-5, 250-pound linebacker, he returns as a two-year starter and ranked third behind Ena and Kelley last season with 69 tackles. Walkenhorst will move to the middle linebacker position this year, making way for guys like Levi Madarieta, Bill Wright and Colby Bockwoldt to shore up the outside positions.

Going away from the big, physical linebacker, the Cougars will focus more on speed and overall quickness for pass protection this coming season. Madarieta, who will make the switch from safety to linebacker, is listed at 6-foot-3, 221 pounds. He will compete with Wright, a 6-foot-3, 234-pound backer, for the starting roll at the strong-side linebacker position. Madarieta was the Cougars' fifth-ranked defender last season, recording 65 tackles as a sophomore. Wright, who will enter his junior season, recorded 21 tackles in a back-up roll last season. Redshirt freshman, Lance Reynolds, is also listed on the depth chart at the "stud" position, while Mike Tanner is listed as a back-up at middle linebacker.

The weak-side linebacker position will be manned by junior Colby Bockwoldt, who played in all 14 games as a sophomore, recording 25 tackles. Ammon Magua, Brent Carlson and Bryant Atkinson will each be competing for playing time at the weak-side backer position.

CORNERBACKS

While there is no question Jernaro Gilford, an All-American candidate at corner, will bring experience and leadership to the secondary, Cougar coaches will switch junior Brandon Heaney from safety to corner this season, adding speed, quickness and experience to the right side.

Heaney returns after a successful sophomore campaign, recording 46 tackles on the season, including 39 solo takedowns. Gilford led the team with six interceptions last season and was credited with 56 tackles and 11 pass deflections.

Several young players will be competing for playing time at corner, including O'Neil Howell, Mike Sumko and Micah Alba. Newcomers expected to compete for an immediate role include junior college transfers Walt Williams and James

Cornerbacks coach Brian Mitchell and his troops

Allen. Freshman signees include Nate Hutchinson and Travonne Jackson.

Williams, a native of Miami, Fla., will enter fall camp after being listed as one of the top-25 recruits in the country. Williams was a first-team all-conference performer at Easter Arizona Junior College. Allen, a speedster out of Los Angeles Southwest Junior College, will enter the BYU program with three years of eligibility.

SAFETIES

The Cougars lost Dustin Staley to graduation, but return a deep and fast improving group of players who will compete for playing time. Aaron Francisco, who started in three games and saw action in all 14 games for the Cougars as a true freshman, returns and is will start at the strong safety position. Francisco, an all-conference candidate registered 27 tackles last season and was credited with two interceptions.

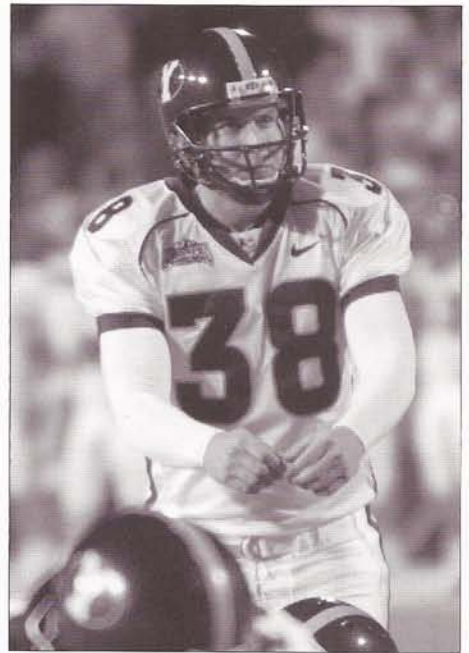

Others who are expected to compete for playing time include junior Alex Farris, junior Michael Madsen, senior Todd Barker, sophomore Jon Burbidge and sophomore Jared Meibos.

SPECIAL TEAMS

During the off-season, Crowton decided to make some changes to special teams. He assigned running backs coach, Paul Tidwell, to take over as special teams coordinator in an effort to give special teams more of an offensive flavor.

Tidwell will have the luxury of having kicker Matt Payne return to the special teams unit. Payne, a 6-foot-4, 238-pound sophomore tied an NCAA record for most PATs in a single-season. Payne has been working during the off-season to improve his distance and accuracy on both kickoffs and field-goal attempts.

Payne, along with Jared McLaughlin and Tyson Dunham will continue to compete for punting duties. Denney has been penciled in as the deep snapper, while Reno Mahe, David Christensen, Walt Williams, Travonne Jackson and Aaron Francisco and expected to handle punt- and kick-return duties.

2002: A STELLAR RECRUITING YEAR

Last year's amazing football season, which included a Mountain West Championship, a 12-2 record, the NCAA top-scoring offense, and a Doak Walker Award, left Cougar fans craving more. The fans got more as the 2002 recruiting season resulted in the Cougars landing one of their most talented classes ever.

After a busy recruiting season that included landing the top prep quarterback in the country, BYU's coaches were gleaming over their talented 2002 class. "I want to recognize the coaches who have worked so hard to make this one of the best recruiting classes ever at BYU," said Head Coach Gary Crowton.

Ben Olson, a 6-4, 210 pound California native, has been dubbed the "future of BYU" by the head coach. "Ben is the prototype of what you want to have in a young player," Crowton said. As a senior Olson threw for 2,989 yards and 30 touchdowns. He was Super Prep Magazine's top high school quarterback in the country and was named first team All-American by USA Today.

Midland Region by SuperPrep Magazine and listed in Rival.com's top 100 high school football prospects. Jake also won four letters in basketball.

Daniel Coats has been described by USA Today as "one of the best athletes to ever come out of the Beehive State." It's no wonder he was named him Utah's Player of the Year. As a receiver, he had 44 catches for 1,078 yards and 12 touchdowns. On defense, he had 144 tackles and seven interceptions. Coats (6-3, 212) was an all-state selection and the state's class 5A MVP.

"I didn't have any interest in BYU at all at the start of the season, but I've been very impressed with them this year, and I love the offense," Coats said. "They definitely know how to put points on the board."

Coats will be a favorite target for BYU QBs because he has the speed to go deep and the size to out-muscle smaller defensive backs for the football.

According to PacWest News, Walt Williams (6-0, 172), comes to BYU from Eastern Arizona JC as one of the top junior college corners in the West. Williams, who was rated the #21 junior college player in the country by Theinsiders.com, explained why he became a Cougar, "I chose BYU because I enjoyed the visit to BYU, the players, and most of all the coaches."

Curtis Brown, is a multi-talented athlete. In high school he competed in basketball, football, and track and field. Brown, a 6-0, 187-pound running back from Lancaster-Paraclete (Calif.), has been one of the state's top running backs since he was a sophomore.

A three-time All-Stater, Brown earned All-State honors as a sophomore after rushing for 2,600 yards; a year ago he gained 1,700 more, while sharing time in the backfield. As a senior, Brown rushed for 940 yards and scored 15 TDs.

He chose BYU because "BYU has a great atmosphere, friendly people, a great philosophy, a wonderful lifestyle, and a chance to play early."

BYU fans can't wait for the recruiting class of 2002 to have their chance to continue last year's success.

Jake Kuresa is one of the top defensive players in the West and possibly the top player in the state of Utah. Kuresa's size will help the Cougars on the defensive line; he is 6-4 and weighs 310 pounds. Described as an "aggressive playmaker" on defense, Kuresa's versatility also let him play running back last season. Ultimately, Jake chose BYU over USC and many other top programs because, in his own words, "I felt really good about BYU, the coaches, the players, their values and the direction the program is headed." He also said, "I loved my trip down there and like the fact I can play defensive end."

Kuresa, who hails from Millville, Utah, is one of the top five defensive line prospects in the nation. He was ranked #13 in the Gary Crowton and his staff made a lot of noise nationally this past February when it signed a top-25 recruiting class. From recruiting websites to national publications, football recruiting experts agreed the Cougars were once again among the best.

TELLTALE SIGNEES

For new coaches, long-term success hinges on recruiting a first-rate second class
BY BRUCE FELDMAN

YOUNG PLAYERS WORK hard in the off-season to avoid the sophomore jinx, but second-year head coaches ate the ones who really sweat. Winning recruits in living Miami's Larry Coker—promoted from within, with a national title for a calling card—had it easy, but other second-year coaches worked double-time to catch up. Here's how some of their efforts paid off after their first full recruiting cycle.

ALABAMA
WHAT WENT RIGHT
Led by mammoth juco DT Ahmad Childress (6'6", 315), 18 of Bama's 19 prospects committed to Dennis Franchione even after the NCAA handed down sanctions.
WHAT WENT WRONG
DT Jimmy Williams was the only de-commit, but WR Ben Obamamu (Auburn), RB Jimtavis Walker (Florida) and CB ReShawn Pope (Houston) all lost interest late.

BOTTOM LINE: Help is needed now, but seven of the Tide's recruits might not academically qualify.

BYU
Gary Crowton's rep as an offensive whiz helped lock up the nation's No. 1 QB, Ben Olson, and 4.3 field-stretchers Travonne Jackson and Thomas Stancil.
Even the two-pig issue that BYU threw for local stud Kaloti Ngata, the nation's top DL, couldn't keep the 320-pound Mormon from picking Oregon.

BOTTOM LINE: Kaloti who? BYU's best-ever class gets even better with the transfer of Nebraska NT Manzie Brown.

OHIO STATE
Jim Tressel inked 9 of the top 10 Ohio recruits. Five homegrown kids, led by LB Mike D'Andrea and RB Maurice Clarett, ranked in the top 5 nationally at their position.
Not much. OSU lost WR/CB Richard Washington of Fort Myers, Fla., who backed out to sign with NC State, and failed to steer WR Larry Fitzgerald Jr. away from Pitt.

BOTTOM LINE: Tressel got everyone he wanted in-state, which could be a scary omen in Big Ten country.

USC
Pete Carroll got four of Long Beach Poly's Fab Five, the top O-lineman in Texas (Kyle Williams) and a juco MLB who might start immediately (Danny Upright).
As usual, FSU happened. This year the Noles beat USC and everyone else for TB Lorenzo Booker and DT Levi Watkins (Tallahassee).

BOTTOM LINE: A great class ... but only one of the Poly standouts, OT Winston Inyanga, has academically qualified.

VIRGINIA
Al Groh's NFL rep lured Virginia's top three (LB Ahmad Brooks, RB Michael Johnson, LB Rai Parham) and N.Y.'s top DLs (Wakou Robinson and D'Ericashaw Ferguson).
Groh & Co. whiffed on in-state QB Marcus Vick (Va. Tech), RB Thomas Clayton (FSU) and DT Levi Brown (PSU). But Groh was able to fill those needs elsewhere.

BOTTOM LINE: A force is emerging. Groh won battles in parts of Virginia that the old staff had conceded to Tech.

CROWTON
BYU Head Football Coach

Gary Crowton, in his first season as head coach at BYU, constructed the nation's top-rated offense, posting a 12-2 record, including 10 straight victories to start his BYU career. For his efforts, he was named the MWC Coach of the Year as the Cougars won their first-ever, outright MWC championship.

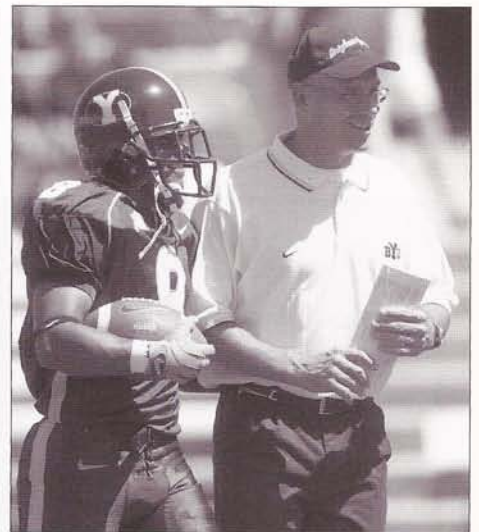

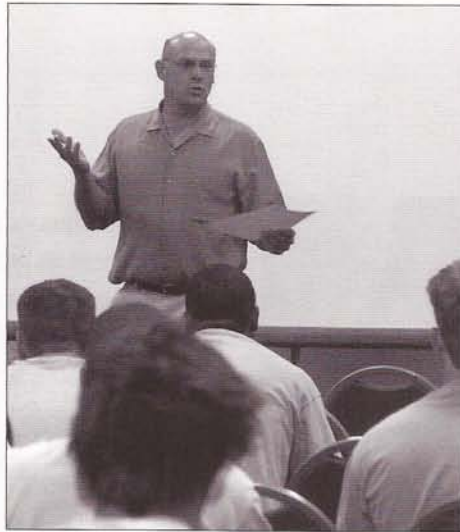

Crowton, the former offensive coordinator for the Chicago Bears and previous head coach at Louisiana Tech, was introduced by Brigham Young University President, Merrill J. Bateman, in December, 2000, as the 13th head football coach at BYU.

Crowton, a native of Orem, Utah, took over a BYU program that had been under the direction of college football's sixth all-time winningest coach, LaVell Edwards. Edwards took over the program in 1972, coaching the Cougars to a 257-101-3 (.716) record over 29 seasons.

Crowton, 45, came to BYU with a long and proven list of coaching accomplishments. Prior to serving as the offensive coordinator with the NFL's Chicago Bears, where his offense ranked third in the NFL in passing yardage during the 1999 season, Crowton was head coach at Louisiana Tech from 1996-1998. There he guided the Bulldogs to a 21-13 (.618) record over three seasons, including a 9-2 mark in 1997.

"Gary is a very articulate, hard-working football coach and will do a great job," Edwards said. "He has an excellent understanding of the game. From the opportunities I have had to work with Gary, I've always known he had the potential to be a very good coach. Everyone he's worked with has given him a glowing report."

BYU head coach Gary Crowton became only the second coach in BYU Football history to win 12 games in a single season. Crowton's previous single-season best record was 9-2 at Louisiana Tech during the 1997 season.

Last season Gary Crowton unleashed his powerful offense that averaged an amazing 46.7 points per game and 543 yards per game to lead the nation in scoring and total offense. In just his first season with BYU, Crowton led his team to a conference championship and a top-25 finish.

Competing as an independent for three straight years, Louisiana Tech recorded wins over the likes of Mississippi State, Cal and Alabama. Using its Crowton-designed, high-powered offense, the program also recorded impressive wins by scoring 50-or-more points against eight different opponents, including games of 60-or-more points in five different games. Crowton's offense ranked third in the nation, both in passing and total offense, while the Bulldogs racked up 12,746 yards passing in three years, an average of 4,249 yards per season. The prolific Tech offense also produced 115 touchdown receptions, averaging 38.3 TDs per season.

Under Crowton, NFL first-round draft pick Troy Edwards recorded a Tech-record 280 receptions and 4,352 yards receiving. Over a span of 34 games, Crowton's offense at Louisiana Tech engineered 22 different 300-yard passing games, including school-record 10, 300-yard outings during the 1998 season. In 1998, Crowton's final season at Louisiana Tech, the Bulldogs combined for a school record 4,943 yards passing.

Crowton's coaching career actually began in 1982 as a student assistant under Edwards at BYU. While at BYU, he worked with current Seattle Seahawks head coach Mike Holmgren and future NFL Hall of Famer, Steve Young. From BYU, Crowton moved on to Snow College in Ephraim, Utah, where he coached from 1983-86. While at Snow College, Crowton moved from defensive backs coach to offensive coordinator. Under his offensive leadership, the Badgers won the National Junior College Athletic Association National Championship in 1985.

From Snow College, Crowton moved to Western Illinois, where he directed the Leathernecks' passing game for a single season. In 1988, Crowton was hired as the offensive coordinator at New Hampshire, where the Wildcats were the top-rated passing team in the Yankee Conference from 1988-90.

In 1991, Crowton was hired as the quarterback coach at Boston College under head coach Tom Coughlin. There he helped develop quarterback Glenn Foley as a candidate for the Heisman Trophy. After three successful seasons with the Eagles, Crowton was hired as the co-offensive coordinator at Georgia Tech, where his offense led the Yellow Jackets to a No. 21 national ranking in his first and only season in Atlanta. In 1995, Crowton was hired as the offensive coordinator at Louisiana Tech, where he would become the head coach the following season.

Crowton was an all-league quarterback at Orem High School before earning All-American honors at Snow College. Crowton transferred to Colorado State, where he finished his career. Following an LDS Church mission to South Korea, Crowton attended Idaho State, where he ran track for the Bengals. After returning to BYU in 1982, Crowton earned his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1983.

Crowton, who is the first-ever head football coach at BYU to serve an LDS Church mission, is married to the former Maren Peterson of Bountiful, Utah. The couple was married on August 3, 1985. The Crowtons have seven children, including Dane (15), Tara (14), Jenessa (11), Quinn (8), Mikauli (6) Toriana (2) and Macloud (infant).

"The most important things in my life are my family and my church," Crowton said. "It is a great feeling to know no matter what happens on the field, I will always have my family to be there and it's always a nice feeling to go home to my family."

"Talk all you want about inheriting great tradition. Crowton took over what was a very average bunch and turned it into a Top 10 team that leads the nation in scoring average and total offense. Even on off days (there were few), Crowton's team found a way to win and continue its magical run. He is a solid coach whose offense has just begun to show its power in this conference."

— Ed Graney, San Diego Tribune
On why Crowton won the MWC Coach of the Year

"He is all you can expect of a head coach and more. You couldn't ask for anything else."

— BYU tight end Spencer Nead

"He is the type of guy you believe in. He's just the type of person you want to follow."

— BYU Offensive Coordinator Mike Borich

"He's so confident, he makes you feel the same level of confidence. He knows how to talk with players on their level."

— Marcus Robinson, Chicago Bears wide receiver

"Gary has always struck me as a coach that had the kid's interest at heart. I know his players loved playing for him and not just because of the wide-open offense he ran, which made the games a lot of fun for them. The student-athletes at Louisiana Tech had tremendous experiences under his guidance."

— Craig Thompson, Mountain West Conference Commissioner

"Gary gets so into his thinking he just shuts off everything else. Sometimes when he talked to me, at first I didn't think we were talking about the same play. Then I'd realize he was thinking ahead to the next thing already. He sees the big picture."

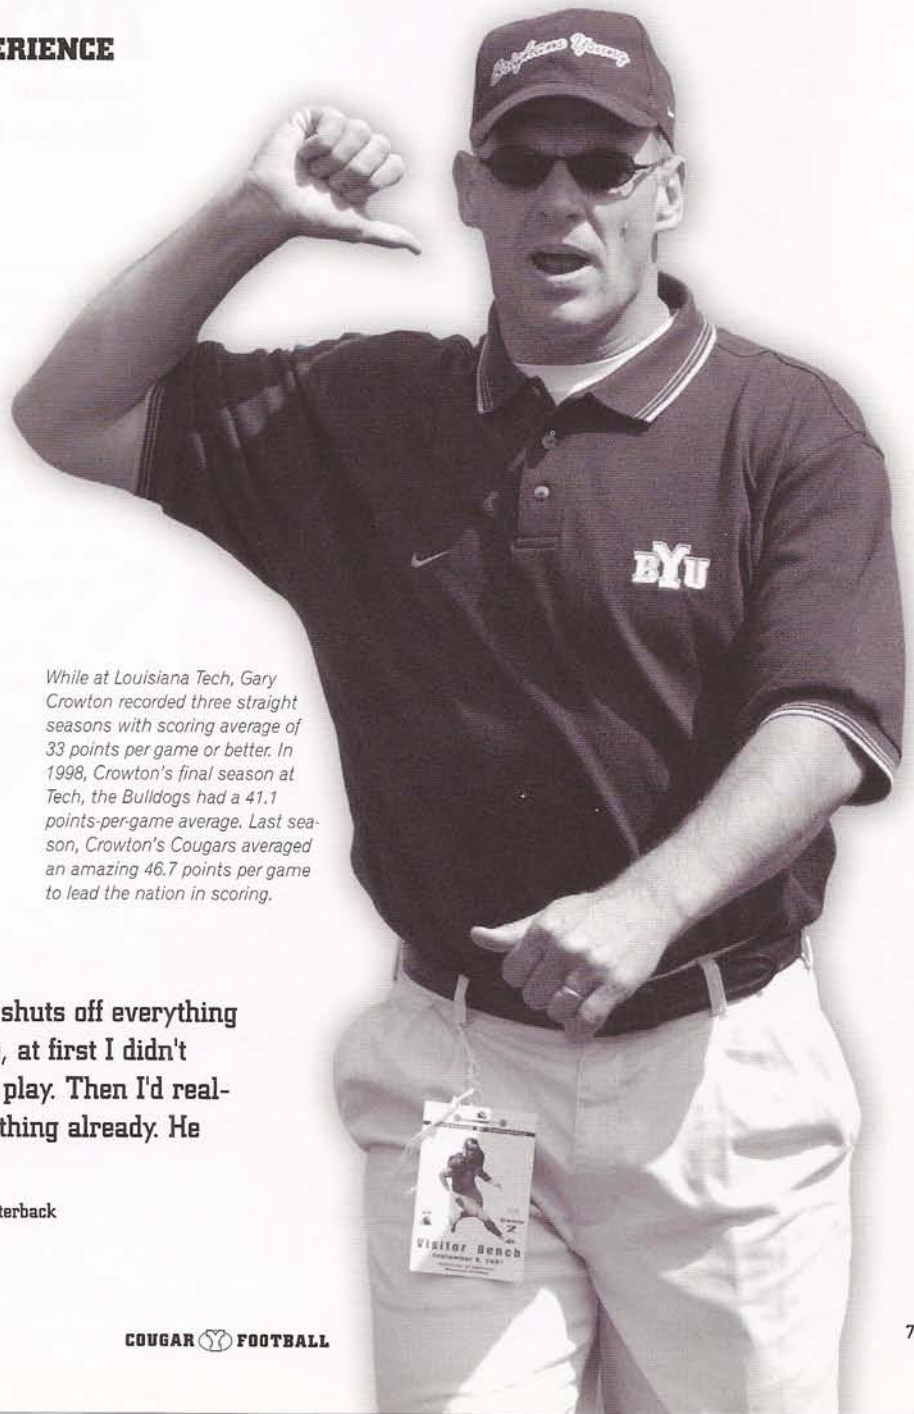

— Cade McNown, San Francisco 49ers quarterback

"He's the most phenomenally innovative offensive mind to come around in a long time. He has a brilliant ability to pick people apart, including very experienced defensive coordinators."

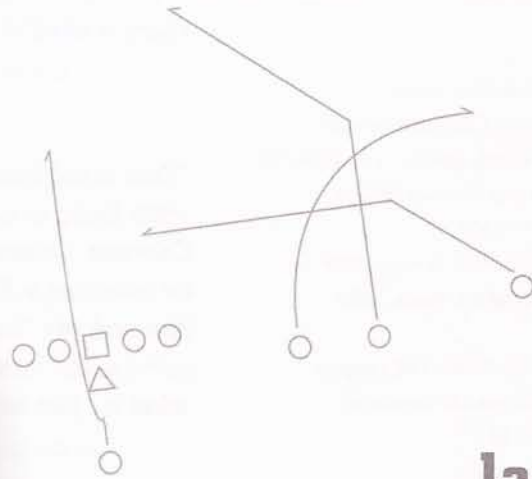

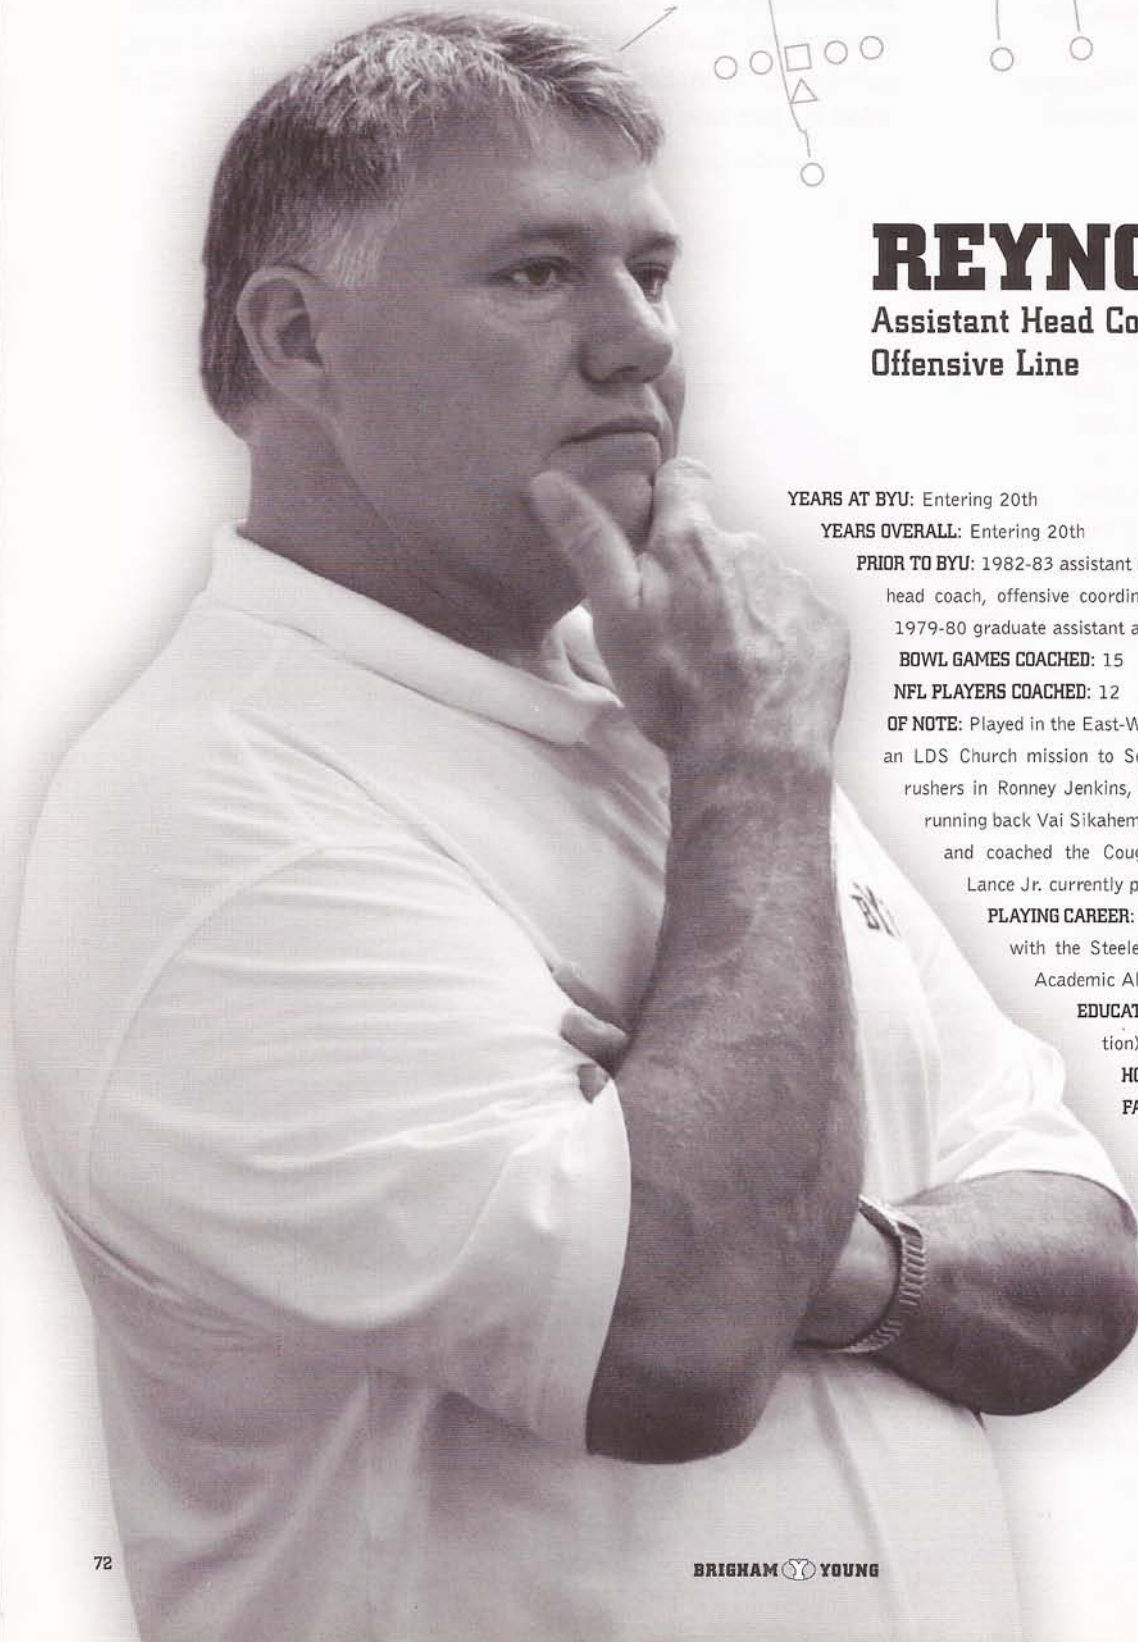

— Dr. Jerry Punch, ESPN Analyst

"Tech is indebted to him. Football exploded there. Fifty schools were flying in to learn what we were doing on offense - Purdue, Colorado, Tulane. It's like he has an extra chip in his brain. We'd be watching a film [at Louisiana Tech] and Gary would stop the film and say, 'Isn't that just beautiful?' And he'd get up and draw some exotic formation, and we'd say, 'How did you get that out of what we just saw on the film?'"

