OUR MISSION

BYU seeks to develop students of faith, intellect, and character who have the skills and the desire to continue learning and to serve others throughout their lives. Likewise, the mission of the BYU football program is, "To be the flag bearer of Brigham Young University through football excellence, embracing truth, tradition, virtue and honor as a beacon to the world."

INNER STRENGTH

A shared desire to "seek learning, even by study and also by faith" (D&C 88:118) knits BYU into a unique educational community. The intellectual range of a BYU education is the result of an ambitious commitment to pursue truth. Brigham Young University has always cared as much about strong moral character as about great mental capability.

SCHEDULE & OPPONENTS

BYU is a national program with opportunities to play against other top schools in the country. BYU has nonconference victories over top-ranked Miami (Fla.), Notre Dame, Oklahoma, Texas, Oregon, Washington, Washington State, Penn State, California, Texas A&M, Virginia, Mississippi State, Arizona State, Arizona, UCLA, Kansas State and Syracuse.

NATIONAL TV EXPOSURE

With 74 nationally and regionally televised games over the last seven years, BYU football is in the spotlight. Thanks to a strong national following, a winning tradition, and the Cougars' high-profile future schedule, the national exposure of BYU Football is sure to increase. It's little wonder BYU Football has produced four of the top-10 largest audiences in ESPN history.

10 REASONS WHY COUGAR FOOTBALL IS A GREAT CHOICE

LIFELONG LEARNING AND SERVICE

By "entering to learn" and continuing to learn as they "go forth to serve," BYU students strengthen not only themselves - they "also bring strength to others in the tasks of home and family life, social relationships, civic duty, and service to mankind." BYU should inspire students to keep alive their curiosity and prepare them to continue learning throughout their lives.

FAN & COMMUNITY SUPPORT

Few universities have a fan base as loyal, dedicated and die-hard as BYU. Cougar fans are some of the greatest fans on earth. Since 1982 BYU has consistently ranked among the top five in attendance in the West, ranking No. 3 in 2008. BYU enters 2009 having sold out its last 12 home games. With its affiliation with the LDS Church, BYU also has a strong national and international following.

BYU—A PLACE FOR WINNERS

BYU is home to 74 All-Americans with 88 All-America citations, five College Football Hall of Fame players, a College Football Hall of Fame coach, the 1990 Heisman Trophy winner, the 2001 Doak Walker Award winner, four Davey O'Brien Award winners, two Outland Trophy winners, seven Sammy Baugh Trophy winners and a two-time National Coach of the Year winner.

OUTSTANDING FACILITIES

BYU football is home to clearly some of the nation's top football facilities. Upgrades include a two-story strength and conditioning center, the nation's largest indoor practice facility, football offices and team meeting rooms, leading edge athletic training facilities, football hall of fame and an upgraded game-day locker room at the 64,045-seat LaVell Edwards Stadium.

PRO FOOTBALL PREPARATION

BYU football is a great place to launch an NFL career. Over the past 30 years BYU has had 79 players taken in the NFL draft, including 21 this decade. BYU also has had nine first-round draft picks. This year 18 former Cougars are on 13 NFL rosters - which is once again one of the most by any college team in the West.