— Clint Conque, former running backs coach at Louisiana Tech

While at Louisiana Tech, Gary Crowton recorded three straight seasons with scoring average of 33 points per game or better. In 1998, Crowton's final season at Tech, the Bulldogs had a 41.1 points-per-game average. Last season, Crowton's Cougars averaged an amazing 46.7 points per game to lead the nation in scoring.

speed, strength & conditioning

The fourth quarter is winding down. BYU has the ball, but Mississippi State has the lead as Luke Staley takes the hand-off and runs off-tackle right. The defense is expecting Staley to carry the ball and reacts to his every move. There's a linebacker waiting for him as he turns the corner at the line of scrimmage. The rest of the defense is closing in. With no where to go, Staley lowers his shoulder and meets the linebacker head on. They rise like two waves crashing against each other. For a split second it seems like a standstill, then the linebacker buckles and falls backwards as Staley plows ahead.

Four yards later, after the defensive end and corner that he carried on his back are off of him, Staley picks himself up off the linebacker and jogs back to the huddle. Staley won the battle and BYU is four yards closer to winning the war.

In war, only the strong survive. While head coach Gary Crowton creates the battle plan, it's up to Jay Omer to make sure the troops are strong enough to carry it out. Brought on by Crowton shortly after the head coach's hiring, Omer brings a wealth of experience and knowledge to the Cougar training program that BYU's athletes and coaches have bought into.

2001 Doak Walker Award Winner Luke Staley prepares for last season during summer 2001 workouts

"I've had nothing but high praise from every athlete I've spoken to about Jay," said BYU athletic director Val Hale. "The athletes have responded to him and his program."

"It's the most excited and committed I've seen my players in the weight room since I've been here," said Cougar basketball coach Steve Cleveland.

"He's loyal, he cares and he works very hard," said Crowton. "His only concern is to see the players improve themselves, see the team get to it's potential and see us win games. That's it."

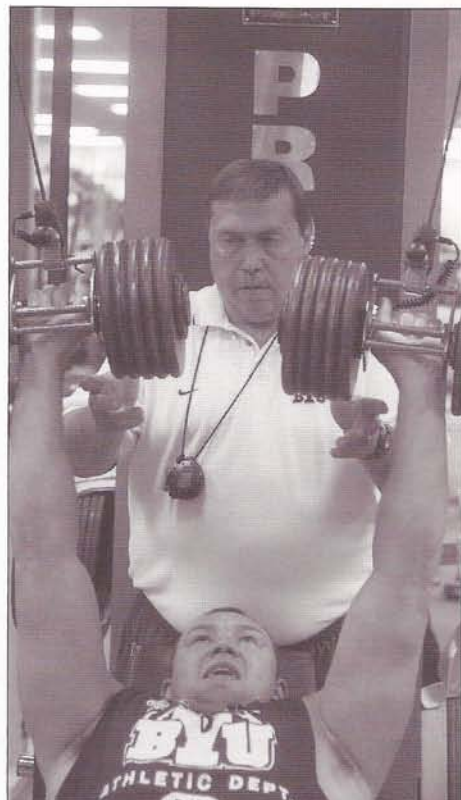

As director of strength and conditioning, Omer is responsible for the development and implementation of training programs for athletes in all of BYU's 21 intercollegiate sports. Conditioning encompasses all facets of physical performance. From speed and quickness, to cardiovascular endurance and brute strength, Omer creates programs designed to increase them all. Training programs are sport-specific and position-specific within each sport, allowing athletes to focus on what they need to succeed in their individual competitive endeavors.

In no sport is the need for strength more evident than in football. Each game, each play can be decided by who tires first. Week in and week out, players give and take a beating and are expected to come back for more of the same the next week. Less than a year after his arrival, Omer's subjects were seeing huge returns on their investment. Most players had increased their personal lifts 15-25 percent. Mike Tanner, a linebacker who was bench-pressing 330 pounds when Omer arrived, was lifting 400 at summer's end.

Conditioning also increases the production of athletes as it helps to prevent injury. In 2000, the BYU football team was riddled with injuries as they went through four games over a 19-day period. Although football is a contact sport where injuries are common, proper conditioning can help to avoid major injuries and reduce the recovery time of minor injuries. An athlete in top condition tends to recover faster and be better able to withstand the rigors of physical activity.

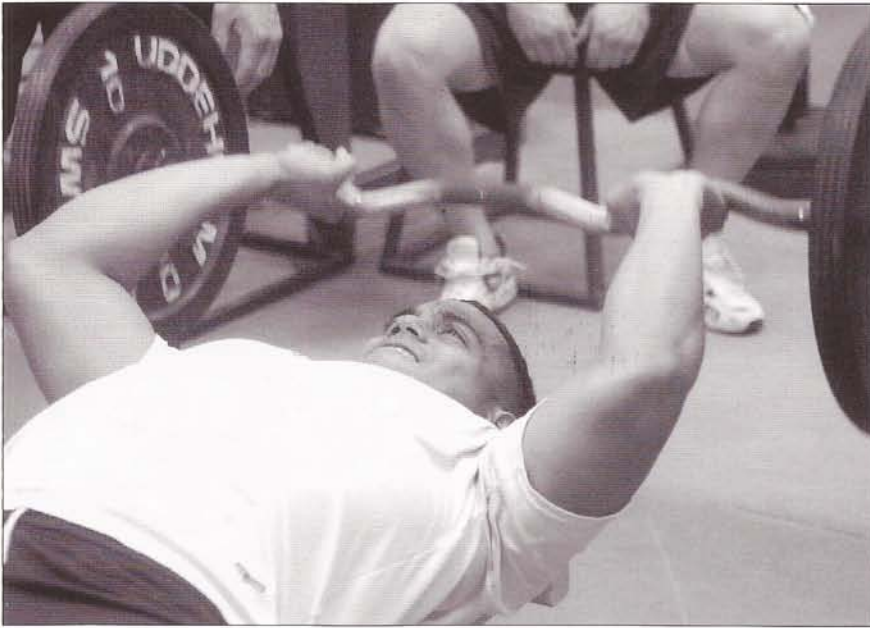

Not only does the conditioning program improve each player as an individual, but it also improves the team as a whole.

Working and sweating with each other in the weight room helps bring the players together. Seeing each person sacrifice and succeed in the off-season builds a camaraderie that carries over to the field as players work to make each other and the team better. "He (Omer) has brought us a feeling of team chemistry, working out together and being accountable,"

"He's the most different kind of coach I've ever been around in my life. He gets you to do stuff. He never yells, he never berates you or is demeaning in any way. There's just a presence about him that gets you to do it. It's like he's a Vulcan or Yoda or something. You find yourself doing it, you find yourself pushing yourself and you don't know why. You don't want to disappoint him because it means something to you and your teammates."

— Jason Scukanec, Offensive Lineman 1998-2001

said Teag Whiting, an offensive lineman. "There's nothing we're going to see on the football field this season that's any tougher or harder than we're facing in our workouts. It makes us close."

The results BYU players have realized have come from dedication and sacrifice. It's a time-consuming and often painful process in which athletes push themselves to higher levels of performance, and Omer is there to watch over them the whole time.

"The man is a sadist," said offensive guard Jason Scukanec, "[but] you find yourself doing it, you find yourself pushing yourself and you don't know why. You don't want to disappoint him because it means something to you and your teammates."

Each fall when the Cougars take the field, they carry with them the hopes of BYU fans across the nation. With each passing week and every win those hopes get bigger and weigh more on the players. Arriving at the gym before most people are out of bed and staying until long after most people have gone home for the night, Jay Omer takes those hopes very seriously. It's his job to make sure the players are strong enough to carry those hopes to one more victory, one more title, one more bowl.

"I like to see kids work hard, make something of themselves and improve their abilities. That's the joy of this job. I'm also on the same page with coach Crowton. We believe a team can only be successful if it prepares well and has team chemistry. You can have a team of super stars, but I'd rather have a team of less talent that works hard, cares about each other, has team chemistry and will go to war because they believe in each other. That's what it's all about and that's what we're trying to get done here."

— Jay Omer, BYU Head Strength & Conditioning Coach

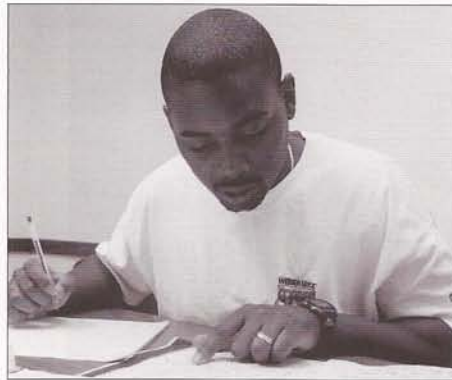

"He's brought us a feeling of team chemistry, working out together and being accountable. He's not a screamer or yells. He does demand your respect and he won't allow you to slack off. He really pushes you."

— Teag Whiting, Offensive Lineman 1999-2001

"I've heard nothing but high praise from every athlete I've spoken to about Jay. The athletes have responded to him and his program. The proof will be in the pudding when we take the field this fall."

— Val Hale, BYU Athletics Director

academic achievement

The toughest challenges a BYU football player will face while in college may not line up across from him in a different color jersey. Splitting their time between the classroom, the weight room, the training room and the field can make academic success a more difficult challenge than any they will face on the field.

The BYU student-athlete is not alone in his quest for academic excellence. As a team surrounds him in the field to help him reach another championship, a different team is in place to help him attain his academic goals.

E. J. Caffaro, brought on by head coach Gary Crowton shortly after his own arrival, is the Academic Coach in charge of monitoring players' success in the classroom and their progress toward graduation. "Coach" is more than just a title for Caffaro as he earned the honorific outside of his current position. He has coached football and basketball for the past 15 years at Snow College and Ricks College before coming to BYU.

"Coach Crowton wanted someone in this position that had been a coach previously," said Caffaro. "A coach can better understand the players, what they go through day to day and how to deal with them."

Working out of the student athlete center, Caffaro, coach Chris Pella and an office assistant serve as mentors to the players and are active participants in their academic careers from the time they arrive.

"We talk schedules with the freshmen and try to get them in to certain classes to help get them acclimated to the workload," said Caffaro. "We want to emphasize good structure and support in their academics."

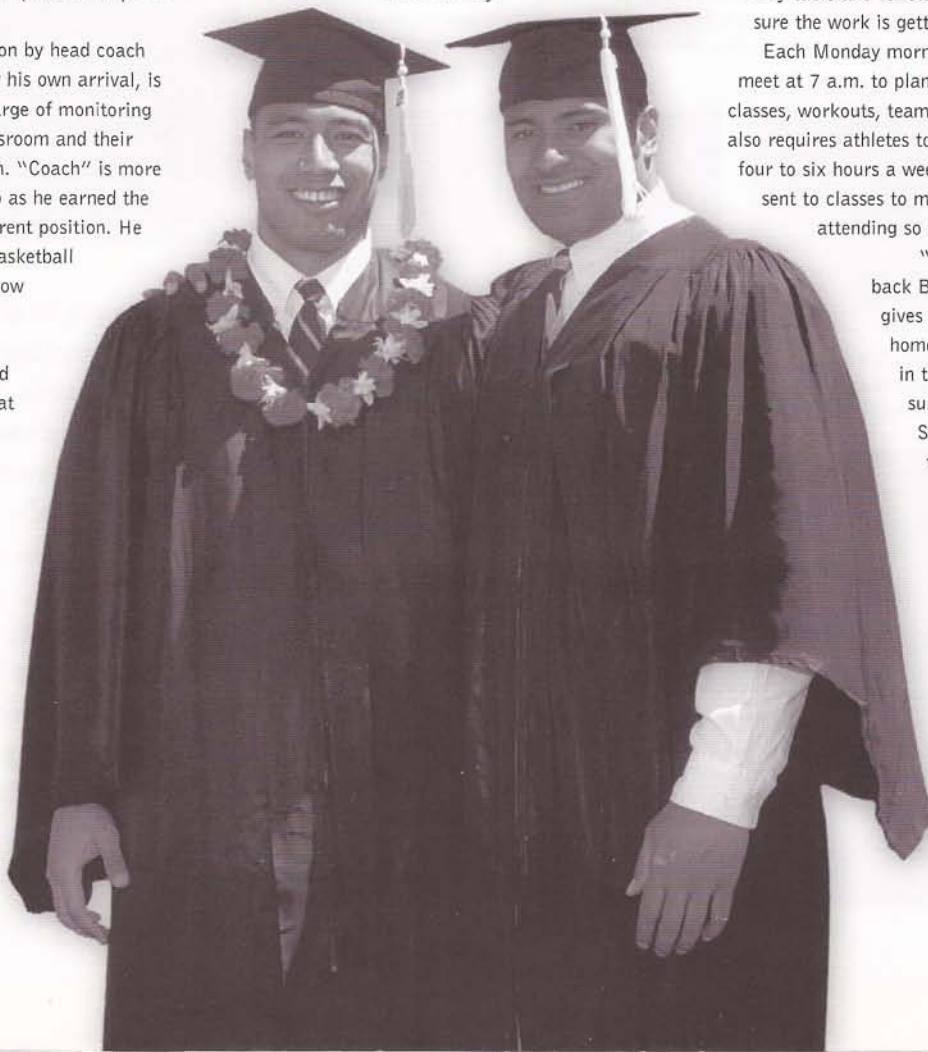

As mentors, they monitor players' progress from registration through finals. They have access to players' grades and, should signs of problems arise, they try to solve them before they become serious. Tutors are available through the Student Athlete Center at any time yet the athlete must take the initiative to arrange it. Should an athlete's GPA fall below 2.5, Caffaro and the other mentors will take a more active role in that athlete's academics by placing the athlete on study table.

Once on the study table program, an athlete will be under a rigorous system of checks and balances to insure that they are getting their class work taken care of. Caffaro and the other mentors take it upon themselves to arrange tutors for athletes on study table and follow up with the tutors to make sure the work is getting done.

Each Monday morning, all study table athletes meet at 7 a.m. to plan their week, giving time for classes, workouts, team meetings and homework. It also requires athletes to attend study hall between four to six hours a week. In addition, runners are sent to classes to make sure the athletes are attending so they don't fall behind.

"It's weird," said defensive back Brandon Heaney, "but it gives me a set time to do my homework and we have coaches in there watching and making sure we get our work done." Should an athlete on study table miss a class, a letter is sent home to their parents while the athlete is given extra conditioning time with Jay Omer, the strength and conditioning coordinator. ond class is missed, the athlete's parents will receive a phone call from the football office and the athlete is given more time with Omer. If a third class is missed, the athlete is called in for a private interview with coach Crowton where they will discuss the athlete's future at BYU.

Although many find it "weird" they also find it a strong motivation to get their academics in order. Half of the athletes on study table make their way off it after just one semester. Helping them get there is coach Caffaro.

"Coach Caffaro sincerely cares about each of us and is willing to do anything to help us succeed," said starting cornerback Jernaro Gilford.

The success of the study table program can be seen in the team GPA, which has gone up steadily each semester since it was started. At the end of fall semester 2001, the team GPA was nearing 3.0. Looking at a list of graduating seniors also demonstrates BYU's commitment to academic excellence and the graduation of its players. Sixteen of 23 seniors from BYU's 2001-2002 squad will have graduated by April, 2002 in fields such as accounting, communications, economics, finance, health sciences, history, management and psychology. The future will see BYU's student athletes reach new levels of success as work has begun on a new Academic Center for student athletes.

BYU's name resonates from east to west, thanks in no small part to the efforts of more than 600 student-athletes competing at the highest levels. This success, however, isn't limited to the field of play. During the 2000-2001 academic year, BYU student-athletes earned a cumulative grade point average of 2.95. A total of 163 student-athletes were named Academic All-Conference and 17 were named Academic All-America.

CHRIS PELLA

Assistant Academic Coach/High School Relations Coordinator

After 36 years of coaching, Pella enters his second year as the assistant academic coach and director of high school relations. Pella served 15 years under LaVell Edwards as the kickers, punters and tight end coach. He also worked as the teams recruiting coordinator. Prior to BYU Pella was the head coach at Utah

Caffaro is responsible for tracking the student-athletes academic progress and ensuring each student-athlete is working successfully towards graduation. Caffaro comes to BYU from Ricks College (BYU-Idaho) where he has served on both the basketball and football coaching staffs.

Missionaries

BYU is owned and operated by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. The missionary emphasis of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is perhaps one of its most recognized characteristics. The program follows the biblical pattern of sending out missionaries two by two.

Currently, approximately 61,000 Latter-day Saints are serving proselytizing missions around the world. Approximately 75 percent of the Church's proselytizing missionaries are young men between the ages of 19 and 26. Yet substantial numbers of single women (18 percent) and older couples (7 percent) also serve proselytizing missions. These missionaries serve for two years (men) or 18 months (women and couples), teaching the restored gospel and its ordinances and engaging in community service.

The missionaries or their families donate money to the Church equal to the average cost of a missionary's expenses. After their missions, missionaries return to schooling, vocations or family.

Church Beliefs

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints was officially organized on April 6, 1830 with six members. Today, congregations of the Church are found in more than 160 nations and territories. With more than 11 million members, it is one of the fastest growing religions in the world and one of the largest Christian churches in the United States.

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is Christian but is neither Catholic nor Protestant. Rather, it is a restoration of the original church established by Jesus Christ.

The Book of Mormon: Another Testament of Jesus Christ is regarded as divinely inspired scripture, as is the Holy Bible. Both volumes are used by Latter-day Saints side by side. For more information on the beliefs of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, visit www.mormon.org.

BYU's athletic training staff is responsible for the care of student-athletes from the time they arrive on campus, aiding in the prevention of injuries. When student-athletes do get injured, they are treated by one of the nation's most qualified athletic training staff. The staff includes certified athletic trainers, a sports physical therapist, a team physician, a team orthopedic surgeon and a wide variety of other medical specialists. BYU athletic trainers are concerned with much more than just improvement in the weight room. They are committed to improving the athletes' overall fitness and health.

Success begins with training, and BYU has a state-of-the-art strength and conditioning center with nearly 10,000 square feet of working space that ranks among the nation's best. It features 106 work stations to accommodate both female and male athletes. A well-structured strength and conditioning program is playing an increasingly vital role in the success of collegiate athletic programs.

The primary goal of the BYU program is to keep athletes healthy and prepared for competition by reducing their susceptibility to injury. BYU's strength and conditioning staff has experienced excellent results through its computer analyzed combination of a strict weight and conditioning program, a carefully planned diet and sufficient rest.

PICTURE PERFECT

With its 65,000-seat capacity, huge video scoreboards and immaculate press boxes, LaVell Edwards Stadium is home to legendary BYU football. Since its expansion in 1982, the stadium has consistently ranked among the nation's top 25 in attendance every year. Some of the stadium's well-known features include a box-bowl seating configuration, a grass playing surface and a four-level press box.

THE FIELD

The field is covered with a sand-based natural turf capable of draining eight inches of rain per hour. The well-kept grass field is consistently deemed one of the best in the country.

THE EARLY YEARS

BYU football hasn't always had the luxury of Cougar Stadium. When BYU began its football program in 1896, pasture lands and city parks were the playing fields. In the early 1900s, a rocky field was cleared and a grandstand erected where the Joseph Smith Building now stands. In 1928, the next Cougar playing field was built where the Stephen L. Richards Building now stands. By using the hillside for seating, the spectator accommodation was increased from a few hundred to five thousand. As BYU football increased in popularity, the university was forced to find yet another location for a new stadium. Groundbreaking for the current Cougar Stadium commenced in October 1963. The initial seating capacity was set at 28,812 but soon increased to 35,000.

LAST EXPANSION

As a result of increased seating demands, BYU made yet another renovation in 1982, adding stands to the north and south end zones, lowering the field eight feet and removing the track surrounding the field (which hosted the 1967 and 1975 NCAA Track and Field Championships). The stadium expansions increased the seating capacity to over 65,000. The crowd of 64,253 that gathered for BYU's first game in the expanded stadium on September 25, 1982 was reportedly "the largest gathering ever in Utah history" at the time.

PRESS BOX

In 1982, 1988 and 1997, the Football Writers Association of America cited BYU for its "outstanding press box working area." The Cougar Stadium press box has been named the "Provo Marriott" by the media who cover BYU football. Rising over 10 stories high, the four-level press box is located on the west side of the stadium and runs the entire length of the stands. Levels one and two of the press box contain 42 private loges, each equipped with 12 padded chairs, a television, radio, telephone, refrigerator, sink and game programs. The BYU President's box, which includes 163 padded chairs, five television sets and a buffet area, is also located on the first floor. Level three is reserved for the print and electronic media along with all the game operators. The statistics, public address, sound and scoreboard controls are all located on the third level. Altogether, approximately 300 people work on the third level during games. Level four is primarily used for television game filming.

VIDEO SCOREBOARD

In 1996, a 23 x 31 foot video scoreboard wall, showing both live action and instant replays, was added above the stands by the south end zone. A new animation board and sound system was also added to the scoreboard above the north stands.

OTHER EVENTS

Besides the regular season football games, Cougar Stadium is also used for a variety of other purposes. Music concerts have been hosted there as well as the annual "Stadium of Fire," the July 4th Spectacular held as part of America's Freedom Festival. High school playoff games and "the Rocky Mountain Band Competition" are also held on the field every year.

COUGAR ROOM

The BYU Athletic Hall of Fame in the Cougar Club Room is located in Cougar Stadium. The room is used for pre- and post-game activities as well as for meetings and banquets during the year. In addition to the many office areas, Cougar Stadium stores campus surplus furniture, maintenance vehicles and one of North America's largest Jurassic dinosaur collections.

cougar football lockerroom

In the past few years, the BYU football program has experienced some major changes - new colors, new uniforms, new coaches, a new offense and now new lockers. The LaVell Edwards Stadium home locker room recently had 84 new hardwood oak lockers installed. The new lockers replaced the old ones that had been there since 1982, when the stadium was renovated.

"The installation of the lockers is being funded primarily by former football players," said Val Hale, BYU men's athletics director. "This is something we have done to let the former players help contribute to the program."

In the new lockers, a plaque will be placed with the team logo, the jersey number of the player using the locker that year and the saying 'Worn by Champions - Wear it with Pride' on it. Also, a list of names of those who have worn that particular number in the past and have contributed money to the new lockers will appear on the plaque.

"One of the real benefits of this is that it bonds the past to the present," Hale said. "Every time a player puts on his jersey from now on, he will think of the players from the past who have worn that number. There is an affinity between them because they have worn the same number."

Hale said the idea for the new lockers came from head coach Gary Crowton.

"Gary did this at Louisiana Tech when he was head coach," Hale said. "They were able to generate enough money from former player contributions to not only fund the project, but put some towards the football program as well."

Mick Hill, BYU football equipment manager for the last 20 years, said new lockers have been needed for a long time.

"The old lockers were not even really lockers," Hill said. "They were more like open stalls with dividers between them. There was really no place to put anything."

The new lockers are bigger and have a footlocker in which players will be able to store their belongings and will also serve as the player's seat. Although the lockers are in place, there is still work to be done on the locker room. Future plans for the locker room include a new ceiling, pictures of past All-conference and All-American players on the walls, a big screen T.V. and some couches.

"We want the locker room to be something nice," Hale said. "We want it to be something where coaches and players can go and prepare for the games."

So far, over 120 former players have contributed to the lockers, Hale said.

"Each time we send out a letter to the former players, we get a large group to contribute," he said. "Eventually, I would love to see every player donate. It is neat to see them want to help out."

Former players are not the only ones able to contribute. Anyone who would like to contribute, or find out more information, can call the BYU Athletics Department at (801) 422-8704 or Mike Middleton at the Cougar Club at (801) 422-2717.

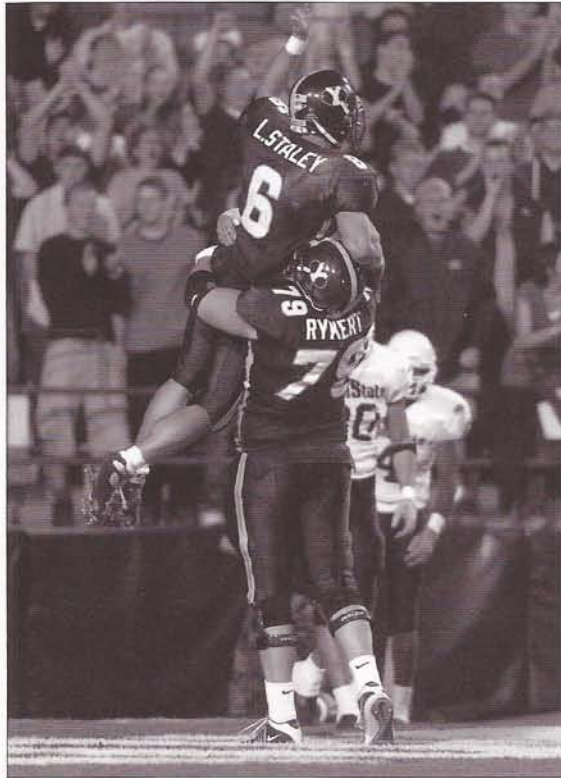

Two of the unique features of Cougar Stadium are the spacious Cougar Room, used to host athletic department events and the Athletic Hall of Fame (above), and the 23 x 31 foot video scoreboard wall (left) that flashes instant replays of the football game.

Y MOUNTAIN

Preparations for placing the initials BYU on the mountainside began in April of 1906 when president George H. Brimhall commissioned surveyors for the letters "B," "Y" and "U." The letter "Y" was first laid out to insure that the initials were properly centered on the mountain. Beginning in the early morning, students formed a line that zigzagged up the mountain. Standing eight feet apart, each student would carry a load up to the next and then return for another.

The project, which many expected to be completed by 10 a.m., lasted until 4 p.m. and only the "Y" was covered. After such a laborious day of work, plans to fill in the other two letters were scrapped. Covered with a thin layer of lime powder, the letter was in need of constant repair. Hoping to make it more permanent, a layer of rock was added in 1907. The next year, 20,000 pounds of sand and cement were carried up the mountain to form a three-foot high wall around the letter to hold it together. Several years later the letter underwent a facelift as the blocks, or serifs, were added to it to give it its current appearance.

A nationally recognized symbol of BYU, Y Mountain is a featured shot of almost every Cougar game broadcast on television. Located about half a mile east of campus and halfway up the mountain, the "Y" looks out over the valley and is one of its most prominent features.

BYU MARCHING BAND

The ground shakes beneath them as 225 players in blue and white storm the field at LaVell Edwards Stadium. The crowd cheers them on as they demonstrate the talents they've practiced throughout the week to get ready for the game. It's the "Power of the Wasatch"—not the football team, the BYU marching band.

An essential piece of the pageantry, tradition and atmosphere of BYU athletics, the BYU marching band takes its name from the stretch of Rocky Mountains that provides the beautiful backdrop for BYU's campus. The music of BYU's band has echoed off those mountains since 1908 when it first took the field under the direction of Robert Sauer, composer of the famous tune "When It's Springtime in the Rockies." The band has since evolved into the precision spectacle it is today.

The success of BYU's football team has allowed the marching band to gain national exposure. Playing at least at every home game and two away games each year, the "Power of the Wasatch" is almost guaranteed another performance as they've accompanied the Cougars to 19 bowl appearances in the past 23 years.

COSMO

The cougar, chosen as BYU's mascot by former coach Eugene L. Roberts in the early 1920s, has undergone a tremendous evolution since its inception to become what is now known as the feline phenomenon of Cosmo the Cougar. Beginning in 1924 when BYU purchased a pair of cougar cubs for 50 cents each to excite BYU fans at athletic events, live cougars prowled the sidelines of BYU games on a regular basis through the late 40s and on special occasions through the 60s.

The original cubs were housed on the south side of campus until 1929 when they managed to break out of their cage, kill two dogs and began stalking livestock on nearby farms. Both were recaptured later the same day. Three weeks later, one cougar died and the other was taken to the old Salt Lake Zoo. BYU procured its mascots from nearby zoos and local bounty hunters but never owned its own cougars again.

Cosmo the Cougar, the brainchild of pep chairman Dwayne Stevenson, made his first official appearance before BYU fans on October 15, 1953. At a cost of 73 dollars for the costume, Daniel T. Gallego, Stevenson's roommate, became the first man under the fur. The name given the big cat was derived from BYU's diverse student body.

Cosmo leads the Cougars out of the tunnel

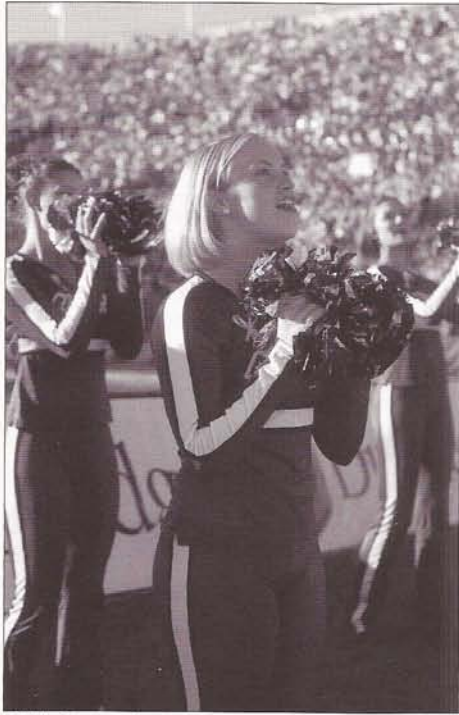

"BYU was a very international, cosmopolitan school and that is where we got the name Cosmo," said Gallego.

Nearing a half-century of service to the BYU community, Cosmo has become an icon of Cougar sports to fans and foes across the country. Through Cosmo's Kids Club and Cosmo's Corner, he is helping raise another generation of BYU fans. Prowling the sidelines for the Cougars, his antics add to the experience of game day at BYU. Cosmo brings out the best of Cougar spirit in fans at athletic competitions both home and away.

THE COUGARETTES

One of BYU's lesser-known jewels, the Cougarettas are more than a sideline attraction at football games and other athletic events. Named one of the top 25 dance teams in the nation by Dance Spirit Magazine, the Cougarettas have earned national respect on the dance floor by claiming the National Collegiate Dance Team title in 1997, 1998, 1999 and again in 2001. They missed a five-year reign as national champions by a mere .02 points, placing them second in 2000. The Cougarettas have been credited with raising the level of competitive collegiate dance to a new and respected level.

Much to the relief of dance teams at other colleges, the Cougarettas opted out of national competition in 2002, choosing instead to perform at the Salt Lake City Olympics in front of an international audience. Beginning in early November of 2002, the dancers endured months of three- and four-hour practice sessions to get ready for the Olympic games where they performed at almost every major indoor and outdoor venue. Despite their hectic schedule in the weeks before and during the Olympics, national competition organizers were still asking the Cougarettes to reconsider.

"The directors wanted us there," said Jodi Maxfield, a former Cougarette who now works as artistic director for the Cougarettes, "but told us that we made a lot of teams really happy by not showing up."

Established in 1946, the Cougarettes became a part of BYU's athletic tradition in 2000 when they began working with the cheer squad at football and basketball games to enhance the overall game-day experience at BYU. Each year, more than 100 girls try out for this elite team of entertainers. Once pared down to 16 dancers, give or take one or two, the Cougarettes tackle a rigorous practice regimen that not only consists of choreographing their routines but also includes strength and flexibility training to prepare them for their performances at games, concerts and other special presentations.

An exciting and talented part of the pageantry that surrounds BYU's athletic success, the Cougarettes have reached an unprecedented level of achievement in their own field and are more than happy to bring their talents to the playing field for the Cougars.

THE BEEHIVE BOOT

First instituted in 1971, the Beehive Boot is the symbol of gridiron supremacy in the state of Utah. The idea for the rotating trophy originated with Dave Shulthess, former Sports Information Director (SID) of BYU, and was agreed upon by SIDs from Utah, Utah State and Weber State. As the trophy would represent dominance within the confines of the Beehive State, it was decided that the trophy should be symbolic of the people Utah was built by—the Mormon pioneers.

Finding a suitable pioneer boot for use as a trophy proved to be a difficult task. As pioneers wore their boots until there simply wasn't much left of them, there weren't many pioneer boots lying around. After an arduous search that included numerous personal calls and radio announcements, Tom Beasley, an antique dealer living in Cache Valley donated a pair of boots for use as the trophy. Estimated to be 100 or more years old, the Beehive Boot is an authentic piece of Utah History.

Awarded to the team with the best record against in-state opponents, the Beehive Boot lived its first four years at Utah State University. BYU then began a dominant run as it ascended into the realms of football's elite, claiming the Boot 19 times in the past 27 years. Utah and Utah State are tied for second having won the boot six times each. The longest streak in the history of the Beehive Boot is a five-year span from 1983 to 1987 by BYU. The Boot currently resides at BYU where the Cougars are looking to add to the two-year stretch it has been housed in Provo.

If Utah's teams should end the season with identical records against in-state opponents, a winner is chosen by vote of the in-state media who covered the schools' games. This situation has occurred twice in the history of the boot (1973 and 1997) and Utah State was given the trophy each time.

The trophy became a memorial to Steve Smilanich, a former sports writer for United Press International, in 1979. A native Utahan, Smilanich was killed in an automobile accident in New York City in 1970. Prior to his death, he was the national college sports editor and assistant sports editor for UPI.

THE OLD WAGON WHEEL

The Latter-day Saints crossed the plains in the mid 1800's, many of them atop covered wagons that rolled creakily across the dry grass. Today a wagon's wheel continues to travel to and from Provo. It doesn't carry people; it carries the pride of the Cougar and Aggie faithful.

The Old Wagon Wheel became a part of the BYU-Utah State rivalry in 1948. Awarded by the Blue

The Old Wagon Wheel

Key fraternities of the two schools, the Aggies took it home for the first year after 20-7 defeat of the Cougars. Since 1948, the wheel has covered many a mile between the two schools as their rivalry has grown.

Although Utah State dominated the early years of the wheel's existence, taking 18 of the first 27 victories where the wheel was at stake, the tables have been turned in recent decades as the BYU football team has taken its place among college football's elite. The series now stands 30-21 in favor of the Cougars.

Winning the wheel on the field is only a small part of the battle between the two schools. Although not practiced anymore, the more entertaining tradition surrounding the wheel is its theft. In years past, the losing school has often sought to reclaim the trophy through less than legal means. Despite being done in the "all in good fun" spirit, this tradition has had its share of problems. The wheel has disappeared for years at a time after being taken by parties with no affiliation to either school.

The Wheel currently resides in the Marriott Center at BYU where the Cougars are working to make it a permanent resident.

After each Cougar score George Q cannon is fired by members of the BYU Army ROTC. The 75mm Howitzer is in its sixth year of electrifying Edwards Stadium.

COUGAR FIGHT SONG

Penned in 1932 by Clyde D. Sandgren, "The Cougar Song" is the anthem of BYU sports. Sung after each touchdown and field goal at football games, its words can frequently be heard ringing out across Utah valley on Saturday afternoons in the fall. Traditionally, fans remain seated through the verse and then stand, chant and shout through the chorus. Carried by 65,000 voices "The Cougar Song" can be an intimidating musical number to an opposing team as LaVell Edwards Stadium thunders to its tune.

Although written and composed in 1932, the song was not copyrighted and presented to the University until 1947. In addition to "The Cougar Song" Sandgren wrote and composed "The Old 'Y' Bell" which was sung at the dedication of the upper-campus bell tower that housed the Victory Bell before it was moved its current location outside the Marriott Center.

A 1937 graduate of BYU, Sandgren went on to obtain a law degree from St. John's University. He then became a partner of the New York law firm Burroughs and Brown until 1947 when he decided to return to his native Provo to establish his own law practice. Sandgren later served as general counsel and vice president of BYU. Although he passed away in 1989, Sandgren's memory lives on through the voices of Cougar fans across the nation.

The Cougar Song
By Clyde D. Sandgren, 1932

Rise all loyal Cougars and hurl your challenge to the foe.
You will fight, day or night, rain or snow.
Loyal, strong, and true
Wear the white and blue.
While we sing, get set to spring.
Come on Cougars it's up to you. Oh!

Rise and shout, the Cougars are out along the trail to fame and glory.
Rise and shout, our cheers will ring out
As you unfold your victory story.

On we go, to vanquish the foe for Alma Mater's sons and daughters.
As we join in song, in praise of you, our faith is strong,
We'll raise our colors high in the blue,
And cheer our cougars of BYU.

THE VICTORY BELL

The original Y bell traveled across the plains with the early pioneers of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and was used to call meetings among the saints and to announce any deaths in the community. Donated to the Brigham Young Academy in 1875, it was used to begin and dismiss classes until it was destroyed in a fire in 1884. The Academy went without a bell for the next 28 years, using instead a variety of instruments as a class bell.

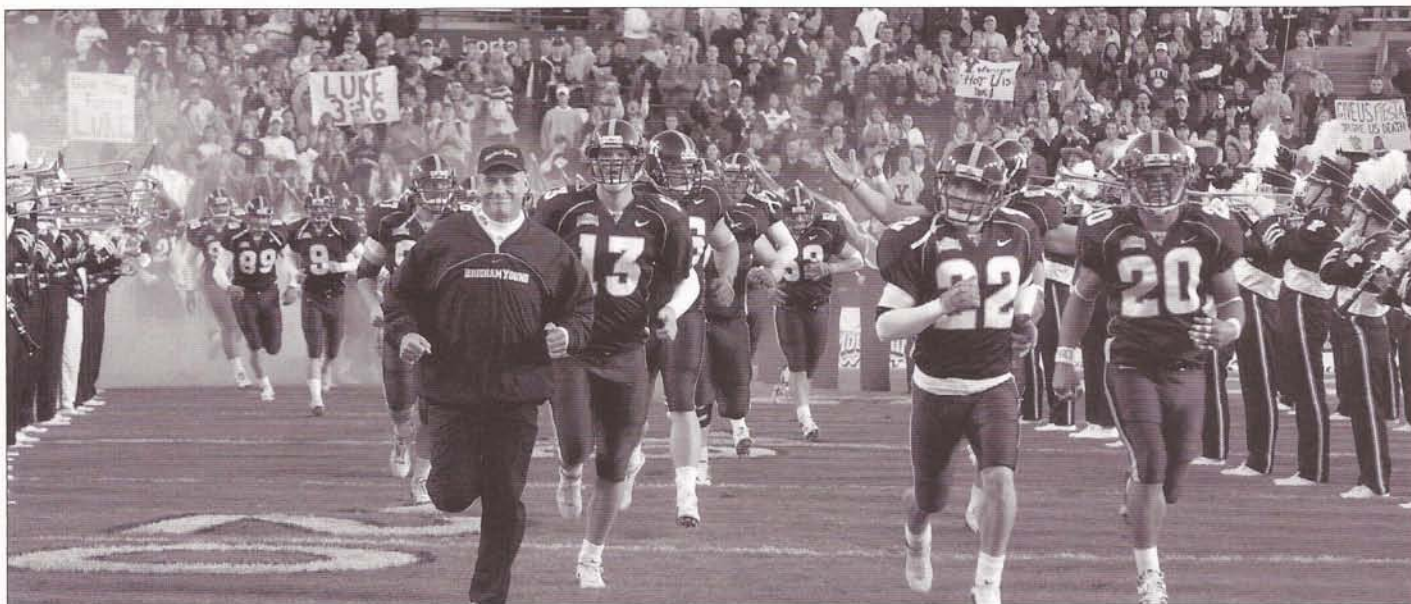

Rung after each BYU victory, the bell was quieted in 1949 after a basketball win over rival Utah. Several overzealous students climbed the tower and vigorously beat upon the bell until it cracked. Repaired with a bronze patch in 1954 by Frank Hemingway, the bell was removed from the education building and mounted on a trailer so it could travel with BYU's teams to away games.

Its mobility proved its downfall as it was stolen in 1958 to be found six months later in a Springville field. The theft prompted the construction of a bell tower on BYU's upper-campus overlooking the Smith Fieldhouse.

Dedicated in 1959, the tower served well until 1973 when the bell fell while ringing in the dedication of the Marriott Center. The supporting yoke above the bell was broken and the bell shattered. The bell was soon repaired by Ray Mortenson of the BYU Maintenance shop using electric welding—miraculously maintaining its previous tone—and was remounted in the tower.

In 1978, the bell was moved to its current home on the southwest corner of the Marriott Center. The open arch tower was designed by BYU landscape architect Boyd Dawler and is made of the same cast stone as the exterior pillars of the Marriott Center. Although the old bell tower above the Smith Fieldhouse no longer stands, the massive steel I-beams that supported the tower have now been converted into the strongest park benches in the Intermountain West.

Over the years the ringing of the bell has come to represent honor, achievement and spirit, and has inspired several poems and songs from BYU faculty and alumni. Clyde D. Sandgren, who composed the Cougar Fight Song, penned a verse that was sung at the dedication of the upper-campus bell tower. As BYU victories have become more and more commonplace in recent decades, the ringing of the "Y bell" after each win has renamed it the "Victory Bell."

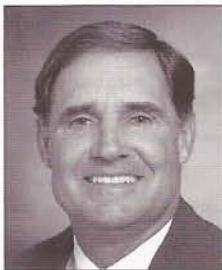

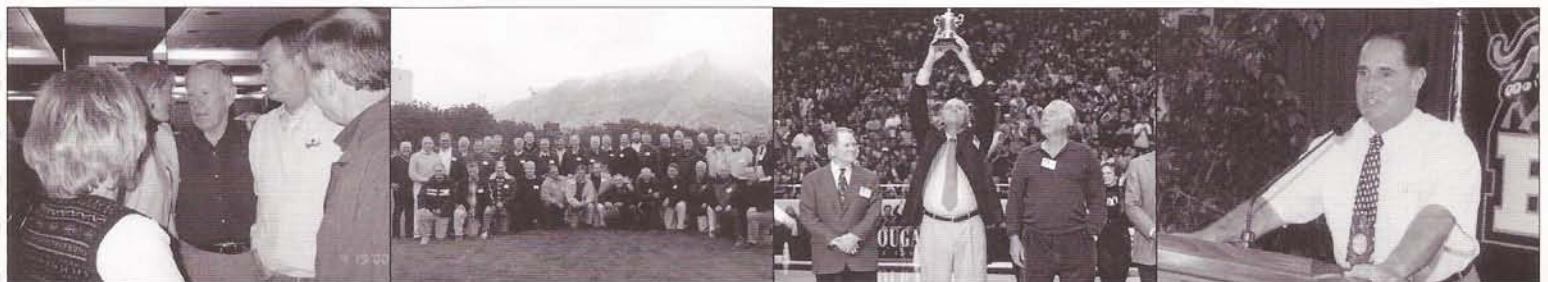

In 1995, a group of former BYU athletes met in Provo to pursue the dream of uniting their colleagues into an organization dedicated to preserving the camaraderie they enjoyed as varsity athletes.

Rondo Fehlberg, Athletic Director at BYU from 1994 through 1999, shared his vision of what a Varsity Club could be with Gifford Nielsen, former BYU All-America, Dick Felt, Football Coach, and selected coaches and athletes. Their efforts were organized by Rex Pugmire of the Alumni Association with the establishment of a governing board, by laws and club objectives. They also hoped to create a vehicle for giving something meaningful back to BYU.

Out of this dream was born the BYU Varsity Club. In the summer of 1999, the Varsity Club became a Friendship Arm of the Cougar Club, operating under the auspices of the Athletic Department.

If you were a BYU varsity athlete, we invite you to join us.

1999, 2001 VOLLEYBALL NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

In 2001 BYU won its second volleyball national championship in three years becoming the first team to ever defeat volleyball powerhouse UCLA in three straight games in an NCAA Championship contest. The three-game sweep of UCLA helped BYU become the only non-California school to win more than one men's volleyball national championship.

BYU's women's cross country team has been simply dominating, winning the national championship in three out of the last five years (1997, 1999 and 2001) and finishing second in 1998 and 2000.

PRIDE OF THE MOUNTAIN WEST

In the three-year history of the MWC, the Cougars have won 37 of 57 conference championships—almost two-thirds of all championships awarded by the conference. Last season, BYU won 10 of 19 MWC Championships while 12 BYU teams finished the year in the nation's Top 25, helping the Cougars to a 23rd place finish in the Sears Cup Standings. In 2000-2001, BYU won all but three conference championships (16 of 19) and seven BYU teams finished their respective seasons ranked among the nation's top 25.

From 1962 to 1999, BYU dominated the Western Athletic Conference, winning more championships than any other WAC School. In fact, during the last three decades, the Cougars won 60 percent of the WAC Championships—more than all other conference competitors combined. Included in these team titles, BYU's baseball team won 22 division titles in 23 years and was ranked as high as No. 1 in 1983. While consistently placing among the nation's top teams, Brigham Young University has also captured eight national championships.

Utah's white splendor has been characterized as "The Greatest Snow On Earth." With an average annual snowfall of more than 42 feet, skiing and snowboarding at any of Utah's 14 resorts is truly a winter wonderland. Knee-deep powder and untracked snow are common characteristics of mountain resorts throughout Utah. The Wasatch Mountains provides a backdrop for Utah Valley with high peaks and rugged terrain that give bikers and hikers a taste of wildflower meadows, deep forests and snowcapped mountain peaks. Breathtaking vistas and spectacular views awaken the senses to nature's simple beauties.

A mountain biker's dream come true, Moab is paradise for fat-tire bikers. Just a three-hour drive from Provo, Moab, an old mining town, neighbors Arches National Park, one of six national parks and seven national monuments within a half-day drive from Provo. Ascending to higher elevations, clear mountain streams and rushing rivers wash through green landscapes and deep forests. The numerous canyons surrounding Utah Valley are full of mountain springs, lakes and waterfalls.

With a population over 350,000 people, Utah County offers all the conveniences of a major metropolitan community. Just 40 minutes south of Salt Lake City, host of the 2002 Winter Olympics, Provo also offers various recreational activities. Known for its incredible skiing and central location to 15 national parks and monuments, Utah County attracts visitors from around the world.

The Utah Valley metropolitan communities of Provo and Orem are home to a growing high-tech mecca, including the world headquarters for many computer and technology corporations. The Provo/Orem area boasts one of the highest standards of living in the country and has been rated by several experts as one of the top areas to live in the U.S. In a 2001 FBI report, the Provo/Orem metropolitan area had the second lowest violent crime rate in the nation. Utah Valley is an excellent educational environment with high-quality health care, a below average crime rate and rich cultural and recreational opportunities for its citizens. The Utah Valley area has been ranked among the top 20 places to live in the nation (according to Money Magazine) for the past five years. In September 1991, the magazine rated the area #1 on its list of the top 300 places in the nation to live. In 1994, the area received the #3 ranking. It is also considered by Fortune magazine to be the "third high-tech cluster in the U.S."

The Sundance Institute located in Provo Canyon offers locals and visitors an opportunity to experience some of the region's artistic culture. Every year, some 20,000 people attend Robert Redford's Sundance Film Festival. Several films that premiered at the festival have been the recipients of Oscar, Emmy and International Film Festival awards. Sundance offers year-round activities that can be enjoyed by everyone, including its ski resort, summer outdoor theater, fine dining and shopping.

With the donations and support of more than 4,500 members nationwide, the Cougar Club has helped BYU build one of America's strongest collegiate athletic programs. Through its fund-raising and promotional mission, the Cougar Club is ensuring the future success of BYU Athletics.

"For more than three decades, the Cougar Club has been the life blood of BYU Athletics. We are grateful for all the generous contributions of our fans."

— Val Hale, BYU men's athletic director

Loyal Cougar Club members across America are building the foundation for BYU's future athletic victories. The changing nature of collegiate athletics means that to compete at the highest levels, BYU must raise more money every year. The costs associated with being one of the nation's elite programs continue to rise dramatically. With that challenge in mind, the support of Cougar Club and its members becomes an even more important key to the future growth of BYU Athletics.

"The BYU fans and donors make all the difference," says Cougar Club Executive Director Michael Middleton. "For our teams to continue to achieve national prominence, the Cougar Club needs to continue to grow."

FUNDING

Cougar Club donations are used for many vital projects, including:

- Funding the entire athletic program's recruiting expenses, helping BYU coaches to attract some of the world's premier athletes to Provo, Utah.
- Building new facilities including the Indoor Practice Facility, currently slated for construction, and the recently opened Miller Baseball/Softball complex.
- Supporting the Student Athlete Center and sponsoring academic tutoring for student athletes, providing laptop computers for the athletes to use when traveling, and sustaining an endowment that provides spring/summer and post-eligibility scholarships that assist current and former athletes to finish their degrees.

MEMBER BENEFITS

There is a Cougar Club membership level for every fan that wants to help BYU continue to build a strong athletic tradition. Individuals and businesses annually make tax-deductible Cougar Club contributions of between $50 and $5,000—based on their financial ability to give and on the athletic benefits they want to receive. To acknowledge the generosity of club members, the athletic department makes a number of benefits available to club members including:

- EXCLUSIVE SEATING
- FREE RESERVED PARKING
- PRE-GAME MEETINGS BEFORE EACH HOME FOOTBALL GAME
- FREE LUNCHEONS WITH BYU COACHES AND ATHLETES
- ATHLETIC PUBLICATIONS
- THE OPPORTUNITY TO PURCHASE POST-SEASON TICKETS BEFORE THE GENERAL PUBLIC
- AND MANY OTHERS

However, the greatest benefit of membership is knowing that the Cougar Club is helping BYU Athletics continue to be one of the nation's best collegiate athletic programs.

THE LEGACY PROGRAM

In 1997, Cougar Club introduced the Legacy Program to further ensure BYU's continued athletic success. The Legacy Program is designed to help club members structure their financial planning (appreciated securities, trusts, bequests, wills, life insurance and other options) to benefit BYU Athletics while maximizing flexibility and tax benefits for the donor. Additional athletic benefits are available through the Legacy Program for donors who make a present value Legacy gift of $10,000 or more.

EVENTS

The Cougar Club sponsors many programs and events that build athletic loyalty among Cougar fans, BYU alumni and other friends of the university. The Cougar Club annually sponsors more than 30 events for the enjoyment of club members, including:

- BYU Athletic Hall of Fame
- BYU Annual Athletic Awards Banquet
- Academic Athlete Banquet
- Blue & White Football Game
- "Meet the Football Team" Watermelon Bust

- Club Members and other BYU fans interested in starting a Cougar Chapter in their area should contact the Cougar Club Office. A charter chapter requires only ten memberships in a localized area.

COUGAR HOUSE II

Cougar Club, in conjunction with the Utah Valley Home Builders Association and The Ranches at Eagle Mountain have built Cougar House II. The proceeds of over $280,000 from the sale of Cougar House II will be used to endow an athletic scholarship at BYU. This home was built entirely through the donations of more than 60 contractors, suppliers, and tradesmen who donated their time, materials and labor to support the student-athletes at BYU. ### TOM HOLMOE

There has never been a better time to support BYU Athletics. BYU's athletes and teams are consistently among the nation's best, and our overall athletic program has been ranked in the NCAA's top 25 each of the past five years. We are getting closer to the vision of excellence and consistency that I have for BYU Athletics—every team in the nation's Top 20.

Although our goals have never been higher, our needs have never been greater. To reach our potential we must build and maintain state-of-the-art facilities and purchase the best equipment. If we intend to win, and to win with integrity, we must also continue to recruit the best LDS athletes and others who share BYU's standards.

I have seen firsthand the impact of our athletic success on the missionary work of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. BYU's values and victories have created respect and positive publicity for the LDS Church across America and around the world.

I invite you to join us in building BYU's legacy of athletic excellence.

athletic hall of fame

Sponsored and directed by the Cougar Club, the BYU Athletic Hall of Fame was established in 1975. Since then, more than 140 former athletes, coaches and administrators have received this prestigious honor. Honored not only for their athletic abilities, but also giving community service and setting examples worthy for others to emulate, less than two percent of BYU varsity athletes are ever nominated for the Hall of Fame, with less than one percent being inducted. Selection into the Hall of Fame is based on playing ability, integrity, sportsmanship and character as well as contributions to sport, team and community. Each inductee is honored with their picture and accomplishments in the Hall of Fame Gallery located in the Cougar Club Stadium Room.

student athlete center

BYU student-athletes are seeking to excel athletically, academically and are preparing for life after they graduate. Their lives are complex and challenging as they seek for balance and to reach their lofty goals. On April 1, 1999, BYU created the Student Athlete Center to provide a place where student-athletes can receive support and resources enabling them to be successful in their athletic and academic pursuits,

Students with Disabilities, college advisement centers and BYUSA.

The BYU Athletics Department is an active participant in the NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills Program. The services provided by the Student Athlete Center target each of the five commitments of the CHAMPS/Life Skills program.

talk strategies, developing pre-competition plans, concentration (focusing) training and team-building interventions. The overall objective of these types of interventions is to assist individual student-athletes and athletic teams to perform at consistently high levels. Personal counseling is also available through the sport psychologist and Chaplain as needed.

personal and career development, and transition into the BYU culture.

The Student Athlete Center seeks to assist student-athletes so their BYU experience will be spiritually strengthening, intellectually enlarging, character building and lead to lifelong learning and service. Paul Warner is the Director of the Student Athlete Center. Warner, who received a doctorate in educational administration from BYU and is also a former LDS seminary teacher, serves as Chaplain for the non-LDS students. "I am pleased with this opportunity and appreciate working with our students in creating a home base where their needs can be met in a supportive environment. If we can build connections early on, we are able to ease the transition into campus life for all our student-athletes." said Warner. One of the main priorities of the Student Athlete Center is to help those student-athletes who are not members of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints feel welcomed and succeed in the BYU environment

Another priority of the Student Athlete Center is to network well with other BYU departments and work in coordination with their existing services. Some of these departments include the Counseling and Career Center, Multi-cultural Student Services, Services for

COMMITMENT TO ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

A primary goal of the Student Athlete Center is to ensure that every student-athlete graduates with a bachelor's degree in their chosen field of study. To achieve this goal, the Center provides a team liaison as part of the comprehensive academic support program. Each athlete has regular visits with his/her team liaison who assists with registration and monitors progress toward graduation. Tutoring is also available for every student-athlete. The Student Athlete Center is conveniently located in the George Albert Smith Fieldhouse and contains a study hall and computer lab. Study skills classes and workshops are also taught regularly for student-athletes who may need additional assistance to achieve academic success.

COMMITMENT TO ATHLETIC EXCELLENCE

The Student Athlete Center employs a sport psychologist to provide performance enhancement interventions for BYU teams, coaches and student-athletes. These interventions include: increasing awareness for sport performance, goal-setting, arousal regulation through relaxation and energizing techniques, imagery training, confidence building through self-

COMMITMENT TO PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT

Student Athlete Center personnel are also active in teaching classes designed to promote leadership, emotional well-being, personal growth and decision-making skills. Student-athletes are taught about some of the unique issues they face in the world of college athletics and how to thrive in the university setting and beyond.

COMMITMENT TO CAREER DEVELOPMENT

A career specialist is available to assist student-athletes with a variety of career issues. They receive help in choosing a major, building their resume, establishing a career network and preparing for their transition from college athletics into the world of work. These services are available through individual consultation, workshops, computer programs and University courses. Career exploration and career transition classes are highly recommended to all student-athletes. Internship and employment opportunities are also made available through the Career Network, which is made up of Varsity Club and Cougar Club members.

COMMITMENT TO SERVICE

All BYU student-athletes are encouraged to participate in at least three community service programs each year. There are a wide variety of opportunities available through the Student Athlete Center including: "The Buff Don't Puff" program, speaking opportunities at local schools and churches, food drives, mentoring school children and involvement in BYUSA and community agency projects. A Student Athlete Center representative organizes the community service program and works closely with the Student Athlete Advisory Council in providing opportunities for all student athletes who want to participate.

BYU student-athletes donate hundreds of hours per year in community service and speaking engagements. Spencer Nead and Chris Pella assist at the BYU women's conference service project (top left) while several student athletes enjoy a moment during a service project helping children of drug addicted parents (middle right photo). The Student Athlete Center helped coordinate a joint service project with student athletes from both BYU and the University of Utah (bottom photo).

GOALS OF THE STUDENT ATHLETE CENTER:

1. A 90% graduation rate for all student-athletes.
2. An average cumulative GPA of 3.0 or better for all teams.
3. Three hours of community service per semester by each athlete.
4. Each student-athlete will choose a well-suited major by the beginning of their 5th semester.
5. All non-LDS student-athletes will participate in at least one section of the Book of Mormon course designed for them.
6. All student-athletes will understand and commit to live the BYU Honor Code.

mountain west conference

In the three-year history of the Mountain West Conference, the Cougars have won 37 of 57 conference championships. That's 65 percent of all championships awarded in the eight-member conference. In 2000-2001 the Cougars won 16 of 19 conference championships.

"We're grateful our teams have performed so well, but frankly, we expect each of them to win the conference championship every year. When we don't win, we're very disappointed. It's a source of pride. We expect to win, and we truly believe we can."

– BYU athletic director Val Hale

The Mountain West Conference was conceived on May 26, 1998, when the presidents of eight institutions — Air Force, Brigham Young, Colorado State, New Mexico, San Diego State, UNLV, Utah and Wyoming — met in Denver and decided to form the MWC.

The cornerstone of the conference's formation was the maintenance of long standing athletic rivalries among its member institutions. Hence the Mountain West Conference was formed. Located in Colorado Springs, Colo., when the MWC's doors opened for business the new league had in place a seven-year contract with ESPN giving the broadcaster exclusive national television rights to MWC football and men's basketball; and three-year agreements to send the league's football champion to the Liberty Bowl and a second team to the Las Vegas Bowl.

The Conference officially began operations on July 1, 1999. Prior to opening its doors an executive committee was established and named Craig Thompson commissioner. Thompson had less than one-year to name the new league, settle on a city to serve as the league's headquarters, find a television partner, arrange for bowl tie-ins, hire staff, and develop a logo.

The Mountain West Conference is noted for its geographic diversity. Some of the most beautiful geography in the nation can be found within Mountain West Conference boundaries, including the unparalleled Rocky Mountain range, which borders four MWC schools (Utah, BYU, Air Force and Colorado State). The high plains of Wyoming (elevation 7,000 feet) contrast with the desert city of Las Vegas (the fastest growing metropolitan area in the West), the balmy weather and Pacific Ocean locale of San Diego State and the southwestern flavor of New Mexico.