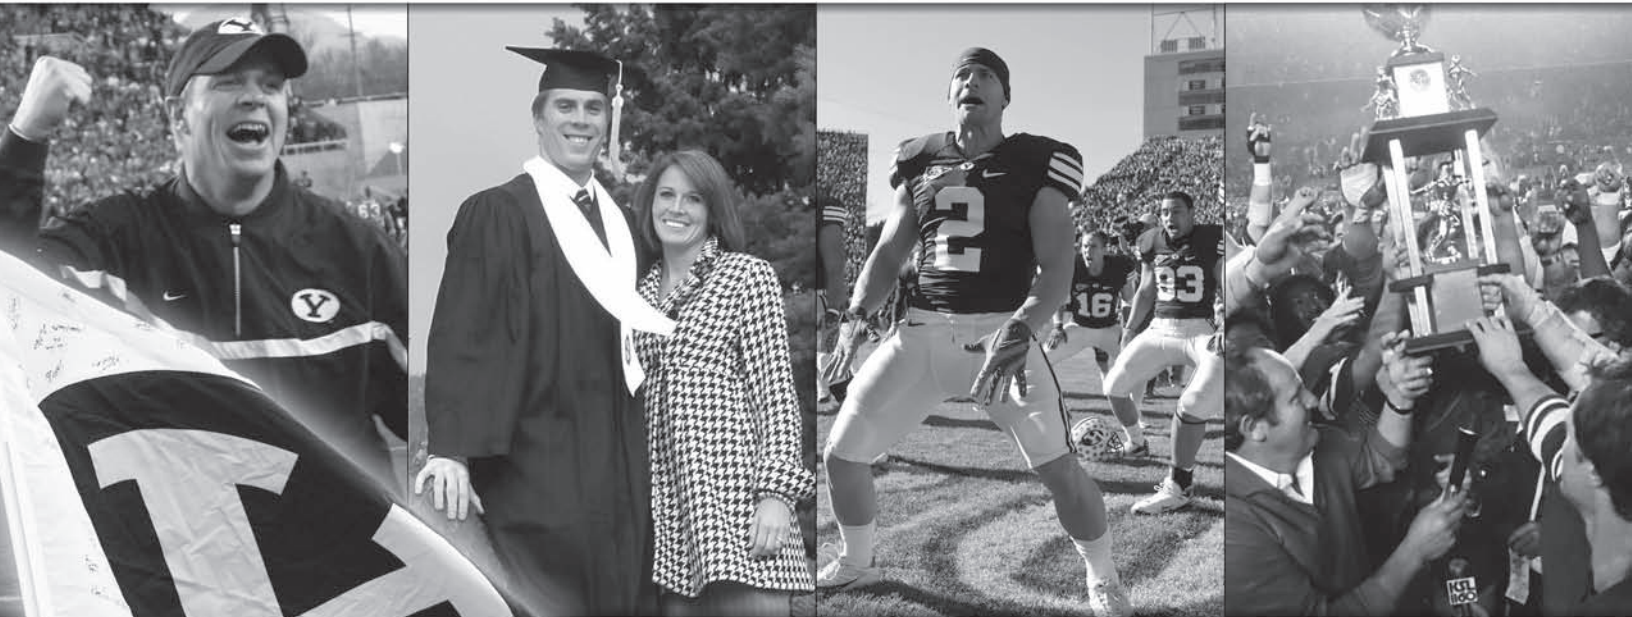

TRADITION & NATIONAL HONORS

Since 1974 BYU has played in 27 bowl games, won a National Championship, claimed 22 Conference Championships and earned 17 national top-25 finishes, including four top-10 finishes. BYU has established itself as one of the top football programs in the West, winning nearly 80 percent of its conference games and 70 percent of all its games since 1972.

BYU provides an opportunity for student-athletes to grow mentally, physically and spiritually. The mission of the nation's largest private institution is to "to assist individuals in their quest for perfection and eternal life." To this end, BYU seeks to develop students of faith, intellect, and character who have the skills and the desire to continue learning and to serve others throughout their lives. Likewise, the mission of the BYU football program is, "To be the flag bearer of Brigham Young University through football excellence, embracing truth, tradition, virtue and honor as a beacon to the world."