Highlights through the MWC's first three years include two women's cross country national championships, being the only conference with multiple bowl games to go unbeaten in the 2000 postseason - posting a 3-0 mark, participation in nine bowl games, sending five of the eight teams to postseason bowls, one of two conferences in 2002 to send 75 percent of its men's basketball teams to postseason play, eight berths in the NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament, and two teams advancing to the NCAA Volleyball Tournament "Sweet 16" every year the league's been in existence.

The 2002-03 season looks to be a hallmark year for the Mountain West. The MWC enters the 2002 football season with berths secured to four bowl games. Half the conference's teams will play in a postseason bowl, as the MWC has guaranteed spots in the Liberty, Las Vegas, San Francisco and Seattle Bowls.

In addition to the 19 MWC-sponsored sports, programs like Utah and BYU have national titles in non-league sports. The Utes have won a total of 20 national championships in the sports of women's gymnastics and skiing, while BYU captured the 2001 and 1999 NCAA men's volleyball championship.

THE 2000-01 SEASON

BYU claimed 16 of the 19 MWC championships (men's cross country, women's cross country, women's soccer, women's volleyball, men's swimming and diving, women's swimming and diving, men's indoor track and field, women's indoor track and field, men's basketball, men's tennis, women's tennis, men's golf, softball, baseball, men's outdoor track and field, women's outdoor track and field). The Cougars finished the season ranked 16th in the final Sears Directors Cup standings.

The Mountain West Conference concluded the 2000 football season by becoming the only conference with multiple bowl games to go unbeaten in the postseason, posting a 3-0 mark. The 2000 Las Vegas Bowl broke the previous year's attendance record with 29,113 on hand to see UNLV beat Arkansas, 31-14. The Liberty Bowl's third-largest crowd witnessed Colorado State's 22-17 victory over Louisville. It marked the second straight year CSU played in front of the third-largest crowd in Liberty Bowl history. Air Force completed the perfect bowl season with a thrilling 34-31 victory over Fresno State in the inaugural Silicon Valley Football Classic.

The league's football success continued at the professional level as former student-athletes Mike Anderson (Utah) and Brian Urlacher (New Mexico) earned NFL Offensive and Defensive Rookie of the Year honors, respectively, for the 2000 season.

In basketball the MWC qualified 9 of 15 eligible teams for post-season play. Four of seven eligible men's teams advanced into the post-season (BYU-NCAA, Utah-NIT, Wyoming-NIT, New Mexico-NIT) and five of eight women's teams (Colorado State-NCAA, Utah-NCAA, New Mexico-WNIT, BYU-WNIT, UNLV-WNIT), with New Mexico losing in the finals of the WNIT.

The Mountain West Conference set new marks for attendance and tickets sold for its Basketball Championships at the Thomas & Mack Center in Las Vegas, Nev.

The MWC sent 31 teams and 30 individuals on to NCAA post-season action. Thirty-eight student-athletes from member institutions were named first-team All-America. Mountain West Conference student-athletes Scott Becker (Air Force) and Jared Lee (BYU) claimed two of the six Division I-A postgraduate scholarships presented by the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame. A total of 594 student-athletes were All-Academic Mountain West Conference for maintaining a 3.0 or better grade point average.

The 2001-02 Season

For the third consecutive season the Mountain West Conference sent three football teams to post-season bowl games. In winning the MWC title, BYU became the first team to go undefeated in conference play. The Cougars finished the season with a 12-2 mark and a Top 25 final ranking. BYU's Luke Staley became the conference's second consensus All-America and the first national award winner, claiming the Doak Walker Award as the country's top running back.

The Mountain West Conference was one of two conferences to send 75 percent of its men's basketball teams to post-season play. For the first time in conference history three teams (San Diego State, Wyoming, Utah) played in the NCAA Tournament. The conference was also represented in the NIT with UNLV, BYU and New Mexico.

The MWC sent half of its women's teams (Colorado State, BYU, UNLV and New Mexico) to the NCAA Tournament, with BYU advancing to the Sweet 16.

For the second consecutive year the MWC set attendance records for its Basketball Championships at the Thomas & Mack Center in Las Vegas.

Mountain West Conference women's volleyball continued its national prominence as four teams advanced to the NCAA Tournament and for the third straight year the MWC sent two teams (Colorado State, Utah) to the Sweet 16.

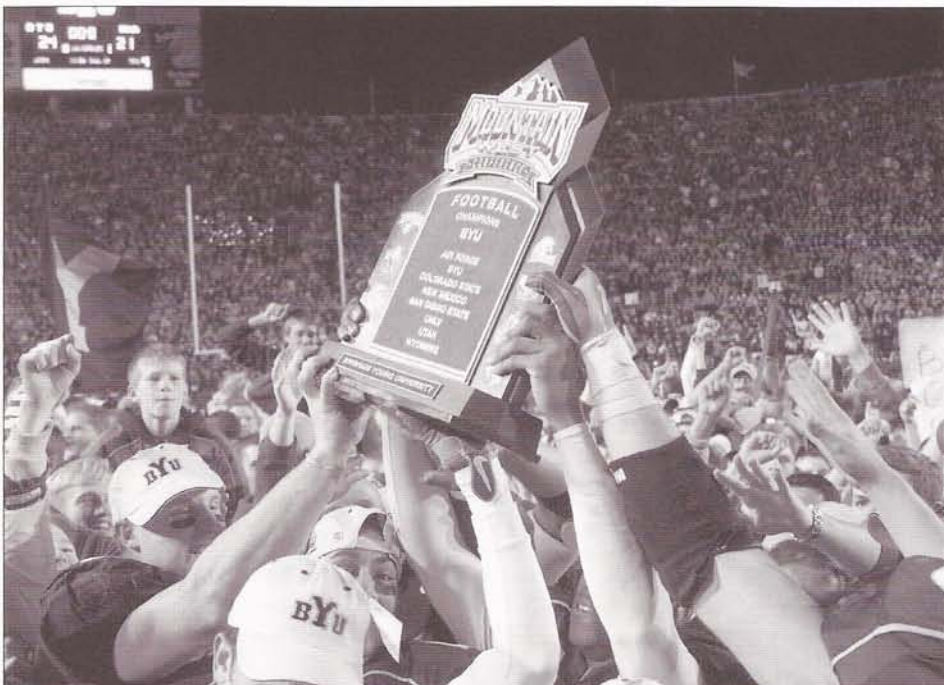

The BYU women's cross country team added another National Championship to the conference trophy case with its second title in three years.

Again this season the Mountain West Conference was well represented at NCAA Championship competition, sending 37 teams and 75 individuals to compete for national titles. The MWC saw 62 (36 First Team All-Americans) of its student-athletes garner All-America distinction. Academically, 814 student-athletes were Academic All-Mountain West. The NCAA awarded postgraduate scholarships to Teren Jameson (Utah), John Hedengren (BYU) and Nina Puikkonen (BYU).

MOUNTAIN WEST BOWL AGREEMENTS

The Mountain West Conference announced that it has secured multi-year agreements with four postseason football bowl games, beginning with the 2002 football season. The 2002 campaign will mark the MWC's fourth season of competition.

The MWC had previously extended its relationships with the AXA Liberty Bowl and the Sega Sports Las Vegas Bowl, and recently signed new agreements with the San Francisco Bowl and the Seattle Bowl. The AXA Liberty Bowl features the only guaranteed champion-vs.-champion match up outside the BCS system, matching the MWC champion against the winner of Conference USA. The Sega Sports Las Vegas Bowl pairs teams from the Mountain West and the PAC-10 conferences, while the Mountain West opponents in the San Francisco and Seattle Bowls will be from the Big East and ACC, respectively.

2001 Liberty Bowl: Memphis, Tenn.

This announcement comes in the wake of the NCAA Football Certification Subcommittee's action certifying three new bowls and renewing 25 others for the 2002-03 season. The NCAA Division I Board of Directors recently lifted a two-year moratorium on the maximum number of postseason bowls in Division I.

"We are very excited about the overall progress of the Mountain West Conference and particularly our football programs, as evidenced by these long-term commitments with our outstanding bowl partners," said MWC Commissioner Craig Thompson. "These four bowl tie-ins fulfill the goals established by the conference membership, including quality opponents, geographic proximity to the Mountain West Conference footprint and fiscally responsible financial arrangements. We are optimistic about the future of MWC football and anxious to get the 2002 season underway."

"I think people from the South and from the Midwest ought to see this. This is a big-time football rivalry." — Bill Curry ESPN College Football Analyst

It all started on October 14, 1922. Well, according to BYU, anyway. Utah claims the first meeting between the schools was on April 6, 1896, when BYU was still Brigham Young Academy.

It's just one of many things the two schools don't agree on. The Academy played Utah six times between 1896 and 1898, before Provo could officially boast its own full-fledged university. Each team won three games.

The Cougars and the Utes have built a strong tradition of intense competition in the 75 years of the rivalry. With the exception of the war years from 1943-45, the two schools have faced each other every year since 1922.

The Utes dominated the series early on, avoiding defeat until 1942, when the Cougars finally won, 12-7, in Salt Lake City behind Coach Floyd Millet. The success was short-lived, however, as it took BYU another 16 years to win another contest, 14-7, again in Salt Lake City in 1958. In all, Utah won 32 of the first 40 contests, four of which were ties.

In 1965, the momentum began to turn in BYU's favor. The Cougars took three in a row from the Utes from 1965-67, and although Utah won the next four, the competition had become much more interesting.

In 1972, the series took on an entirely different feeling with the arrival of LaVell Edwards as BYU's new head coach. He took on a program that had gone 5-38-4 (.149) against its fiercest rival and proceeded to post a 21-6 (.778) record against Utah in 27 years, including wins in 15 of his first 16 meetings with the Utes. In the Edwards era, the Cougars outscored the Utes an average of 35.6 to 20.7 per contest. Coach Edwards' career has included winning streaks of nine (1979-87) and six (1972-77) games against Utah.

The annual showdown generates considerable interest throughout the state, making it a virtual certainty that whatever stadium the teams play in will be sold out well in advance. In all, seven of Utah's top ten home crowds before the expansion of Rice Stadium were for games against BYU.

Meanwhile, 40 miles south in Provo, the grudge match has accounted for seven of the 20 largest crowds in the history of Cougar Stadium.

One of the more memorable moments in the rivalry was the 1989 contest in which the Cougars pasted the Utes, 70-31, in Provo. It was a game in which the home team scored touchdowns in each of its first seven possessions and in all eight with Ty Detmer as quarterback. In a move of mercy, Detmer was replaced by backup Sean Covey late in the second quarter.

Then there were the infamous back-to-back, 34-31, losses at the hands of the Utes in 1993 and '94, giving rebirth to a rivalry that had become ridiculously lopsided in the 80s and early 90s. In all, the Utes won three in a row (1993-95) under coach Ron McBride.

The Cougars responded to the new aggression in 1996 with a dominating, 37-17, victory in Salt Lake City. BYU employed an extremely unconventional approach, gaining 376 yards in 63 attempts on the ground and attempting only 12 passes.

In 1998, a well-placed ESPN microphone picked up an audible "clank" as the potentially game-winning kick bounced off the right goal post, allowing BYU to escape with a, 26-24, victory — despite Ron McBride's sideline prayer, as captured on national television.

BYU let the Utes back into the game after having seemingly put the game away in the fourth quarter, allowing Utah to set up a 32-yard field goal to win the game. BYU fans gave credit to divine intervention as the chip shot mysteriously hooked to the right at the last possible moment.

In 2000 LaVell Edwards worked his magic for the last time as Brandon Doman's touch-

Ryan Denney (above) can attest that 2001 was no exception in this hotly contested rivalry. ESPN color analyst Bill Curry said: "The intensity on this field and the intensity of this rivalry is palpable. You can feel it. It is big time."

In 2000 the Cougars led throughout the game only to fall behind 26-27 on a Matt Nickel TD reception with 2 minutes to play. Behind the heart of Brandon Doman and a little fate, BYU converted on a 4th down conversion with less than a minute to play. Then Doman connected with senior Jonathan Pittman along the sideline before Luke Staley took the ball inside Utah's 10-yard line. From there Doman scored with 23 seconds remaining on a quarterback sweep right to give BYU the miraculous come-from-behind victory (photo above). Doman did it again in 2001 when he led the Cougars to another come-from-behind victory (photo below).

down with 23 seconds remaining finished an amazing last minute comeback to send the legendary BYU coach out a winner.

Provo has been much more friendly to the Cougars over the years, as BYU has posted a 13-15-1 record overall at home but has only managed a 15-30-3 record on the road against the Utes. Lately home field advantage seems to have become less of a factor, as the Utes won three straight at Edwards Stadium (1995, '97, '99) and the Cougars have taken three in a row in Salt Lake City (1996, 1998, 2000).

Last season BYU changed the trend in a miraculous, come-from-behind victory in Provo. With less than four minutes left in the game and down 11 points, BYU's hopes for a perfect season seemed dim. But Luke Staley scored two touchdowns in just over two minutes apart to erase the deficit and give the Cougars the 24-21 victory. The game was far from over after Staley's 30-yard touchdown. Lance Rice led Utah on a final drive in the last minute. Rice converted a key fourth-and-10 with a trick play, advancing the ball to the BYU 30-yard line. But on the very next play, Jernaro Gilford stepped in front of a Rice pass and intercepted the ball to seal the game.

2002 Opponents in Bold

All-Conference defensive back Omar Morgan raises the WAC Champion sign triumphant after a 37-17 drubbing of Utah in Salt Lake City in 1996. The one-sided victory clinched the Mountain Division WAC Championship and earned them a spot in the WAC Championship game in Las Vegas against Wyoming. The Cougars went on to win the WAC Championship 28-25 in overtime.

The 2001 Season Review

The 2001 season loomed large with multiple changes in the lineup. Gary Crowton was making his debut as BYU's new head coach. The fight for quarterback wasn't decided quite yet. Game 13 was added at the last minute, adding to an already full schedule. The outlook for the season was uncertain and no one knew what to expect.

Brandon Doman was the quarterback selected to start the BCA Classic. Tulane started with a 75-yard run to put them up just over a minute into the game. BYU answered two minutes later with Staley running for two yards to tie it up. Tulane scored again and Staley answered with a 29-yard run into the endzone for his second touchdown on the day. Staley delivered his third touchdown just minutes later on a 65-yard run. Tulane scored one more time just before the end of the quarter. The first quarter ended with a 21-21 tie. The second quarter, BYU scored three unanswered passing touchdowns. Tulane was able to put in a touchdown before the quarter ended, but so did BYU (McDonald-Ashford for a 26-yard run) for a halftime score of 49-28 in favor of BYU. The third quarter, Doman made a 14-yard run into the endzone. McDonald-Ashford recorded his second touchdown on a 1-yard run. The quarter ended with two BYU touchdowns and one for Tulane, 63-35 BYU. The Cougars managed all the scoring in the fourth quarter on a 5-yard run by McDonald-Ashford (his third touchdown). The game ended with a final posting of BYU at 70 and Tulane at 35.

Three BYU players recorded over 100-yards rushing: Staley (142 yards), Doman (115 yards) and McDonald-Ashford (103 yards). Doman added 286 yards passing on the day. BYU had its season-high total offense of 734 yards. The Cougars started the season on a strong note.

Was BYU really that good? Or was it the coaching of Gary Crowton? Or perhaps it was a combination of the two?

BYU's second home game was against Nevada. BYU dominated the whole game with Nevada posting only one touchdown, coming late in the fourth quarter. Staley contributed two touchdowns (an 8-yard run and a 44-yard run). McDonald-Ashford also put up two touchdowns on the day (a 5-yard run and a 1-yard run). The Cougars completed the game with a 52-7 victory. BYU finished the day with 598-yards total offense.

The Cougars traveled to Cal-Berkeley for their first away game. Cal played a tough first quarter and kept BYU scoreless, while posting their only score of the game. The second quarter saw a reversal of fortunes as the Golden Bears went scoreless and BYU put 21 points on the board. With :52 seconds left in the first half, Doman ran for a 4-yard touchdown. With no time left on the clock, to end the first half, Doman made a 53-yard completion to McDonald-Ashford, who ran it in, uncontested, for a touchdown. The Cougars scored two touchdowns in 0:52 to end the first half, giving BYU a 21-7 lead. BYU's efforts continued into the third quarter as Doman ran four yards for another touchdown. Doman made his third touchdown a few minutes later with yet another four-yard touchdown run. The Cougars ended the quarter with 20 more points on the scoreboard. Cal managed a field goal, but BYU was already up big, 41-10. The fourth quarter was a struggle for either team to score. The quarter ended with BYU's Matt Payne making a 26-yard field goal and Cal making a touchdown without the point after. The final score was BYU 44 and Cal 16. BYU was 3-0. Two BYU players were named MWC player-of-the-week (Doman and Ryan Denney). Doman became the first BYU player responsible for six touchdowns since 1996 (Steve Sarkisian). Denney recorded two sacks on the day, contributing to a total of five sacks for BYU.

The tragic events of Sept. 11, 2001 put a stop to BYU's slated football game at Mississippi State as the world came to a halt. Our nation was forever changed by this event as we all tried to find meaning in a sea of chaos. BYU scrambled to try and reschedule the game, but it didn't seem right to play.

The Cougars had three weeks of rest before getting back into football again at UNLV. This was BYU's first conference game of the season. UNLV came out fighting and outdid the Cougars in the first quarter 21-10. Matt Payne put up his longest field goal of the season for 50 yards. The Cougars shut UNLV down in the second quarter and added 18 points to their score. UNLV pulled the same trick out of their pocket for the third quarter as BYU went scoreless and UNLV posted seven points, tie game. With six minutes left in the game, UNLV put up the go-ahead field goal, 31-28. But Doman converted a key fourth-down pass to Mike Rigell and made a 21-yard touchdown run to put the Cougars back on top with just over a minute to play. The game ended with BYU winning, 35-31.

October 5th brought BYU in front of a home crowd once more, BYU against Utah State. The Cougars scored first on a 1-yard gain by Staley. USU made a touchdown, but missed the point-after. The last score of the quarter came on a 19-yard pass completion from Doman to Jolley. BYU only scored one more time in the first half. Staley made a 28-yard reception from Doman to take in his second touchdown on the day. USU scored three touchdowns in the second quarter to end the half with USU at 27 and BYU at 21. USU started the scoring in the second half to keep the lead. Before the third quarter ended, Luke Staley had taken in his third, fourth and fifth touchdowns of the day. Staley's five touchdowns in one game was his high of the season, which he would later repeat against Colorado State. BYU scored two more times in the fourth quarter to end the game with 54 points and USU with 34. Staley's efforts (five touchdowns, 207 yards rushing) earned him MWC player-of-the-week. BYU remained undefeated at 5-0.

At New Mexico, without the services of Luke Staley, Matt Payne made a 33-yard field goal for the only score in the first quarter. The first half ended with a tie game, 10-10. The third quarter was the reverse of the first quarter, New Mexico made a field goal and BYU went scoreless. BYU was down 13-10. The Cougars made the first score of the fourth quarter with a 27-yard pass completion from Doman to Rigell. BYU was up, 17-13. The Lobos put some points on the board about five minutes later with a touchdown of their own. BYU was down again, 20-17. With just over three-and-a-half minutes left to play, Doman completed a 15-yard pass to Andrew Ord for a touchdown. BYU was up 24-20 and was able to hold until the clock ran out. BYU's 6-0 record meant they just needed to win one more game to have yet another winning season.

Air Force next traveled to Provo for BYU's seventh game of the season. The Cougars dominated the first quarter, 21-7, and the second quarter, 21-6, for a halftime score of 42-13. BYU shutout the Falcons in the third quarter and posted 21 more points of their own, BYU 63, Air Force 13. Air Force blanked BYU in the final quarter and added 20 points to their previous 13. The final score showed BYU winning at 63-33. Doug Jolley recorded a league record 10 receptions for 177 yards and three touchdowns to earn player-of-the-week honors in the MWC for his performance. BYU had clinched a winning season with seven wins and no losses, not to mention handing Air Force its worst loss in the Academy's history.

BYU's fourth conference game was played at San Diego State. BYU forced the Aztecs into a 23-yard field goal attempt. Justin Ena blocked the kick, and Denney scooped up the spoils to run 82 yards for the touchdown. The first quarter ended, 7-7. SDSU scored seven more points in the second quarter, but BYU was able to add 17 points of its own. BYU was up at halftime, 24-14. SDSU continued its streak of one touchdown per quarter, while BYU posted two more touchdowns. The Cougars shutout the Aztecs in the fourth quarter and put up 21 more points, including a 68-yard touchdown completion from Charlie Peterson to Toby Christensen. The game ended with BYU winning 59-21. BYU was now 8-0 overall and 4-0 in the MWC.

The Cougars came out running against Colorado State on Nov. 1, posting 21 points in the first quarter, while the Rams remained scoreless. CSU clawed its way back into the game with three touchdowns in the second quarter. The Cougars were able to add another touchdown to their score, but the Rams kept close with a field goal to end the half. After two quarters, BYU was winning by just four points, 28-24. In the second half, the Rams took the lead with the first score of the quarter. BYU managed to pick up two more touchdowns in the quarter and CSU put up another field goal. The game was close at 42-34, BYU. The Cougar defense showed great resolve in the last quarter and managed to hold the Rams scoreless. BYU, on the other hand, was able to put 14 more points on the board before the last whistle sounded. Staley recorded five more touchdowns to tie his season high. BYU's ninth victory of the season was a resounding 56-34 triumph, avenging last season's debacle in Fort Collins.

Staley's performance gave him a single-season record 22 touchdowns on the season, and a BYU record of 42 career touchdowns. Staley also became BYU's all-time leading scorer (non-kicker) with 252 career points. The win also marked the most wins to start a single season since the Cougars' 1984 National Championship campaign. The win also marked BYU's 11th straight win dating back to the 2000 season. With five conference wins, BYU was starting in the face of its second MWC title.

The Cougars squared off against Wyoming in Laramie on Nov. 10. The half ended in a tie, 20-20. By the end of the third quarter, BYU was up by only seven points. Wyoming tied the game in the fourth quarter and was going for a touchdown. BYU's Brandon Heaney went up and made his first interception of the season, ending the Cowboy's potential game-breaking drive. This allowed Staley to put up his fourth touchdown on the day during the next drive. The game ended with BYU pulling off its tenth win of the season, 41-34, thanks to a solid defensive effort.

Utah came to Provo looking to put an end to all BYU's talk of winning the MWC, and an undefeated season. After all, the Utes had something to prove after the Cougars' last-second victory in Salt Lake last season. The first quarter was a defensive battle as both teams remained scoreless in the quarter. Utah pulled ahead in the second quarter, clinging to a 7-3 lead. In the fourth quarter, BYU was down by 11 points with less than four minutes to go. Luke Staley pulled through for the Cougars by scoring two touchdowns in just over two minutes. BYU won the game 24-21, sealed with a Jernaro Gilford interception to end a potential scoring drive. The win marked BYU's first over Utah at home since 1991. The Cougars were 11-0.

The Cougars next traveled to Starkville, Mississippi. The rescheduled match with Mississippi State took place on Dec. 1. As the players arrived at the stadium, several MSU fans greeted the Cougars with chants of "Welcome to SEC country."

BYU started out strong by posting the first score of the game. Doman completed a 7-yard pass to Mahe to put the Cougars up early. The Bulldogs answered back in under three minutes with a touchdown of their own. Before the quarter ended, Mississippi State put another seven points on the board to pull ahead to 14-7. Things were looking grim when the Bulldogs started the second quarter early with another touchdown, putting them up by 14 points. Mississippi State's defense managed to shutdown Staley, and so Doman had to find another line of attack. Doman completed a 62-yard pass to Mahe to bring the Cougars back within seven. Under two minutes later, Doman completed a 45-yard pass to Halladay to tie the game. Before the half could end, though, the Bulldogs were able to let fly a field goal and go up by three, 24-21. The game was fairly tight and things didn't look good for the Cougars as Mississippi State scored first in the third quarter to go up by ten. The quarter ended shortly after Payne put the pigskin right between the uprights for a 42-yard field goal, BYU was within seven. BYU scored quickly in the fourth quarter to tie things up. Mississippi State rallied and put another touchdown on their score to put them up by seven once again. Just over three minutes later, the Cougars had tied the game once more. As the time expired, Payne's second field goal of the night soared between the uprights, right through the heart of SEC country. BYU pulled off another hair-raising win in the last seconds of the game, 38-41. BYU remained undefeated and left "SEC Country" 12-0, but the Cougars would be without All-American Luke Staley who sustained a season-ending injury in the fourth quarter.

BYU's undefeated streak finally came to a halt against Hawaii. The Cougar's loss was plagued by six lost fumbles and an interception. Hawaii came out strong and wouldn't relent until the time had expired. By halftime, BYU was down 31-10. BYU struggled for control in the third quarter, but could only return touchdowns after the Warriors had pushed one across the end zone. The Cougars scored 21 points in the third quarter, but the Warriors put up 27 points. Things didn't look good at the start of the final quarter with BYU down 58-31. During the final quarter, BYU continued to play catch-up with Hawaii and both teams ended with another 14 points each. Hawaii beat BYU, 72-45.

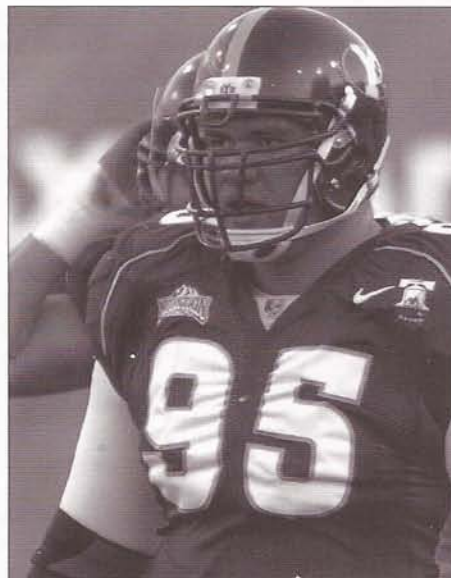

Crowton's first regular season as BYU head coach came to a close with a record of 12-1. BYU had one more game to play before they were done for the year, the Liberty Bowl. Louisville was a tough offensive team, and so the match-up looked to be a battle of offensive wills. The game, however, was very low scoring with a final score of Louisville 28 and BYU 10, moving the Cougars to 12-2 on the season.

COUGARS SET SINGLE-SEASON SCORING RECORD

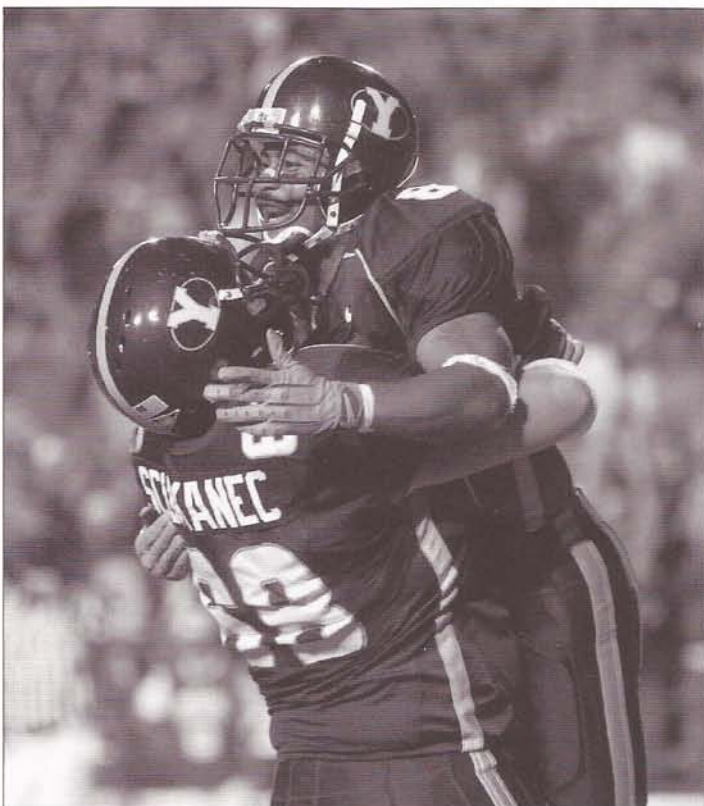

In their 13 regular-season games, BYU produced 608 points, averaging a nation's best 46.7 points per game and the best regular-season scoring average in BYU football history. The 2001 Cougars broke the 21-year-old record by just .1 point per game. The 1980 Cougars averaged 46.6 over 12 games. Army holds the NCAA scoring average record, posting 56.0 points per game during the 1944 season. Nebraska holds the NCAA record for most points scored in a single season with 624 over 12 games, set during the 1983 season.

THE DYNAMIC DUO; STALEY-DOMAN LEAD THE NATION

On the season, consensus All-American Luke Staley racked up 1,596 yards rushing, while Heisman Trophy candidate Brandon Doman turned in 3,542 yards passing. With those numbers, the Cougars were one of just five teams in the nation with a 1,000-yard rusher and 3,000-yard passer. Interestingly, Staley and Doman were the only 3,500-1,500 quarterback-running back duo in the country. Staley and Doman are only the second quarterback and running back in school history to record a 3,000-1,000-yard season. Prior to this season, Jamal Willis and Steve Walsh were the only QB-RB combo in BYU history to post a 3,000-1,000-yard campaign.

COUGARS RECORD 28th STRAIGHT NON-LOSING SEASON

Following a 63-33 win over Air Force on Oct. 20, the Cougars improved to 7-0, ensuring their 28th straight non-losing season. BYU has not had a losing season since posting a 5-6 mark in 1973—former head coach LaVell Edward's second season as head coach. The Cougars' streak of 28 straight seasons ranks 11th all-time at the NCAA Division I-A level and is currently the third longest non-losing streak in the nation. (Nebraska ranks No. 1 with 40 straight seasons without a losing campaign.)

Mike Rigell and Jason Scukanec celebrate a BYU touchdown. With the nation's top scoring offense, the Cougars had many reasons to celebrate in 2001.

2001 SCORING BY QUARTERS

BYU racked up 21 points in the first quarter against Colorado State, marking the third time on the season the Cougars have scored 21 points in a single quarter, and the ninth time the Cougars scored 21 or more points in a single quarter. The Cougars enjoyed their highest point production during the second quarter, scoring an average 15.1 points during the second quarter.

THE STREAK IS STILL ALIVE ... 337 GAMES AND COUNTING

With Dustin Rykert's 10-yard run in the Liberty Bowl, BYU extended its NCAA record streak to 337 games without being shutout. BYU was last shutout during the 1975 season (Sept. 27, 1975 vs. Arizona State.) The Cougars don't have a single person on their 2002 roster that was alive the last time BYU was shut out.

FAST TIMES AT BYU

On the season, BYU produced 14 scoring drives of under 1:00 or less. The Cougars began the 2001 campaign with a season-high four scoring drives under 1:00 against Tulane. The quickest drive came at San Diego State, when Brandon Doman connected with Gabe Reid for a four-yard touchdown pass, completing the scoring drive in just one play. Equally impressive, the Cougars had 38 scoring drives of under 2:00. Against Tulane, BYU produced a season-high six scoring drives under 2:00. BYU closed out the second quarter (against the Green Wave) with four straight scoring drives of :55, :47, :46 and :33. A week later, the Cougars posted five scoring drives of 1:58 or less. Against Cal, the Cougars recorded five scoring drives of 1:50 or less, including two scoring drives under 1:00. On the Cougars' six scoring drives against Cal, two totaled three plays or less. On the season, BYU totaled 34 scoring drives of five plays or less, including two against Utah and three at Mississippi State. Against Air Force, the Cougars racked up four scoring drives of under 2:00 and added three more scoring drives under 2:20. All totaled, all nine scoring drives were produced under 3:48. All three of BYU's touchdown drives against Utah were scored in 2:25 or less.

RED ZONE REVIEW

The Cougars scored on an amazing 61-of-70 trips to the Red Zone (.871), including a season-high nine-of-nine trips inside the Red Zone against Air Force. Including a six-for-six performance against Colorado State and Wyoming, the Cougars scored at least six times inside the Red Zone in six different games this season. Prior to a BYU fumble on the eight-yard line against UNLV, the Cougars were a perfect 20-for-20 inside the Red Zone. 53 of the Cougars' 61 Red Zone scoring drives were touchdowns, while just eight were field goals. The BYU defense held its opponents to 42-of-57 Red Zone scores on the season, including an impressive 1-for-4 against SDSU. The Cougar defense forced two missed field goals (including one blocked attempt) and an interception to prevent the Aztecs from scoring on three of their four trips inside the Red Zone. BYU also forced an interception and a fumble, halt-

COUGARS HANG AROUND NATIONAL POLLS

Following the Cougars' 28-10 loss to Louisville, BYU dropped to No. 25 in the AP, and fell to No. 24 in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll. After entering both polls on Sept. 9, following a 44-16 win at Cal, the Cougars climbed to No. 20 in both the Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today Coaches poll on Sept. 23. The Sept. 9 polls marked the first time BYU had been ranked nationally since the final game of the 1999 season — a 21-3 loss to Marshall in the Motor City Bowl. BYU entered the Motor City Bowl ranked 25th in the coaches poll, while it had dropped from the AP poll on Nov. 21. Nov. 14, 1999 marked the last time BYU was ranked in both the AP and ESPN/USA Today Coaches polls. BYU was ranked 19th in each poll that week, but dropped out of the AP poll and fell to 25th in the coaches poll on Nov. 21. BYU has now been ranked in the Top-20 or Top-25 polls in 22 of the last 26 years. The only years in which BYU has never been ranked during the season since 1976 were 1978, 1987, 1998 and 2000.

"TURNOVER" A NEW LEAF

Last season BYU played in back-to-back games without committing a single turnover, marking the first two-game stretch without a single turnover since the 1994 season. Against Air Force, the Cougars duplicated the feat by avoiding a single turnover for the second straight game. On the season, the Cougars had turnovers in six of the 10 games they played, including a season-high four turnovers at Wyoming. On the other side of the ball the BYU defense forced 24 turnovers, including 18 interceptions and five fumbles. In 2001, BYU ranked 11th in the nation in turnover margin with a +1.00 turnovers per game, BYU is 25-1 in games since 1981 in which it did not allow a turnover. (The only loss was to Washington in 1996).

PICK A RECEIVER, ANY RECEIVER

Throughout the 2001 season, the Cougars had a single-season record 20 different receivers, including a season-high 12 different receivers against Nevada. The BYU receiving corps accounted for 4,225 of the Cougars' 7,118 (59.4 percent) total yards on the season, including a season high 515 yards against Hawaii. Reno Mahe ranked nationally with 91 receptions for 1,211 yards and nine touchdowns. Mahe is the first BYU receiver to rack up 1,000 yards on the season since Margin Hooks posted 1,067 yards in 1999. Mahe and tight end Doug Jolley hold the league's top three single-game receiving marks, with Mahe holding the lead after racking up 189 yards at Mississippi State. (Mahe also had 181 yards against Hawaii, while Jolley posted 177 against Air Force.) The Cougars ranked seventh in the nation in passing offense, averaging 325.0 yards per game. 11 different receivers had over 100 yards on the season, including seven receivers with 200 or more yards. 11 receivers had 10 or more receptions. Mahe led all receivers with nine touchdown receptions, while Jolley had seven. All totaled 11 different receivers scored at least one touchdown in a season when BYU also had the nation's top running back in Doak Walker Award winner Luke Staley.

BYU VS. TULANE GAME RECAP

In a shootout normally reserved only for the Wild West, BYU defeated Tulane 70-35 in this year's BCA Classic. The record-setting game started off with a bang. Tulane jumped on top just over a minute into the game with a 75-yard touchdown run from Mewelde Moore. The teams proceeded to trade touchdowns for the rest of the quarter, ending the first quarter tied at 21. BYU opened up the second quarter scoring just four seconds into the period with an eight-yard pass to tight end Spencer Nead. The Cougars, armed with a 28-21 lead, never looked back. BYU scored 21 more points in the quarter, taking a 49-28 lead into the half. The offensive output slowed down in the second half, but with 14 more points in the third quarter, BYU took a 63-35 lead into the final quarter. Brandon Doman left the game after three quarters, finishing 25-31 for 286 yards, with three touchdowns. He also ran for 115 yards and one touchdown, earning him BCA Classic MVP honors. Both Luke Staley and Brian McDonald scored three rushing touchdowns for the Cougars. Spencer Nead, a transfer from Ricks College, caught two touchdown passes in the second quarter.

Ten different receivers caught passes for a total of 297 yards, and eight different Cougars combined for 437 rushing yards, short of BYU's all-time record of 465 yards. The 734 total yards fell only 43 yards short of the BYU record.

BYU VS. NEVADA GAME RECAP

In the second game of the year, BYU's high-octane offense was too much for Nevada to handle, defeating the Wolf Pack 52-7. Nevada came into the game planning for an air attack against the Cougars, but BYU was prepared defensively. While Nevada's offense found little success moving the ball against BYU's defense, the Cougars had their way offensively.

Brandon Doman, Charlie Peterson and Todd Mortensen all took snaps for the Cougars. Doman left the game for a series in the first half because of a minor shoulder injury, but returned for the rest of the half. He turned over the quarterback duties to Peterson and Mortensen for the second half. Doman managed to pass for 222 yards and one touchdown on 11-21 passing, and rushed for 16 yards. Peterson was 11-13 with a touchdown and passed for 149 yards backing up Doman. With 6:02 left in the third quarter, Charlie Peterson kept the ball and ran for a touchdown, capping BYU's scoring at 52. BYU emptied its bench after Peterson's score and only crossed the fifty-yard line once the remainder of the game.

Luke Staley and Brian McDonald-Ashford each had two rushing touchdowns, with Staley rushing for 124 yards and McDonald-Ashford gaining 35 on the ground. Nevada managed only 127 yards passing and 160 yards rushing, with most of the rushing yardage coming from Chance Kretschmer in the fourth quarter with the game well out of reach.

BYU VS. CAL GAME RECAP

On this day, it took a while for the BYU offense to get started. But once it did, the Golden Bears of Cal couldn't stop it.

With two minutes left in the first half and the score tied at 7-7, Cal had to be pretty pleased with how well it had stopped BYU's offense. But by the time halftime rolled around, the Cougars had scored 21 unanswered points and the Golden Bears were left scratching their heads. For more than a quarter, it looked like the Cougars were in for a battle, but it all changed in the second quarter. Unlike the first two games of the season, BYU's offense took some time to get a rhythm. BYU needed a trick play to jump-start the offense, and got just that early in the second quarter. Facing fourth down in their own territory, the Cougars pulled off a fake punt. Ned Stearns took the snap directly from center and carried the ball for a first down. Doman drove the team down the rest of the field and connected with Luke Staley for a 27-yard touchdown to tie the game at 7-7.

Scoring two touchdowns in the final minute, BYU took a 21-7 lead and never looked back, winning the game, 44-16. BYU added three more touchdowns in the third quarter and a field goal in the fourth quarter to cap off the scoring. Brandon Doman continued to impress and get the attention of future opponents. Doman rushed for three touchdowns, passed for three touchdowns and, to top it off, caught a pass from Reno Mahe for 17 yards. He became the first BYU quarterback to account for six touchdowns since Steve Sarkisian against Texas A&M in 1996.

BYU VS. UNLV GAME RECAP

It wasn't a blowout and it wasn't the Cougars' best performance of the season, but BYU defeated UNLV in a come-from-behind victory, 35-31.

The Cougars didn't take long to show some rust from a 20-day layoff. Luke Staley fumbled the opening kickoff and UNLV's Derek Olsen returned the fumble 22 yards for a touchdown. BYU answered on its next possession, driving down the field and scoring on a 15-yard Staley reception. But UNLV owned the first quarter, taking a 21-10 lead into the first break. The Cougars took all the momentum into the half, outscoring the Rebels 18-0 in the second quarter and taking a 28-21 lead into the locker room. But the UNLV defense held BYU scoreless in the second half until Doman's late-game heroics. The Cougars failed to produce a single point in the third quarter, marking only the third time this season BYU has not scored during a single quarter of play. Down 31-28 with just over two minutes remaining, "The Domanator" Brandon Doman led the Cougars 91 yards for a touchdown with 1:12 remaining in the game. Facing fourth down and four on the BYU 38-yard line, Doman completed a pass across the middle to Mike Rigell, who advanced the ball all the way to the UNLV 22-yard line—a crucial 40-yard gain. On the next play Doman rolled left then darted back to the right and took it all the way into the end zone for the game-winning touchdown. UNLV advanced the ball to BYU's 30-yard line on the ensuing possession before Jason Thomas threw an errant pass on fourth down sealing the Cougar victory.

BYU VS. UTAH STATE GAME RECAP

Luke Staley had five touchdowns, 207 yards rushing and 311 all-purpose yards — all career highs — to lead the Cougars to a 54-34 victory over a pesky Utah State team.

Not to be outdone, Brandon Doman played well just the same, throwing four touchdowns on 24-of-34 passing for 293 yards. The 20-point victory was a lot closer than the final score would indicate. The Aggies took a 27-21 lead at the half, marking the first time the Cougars trailed heading into the locker room.

With 12:41 left in the third quarter, Utah State took a 34-21 lead on a 14-yard touchdown pass to Chris Stallworth. The drive began when Utah State kicker Dane Kidman recovered his own kickoff to open the second half. Kidman's extra point following the Stallworth touchdown would be the Aggies' final point of the game.

Staley led the Cougar comeback by scoring a 37-yard touchdown on a fourth-and-three play on the next drive. The Cougars had two fourth-down conversions on that drive alone. Jernaro Gilford intercepted an errant Jose Fuentes pass and returned it 62 yards on the Aggies' next possession. Staley would score on the next two BYU possessions while the Cougar defense buckled down. Staley's five touchdowns tied the BYU record for most touchdowns and most points in a game.

Rod Wilkerson took a short pass and sped his way into the endzone for the Cougars' first touchdown in a four-point road victory over determined New Mexico. BYU played the game without leading scorer and rusher Luke Staley.

BYU VS. NEW MEXICO GAME RECAP

Without teammate Luke Staley, "The Domanator" Brandon Doman led the Cougars to another Mountain West Conference come-from-behind road victory, defeating the New Mexico Lobos, 24-20. Similar to the UNLV game two weeks before, the Cougars found themselves down three points late in the game. BYU again faced a fourth down situation, but this time it was fourth-and-eleven. Doman ran the option behind some key blocks on the right side of the line and took the ball for a first down to keep the drive alive.

On the next play, Doman rolled right and threw off balance into the end zone where Andrew Ord came down with the touchdown catch. Matt Payne connected on the PAT to give the Cougars a four-point lead. With Brian McDonald-Ashford sidelined with a knee injury, and Luke Staley out while the University investigated his academic eligibility status, Ned Stearns started in place of Staley, finishing the game with 18 rushes for a career high 72 yards. Doman tried to make up for Staley's absence through the air, finishing the game 22-of-41 for 258 yards passing, three touchdowns and no interceptions. He also rushed for 37 yards. New Mexico ran a ball-control offense throughout the game, forcing the Cougars' defense to be on the field extensively. But just like the defense has done all year, the Cougars made the plays when they had to. After the go-ahead touchdown, Jernaro Gilford intercepted an errant Casey Kelly pass, his second interception of the game.

BYU VS. AIR FORCE GAME RECAP

Senior tight end Doug Jolley led the Cougars to a 63-33 victory over Air Force. Entering the game with only eight catches for 117 yards, Jolley finished with 10 catches, 177 yards and three touchdowns – all career highs. The 177 yards broke the Mountain West Conference record for receiving yards in a game. The Cougars didn't take long to seize control of the game. BYU scored on its first possession, an 18-yard touchdown strike to Jolley. On the ensuing kickoff, Aaron Edmonds recovered his own on-side kick and the Cougars drove the ball down the field again and scored on a two-yard Staley rush.

The Cougars dominated the Falcons in the first half, taking a 42-13 lead into the locker room. BYU pushed the lead to 63-13 after three quarters. The Cougars scored 21 points in each of the first three quarters. Air Force put up 20 points in the fourth quarter to make the game seem closer than it really was.

The Domanator followed up the dramatic come-from-behind win at New Mexico with another solid performance, earning himself an early exit from the game. He finished the game 20-32 for a season-high 338 yards and four touchdowns before leaving the game after only two offensive possessions in the second half. Staley rushed for 134 yards and two touchdowns and also left the game at the same time as Doman, finishing with the night with 167 all-purpose yards.

BYU VS. SAN DIEGO STATE GAME RECAP

With the high-powered BYU offense needing a jump start early on, the Cougars' special teams and defensive units gave the offense the jumper cables needed to propel the team to a victory over San Diego State, 59-21. After the two teams traded punts to start the game, the BYU defense held again on the Aztec's second drive, forcing a 23-yard field goal attempt. Justin Ena powered through the line to block Tommy Kirovski's kick, while defensive end Ryan Denney scooped up the ball and sprinted 82 yards for the Cougars' first score of the night. After the Aztecs rattled off 14 straight points, Matt Payne kicked a 34-yard field goal to make the score 14-10, San Diego State with 9:27 remaining in the first half. The Cougars reclaimed the lead when Luke Staley ran the ball 63 yards for one of his three touchdowns on the night to give BYU a 17-14 lead. Isaac Kelley gave the Cougars the lead for good when he intercepted a Lon Sheriff pass and returned the ball 60 yards for BYU's first defensive touchdown of the season. The Cougars went to the locker room up 24-14 at the half despite two first half turnovers and only one offensive touchdown. In the second half, BYU scored on two of their first three possessions to open up a 38-21 lead by the end of the third quarter. The Cougar defense came up big again at the start of the fourth quarter when Ryan Denney sacked Lon Sheriff, forcing a fumble, which Jeff Cowart gathered in at the San Diego State four-yard line. Gabriel Reid hauled in a Brandon Doman pass on the next play for the score to go up 45-21 with 13:36 to go in the game. Staley scored another touchdown with 7:38 to go in the game, giving the Cougars a 52-21 lead.

BYU VS. COLORADO STATE GAME RECAP

In a battle between two Mountain West Conference heavyweights, BYU's Luke Staley delivered one too many blows in leading the Cougars to a 56-34 victory over the Colorado State Rams.

BYU jumped all over Colorado State in the first quarter, sprinting out to a 21-0 lead. But Colorado State refused to roll over. The Rams roared back to score 21 straight points to tie the game. BYU added a touchdown and Colorado State countered with a field goal to give BYU a 28-24 lead at the half. Colorado State continued its momentum and scored first after the half to take the lead, but BYU's defense buckled down when it had to. BYU only allowed a field goal the rest of the game. The defense also came up with big plays, including two interceptions in its own end zone. Jernaro Gilford intercepted a pass on Colorado State's first possession, halting a long drive for the Rams. Colorado State attacked BYU's defense with its own one-two punch all night long. Running back Henri Childs rushed for 237 yards while quarterback Bradlee Van Pelt rushed for 174 yards and two touchdowns. The Rams finished the game with 440 yards rushing. But in the end, it was too much Staley and Doman for the Rams to handle and the Cougars took over in the fourth quarter. BYU scored 14 in the final quarter and held Colorado State scoreless to pull away in the final quarter. Staley finished the game with five touchdowns, 196 yards rushing on 22 carries and three catches for 28 yards. Brandon "The Domanator" Doman perfectly complemented Staley's ground attack by rushing for a career-high 164 yards and throwing for another 284 yards. He rushed for two touchdowns and threw for another.

BYU VS. WYOMING GAME RECAP

The Cougars defeated Wyoming, 41-34 in Laramie, but it took some late-game heroics from another unsuspecting star.

Brandon Heaney picked the perfect time to make his first interception of his BYU career. With the game tied late in the fourth quarter and Wyoming facing a third and 24, Heaney cut off a Casey Bramlet pass and made the play of the game. On BYU's ensuing possession, Luke Staley took the ball in for one of his four touchdowns with just over two minutes remaining in the game. The BYU defense was called upon again with less than one minute remaining in the game, stopping the Cowboys on a fourth-and-goal situation.

While BYU's defense made the big plays near the end of this game, BYU's offense had been doing that all year. But on this day, the offense struggled holding on to the ball. Four costly turnovers gave Wyoming every opportunity to stay in the game. Brandon Doman threw his fourth interception of the season, and fumbles by Mike Rigell, Toby Christenson and Reno Mahe gave Wyoming the ball with good field position. Doman, after a sub-par first half, finished 23-38 for 268 yards passing, one touchdown and the one interception. Ned Stearns also took a fake punt for 42 yards and a first down in the first half to spark the Cougars. But even after giving up 34 points, the defense buckled down and won the game for BYU.

BYU VS. UTAH GAME RECAP

With the conference championship on the line, the Runnin' Utes of the University of Utah came into town to face the in-state rival Cougars of BYU.

The game was a seesaw battle for most of the first three quarters. But Utah jumped ahead to a 21-10 lead in the fourth quarter and looked to be in command of the game. With less than four minutes left in the game and down 11 points, BYU's hopes for a perfect season seemed dim. But Luke Staley scored two touchdowns in just over two minutes to erase the deficit and give the Cougars the 24-21 victory over the rival Utes of the University of Utah. The game was far from over after Staley's 30-yard touchdown run with just over a minute to play. Lance Rice tried to do his best Doman impression in leading Utah on a final drive in the last minute. Rice converted a key fourth-and-10 with a trick play, advancing the ball to the BYU 30-yard line. But on the very next play, Jernaro Gilford stepped in front of a Rice pass and intercepted the ball to seal the game.

The Domanator struggled in the first half, much like the game at Wyoming. At the half, Doman was only 10-24 with an interception and a fumble. But Doman poured it on in the second half, throwing for 154 yards and two touchdowns to finish the game with 270 yards on 21-of-42 attempts. With Doman not clicking through the air in the first half, Utah keyed on Staley and it worked. Staley had only 28 yards at the half, but in the second half and with the game in doubt, Staley stole the show. He finished the game with 169 yards rushing on 17 carries, 28 yards receiving on three catches, two more touchdowns and a two-point conversion.

BYU VS. MISSISSIPPI STATE GAME RECAP

Matt Payne's 25-yard field goal split the uprights just as time expired and the No. 7 Cougars knocked off Mississippi State 41-38. The Cougars found themselves down 10 points in the second half, but as they have all season, they found a way to win. The final field goal came at the end of another strong final-minute drive from the Cougars, but the game-winning drive proved costly. Luke Staley, who almost single-handedly moved the ball down the field for BYU on the final drive, came down awkwardly on his left leg at the end of a carry, breaking his fibula and ending his season. Despite Staley's premature exit from the game, he had another stellar night. The Bulldogs managed to keep him out of the end zone, but Staley racked up 149 yards rushing on 28 carries. Staley's partner in the backfield, Brandon Doman, threw for a career high five touchdowns and 390 yards, off-setting another career high of three interceptions. And if Staley and Doman weren't enough, wide receiver Reno Mahe caught 10 passes for a Mountain West Conference record 189 yards and two touchdowns. Mahe made several plays throughout the game that helped BYU make yet another dramatic comeback. The game could not have started off better for the Cougars. On the first play from scrimmage, Isaac Kelley picked off a Kevin Fant pass. On the ensuing drive, Doman threw a pass that bounced in and out of a Bulldog defender and right into the hands of Mahe. Payne kicked the extra point for the quick 7-0 lead. But Mississippi State owned the rest of the first quarter and the first part of the second as well. The Bulldogs raced out to a 21-7 lead before BYU scored on two long touchdown receptions to tie the game up.

BYU VS. HAWAII GAME RECAP

Late-game heroics had become a staple for the BYU football team, but the Cougars ran out of tricks against the Hawaii Warriors. Led by special teams play and an aerial assault, the Warriors knocked off previously unbeaten BYU 72-45. The loss in front of a sell-out crowd ended BYU's dreams of an undefeated season.

Hawaii jumped out to an early lead behind two kick returns for touchdowns by Chad Evans, all in the first quarter. Evans took the opening kick all the way to the BYU 32-yard line, returned a punt 74 yards for a touchdown and for an encore, returned a kickoff the length of the field for a touchdown. BYU lost six fumbles and threw one interception, and it seemed the turnovers would come just when things were looking good for the Cougars. Almost all hopes were dashed for the Cougars by the end of the third quarter, when Hawaii receiver Ashley Lelie caught an 80-yard touchdown pass to take a commanding 58-31 lead. Both teams scored two touchdowns in the final quarter and the Cougars couldn't put a dent in the Warriors' huge lead.

FOOTBALL TRADITION

During the early 1990s, Derwin Gray was a member of four WAC championship teams.

Football was introduced at BYU in 1896, but was discontinued after three seasons because of the administration's concern over the violent nature of the sport. The sport finally became an official collegiate sport in 1922 and has since grown to become one of the premier football programs in the nation.

BYU's rise to the top had a slow start, however, as the Cougars only managed 171 victories and 16 winning seasons in the first 49 years of football at the University. The Cougars didn't even claim their first Western Athletic Conference football title until 1965. But in 1972 BYU's football program shifted gears. LaVell Edwards was named head coach that year, and things have not been the same since. Now 80 years since 1922, BYU football is as strong as ever.

In the past 30 years, the Cougars have won 269 games and been to 23 bowl games (including 17 in a row at one point). BYU won the WAC title 18 times under Edwards' direction, including 10 in a row from 1976-1985. Since the creation of the Mountain West Conference in 1999, BYU has won the conference championship two out of last three years. Last season under Edwards' successor, Gary Crowton, BYU became the first team in conference history to go undefeated in league play.

Coach Edwards led his team to a national championship (1984), and was national coach of the year two times (1979, 1984), served as president of the Coaches Association, had a Heisman Trophy winner, two Outland Trophy winners, four Davey O'Brien Award winners and seven Sammy Baugh Trophy winners. In 2001 BYU added another honor to its trophy case when Luke Staley won the Doak Walker Award, given to the nation's top running back.

Things were not always so rosy, however. Football had its beginning at BYU in 1922. That first season, BYU won only one game and scored a total of 10 points during the season. Now, BYU consistently finds itself among the national leaders in scoring and total offense. Last season in 2001 BYU led the nation in scoring and total offense.

Some of the more noted athletes who have propelled BYU into the national spotlight have been quarterbacks. The list reads like a who's who of college football signal callers: Virgil Carter (1964-66), Gary Sheide (1973-74), Gifford Nielsen (1975-77), Marc Wilson (1977, 1979-80), Jim McMahon (1978, 1980-81), Steve Young (1982-83), Robbie Bosco (1984-85), Ty Detmer (1988-91), Steve Sarkisian (1995-96) and Brandon Doman (1998-2001) have all left their mark on BYU's record books. Detmer finished his incredible career by throwing for 15,031 yards—the first player ever to go over 12,000 yards passing.

Nielsen, Wilson, McMahon, Young, Bosco, Detmer and Sarkisian were All-American quarterbacks, and each erased marks set by his predecessor. McMahon, Wilson and Bosco were third-place finishers in the Heisman Trophy balloting, while Steve Young finished second. Detmer won the school's first Heisman Trophy in 1990 and was third in the voting in 1991. Both McMahon and Young were recipients of the Davey O'Brien Award, given to the outstanding collegiate quarterback, and Detmer won it twice.

While passing has been the name of the game at BYU since Edwards took over, some

"Through the halls of BYU have passed many of the most prolific quarterbacks ever to play college football. It now takes 2.43 miles of passing yards just to reach the school's all-time top-10 passing list."

impressive running backs have also hit the field for the Cougars. Luke Staley earned consensus All-American honors in 2001 and won the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back after leading the NCAA in scoring and averaging a whopping 8.1 yards per carry. BYU's rushing tradition began when Eldon "The Phantom" Fortie (1961-62) won All-American honors in 1962. "Fleet Pete" VanValkenburg (1970-71) led the nation in rushing and was second-team All-American. Fullback John Ogden (1964-66) was the leading rusher in the WAC three consecutive years. And fullback Todd Christensen (1975-77) did such a good job catching the football, that he later became an all-pro tight end. He was the leading receiver on BYU's team for three years. Jamal Willis (1991-94) became the school's leading career rusher in 1994 and Brian McKenzie moved into the No. 6 spot all-time in just two seasons (1996-97) at BYU. In two seasons at BYU the talented speedster, Ronney Jenkins, set many rushing and scoring records in 1996 and 1998. Other great running backs at BYU include Jeff Blanc (1973-76), Eric Lane (1979-80), Casey Tiumalu (1982-83), Lakei Heimuli (1983-86), Fred Whittingham (1986-89), Peter Tuipulotu (1987, 1989-91) and Kalin Hall (1992-93).

Kalin Hall (1992-93), a transfer from Dixie State College, was one of the most exciting running backs in BYU history.

Eric Drage (1990-93) became the receiving leader, breaking yardage and touchdown receiving records set by Phil Odle (1965-67). Other outstanding receivers that have brought honor to the Cougar blue on the playing field include Jay Miller (1972-74, 76), Todd Christensen (1974-77), Danny Plater (1978-81), Glen Kozlowski (1981, 83-85), Mark Bellini (1982, 83-84), Matt Bellini (1987-90), Andy Boyce (1988-90), K.O. Kealaluhi (1995-96), Kaipo McGuire (1993-96), Ben Cahoon (1996-97), Margin Hooks (1997-2000), and Jonathan Pittman (1999-2000).

A good passing team must have good personnel on the offensive line, and BYU has had its share of honors recipients in that area. Mohammed Elewonibi won the Outland Trophy in 1989, BYU's second such honor in four years. Other line standouts include Gordon Gravelle (1970), Paul Howard (1972), Brad Oates (1973-75), Orrin Olsen (1972-75), Tom Bell (1974-79), Nick Eyre (1977-80), Bart Oates (1977-82), Trevor Matich (1979-84), Scott Brumfield (1991-92), Evan Pilgrim (1992-94), Larry Moore (1995-96), John Tait (1996-98) and Joe Wong (1997-98).

All-WAC Defensive Lineman, John Raass, celebrates BYU's 1994 victory at Notre Dame.

BYU has also had a bevy of talent at tight end through the years including Brian Billick (1974-76), Clay Brown (1978-80), Gordon Hudson (1979-83), David Mills (1980-84), Chris Smith (1987-90), Chad Lewis (1993-96) and Itula Mili (1991, 1994-96), Tevita Ofahengau (1998-2000), and 2002 NFL second-round draft choice Doug Jolley.

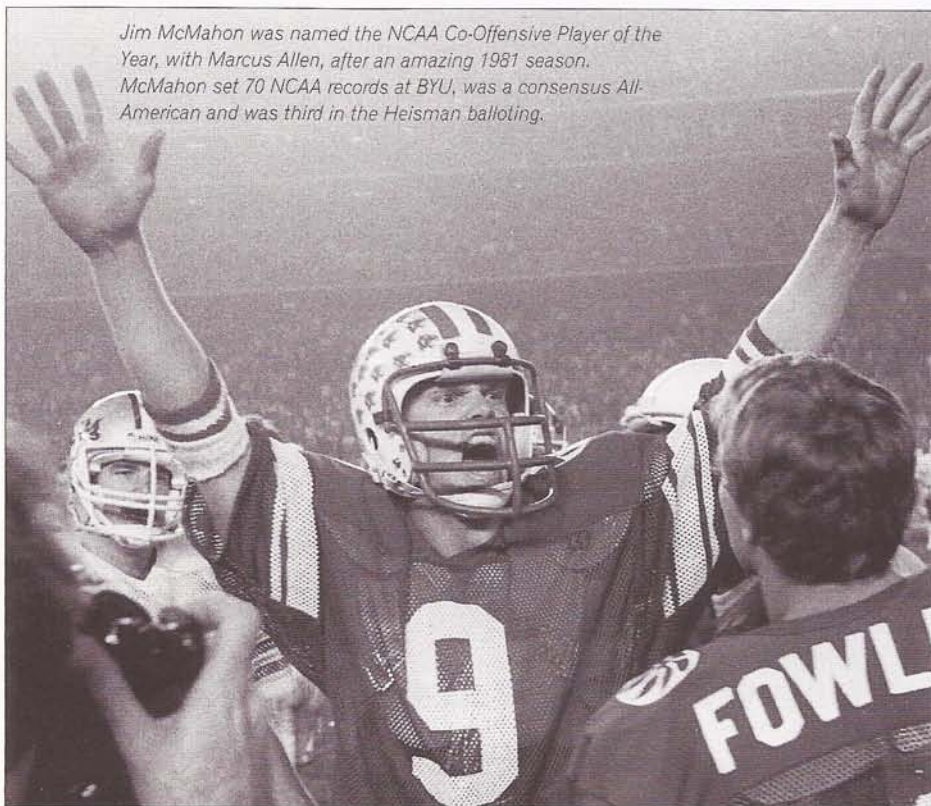

BYU has always had outstanding defenses to complement their high-powered offenses through the years. Top Defensive players include Wayne Baker (1972-74), Paul Linford (1972-74), Mekeli Jeremia (1975-77), Glen Titensor (1978-80), Glen Redd (1976-80), Tom Holmoe (1979-82), Todd Shell (1980-83), Kyle Morrell (1980-84), Leon White (1982-85), Kurt Gouveia (1983-85), Jason Buck (1985-86), the recipient of the 1986 Outland Trophy, Travis Hall (1991-94), Byron Frisch (1996-99), Derwin Gray (1989-92), Shay Muirbrook (1993-96), Spencer Reid (1994-97), Rob Morris (1993, 1997-99), Setema Gali (1997-00), Justin Ena (1997-2001), Ryan Denney (1998-2001) and Brett Keisel (1998-2001).

In recent history BYU has also had a number of talented defensive backs including Rodney Rice (1987-88), Brian Mitchell (1987-90), Derwin Gray (1989-92), Patrick Mitchell (1991-94), Tim McTyer (1995-96), Omarr Morgan (1996-97), Brian Gray (1998-99), and Jared Lee (1999-00).

The Cougars have also had some great return specialists in recent history. Chris Farasopoulos (1968-70), "The Galloping Greek," led the nation in punt returns and set two NCAA records. Golden Richards (1970-71) is still listed as a holder of several NCAA records. Vai Sikahema (1980-85) set an NCAA record for most punt returns, and James Dye (1995-96) led the nation in punt returns with a 21.9 average in 1995.

Jim McMahon was named the NCAA Co-Offensive Player of the Year, with Marcus Allen, after an amazing 1981 season. McMahon set 70 NCAA records at BYU, was a consensus All-American and was third in the Heisman balloting.

Yet another chapter was added to the saga of impossible, thrilling Holiday Bowl finishes when BYU defeated Missouri, 21-17 in 1983. Led by Steve Young, the Cougars moved down the field to the Missouri 15 with under a minute to play. On first-and-10 at the Tigers' 15, Young handed to Eddie Stinnett, who faked a sweep right and threw back across the field to Young. The Stinnett pass barely cleared the outstretched hands of Missouri's Bobby Bell, allowing Young to gather it in and scramble 15 yards to the end zone. The PAT gave BYU a 21-17 lead with 23 seconds left in the game.

BYU 24, Arizona State 6 Sept. 18, 1965

Tommy Hudspeth's Cougars defeated Frank Kush's Sundevils, 24-6, on the way to winning BYU's first conference championship in the school's 43 years of football mediocrity. The Cougars were led by quarterback Virgil Carter and receiver Phil Odle, as they connected five times on the evening for 92 yards and a touchdown. Carter also had 83 yards on the ground. Cougar running back Jonathan Ogden added 75 yards rushing on 14 carries. BYU started the game by scoring on the first drive and the Cougars never let up, going up 24-0 before Arizona State added a fourth quarter touchdown.

BYU 21, Arizona State 18 Nov. 9, 1974

In only his third year, a young LaVell Edwards led the Cougars past Arizona State in what may have been a turning point in BYU football. "I'd have to say this is the biggest win I've had at BYU," said Edwards on defeating the longtime conference power in a pivotal game that would eventually put BYU in their first bowl, the Fiesta Bowl. After a 55-yard interception for a touchdown that put ASU up 18-14 late in the third quarter, Gary Sheide directed a nine-play, 80-yard drive, including a fourth down run by Jeff Blanc bouncing off defenders and fighting for the yardage. The drive was capped by a nine-yard TD pass to Tim Mahoney to give the Cougars the 21-18 lead, and eventually the win. The Cougar defense held ASU to 76 yards rushing and 108 yards passing, while Sheide racked up 223 yards of passing and two touchdowns.

BYU 23, Arizona 16 Sept. 25, 1976

A pivotal game for both teams, the Cougars offense was slowed by a torrential rain-storm in Tucson. With neither team able to move the ball as expected, the game appeared headed for a 16-16 tie with 14 seconds left on the clock. Electing to go with one last desperation pass, quarterback Gifford Nielsen dropped back, sprung free from the grasp of two tackles and, just before he was forced out of bounds, threw the ball in the direction of George Harris, who caught the ball over the extended arms of two Arizona defenders for the winning touchdown. Despite both offenses being slowed by the rain, Nielsen hit on 18 of 28 passes for 200 yards and two touchdowns.

BYU 18, Texas A&M 17 Sept. 8, 1979

In the first game of the 1979 season, BYU's high-powered offense met Texas A&M, complete with a Heisman Trophy candidate, a record-setting quarterback and an Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award candidate. Down 7-3 going into the second half, both teams scored third quarter touchdowns, making it 14-10, Texas A&M. In the fourth quarter, A&M scored a field goal with 6:53 remaining to go up by seven. On the first play of the next drive, Wilson threw his third interception of the game, giving A&M the ball near midfield. But, on the next series, BYU's Pulusila Filiaga recovered an Aggie fumble, giving BYU new hope. After the Aggies forced BYU to punt in three plays, the Cougars then forced the Aggies to punt after three plays, setting up the dramatic finish. On the ensuing punt, BYU's Tim Halverson blocked A&M's kick to give BYU the ball at the Texas A&M 19-yard line. Two A&M penalty's and a completed pass put the Cougars on the three-yard line. With 53 seconds left, Wilson hit Clay Brown in the end zone to pull the Cougars within one. Then, wanting to leave Texas with a win, LaVell Edwards chose to go for the two-point conversion. It paid off with Wilson hitting Mike Lacey for a diving catch to put BYU up by one. A final 51-yard field goal attempt by Texas A&M sailed wide left to give the Cougars the win, setting the stage to an 11-0 regular season finish and No. 9 national ranking.

Air Force 39, BYU 38 Sept. 25, 1982

After a last-minute loss to Heisman-winner Herschel Walker and the 4th-ranked Georgia Bulldogs, the Cougars returned home -- to the newly expanded Cougar Stadium and 65,000 fans. League-leading Air Force would be the first opponent the Cougars would face in the new stadium. BYU, with Steve Young at the helm, passed for 215 yards and ran for 244, but the Air Force offense was just as potent with 489 of total offense. After the two teams battled to a 17-17 halftime tie, the Cougars came out in the third quarter and scored 14 third-quarter points to go up 31-24. In the fourth quarter, the two teams traded touchdowns, and the Cougars held on to a seven-point lead. After a BYU punt put Air Force on their own one-yard line with 1:30 left in the game, the Air Force offense put together their most important drive of the game. Then, at the BYU 37, AFA's quarterback Marty Louthan threw an interception to BYU's Marv Allen, seemingly sealing the victory. But, the Cougars were penalized for roughing the passer, giving Air Force the ball at BYU's 23 yard-line. On the next play, Air Force scored a touchdown to come within one point of the Cougars. With six seconds left in the game, a Louthan to Mike Brown two-point conversion gave the Falcons the win.

BYU 37, UCLA 35

Oct. 1, 1983

At the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Steve Young and the high-powered BYU offense took on UCLA, led by Steve Bono and Rick Neuheisel. BYU went up 14-0 in the first quarter before UCLA retaliated with 14 second-quarter points of their own, making it a 24-14 BYU halftime lead. UCLA came within three points after a third quarter touchdown, but the Cougars scored 13 fourth quarter points to go up 37-28. The Bruins scored a touchdown with 25 seconds left, but the Bruin on-side kick was recovered, by Kurt Gouveia to seal the win.

BYU 55, Utah 7

Nov. 19, 1983

In the final game of the regular season, the Cougars welcomed Utah to the new Cougar Stadium with an impressive offensive show. Steve Young led BYU to a 35-7 halftime lead with four touchdown passes and one rushing TD by Eddie Stinnett. The Cougar defense allowed only one touchdown all day, a six-yard pass early in the second quarter. The second half was much the same, as Young threw for two more touchdowns and Stinnett rushed for one more, bringing the score to the final of 55-7 with almost four minutes remaining in the third quarter.

BYU 20, Pitt 14

Sept. 1, 1984

The perfect season began when BYU traveled to Pittsburgh to take on 3rd-ranked Pitt and the longest winning streak in the country. The Cougars, led by Robbie Bosco, had an 11 game winning streak themselves and were up to the challenge. BYU started out slow on offense, scoring only three first half points. But the BYU defense recorded a first-half shutout against a Pitt offense that featured freshman phenom Craig Heyward and All-American tackle Bill Fralic. The Cougars forced three punts, one interception and had two fourth-down stops on the Panthers in the first two quarters. In the second half, Pitt showed they were worthy of their pre-season ranking, scoring 14 quick points off Cougar turnovers. The first came on a 78-yard interception return by Bill Callahan and the second was a one-yard run after a tipped Bosco pass was intercepted on BYU's own 20 yard-line. The Cougar offense made up for the miscues by capitalizing on a Pitt interception, scoring a 12-yard TD run by Lakei Heimuli to bring the score to 14-9. A Lee Johnson field goal with 9:15 left in the game brought BYU within two points, while the Cougar defense continued to stifle the Pitt offense. Then, after both teams traded punts, BYU started their final drive on their own 26 yard-line with 3:05 on the clock. After moving the ball to midfield, Bosco hit Adam Haysbert on a 50-yard bomb to go ahead for good. A two-point conversion put BYU up 20-14. The Pitt offense threatened, moving to BYU's 35 yard-line before the defense stiffened and stopped a fourth-and-four to end the game and give the Cougars the win.

BYU 18, Hawaii 13

September 22, 1984

In one of the biggest defensive stands in Cougar football history, BYU kept Hawaii out of the end zone after a first-and-goal from the two-yard-line. The defensive stand was highlighted by linebacker Kyle Morrell's leaping tackle, grabbing Hawaii running back Raphael Cherry by the back of his neckpad and pulling him down with one arm to keep Hawaii from taking a 20-12 lead. On the very next drive, the Cougars covered 80 yards on six plays, capped by a 25-yard pass from Bosco to Glen Kozlowski for the go-ahead touchdown. The BYU defense held the Rainbow Warriors on their next two possessions to secure the win.

BYU 41, Wyoming 38

October 13, 1984

In a tough conference match-up, Wyoming came to Provo trying to stop the Cougars from getting their 17th straight victory. BYU got off to a quick start with two first-quarter touchdowns to go up 14-0. Wyoming came back by scoring on a 64-yard halfback pass for a touchdown. After BYU scored again to make it 21-7, the Cowboys scored two unanswered TD's to go in at the half trailing 21-20.

Wyoming continued to move the ball in the third quarter against the tough Cougar defense, scoring 18 points on three TD's and three missed two-point conversions in the quarter. But BYU traded scores with the Cowboys, scoring 12 points on two TD's and two missed two-point conversions, putting Wyoming up 38-33 going into the final quarter. With 8:43 left in the game, Bosco and the Cougars put together an 11-play 80-yard drive, completing his fifth TD pass of the game to David Mills from 14 yards out. This time, after five consecutive missed conversions by both teams, Bosco hit Kelly Smith to put BYU up for good at 41-38 and give BYU the slim victory.

BYU 24, UCLA 27 September 7, 1985

After silencing some critics by disposing of Boston College in the Kickoff Classic, the defending national champion Cougars would face another test, the UCLA Bruins, ranked No. 2 in some preseason polls. The Bruins, led by sophomore running back Gaston Green, got on the scoreboard first with a field goal from All-American Jon Lee. The Cougars came back to tie it up with a field goal of their own. The Bruins scored again just two minutes later, this time on a 65-yard interception return by Craig Rutledge. Then the Cougars scored twice in the second quarter to go up 17-13 at the half. UCLA added two more field goals to take the lead at 19-17 with 9:01 left in the game. It would seem as if Bosco and the Cougars were going to pull off another exciting win when the offense engineered a 14-play, 80-yard drive to go ahead 24-19 with less than three minutes remaining. But the UCLA offense was too much as they opened up the next drive with a 62-yard pass from Matt Stevens to Mike Sherrard. Five plays later the Bruins found the end zone and came away with the big win.

Ty Detmer was simply unstoppable in BYU's stunning 28-21 victory over No. 1 Miami.

BYU 31, Washington 3 Sept. 14, 1985

Against Washington, the 1984 runner-up in the national championship race, came to town with fans expecting another showdown like the previous week against UCLA. But the Cougars bounced back from their first loss in 26 games to pummel the Huskies, 31-3. In an less-than-typical outing for the Cougars, BYU scored four rushing TD's, two each by Vai Sikahema and Lakei Heimuli. Meanwhile the BYU defense held Washington to a single field goal. The Cougar offense racked up 460 yards, passing for 292 and rushing for 187. The defense held Washington to 205 yards through the air and 177 yards rushing, holding their top rusher to just 38 yards on 14 carries.

BYU 45, Oregon 41 Nov. 4, 1989

In a game that produced more yards of offense than any other game in history up to that point, the Cougars came from behind to beat the Ducks, 45-41 in a game that produced 1,276 yards of offense between the two teams. Led by sophomore Ty Detmer, BYU got down early when Oregon scored on a Derek Loville run. BYU came back with a Fred Whittingham 19-yard TD run. With a 19-14 halftime lead, Oregon came out firing in the third quarter, scoring two touchdowns in the first five minutes to go up 33-14. But on the next kickoff, Tony Crutchfield returned the kick 60 yards to the Oregon 34 yard-line and igniting the crowd and the team. BYU scored 24 consecutive points to go ahead, 38-33. Oregon responded with an 80-yard drive, capped by a 16-yard Bill Musgrave TD pass to Terry Obee, taking back the lead, 41-38. Then, with less than three minutes left in the game and the Cougars on their own five-yard-line, BYU put together a drive that ended with a 15-yard TD pass to Jeff Frandsen, putting BYU up for good, 45-41, sealing the victory.

BYU 28, (No. 1) Miami 21 Sept. 8, 1990

With the No. 1 team coming to town, Provo was buzzing with excitement. Cougar fans were excited because they had a Heisman candidate and a national ranking of their own (14th). The game would live up to all of the hype. Before a record crowd of 66,235 fans, Miami scored first on a seven-yard run by Stephen McGuire. BYU tied the score in the second quarter with a 14-yard TD pass from Ty Detmer to Matt Bellini then took the lead with a 32-yard Earl Kaufmann field goal. Both teams scored again before the half and, despite four first-half turnovers, the Cougars were up 17-14. The second half started the same way the first half did -- a Miami score. This time it was a five-yard Leonard Conley run to put the Hurricanes back on top 21-17. But that was the last scoring the 'Canes would do. The Cougar defense held Miami scoreless in the final 26:48 of play. Meanwhile, Ty Detmer gave a Heisman-like effort that saw BYU score two more times. First, a 63-yard drive ended with a 29-yard Kaufmann field goal to bring BYU within one point of the Hurricanes. After the defense held Miami to no gain twice after a third-and-one, the Cougars got the ball back on Miami's 43-yard line. Nine plays later, with Detmer scrambling between two Hurricane defenders, Mike Salido broke free in the end zone where Detmer hit him for the go-ahead touchdown. A two-point conversion pass from Detmer to Andy Boyce gave the Cougars a 28-21 lead with three minutes left in the third quarter. In the final quarter, the BYU defense bent but did not break. After Miami drove 62 yards to the BYU 15, a Hurricane fumble was recovered by BYU's Alema Fitiseanu to stop the drive. Then, when a BYU fumble was recovered on BYU's 37 yard-line, Miami was threatening to score after driving to the Cougar 13-yard line. But on third-and-ten, Ervin Lee intercepted Craig Erickson's pass to stop another Miami score. One last time, with Miami at the BYU 25 and less than two minutes remaining, an Erickson pass fell incomplete to give BYU the ball and the chance to run out the clock to secure the first Cougar win over a No. 1 ranked team.

BYU 52, San Diego St. 52 Nov. 16, 1991

In the highest scoring tie ever played, Ty Detmer brought the Cougars back from a 45-17 deficit with five minutes left in the third quarter to tie the score at 52 with 30 seconds remaining. The Cougars started the scoring with a 31-yard pass from Detmer to Jamal Willis. But San Diego State went on to score 35 first-half points and 10 third-quarter points to take the 45-17 lead. The Cougars then scored touchdowns on five of their next six possessions. Detmer had 599 yards of passing, hitting 10 different receivers. Aztec David Lowery had 568 yards, while Marshall Faulk added 119 yards rushing and 116 receiving. Cougar freshman Jamal Willis added 163 yards receiving, 66 yards rushing and three touchdowns.

BYU 30, Penn State 17 Oct. 31, 1992

With national power Penn State coming to Provo, Kalin Hall gained 141 yards and one touchdown on the ground to lead the Cougars to their first victory over the Nittany Lions. Penn State scored first with a 39-yard field goal from V.J. Muscillo. The Cougars came back to score 30 unanswered points, including an 80-yard bomb from Hancock to Tyler Anderson, to take a 30-7 lead going into the fourth quarter. In the final quarter, Penn State scored on a one-yard run by Richie Anderson and a five-yard pass from Kerry Collins to O.J. McDuffie to bring the final score to 30-17.

BYU 21, Notre Dame 14 Oct. 15, 1994

Prepared to avenge a 1993 loss in Cougar Stadium, BYU headed to South Bend to take on Notre Dame, the 1993 runner-up for the national championship. A 41-yard run by Randy Kinder got the Irish on the scoreboard first just 2:45 into the ball game. BYU came back with 49 and a 48-yard David Lauder field goals to bring the score to 7-6. The scoring continued in the second quarter when John Walsh hit Jamal Willis on a 19-yard touchdown pass to put BYU up 13-7. But the Fighting Irish came back with a touchdown pass of their own – a 7-yarder from Ron Powlus to Derrick Mayes, putting Notre Dame back on top by one, 14-13 with 34 seconds left in the half. In the third quarter, after Notre Dame moved the ball to the BYU three yard-line, Powlus rolled left on a naked boot-leg, looking for the score. BYU's Jon Pollock wasn't fooled, sacking Powlus for a loss of 18 yards and forcing the Irish to attempt a field goal. But the attempt was blocked by sophomore tight end Chad Lewis, halting Notre Dame's attempt to score. The very next possession, BYU took the ball 77 yards on 13 plays, shaving over five minutes off the clock, before scoring the go-ahead touchdown on a one-yard Willis dive. A two-point conversion made the score 21-14. The rest of the final quarter saw both defenses tighten, forcing one punt, two fumbles, one missed field goal and one turnover on downs and leaving the final score 21-14, as the Cougars left with a rare win in South Bend and a 6-1 record.

K.O. Kealaluhi's 46-yard touchdown reception gave BYU a 41-37 victory over Texas A&M in the 1996 Pigskin Classic.

BYU 41, Texas A&M 37 Aug. 24, 1996

To begin a season that would see the Cougars record more wins than any other school in history (14), Texas A&M would be coming to town to play in the annual Pigskin Classic. The game was indeed a classic as Steve Sarkisian threw for 536 yards and six touchdowns, leading BYU to the victory. The first TD pass was a five-yarder to Chad Lewis, made possible by a 48-yard pass play to BYU's other stand-out tight end, Itula Mili. A blocked PAT made it 6-0. The Aggies came back with a field goal and a touchdown to take a 10-6 lead after the first quarter. Another A&M field goal and touchdown made it 20-6 early in the second quarter.

In 1994, BYU walked into South Bend and upset the 1993 runner-up for the national championship, Notre Dame. Thanks to the tough running of Jamal Willis and solid defense, the Cougars came away with a 21-14 victory. The victory at Notre Dame helped BYU to a No. 10 ranking at the end of the 1994 season.

But the Cougars responded with a 10-play, 76-yard drive that ended with a nine-yard bootleg pass to Mili. Another drive, this time 74 yards and 10 plays, tied the score at 20 going into halftime. In the second half, both teams traded scores, but another missed PAT put the Cougars down 34-26 going into the final quarter. Early in the fourth, BYU drove 80 yards, scoring on a 12-yard pass to James Dye. A Sarkisian pass to Dustin Johnson on the two-point conversion tied the game at 34. Both defenses tightened and neither team scored until, with just 1:27 on the clock, Texas A&M kicked a 52-yard field goal to take the lead. BYU started their last drive with 1:23 but only needed 20 seconds to take the lead. An 11-yard pass, a 21-yard pass and a 46-yard touchdown pass to K.O. Kealaluhi made it 41-37. With a minute left, the Cougar defense forced an A&M fumble to seal the game.

and-seven. Down just three, the BYU offense started their final drive on their 40-yard line with just under two minutes remaining. Seven plays later, the Cougars were at the Wyoming three yard-line with third-and-one, but only one second remaining on the clock. Ethan Pochman came in and calmly nailed the 20-yard field goal to send the game into overtime. When BYU won the toss in overtime, they chose to defend, and defend is what they did, sacking Wyoming's Wallwork and forcing two incomplete passes before Cory Wedel missed a 47-yard field goal. With the ball on the 25 yard-line, McKenzie rushed three straight times to bring the Cougars to the 16 yard-line, where Pochman hit the biggest field goal of his career and gave BYU the 28-25 overtime win and the WAC Championship.

BYU 28, Wyoming 25 OT Dec. 7, 1996

With the WAC Championship on the line, BYU and Wyoming played one of the most exciting games in the history of WAC football. The Cougars came in ranked sixth in the nation while the Cowboys were ranked 20th, both teams losing only once on the year. After Chris Ellison intercepted a Josh Wallwork pass on Wyoming's 23 yard-line, the Cougars settled for a 30-yard field goal to go up 3-0. With each team missing a field goal, the score remained 3-0 going into the second quarter. An 11-yard touchdown run by Brian McKenzie early in the second quarter put BYU up 10-0 and Ethan Pochman added another field goal with 55 seconds left in the second quarter to make it 13-0 at halftime. Wyoming wasted no time getting on the scoreboard in the second half, scoring on a Jay Jenkins 25-yard fumble recovery. Wyoming scored the next 10 points to take the lead 17-13 early in the fourth quarter. Less than two minutes later, the Cougars struck again with a 13-yard TD pass from Steve Sarkisian to Chad Lewis, reclaiming the lead at 20-17. With an offense that had gained momentum, the Cowboys came right back on the next possession to go 80 yards in just four plays, scoring a 14-yard TD pass and converting the two-point attempt. Behind 25-20, the Cougars engineered a 13-play, 70-yard drive that took over six minutes, but saw BYU come up short, failing to convert a fourth-and-goal on the Wyoming two. The Cowboys now had the task of holding on to a five-point lead for the remaining 2:57, but were backed up to their own two-yard-line. BYU's defense took advantage, forcing the Cowboys to take a safety on fourth-

BYU 26, Utah 24 Nov. 21, 1998

BYU went into the fourth quarter with a 20-17 lead, then built upon that with two Owen Pochman field goals to make it a 26-17 Cougar lead with under three minutes left in the game. But on the ensuing kickoff, Utah's Daniel Jones returned the kick 95 yards for the touchdown to bring the Utes within two points. On the next possession, the Utah defense forced the Cougars to punt after three unsuccessful plays, giving the Utes a chance to win the game. On their first play, Jonathan Crosswhite hit Jones for a 43-yard gain to the BYU 24 yard-line, but a celebration penalty moved the Utes back to the BYU 39. With 51 seconds remaining, Crosswhite hit Donny Utu for 11 yards, then three plays later Crosswhite hit Jones again for a nine yard gain, putting Utah on the 17 yard-line and well within range of a winning field goal. After Mike Anderson ran to the center of the field for a two-yard gain, BYU called two timeouts to try and ice the Ute kicker, Ryan Kaneshiro. Apparently, the strategy worked as Kaneshiro's 32-yard attempt hit the upright and bounced back onto the field, giving BYU the two point victory and the WAC Championship.

BYU 35, Washington 28 Sept. 9, 1999

In the season-opener, Washington jumped out to a 7-0 lead when a Husky punt hit Heshi Robertson on the BYU two yard-line and bounced into the end zone. BYU came back, scoring three straight touchdowns, but missing a PAT to take a 20-7 lead in the third quarter. Both teams exchanged scores, making it a 27-14 BYU lead with one quarter to play. The missed PAT would come back to haunt the Cougars, as Washington scored two fourth-quarter touchdowns on two Cougar turnovers to take a 28-27 lead with 5:00 remaining. The Huskies forced BYU to punt, giving the Huskies the ball on their own 34 yard-line with 4:06 left in the game and a one point lead. But three straight stops by the Cougars forced Washington to punt. With 2:35 remaining, BYU started at their own 11 yard-line. A quick pass from Kevin Feterik to Carlos Nuno gained 14 yards and another 17-yard completion to freshman Luke Staley, playing in his first collegiate game, put BYU on their 42 with first-and-ten. The next three Feterik passes went incomplete, putting BYU in a fourth-and-ten hole.

Feterik threw a perfect pass between two defenders and into the hands of Ben Horton for a 12-yard gain and a first down with 1:34 on the clock. A pass interference call put BYU on the Washington 38 yard-line, where Feterik threw a TD bomb that was caught by another freshman, Chris Hale, in the corner of the end zone. A two-point conversion put the Cougars up by seven with 1:16 still remaining. That time was enough for the Huskies to drive to the BYU 11 yard-line, where Marques Tuiasosopo's fourth-and-ten pass fell incomplete as time expired.

BYU 38, Virginia 35 OT Sept. 2, 2000

In the first half, Cougar fans watched Virginia rack up 21 points while holding BYU to a shutout. In the second half, it seemed a different Cougar team was on the field, as quarterback Bret Engemann ended the game with 447 yards of passing, completing 34 of 41 attempts to lead the Cougars back from the 21 point deficit to a three-point overtime win. BYU started the second-half scoring on the very first possession when an 80-yard drive was capped by a six-yard Brian McDonald TD run. A Cavalier punt gave the Cougars the ball again, again going 80 yards before McDonald scored his second touchdown of the game, this time from one yard out, making it 21-14. Virginia responded with a 28-yard touchdown pass of their own, going back up by 14. Going into the fourth quarter, a 70-yard pass from Engemann to Jonathan Pittman put BYU on the Virginia eight yard-line, where McDonald scored again on a six-yard run, and the Cougars were back within seven. BYU could not afford to exchange scores, but that is what they did, with the Cavaliers scoring in just four plays to make it 35-21. BYU scored another TD when Engemann hit tight end Doug Jolley for a six-yard TD. This time the defense stiffened, holding Virginia on a crucial fourth-and-one, giving BYU the ball at midfield and one last chance to pull even. Eight plays later, the Cougar offense scored its sixth touchdown in seven second-half possessions when Engemann hit Margin Hooks on a six-yard TD pass for the tying score with 50 seconds left. In overtime, Tyson Smith intercepted a Dan Ellis pass to stop Virginia's chance to score. Then, after driving from the 25 to the nine yard-line, Owen Pochman nailed a 26-yard field goal attempt to give the Cougars the dramatic win.

BYU 34, Utah 27 Nov. 24, 2000

In LaVell Edwards' last game as the head coach of the Cougars, Utah got a quick 7-0 lead when Andre Dyson returned a Brandon Doman pass 24 yards for the touchdown. BYU came back, controlling the game going into the final quarter, leading 26-10. But a field goal and two TD passes gave Utah 17 unanswered points and the Utes a one-point lead with two minutes left in the game. With one last chance, Doman and the Cougar offense would try to engineer a game-winning drive. After an incompleteness and a sack made it third-and-twenty, Doman completed a seven-yard pass to Luke Staley, making it fourth-and-13 with 1:04 on the clock. After a timeout, Doman took the snap, escaped one sack and, with a Ute defender chasing him towards the sideline, threw the ball downfield where Jonathan Pittman adjusted his route and made a leaping 34-yard catch at mid-field. On the very next play, Doman hit Pittman again on a beautiful sideline catch for 36 yards, giving BYU the ball on the 13 yard-line. A nine-yard Staley rush set up a four-yard Doman quarterback run that gave the Cougars the come-from-behind win to finish Edwards' career. "It was a great ball game on both sides. It couldn't be a better way out," said Edwards.

BYU 70, Tulane 35 Aug. 25, 2001

Through 29 years, the stone-faced Lavell Edwards led the BYU Cougars to 22 bowl appearances while enduring only one losing season. Having retired at the close of the 2000 season, Edwards turned over the reigns of the BYU program to Gary Crowton, leaving fans to speculate over the future of BYU football. Could Edwards' legacy be matched? Facing the Green Wave of Tulane in the BCA Classic, Crowton began his own winning campaign. After Tulane's Mewelde Moore took the third play of the game for a 75-yard touchdown, BYU unveiled an offensive attack that left Tulane's defense gasping for breath and future opponents' defensive coordinators scrambling for a solution. Junior running back Luke Staley established himself as a key component of the Cougar offense and began an All-American campaign by scoring his first three touchdowns of the season in the first quarter on runs of 2, 29 and 65 yards. The BYU passing attack came into play four seconds into the second quarter as Quarterback Brandon Doman hit tight end Spencer Nead for an eight-yard TD to break a 21-21 tie. The aerial onslaught continued as Doman connected for two more touchdowns with Gabriel Reid and again with Nead while Senior Brian McDonald found the end zone for the first time of the year. Having posted 49 first half points, BYU gave Tulane its only respite of the day as they left the field for halftime. The Cougars continued their dominating performance in the second half, pummeling Tulane's defense with three more touchdowns while allowing only one more score for the Green Wave offense. Both Staley and McDonald finished the day with 100+ yards and three touchdowns each. Doman left at the end of the third quarter with 286 passing yards for three TD's while adding 115 yards and one more TD on the ground. The Cougars ended the day with 734 total yards, 43 yards short of the school record, and more points than they had scored in over a decade. BYU's resounding 70-35 victory over Tulane sparked a 12-game winning streak that saw the Cougars break into the top 10 in the nation. The Crowton era had begun.

Gary Crowton started his BYU coaching career with a bang as BYU defeated Tulane 70-35 for the 2001 BCA Classic Championship.

BYU 24, Utah 21 Nov. 17, 2001

With an undefeated season, a possible BCS bowl berth and its first outright Mountain West Conference Championship in the balance, BYU faced rival Utah for the first time in Coach Gary Crowton's tenure, pitting the nation's No. 1 offense against the sixteenth-ranked defense in the nation. Someone had to give. For the first 56 minutes of the game, it looked as if BYU would. The Cougar offense struggled through the first half as quarterback Brandon Doman went 10-24 with one interception and a fumble. The Utes seemed to have solved Luke Staley as well, holding him to a meager 28 yards through the first 30 minutes. Despite being labeled the chink in BYU's armor, the Cougar defense, highlighted by defensive end Ryan Denney's 10-tackle performance, kept the game close enough for BYU to have a chance at the end. Utah held a precarious 7-3 lead as the teams left the field for halftime. Utah added to its lead on a 15-yard run by Dameon Hunter with 2:21 left in the third quarter. BYU responded two minutes later with a score of its own. Reno Mahe, who five days earlier was hospitalized to have his appendix Luke Staley took a Brandon Doman pitch and cruised down the sideline untouched for a 30-yard touchdown that put BYU up for good in the final minutes of a 24-21 MWC Championship victory over Utah in 2001.

removed, hooked up with Doman for a 23-yard TD reception in the corner of the end zone. Trailing 14-10 as the fourth quarter began, BYU needed something to happen but the Utes were ready to put the Cougars away and scored again to take a 21-10 lead with just under 10 minutes remaining. BYU and Utah traded possessions over the next six minutes as each team looked for a spark. BYU began its march towards destiny with just over four minutes remaining. After driving the ball to the seven-yard line, Doman dropped back to pass and found Staley open along the sideline for a TD. Trailing 20-16, Crowton set up a 2-point conversion and called upon Staley again. Running a sweep left, Staley followed Teag Whiting's steamroller block into the end zone to bring the Cougars within a field goal of victory. BYU's defense rose to the occasion by holding Utah to three-and-out on their next possession to give BYU a chance at the win. With just over a minute left in the game, Doman ran an option right, drawing the defensive end and linebacker to himself. Doman pitched out to Staley who tiptoed 30 yards down the sideline for the go ahead score. Leading 24-21 after Matt Payne missed the extra point, it was up to BYU's defense to preserve the win. After using a trick play to convert on fourth-and-10, Utah found itself on the BYU 30-yard line. On the very next play, cornerback Jernaro Gilford broke in front of Utah receiver Cliff Russell to intercept a Lance Rice pass, returning it 50 yards to seal the victory. Cougar fans stormed the field, hoisting Doman and Crowton onto their shoulders. In his first year at BYU, Crowton led the Cougars to a perfect 7-0 conquest of the Mountain West Conference and BYU's first home victory over Utah in a decade.

year-by-year history

BYU's winning tradition was built by legendary Cougar head coach LaVell Edwards. After taking over the program in 1972, Edwards erected an offensive powerhouse that rewrote the record books and established itself among the nation's elite football programs. Edwards, a two-time NCAA national coach of the year and the sixth winningest coach in NCAA history, taught his players and the nation what a passing offense truly was. The Cougar offense passed 103,562 yards (about 59 miles) throughout Edward's 29 seasons as head coach, and now BYU's football stadium is branded with a namesake worth a lifetime of amazing stories. Since 1972 the Cougars have won 21 conference championships, a national championship in 1984 and 23 postseason appearances. BYU's storied tradition continues with 2001 National Coach of the Year finalist Gary Crowton who won 12 games and a conference championship in his first season.

1984 National Champions:
Brigham Young University

After posting a perfect 13-0 season, the Cougars were awarded gold national championships rings after winning the 1984 National Championship.

The Cougars were named No. 1 by the Associated Press, the United Press International, Sports Illustrated, CNN-USA Today, and the Football Writers of America. They won the Grantland Rice Trophy and the MacArthur Bowl. LaVell Edwards was selected as the NCAA National Coach of the Year and was invited to visit President Ronald Reagan in the White House.

The dream season featured plays like wide receiver Adam Haysbert's deep touchdown catch at third-ranked Pittsburgh, safety Kyle Morrell's timed leap over the center on a goal-line stand at Hawaii, tight end David Mill's catch with a clouded eye against Wyoming and running back Kelly Smith's winning TD catch against Michigan, who had been ranked second earlier in the season.

With a TV blimp in the sky over Jack Murphy Stadium, junior quarterback Robbie Bosco left the Holiday Bowl in the second quarter with an ankle injury and returned taped to play shotgun late in the second quarter. The 24-17 victory over Michigan was the first time a No. 1 team played in a non-New Year's Day bowl. Other injuries throughout the season were to offensive lineman Craig Garrick and circus-catching wide receiver Glen Kozlowski, who came through time and again.

The Cougars ascended to the number one spot on Nov. 17 following a 24-14 victory at Utah combined with a Nebraska loss to Oklahoma and a Navy upset over unbeaten and then second-ranked South Carolina.

The Cougars rose from no ranking to 12th, sixth, fourth, down to eighth, to fifth for two weeks, back to fourth, then third, back to fourth, again to third and then first in the 1984 campaign. Baylor Coach Grant Teaff, whose team lost at BYU 47-13, in game two, was the first to cast a No. 1 vote for the Cougars.

Controversy was abundant as many of the so-called experts such as NBC announcer Bryant Gumbell and Oklahoma head coach Barry Switzer, accused BYU of playing a "Bo-Diddley Tech" schedule.

Fifteen players from the 1984 team were drafted by the National Football League. Seven different teams held the No. 1 spot in 1984, but in the end it belonged to undefeated BYU.

"He had me running around like a chicken with my head cut-off. We didn't play that bad, Detmer is just that good."
—Penn State linebacker Andre Collins (1989 Holiday Bowl)

On December 1, 1990, Ty Detmer and his teammates gathered pool-side at the Princess Kaiulani Hotel just hours prior to kickoff with Hawaii. Via satellite hookup with national TV, Detmer and the BYU faithful waited patiently and listened as Downtown Athletic Club President C. Peter Lambos announced, "Ty Detmer, Ty Detmer of BYU," — soon Ty was doused in the pool.

Detmer, a junior, became the first collegian from the Rockies to win the Heisman Trophy. Named in honor of John Heisman, the coveted 25-pound honor is awarded annually to the outstanding college football player of the year since 1935.

A 28-21 upset over No. 1-ranked Miami in Provo vaulted Detmer to the forefront in the Heisman race his junior season. Combined with a massive public relations "necktie" campaign for Ty, the 6-0, 175, gunslinger from San Antonio, Texas, guided BYU to a Holiday Bowl berth that season and a 10-3 record with 41 touchdowns and 5,188 yards passing.

Detmer polled 1,482 points to beat out Notre Dame's Raghib "Rocket" Ismail at 1,177 and finished first in all six regions. Detmer finished third in the Heisman balloting in 1991.

"Winning the Heisman was a great honor," said Detmer. "There have been a lot of great players, like my teammates and previous BYU quarterbacks, that contributed to it. They opened the door. It shows the strength of the program at BYU."

Detmer's portrait hangs alongside other recipients on the third floor of the DAC of New York City. A duplicate portrait of Detmer also hangs on display in the Cougar Room of Cougar Stadium.

outland trophy winners

BYU is one of only 11 schools to have two Outland Trophy winners, joining the likes of Notre Dame, Ohio State, Nebraska, Oklahoma and Texas

Transfers Jason Buck, a defensive tackle, and Mohammed Elewonibi, an offensive guard, won the Outland in 1986 and 1989, respectively.

Buck, a 6-6, 270, senior from St. Anthony, Idaho, was a quarterback going into junior college at Ricks College. Buck led the 1986 Cougars with 218.5 defensive points and registered 26 unassisted tackles, 33 assisted tackles, 13 tackles for losses, 17 quarterback hurries and 12.5 sacks.

Buck rode a publicity campaign of "One Buck" dollar bills in leading BYU to an 8-5 record and a berth in the Freedom Bowl in 1986.

"For me it was just a thrill to be on the field every Saturday at BYU," said Buck. "To win the Outland Trophy was a dream come true."

Mount Mohammed, a 6-5, 290, senior from British Columbia, Canada, spent his childhood in his native Nigeria and didn't play football until after high school, at Snow Junior College. "Mo" led BYU to a 10-3 record, a berth in the Holiday Bowl in 1989 and graded out four times with perfect pass protection as a senior.

The Outland Trophy honors the outstanding interior lineman in the nation and was first presented in 1946 by the Football Writers Association of America.

The award is named for its benefactor, Dr. John H. Outland.

doak walker award winner

While his teammates and coaches were watching in their hotel rooms from Hawaii, over 6,000 miles away, BYU running back Luke Staley was named the winner of the 2001 Doak Walker Award. The annual award, which was presented on the ESPN Home Depot College Football Awards Show from Orlando, Fla., is presented to college football's top running back.

"This is a great honor," Staley said. "I can't express how grateful I am for my family, my teammates, my coach - everyone who made this possible."

In addition to winning the Doak Walker Award, Staley was also named as a first-team member of the prestigious Walter Camp Foundation All-America Team. Staley is the first BYU consensus All-American since Ty Detmer was twice selected in 1990 and 1991. In addition to the Walter Camp Foundation All-American team, Staley has been named a first-team All-American by the American Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association of America, the Associated Press, The Sporting News, Football News and CNN/ISI; just to name a few.

"We're very proud of Luke and all his accomplishments," BYU head coach Gary Crowton said. "Since we started this season back in August, we have been telling these guys to work hard, stay focused and great things will happen. This award, although presented to Luke, is a tribute to the hard work and commitment each and every player and coach has made this season. Luke is probably one of the best examples we have had, in terms of working hard and staying focused. This is a great tribute for a great athlete, a great teammate and a great young man. We couldn't be more proud of him."

Staley, from Tualatin, Ore., led the nation in scoring (15.5 p/game), yards per carry (8.1 y/carry) and finished the 2001 season ranked third in the nation in rushing, averaging 143.8 yards per game. He helped pace the Cougars to a 12-2 record on the season, scoring a BYU single-season record 28 touchdowns. Staley also racked up a BYU single-season record 1,582 yards rushing on the season.

national coach of the year honors

Legendary Cougar coach LaVell Edwards has twice been recognized as one of the greatest coaches in college football. The sixth-winningest coach in NCAA football history earned the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Award in 1979 and the Kodak Coach of the Year Award in 1984.

Along with his teams' successes during his coaching tenure, LaVell Edwards accumulated many personal accolades to match. Edwards' first national recognition for his coaching prowess came in 1979 when he was honored with the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Award. A panel of 11 former college football coaches selected the former BYU coach. On the heels of BYU's first national championship five years later, Edwards' coaching peers honored him with what he then called his greatest personal accolade, the Kodak Coach of the Year Award.

As successful as his teams were on the field, Edwards' coaching philosophy did not reflect a win-at-all-costs mentality. He didn't bark orders or rule the sideline with an iron fist. Generally, the assistant coaches were delegated the duty of handling the Xs and Os while he saw to the administrative tasks of the program.

His personal demeanor also gave him the ability to relate well with his players whether teaching them about football or other more personal matters. "Just seeing how he handles himself with the media and with people in general ... he's always genuine with them. He treats everybody well."

Former BYU quarterback and current quarterback coach Robbie Bosco said, "Those are the things he'll leave with me, more than winning football games."

THE DAVEY O'BRIEN AWARD

In 1981, the Davey O'Brien Educational and Charitable Trust of Fort Worth, Texas, named Jim McMahon the first recipient of the annual Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award — honoring the nation's best quarterback. BYU quarterbacks have won the Davey O'Brien Award four times — more than any other school.

In addition to winners McMahon (1981), Steve Young (1983) and Ty Detmer (1990 & '91), Robbie Bosco finished runner-up in 1984 and Steve Sarkisian finished third in 1996. Others who have won the award include: Todd Blackledge (1982), Doug Flutie (1984), Chuck Long (1985), Vinny Testaverde (1986), Dan McPherson (1987), Troy Aikman (1988), Andre Ware (1989), Gino Torretta (1992), Charlie Ward (1993), Kerry Collins (1994), Danny Wuerffel (1995 & '96), Peyton Manning (1997), Michael Bishop (1998), Joe Hamilton (1999), Chris Weinke (2000), and Eric Crouch (2001).

SAMMY BAUGH TROPHY COLLEGE PASSER OF THE YEAR

On February 21, 1997, Steve Sarkisian became the seventh BYU quarterback in the past 22 years to win the prestigious Sammy Baugh Trophy. Presented each year by the Touchdown Club of Columbus, the Sammy Baugh Award recognizes the college passer of the year. In winning, Sarkisian joined Gary Sheide (1974), Marc Wilson (1979), Jim McMahon (1981), Steve Young (1983), Robbie Bosco (1984) and Ty Detmer (1991) as Cougars who have won the award. Other notables who have won the award include Bob Griese (1966), Don Strock (1972), Tommy Krammer (1976), John Elway (1982), Vinny Testaverde (1986), Steve Walsh (1988), Jeff George (1989), David Klingler (1990), Elvis Grbac (1992), Trent Dilfer (1993), Kerry Collins (1994) and Danny Wuerffel (1995).

BYU's quarterback factory

THE QB ASSEMBLY LINE: This publicity photo from 1984 shows Edwards with some of his prized pupils. Since then, Robbie Bosco led BYU to the National Championship, Ty Detmer won the Heisman Trophy and Steve Sarkisian led BYU to a 14 win season—the most in NCAA History.

Ever since Gary Sheide in 1973, BYU and LaVell Edwards produced an assembly line of outstanding quarterbacks in Provo that have earned unprecedented success in the market of college and professional football.

Volumes have been written about BYU's passing game and great quarterback tradition. BYU quarterbacks own the NCAA record books and have won the Davey O'Brien award for best quarterback in the nation four times with one runner-up and one third place finish. BYU's quarterback factory has also produced a Heisman Trophy winner in Ty Detmer and many other Heisman Trophy candidates. Quarterbacks Gifford Nielsen, Marc Wilson, Jim McMahon and Steve Young have been inducted into the college football Hall of Fame in recent years, and several other BYU quarterbacks will likely be added to the list. In the last 13 years, two different BYU quarterbacks (more than any other school) have led their teams to NFL championships (Jim McMahon and Steve Young).

On seven different occasions, BYU quarterbacks have finished as the NCAA total offense leaders. Three of the top five career passing efficiency leaders are from BYU. In the 27 years Edwards has coached at BYU, the Cougars have led the nation in passing eight times and finished in the top five 17 times.

When Edwards was named head coach at BYU in 1972, he realized he couldn't compete initially with the big schools for the big-time athletes. So he installed a passing attack that allowed smaller, less physical-type players to win with finesse, rather than muscle.

The offense worked, and the Cougars began passing the competition. BYU became one of the first universities to use the forward pass consistently and effectively in a time when throwing the football was a mere alternative to running the ball.

The pass has been good to BYU. Prior to Edwards, the program had won a total of 171 games and had only 16 winning seasons. Since 1972, BYU has won or tied for the WAC or MWC championship 19 times, played in 22 post-season bowl games and won the national championship in 1984.

THE DOMANATOR:

After almost three years of relative anonymity on BYU's sidelines, Brandon Doman proved he could be considered among the Cougar greats. Making the most of what little opportunity given him, Doman stepped in for an injured Bret Engemann and Charlie Peterson as the third-string quarterback in 2000 and finished the year with two huge victories—one over New Mexico in Lavell Edwards' final home game, and a second in a dramatic come-from-behind victory over rival Utah to end Edwards' career. In 2001, Doman led the Cougars on an improbable run through the national rankings by winning 12 straight games to start the season. Doman won his first 14 starts, equaling a mark set by Robbie Bosco in 1984, and got the Cougars off to their best start since BYU's 1984 national championship, despite playing the majority of the year with a grade III shoulder separation in his throwing shoulder.

The Domanator racked up a slew of honors through his senior campaign, finding himself a candidate for the Heisman Trophy and a semi-finalist for the Davey O'Brien award. A unanimous First-Team Mountain West Conference selection, Doman earned BCA Classic MVP honors for his four-touchdown, 401-yard performance against Tulane. Doman finished the year ranked seventh nationally in passing efficiency and total offense by completing 64 percent of his passes for 3,542 yards, 33 touchdowns and only eight interceptions. The Domanator culminated his reign as BYU's starting quarterback with a fifth round selection by the San Francisco 49er's in the 2002 NFL draft.

season passing efficiency & rating records

At one time, BYU quarterbacks held season passing efficiency and rating records at all levels of competition. In 1980, Jim McMahon threw 47 touchdown passes on his way to establishing a new NCAA season passing efficiency mark at 176.9 (a record that still holds for 30-plus attempts per game). McMahon's record held up until 1995 when Danny Wuerffel of Florida set the new mark at 178.4. McMahon is currently No. 4 followed by BYU greats Ty Detmer at No. 5 (175.6) and Steve Sarkisian at No. 7 (173.6).

In 1994, future Cougar Sarkisian set a new NJCAA record at 203.8 while playing at El Camino College in Torrance, Calif. That same year, Steve Young broke the NFL mark, establishing the new record at 112.8.

Although known as the Quarterback Factory, BYU signal callers wouldn't make the record books without someone on the receiving end of their throws. Despite being overlooked at times, the tight end position has thrived in BYU's offensive scheme.

The tight end position has been a featured position in BYU's wide-open offenses over the years. Cougar football has emerged as the home of some of the best pass-catching tight ends in NCAA history.

Starting with "Miracle Bowl" hero Clay Brown in 1980, seven BYU tight ends have earned All-American status. Since 1976, 10 Cougar tight ends have received 15 First-Team All-Conference citations. Four BYU tight ends are currently playing in the NFL. Itula Mili of the Seattle Seahawks and Chad Lewis, Pro Bowl tight end of the Philadelphia Eagles, both entered the NFL in 1997, while Tevita Ofahengaue was taken by the Arizona Cardinals in the 2001 draft and Doug Jolley in 2002 draft by the Oakland Raiders. Another BYU tight end, Carlos Nuno, has been playing in NFL Europe. Two former BYU tight ends Todd Christensen and Chad Lewis have been named to several Pro Bowl teams during their successful professional careers.

Coach Gary Crowton looks to continue BYU's tradition of successful tight ends as recent BYU graduate Doug Jolley was a second round pick of the Oakland Raiders in the 2002 NFL draft. Look for tight ends Spencer Nead, Gabriel Po'u Reid, as well as, Aisaac Aiono to play a big part in BYU's offense in 2002.

Tight end Doug Jolley set a Mountain West Conference receiving record against Air Force in 2001 after scoring three touchdowns and catching 10 passes for 177 yards. Jolley was named first-team all-conference and was taken in the second round of the NFL draft.

college football hall of fame

Established in 1947 by the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame, Inc., the first class was inducted in 1951. In order to be eligible for the Hall of Fame, a nominated player must be out of college at least ten years and a first team All-American selection by a major selector during his career. The voting is done by a 12 member panel made up of athletic directors, conference and bowl officials, and media representatives. The College Football Hall of Fame is located in South Bend, Indiana and is open year round. For more information visit <http://collegefootball.org/>.

STEVE YOUNG Quarterback: 1982-83 Inducted: 2001

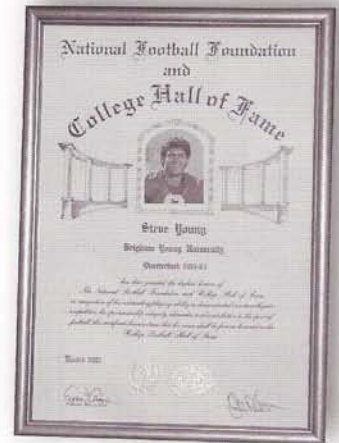

The National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame Chairman Jon F. Hanson and Honors Chairman Gene Gorrigan today announced the names of the 2001 Division IA College Football Hall of Fame inductees. Among the 15 former collegiate players and three head coaches was BYU All-American and NFL MVP Steve Young.

One of the greatest collegiate quarterbacks of all time, Steve Young was consistently at the top of all the nation's statistical categories for quarterbacks en route to setting 13 NCAA records. As a junior, he averaged 318.8 yards per game of total offense, earning All-Western Athletic Conference recognition and Conference Player-of-the-Year honors.

In his senior season, he repeated as a first-team All-WAC selection, completed 306-of-429 pass attempts for an impressive .713 percentage and led BYU to their second straight Holiday Bowl. His .713 completion percentage, along with 3,802 yards passing, 4,246 yards of total offense and 33 touchdowns all led the nation. Few rival Young's career totals. He completed 592-of-907 attempts for a .652 average, threw for 7,733 yards and 56 touchdowns and his 8,817 yards of total offense in only 31 games is among college football's all-time greatest career numbers.

A unanimous All-American and academic All-WAC selection, Young was the runner-up for the Heisman Trophy and received a National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete Award in recognition for his excellence on the field, in the classroom and in the community -- a tradition he maintains today with the successful Forever Young Foundation.

Young recently retired after 15 seasons in the NFL, where he earned two MVP awards, seven trips to the Pro Bowl and led the San Francisco 49ers to the Super Bowl Championship in 1995, earning most-valuable-player honors. Young is the fourth BYU quarterback to be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. Gifford Nielsen was inducted in 1994, Marc Wilson was selected in 1996 and Jim McMahon was honored by the Hall in 1998.

JIM MCMAHON

Quarterback: 1978-81

Inducted: 1998

In 1998 Jim McMahon (1977-78, 80-81) joined former BYU quarterbacks Gifford Nielsen and Marc Wilson, who were inducted into the National Football Foundation Collegiate Hall of Fame in 1994 and 1996, respectively.

McMahon set 70 NCAA records at BYU, was 1981 First Team All-America by Kodak (Coaches), College & Pro Weekly, Associated Press, UPI, Football Writers Association of America, and second team NEA. In 1980 he earned First team All-America by the FWAA. McMahon balloted third place for the Heisman Trophy in 1981 and fifth in 1980. In 1981, he won the Davey O'Brien Trophy, the Sammy Baugh Award, the Utah Sportsman of the Year, and the NCAA Co-Offensive Player of the Year with Marcus Allen (Pigskin Club of Wash., D.C.). He led the NCAA in pass efficiency (155.0) and total offense (345.8) in 1981 as well as pass efficiency (176.9) and total offense (385.6) in 1980. He set 29 Western Athletic Conference records and was three-time WAC Player of the Year and first team all-league. He broke 23 school records, was MVP of the 1980 and 1981 Holiday Bowls, and has been inducted to the Holiday Bowl Hall of Fame. McMahon passed for 9,536 yards, threw 84 touchdowns and completed 653 of 1,056 passes during his career at BYU.

McMahon played for the Chicago Bears from 1982-88 (1985 Super Bowl Champions, 1985 Pro QB of the Year, and Pro Bowl); San Diego Chargers in 1989; Philadelphia Eagles from 1990-92; Minnesota Vikings in 1993; Arizona Cardinals in 1994; and Green Bay Packers from 1995-96 (1997 Super Bowl Champions).

MARC WILSON

Quarterback: 1976-79

Inducted: 1996

One of the most celebrated quarterbacks in Cougar history, Marc Wilson earned consensus All-American honors in 1979 and was inducted into the Hall of Fame on Dec. 10, 1996. In Wilson's first game as a starter, he was 15 of 25 for 332 yards with seven touchdowns in a 63-17 triumph over Colorado State and was consequently named Sports Illustrated's Offensive Player of the Week. In Wilson's career at BYU, he set ten NCAA records. The 6-5, 204 pound quarterback ranked fourth in the nation in passing efficiency with a 147.1 rating in 1979. That same year, Wilson finished third in the Heisman balloting, led his team to an undefeated regular season, and was named the Holiday Bowl's Offensive MVP.

A true student-athlete, Wilson was the recipient of the NCAA Top Five Award and its Post Graduate Scholarship. A first round draft pick of the Oakland Raiders, Wilson played eight seasons before finishing his career with the New England Patriots.

Presently, Wilson is a land developer in the North Seattle area. He and his wife, Colleen, live in Woodinville, Wash., with their four children.

GIFFORD NIELSEN

Quarterback: 1975-77

Inducted: 1994

Nicknamed the "Mormon rifle," Gifford Nielsen became BYU's first Hall of Fame inductee in 1994. His prolific passing career began when he came off the bench in the third game of his sophomore season to lead the Cougars to a 16-15 come-from-behind win by completing 10 of 12 passes.

"From that point on," Nielsen said, "everything clicked, and it's just amazing what happened." As a junior, in 1976, Nielsen really made fans sit up and notice. He passed for 3,192 yards and 29 touchdowns, set 13 WAC records and made All-American. Next season promised even more. He threw five touchdown passes against New Mexico, six against Utah State and was twice named Player of the Week. For the first time, a BYU football team was nationally ranked.

"It was like a little dream world," said Nielsen, a product of Provo High School. "The numbers were just mind-boggling. Everything you could ever dream of as a kid in Provo, Utah, was in the palm of my hand." On Oct. 8, 1977, his season and college career ended when he suffered a serious injury. He left a mark, however. Over the three years Nielsen averaged an astounding 243 yards passing per game.

Brandon Doman had three 300+ passing performances last season. Against Tulane in the 2001 season opener, Doman gained 115 yards rushing and 286 passing becoming the first BYU quarterback to tally such numbers since Steve Young threw for 351 yards and rushed for 113 yards against Baylor in 1983.

Ty Detmer holds the NCAA record for most games passing over 300 yards in a career. His 33-game record more than doubles any other BYU quarterback.

Competing in its first post-season bowl game ever, BYU played Western Athletic Conference host to the Oklahoma State Cowboys before a crowd of 50,878. The Cougars got off to a quick start with two field goals during the first quarter before All-WAC quarterback Gary Sheide suffered a dislocated shoulder in the last moments of the quarter. He was replaced by junior reserve Mark Giles. The Cowboys took the scoring lead during the second quarter on a touchdown run around left end, giving Oklahoma State a 7-6 halftime advantage. OSU regained possession of the ball on the Cougars' 17-yard line after intercepting Giles, but the Cowboys were unable to convert on the turnover. A field goal from 32 yards out put the Cowboys in front 10-6 at the end of the third quarter. With 1:14 remaining in the game, Oklahoma State scored another touchdown on a 40-yard halfback pass to complete the scoring. The Cougars out-gained Oklahoma State in total yardage, 301-214. Giles was 11 of 26 for 138 yards. After three losses and a tie to open the season, the Cougars reeled off seven straight victories prior to the bowl game.

Defensively, the Cowboys yielded only 46 yards rushing. The Cougars, however, stayed close in the first half, which ended 28-14. Dave Lowry returned the second-half kickoff 102 yards (a Tangerine Bowl record) to move the Cougars to within seven at 28-21. From there, it was all Cowboys. BYU's Gifford Nielsen completed 23 of 34 passes for 209 yards and one touchdown, but the Cougars could only roll up 255 yards to Oklahoma State's 402. BYU entered the game with a 9-2 record, while Oklahoma State came in after tying for the Big 8 title. The Cowboys missed out on the Orange Bowl because of the conference tie-breaking formula. Later, the stadium was expanded and the name changed to the Florida Citrus Bowl.

Defense dominated the first two quarters. Brent Johnson put the Cougars on the scoreboard first with a 33-yard field goal with 8:26 left in the first quarter. But Navy's Bob Tata boomed a 40-yard field goal to tie the score at 3-3. Jim McMahon sent the Cougars ahead with a 10-yard pass to Mike Chronister, but Johnson missed the PAT. McMahon ran another in from two yards out in the third period for a 16-3 BYU lead. Navy cut the lead to 16-10 after three quarters and then tied the game on two field goals in the fourth quarter, but it was a 65-yard pass to Phil McConkey that did the Cougars in. Some 52,500 witnessed the game in person. McConkey was named Best Offensive Player and BYU's Tom Enlow won Best Defensive Player honors. Navy finished the year at 9-3, BYU at 9-4.

Game Summary:

The 1979 season ended with BYU leading the nation in scoring, passing and total offense. At 11-0, the Cougars were one of the few undefeated, untied teams in the nation. Those kinds of credentials, along with its No. 9 national ranking in the UPI and AP polls made BYU the favorite over the at-large entry, Indiana. The opportunistic Hoosiers played the Cougars tough, holding a 21-17 lead at the half. BYU jumped ahead in the third quarter, 24-21, on a 13-yard pass from All-American Marc Wilson to Homer Jones. The Cougars fell behind, 31-24, but regained the lead at 34-31 on a 15-yard pass to Eric Lane. With 12:14 left to play, BYU padded the lead on the third field goal of the game by Brent Johnson. But midway through the fourth quarter, Indiana's Tim Wilbur returned a punt 62 yards to push the Hoosiers ahead 38-37. With 2:06 remaining, the Cougars moved the ball 69 yards to the Indiana 10. Then, with 11 seconds left, Johnson missed a 27-yard field goal that would have won the game. Wilson was voted the MVP on offense (28 of 43 for 380 yards) and Indiana's Wilbur won the honor for defense. Clay Brown caught nine passes for 142 yards. Lane grabbed nine passes for 79 yards and also scored a rushing touchdown. Jones scored a touchdown and had 126 yards on seven kickoff returns.

Game Summary:

One observer said the 1980 Holiday Bowl was actually two ball games—a contest which lasted most of four quarters and another of four minutes duration. SMU controlled the "first game," leaving the Cougars behind 20 points with only minutes remaining. Unfortunately, many fans either turned off their TV sets or left the stadium in San Diego before the "second game" began. In the final four minutes, BYU surged to a stunning 46-45 win. For 56 minutes the Mustangs taught the Cougars a lesson in running the football. The Mustangs' two great running backs, Craig James and Eric Dickerson, rushed for a combined total of 335 yards. With 4:07 remaining in the game, SMU scored to go ahead, 45-25. From there the Cougars connected on a TD pass, recovered an on-side kick, scored on a one-yard run by Scott Phillips, blocked a punt. Finally, with three seconds left on the clock, Jim McMahon connected on a "Hail Mary" pass of 41 yards to Clay Brown. With the score tied, Kurt Gunther kicked the extra point to send BYU fans streaming onto the field. McMahon was 32 of 49 passes for 446 yards. It may have been the most exciting bowl game ever, with the Cougars getting 21 points in the final 2:33. Ironically, four passes on conversion attempts had failed before McMahon hit Phillips after the next-to-last touchdown to cut a 45-31 deficit to 45-39 and put the Cougars in a position to win the game with one more score. The 50-yard drive was set up when Todd Shell recovered a Brent Johnson on-side-kick at midfield. SMU got the ball back with 1:57 but had to punt. The kick was blocked by defensive back Bill Schoepflin and recovered by the SMU punter, Eric Kaifes, with 13 seconds left. McMahon threw one incomplete pass intended for Brown and another for Lloyd Jones before unleashing the famous pass to Brown in the end zone with no time left on the clock.

Game Summary:

The 1981 edition of the Holiday Bowl fit the mold of its predecessors. This time it was the Cougars of BYU versus the Cougars of Washington State, playing before a crowd of 52,419. BYU held a 24-7 lead at halftime, then pushed the score to 31-7 as Tom Holmoe intercepted a pass and returned it 35 yards to give the WAC champions a comfortable edge. As the second half progressed, it appeared BYU would be the come-from-behind victim in this one. With only 59 seconds left in the third quarter, Washington State scored to make it 31-28. But Jim McMahon took over moving BYU 82 yards for a score to stretch the lead to 38-28. Statistically, it was a typical McMahon game, 27 of 43 with no interceptions and three touchdowns. Tight end Gordon Hudson had an excellent game, collecting seven catches for 126 yards and a touchdown. Dan Plater also caught a touchdown pass and Waymon Hamilton scored on the ground. Washington State quarterbacks Clete Casper and Ricky Turner completed only eight passes for 106 yards but Turner had 82 yards rushing while Don LaBomme had 79. Each team scored five touchdowns, so the difference actually came midway through the second quarter when Kurt Gunther connected on a 20-yard field goal after a BYU drive stalled on the Washington State three.

Game Summary:

The Cougars had their two-game Holiday Bowl win streak snapped by Ohio State, 47-17. BYU's bubble burst at the outset of the third quarter, when the Buckeyes reeled off 17 unanswered points. Tim Spencer blew through the Cougar defense for 167 yards, including a record-setting 61-yard touchdown run in the second quarter that put Ohio State up, 10-7. Steve Young completed 27 of 45 passes for 341 yards, but BYU had a tough time getting into the end zone. The Cougars turned the ball over to Ohio State three times inside the 30 and saw the Buckeyes convert each turnover into a score. The Cougars took the lead early in the second quarter with a seven-yard strike to Neil Balholm. But Spencer's long gallop and a blocked punt put the Buckeyes up, 17-10, at halftime. Big fullback Vaughn Broadnax scored on the opening drive of the second half, and on the next play, Young was intercepted and Spencer ran 18 yards to put Ohio State in control for good. BYU's only other score came midway through the fourth quarter when Gordon Hudson caught a 13-yard pass. Ohio State quarterback Mike Tomczak had only 132 yards passing and no touchdowns, but his fleet of running backs scored six times on the ground. Ten different BYU players caught passes, led by Hudson with seven receptions for 81 yards and Balholm with 58 yards receiving.

Game Summary:

Yet another chapter was added to the saga of impossible, thrilling Holiday Bowl finishes when BYU defeated Missouri, 21-17. The game was billed as a classic matchup between Missouri's stubborn defense and BYU's explosive offense, led by quarterback Steve Young. Missouri held BYU to just 167 yards and seven points in the first half, while BYU's defense allowed the Tigers only 157 yards and 10 points. Missouri got its first-half points on a two-yard run by Eric Drain and a 37-yard field goal by Brad Burditt. BYU's touchdown came on a 10-yard quarterback draw by Young. In the second half, Young hit Eddie Stinnett with a 33-yard touchdown pass. But Missouri came right back with another two-yard plunge by Drain. A valiant goal-line stand by BYU gave the Cougars the ball on the six-yard-line with 3:57 left in the game. Led by Young, the Cougars moved down the field to the Missouri 15 with under a minute to play. On first-and-10 at the Tigers' 15, Young handed to Stinnett, who faked a sweep right and threw back across the field to Young. The Stinnett pass barely cleared the outstretched hands of Missouri's Bobby Bell allowing Young to gather it in and scramble 15 yards to the end zone. The PAT gave BYU a 21-17 lead with 23 seconds left. Kyle Morrell intercepted a Missouri desperation pass at the BYU two-yard line and returned it to the 17 to seal the win.

Game Summary:

Holiday Bowl VII lived up to all the glamour and excitement of the previous six bowls, plus it had a new dimension--national championship luster--thanks to BYU's undefeated, untied season and No. 1 ranking. The 24-17 Cougar victory marked the first time in years that a non-New Year's Day bowl game determined the national championship. The contest was played in typical Holiday Bowl fashion. After a scoreless first quarter in which Cougar quarterback Robbie Bosco was forced to the sideline with an injured knee and ankle, the game began to develop drama. BYU scored first with 8:37 left in the first half on a five-yard run by Kelly Smith. The touchdown was set up when a limping Bosco returned to the lineup and engineered an 80-yard drive. The Wolverines responded by putting together an 80-yard scoring drive of their own, culminating on Rick Rogers' five-yard touchdown run up the middle. The PAT tied the score at seven. The tie was short-lived however, as a 31-yard field goal by Lee Johnson with time running out in the first half gave BYU a 10-7 lead at the break. Midway through the third period, Michigan went on top for the first time at 14-10 on a 10-yard scoring strike from Bob Zurbrugg to Bob Perryman. The Wolverines added to their lead when Bob Bergeron nailed a 32-yard field goal to make the Michigan lead 17-10 with 14:14 to play. The Cougar offense then produced an 80-yard drive that culminated with a seven-yard Bosco-to-Glen Kozlowski touchdown pass to tie the game at 17 with 10:51 to go. Bosco's 13-yard scoring toss to Smith with 1:23 remaining made it 24-17. Two plays later Marv Allen intercepted a pass to clinch a 13-0 season and the Cougars' first-ever national championship. David Mills finished with 11 catches for 103 yards receiving and Smith had 10 for 88. Lakei Heimuli led BYU with 82 yards rushing while Bob Perryman had 110 for Michigan.

Scoring:

OSU – Spangler 47-yard field goal
 BYU – Miles 38 yard pass from Bosco (Webster kick)
 OSU – Kolic 14 pass interception (Spanglcr kick)

Game Summary:

In what promised to be an offensive showdown between pass-happy BYU (11-2) and rough and tumble Ohio State (8-3), two of the nation's top defenses took center stage. In fact, the game's only touchdowns were produced by a noseguard on an interception and a reserve wide receiver on a broken play. Buckeye kicker Rich Spangler tallied the first points of the game with a 47-yard field goal early in the second quarter to give Ohio State a 3-0 lead. BYU attempted to answer with a long drive of its own, only to come away empty after Vai Sikahema fumbled on an apparent touchdown plunge. Before the first half ended, quarterback Robbie Bosco rolled left, whirled right and found wide receiver David Miles on a 38-yard strike to give the Cougars a 7-3 halftime lead. In the second half, Ohio State noseguard Larry Kolic intercepted Bosco and took it in for a touchdown to give the Buckeyes a 10-7 lead. Leon White and Kyle Whittingham recovered fumbles but Kolic got another interception and Terry White intercepted two in the end zone to stop BYU threats—one with 3:38 to play and again with three seconds left. Ohio State was the benefactor of six Cougar turnovers, and the Buckeyes went home the victor. Mark Bellini had 89 yards receiving while Lakei Heimuli added 10 receptions for 77 yards.

 UCLA – Dorrell 13-yard pass from Green (Franey kick)
 BYU – Hansen 3-yard run (Chitty kick)

Game Summary:

Although BYU failed to win the WAC title, the Cougars kept alive an impressive streak of nine bowl appearances in a row by being invited to the third annual Freedom Bowl. There they met familiar foe UCLA. The two teams had met in 1985 when the Bruins came from behind to win a tough game in Provo, 27-24. The Freedom Bowl, however, proved different as UCLA outstanding running back Gaston Green broke open a close game in the third quarter and the Bruins went on to win 31-10. Green finished with 266 yards on 33 carries. The first half was all defense as the two teams punted nine times in the first 30 minutes. BYU struck first when linebacker Andy Katoa recovered a UCLA fumble at the Bruin 47 and Leonard Chitty put the Cougars ahead 3-0 with a 32-yard field goal. UCLA stormed ahead to stay with a 71-yard touchdown drive highlighted by a 49-yard run on a reverse by Bruin receiver Karl Dorrell. From then on, it was UCLA most of the way. Cougar quarterbacks Bob Jensen and Mike Young managed to pass for over 200 yards, but UCLA and Green did most of the damage. Costly injuries to standouts Mark Bellini and Katoa hindered the Cougar effort, but Outland Trophy winner Jason Buck turned in another strong effort.

 UVA – Ford 22-yard pass from Secules (Wilson pass)
 BYU – Whittingham 1-yard pass from Covey (Chitty kick)

Game Summary:

The 11th annual All-American Bowl began with temperatures in the 40s and BYU never warmed up. The Cougars' 10th consecutive bowl appearance included several records, but BYU lost 22-16 in its first-ever meeting with Virginia. Sean Covey attempted 61 passes, David Miles had 188 yards in receptions and Pat Thompson only punted once, but BYU fell short several times. Darren Handley, BYU's leading receiver, dropped a touchdown pass in the first quarter before BYU settled for a 20-yard field goal by Leonard Chitty. However, Chitty, who set a season mark for field goals (18) and consecutive PATs (29), missed from 51 and 47 yards as Virginia took a 14-3 lead into the intermission. BYU got to the Virginia two-yard-line midway through the third quarter only to have a fourth-down pass tipped away. Later, Freddie Whittingham scampered eight yards to cut the lead to 14-9 at the end of the third quarter. Virginia, led by quarterback Scott Secules, the game's MVP, made a crucial 76-yard drive to go ahead 22-9 with 11 minutes left. Then, BYU went the same distance to score on a one-yard pass to Whittingham with seven minutes remaining. But that was as close as the Cougars would get. Ironically, nine years earlier on the same date Virginia Coach George Welsh led Navy to a 23-16 win over BYU in the inaugural Holiday Bowl.

 COL – Blottiaux 19-yard field goal
 BYU – Chaffetz 31-yard field goal
 BYU – Chaffetz 35-yard field goal

Game Summary:

A star was born in the fifth annual Freedom Bowl when Ty Detmer came off the bench to earn MVP honors while leading the Cougars to an upset victory over Colorado. Cool weather didn't hamper diminutive Eric Bieniemy, who rushed 33 times for 144 yards and two touchdowns. But his heroics couldn't offset Detmer's 11 for 19 and 129 yards in the second half. Scott Peterson made an interception to set up the game-winning field goal. It was an exciting contest for the 35,941 fans (49,694 tickets were sold) in attendance. A fumble at midfield led to the Buffaloes' first score, before Sean Covey found Mike Salido to tie the score. An interception in the end zone stopped a BYU drive early in the second quarter as the Cougars trailed at the half, 14-7. A Detmer to Chuck Cutler pass tied the game in the third quarter but Colorado took a 17-14 lead early in the final quarter. BYU then moved from its own four to the Buffalo 14 and tied the game with 4:11 left on a 31-yarder by Chaffetz. Three plays later, Peterson's interception and a 15-yard penalty put the ball at the Colorado 32. With 2:33 left, Chaffetz booted a 35-yarder for the victory. Halfback Matt Bellini carried eight times for 78 yards and caught four passes for 41 yards.

Game Summary:

Two unusual plays late in the game kept BYU from downing Penn State and offset 576 yards passing by Ty Detmer—the highest total ever in a bowl game. For his effort, and thanks to blocking from Outland Trophy winner Mohammed Elewonibi, Detmer had the rare privilege of sharing MVP honors despite playing on the losing team. BYU, which trailed 41-26 with nine and a half minutes remaining, scored twice to cut the lead to 41-39 with 2:30 to play. The Cougars went for a two-point conversion to tie the game, but Detmer's pass was intercepted in the end zone by Penn State linebacker Andre Collins and returned 102 yards for two points. Down 43-39, the Cougars, led by Bob Davis, forced the Lions to punt, giving BYU the ball on its own 12 with two minutes left. Passes to Brent Nyberg, Matt Bellini, Chris Smith and Andy Boyce moved the ball to the Penn State 38 with a minute left to play. Then, what appeared to be a sack by Penn State safety Gary Brown turned into a score for the Nitany Lions. Brown stripped the ball from Detmer at the Penn State 47 and raced 53 yards for the touchdown. Bellini had 10 catches for 124 yards while Boyce had 127 yards in receptions and Nyberg 117. Penn State finished the season ranked 14th by UPI and 15th by AP and CNN/USA Today. BYU was 18th in the UPI poll and 22nd in the others.

Game Summary:

Led by quarterback Bucky Richardson and All-America running back Darren Lewis, underdog Texas A&M was out to show it belonged among the nation's elite. The Cougars entered the game beat up. Defensive backs Tony Crutchfield and Norm Dixon weren't able to suit up and Heisman Trophy winner Ty Detmer was playing with a slight separation in his non-throwing shoulder. The second largest Holiday Bowl crowd ever (61,441) watched the Aggies march 80 yards in 13 plays to take a 7-0 lead. The Cougars tied the score on an eight-yard Detmer-to-Chris Smith touchdown pass, but after that, the game was all Texas A&M. The Aggies went on to score 23 points in the second quarter en route to a 37-7 halftime lead. With the game out of hand, the big story was William Thomas' crunching sack that separated Detmer's throwing shoulder and put him out of the game early in the third quarter. The Aggies continued to dominate by racking up nearly 200 yards rushing in the second half. Texas A&M's Richardson would go on to be named Offensive Player of the Game by piling up 344 yards in total offense. Thomas was named the top defensive player. BYU finished the season ranked 17th by UPI, 20th by CNN/USA Today and 22nd by AP. BYU had been as high as fourth prior to its first loss.

 BYU – Tuipulotu 9-yard pass from Detmer (kick failed)
 BYU – Anderson 26-yard pass from Detmer (Kauffman kick)

Game Summary:

A tipped pass that was picked off in the end zone with less than 30 seconds remaining stifled BYU's hopes of knocking off seventh-ranked Iowa in the 14th annual Holiday Bowl. Ty Detmer turned in another great performance in his last appearance as a Cougar, passing for 350 yards and two touchdowns against a team that led the Big 10 in defense and sacks. Quarterback Matt Rodgers led Iowa on a 74-yard scoring march on the game's opening drive. The Hawkeyes also scored on another long drive in the second quarter. Down 13-0, BYU finally got things rolling. Starting on the BYU 22, Detmer connected on five of six passes to move the Cougars to the Iowa nine. From there, he found fullback Peter Tuipulotu for the touchdown. The PAT failed and the halftime score was 13-6. BYU opened the fourth with an 87-yard drive that culminated with a Detmer-to-Tyler Anderson touchdown from 29 yards out. Earl Kauffman connected on the PAT to tie the score at 13. Each team threatened to score late in the fourth quarter. Iowa missed a 40-yard field goal with 4:19 left. On the game's final drive the Cougars moved inside the Iowa 20 with 33 seconds left to play, but Detmer's pass to tight end Byron Rex was tipped and picked off by Hawkeye safety Carlos James in the end zone to preserve the tie. Josh Arnold of BYU earned defensive MVP honors as BYU finished the season ranked 23rd in the AP and CNN/USA Today polls. Iowa was 10th in both polls.

Game Summary:

Kansas kicker Dan Eichloff booted a 48-yard field goal with 2:57 left to play, giving the Jayhawks a victory over BYU, the WAC tri-champion. Tom Young, who completed 15 of 31 passes for 262 yards in his first varsity start, was named Most Valuable Player for BYU. Tackle Dana Stubblefield, who had three of the six sacks on Young, won the honor for Kansas. Young had been pressed into action when Ryan Hancock suffered knee ligament damage against Utah in the final regular-season game. The Cougars took an early lead when Hema Heimuli scrambled 94 yards on the opening kick off for a score. Kansas tied the game two plays later when wide receiver Matt Gay threw a 74-yard touchdown pass to tight end Rodney Harris. BYU took a 14-9 lead in the second quarter when Jamal Willis ran 29 yards for a score. Eichloff then cut the halftime score to 14-12 with a 42-yard field goal. But the kicking game would prove the downfall as the Cougars missed a 36-yard field goal in the first quarter as well as a 31-yarder and misplayed an extra point attempt in the third quarter. Young threw 10 yards to Otis Sterling for the only score of the third quarter. Kansas quarterback Chip Hilleary then tied the game by directing a 75-yard drive in a minute and a half, scoring the touchdown and then running for a two-point conversion.

Game Summary:

The Cougars took Big 10 Co-Champion Ohio State to the wire at the 16th annual Thrifty Car Rental Holiday Bowl and came up just short. BYU had four downs and 32 seconds to tie or win the game from the OSU six-yard line, but four straight John Walsh passes into the end zone fell to the ground and OSU slipped away with the win. BYU got to the Ohio State six, 14, 22-yard lines in the second half without scoring. Meanwhile, Raymont Harris, OSU's senior halfback, battered the BYU defense all night long, scoring three touchdowns on his way to a record 235 yards rushing. Despite Harris' rushing, the Cougars managed to go to the halftime break tied at 21. Jamal Willis and Bryce Doman each collected 27-yard Walsh offerings and walk-on tight end Chad Lewis made a spectacular one-handed touchdown grab in the corner of the end zone to bail the Cougars out of a fourth-and-eight situation. After Harris' short touchdown run late in the third, BYU and OSU traded possessions until late into the fourth quarter. After forcing a rare Buckeye punt, BYU got the ball back on its own 42 with 43 seconds left. On first down, Walsh hooked up with senior co-captain Eric Drage who ran away from Buckeye defenders and advanced the ball 52 yards to the OSU six-yard-line. Walsh had 389 yards and fullback Kalin Hall rushed for 42 yards on 11 carries. Tyler Anderson returned five kicks for 145 yards, including an exciting 45-yarder. Harris and Walsh shared MVP honors.

Game Summary:

BYU fans celebrated the New Year early as the Cougars dominated Oklahoma and ended its five-year winning drought in bowl games. Quarterback John Walsh and the offense clicked on all cylinders and the Cougars' defense was dominating throughout the ESPN telecast. Walsh threw a seven-yard TD pass to Bryce Doman in the first quarter and had a 25-yard pass to Mike Johnston in the second quarter. A four-yard scoring pass to Johnston in the third quarter and a 28-yard touchdown pass to Doman in the fourth quarter vaulted Walsh's stats to 454 yards and four touchdowns on 31 of 45 passes with no interceptions against the Sooner defense which had held national champion Nebraska to 13 points. BYU's defense was dominating as it held Oklahoma to just 72 yards rushing and 163 yards passing—most of those in the last quarter. The Sooners did not cross midfield until their ninth possession on the second-to-last play of the third quarter. Jamal Willis caught seven passes for 103 yards and was chosen Offensive Player of the Game. Walsh was named MVP in what would be his final game at BYU. Guard Evan Pilgrim earned second-team All-America honors and played in the Hula Bowl along with defensive end Travis Hall. Willis and defensive end Randy Brock played in the East-West Shrine Game. BYU finished 10th in the CNN/USA Today poll and 18th in the Associated Press poll.

Game Summary:

BYU assumed the nation's longest winning streak with a come-from-behind 19-15 victory in the 61st annual Cotton Bowl. It was the first New Year's Day appearance for both 14th-ranked Kansas State and fifth-ranked BYU. More than 40,000 purple clad Kansas State supporters outnumbered the 15,000 Cougar patrons as 71,928 fans filled the Cotton Bowl. BYU got on the board first with a safety, then turned the ensuing punt into a field goal to lead 5-0 in the first quarter. The safety came when linebacker Shay Muirbrook, the game's defensive MVP, collected one of his six sacks. Kansas State took a half-time lead with a 41-yard Hail Mary pass and a successful two-point conversion with no time left on the clock.

The Wildcats increased the lead to 15-5 in the third quarter when offensive co-MVP Kevin Lockett caught a 72-yard TD. Fueled by consecutive controversial interference no-calls, quarterback Steve Sarkisian engineered two fourth-quarter drives capped by touchdown passes of 32-yards to James Dye and 28-yards to K.O. Kealaluhi. Sarkisian, an offensive co-MVP, completed 21 passes to tie a Cotton Bowl record held by Roger Staubach of Navy. KSU drove the length of the field before Cougar cornerback Omarr Morgan juggled an interception from a Wildcat slant pattern at the 12 yardline to secure the game.

Game Summary:

In BYU's first ever appearance at the Liberty Bowl, the Cougars ran into tenth-ranked Tulane that entered the New Year's Eve game with a perfect season record. The Cougars struck first on an 11-yard pass from Kevin Feterik to receiver Ben Horton. Tulane would score 20 unanswered points in the first half. With just 41 seconds remaining in the half, BYU looked to put an end to the Green Wave momentum, but came up short as Feterik was sacked by Phil Henderson for a 10-yard loss to end the half. Things didn't get much better for the Cougars in the second half, as Tulane scored its third touchdown of the game on the opening drive of the half. On its next possession, the Green Wave would strike again on a 13-yard pass from King to Jamaican Dartz to give Tulane a 34-6 lead with just over seven minutes remaining in the third quarter. On its first drive of the final period, BYU scored for the first time since the 8:49 mark in the first half on an Aaron Cupp three-yard run. Tulane answered with a six-play drive that covered 76 yards, giving the Green Wave a 41-13 lead with just over nine minutes remaining in the game. Trailing by 28 midway through the fourth quarter, BYU finally crossed the Tulane 20-yard line for the first time since the first half and went on to score 14 unanswered points before time expired. Feterik completed an 18-yard pass to Cupp, while Junior Mahe capped off the BYU scoring with a three-yard plunge into the endzone.

Game Summary:

BYU squared off against Marshall in the first meeting between the two schools at the Cougars' first-ever appearance in the third annual Motor City Bowl. The Cougars scored first on a field goal by Owen Pochman with 1:58 remaining in the first quarter. That score was set up by a pair of 20-plus yard receptions by Donny Atuaia and Jonathan Pittman. In the second quarter, Marshall drove the ball down to the BYU five-yard line, but failed to convert as a 22-yard field goal attempt by Billy Malashevich missed wide to the right. On the Herd's next possession, Chad Pennington put Marshall on the board with a 30-yard touchdown pass to Doug Chapman. On BYU's ensuing drive, Feterik connected with Margin Hooks for a 67-yard pass play that took the Cougars all the way to the nine-yard line. However, the Cougars couldn't capitalize inside the red zone and Feterik suffered a collarbone injury off a blind-side corner blitz. Pochman, who had connected on 18 of 25 attempts in the regular season, missed wide left on his field goal attempt. Feterik attempted to play in the second half, but left the game midway in the third quarter when Freshman Bret Engemann took the QB controls. Just before the end of the third quarter, Marshall struck a big play when Chapman rushed 87 yards for a touchdown. Marshall was given an opportunity to score in the fourth quarter as Rogers Beckett picked off an Engemann pass and ran it back to the BYU one-yard line. Chapman, to cap off his MVP performance, scored Marshall's final touchdown. The Cougars missed a final chance to score when Brian Gray had a clear path to the end zone, but dropped a sure interception.

Game Summary:

The Cougars ended the 2001 season facing off against Conference USA Champion Louisville, who, like BYU, was recognized for its offensive accomplishments during the 2001 campaign. The Cardinals, led by quarterback Dave Ragone, took an early lead, scoring on a one-yard dive by Henry Miller that was set up by Zek Parker's 70-yard return of the opening kickoff. The remainder of the quarter featured tough defensive play as both teams struggled to get anything going offensively. Midway through the second quarter the Cougar offense came alive, driving to the Louisville 10-yard line before dipping into Gary Crowton's bag of tricks. Quarterback Brandon Doman dropped back and rolled right as if to pass, then turned to his left and threw the ball to Dustin Rykert on a tackle-eligible play. All 6-foot-7, 305 pounds of offensive tackle outran the Cardinal defense to the corner and rumbled 10 yards to the end zone to tie the game 7-7. Just before the half Crowton's daring play calling, which had paid off all year long, proved costly for the Cougars when a fake punt just before halftime was stuffed at the line of scrimmage and gave the Cardinals the ball at the BYU 40. Louisville just managed to take a 14-7 lead into the break, scoring with only 14 seconds left. Hoping to get back into the game in the second period, the Cougars' offense continued struggling and only managed a 29-yard field goal with just over seven minutes remaining in the third quarter. Louisville contained the Cougar attack for the remainder of the game while reaching the end zone twice more themselves. Although Louisville went on to win 28-10, BYU's defense played one of its best games of the season, holding the Cardinal's high-powered offense to 228 yards passing and only 58 yards rushing. Despite losing to end the season, Crowton's first campaign can be called nothing short of a success as he took BYU to a 12-2 mark that opened eyes across the country and raised expectations for the future.

Tackle Dustin Rykert rambles into the endzone for BYU's first score. This piece of trickery help the Cougars even the score at 7-7 in the second quarter.