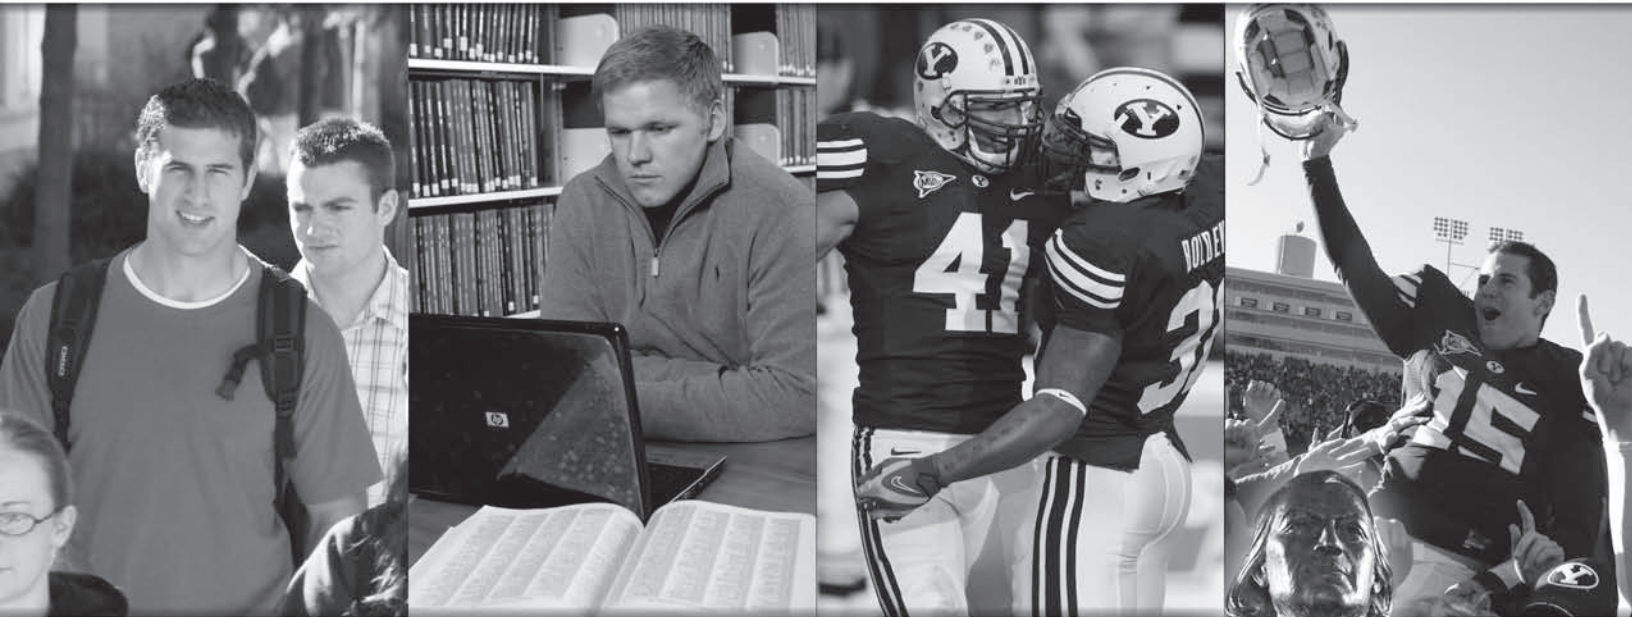

DID YOU KNOW ...

- BYU's honor code requires a drug and alcohol-free commitment from its students, helping them to focus on spiritual, academic and athletic excellence.
- Year after year BYU leads the Mountain West in the number of national and conference academic honors.
- BYU led other MWC schools by a significant margin in Academic All-Conference honors with 72 in the fall of 2008 -- a total of 21 student-athletes more than the second-highest institution.
- In 2008, three BYU football players earned Academic All-America First Team honors. The only team in the nation with more was Penn State with four.
- BYU student-athletes learn personal strength and commitment through living with honor and through serving others.
- BYU has an outstanding academic reputation.
- BYU maintains a certified NCAA CHAMPS Life Skills Program.
- BYU has a full-time academic advisement staff and tutors.

SPIRITUALLY STRENGTHENING, INTELLECTUALLY ENLARGING AND CHARACTER BUILDING

The founding charge of BYU is to teach every subject with the Spirit. It is not intended “that all of the faculty should be categorically teaching religion constantly in their classes, but . . . that every . . . teacher in this institution would keep his or her subject matter bathed in the light and color of the restored gospel.” This ideal arises from the common purpose of all education at BYU—to build testimonies of the restored gospel of Jesus Christ. A shared desire to “seek learning, even by study and also by faith” (D&C 88:118) knits BYU into a unique educational community. The students, faculty, and staff in this community possess a remarkable diversity of gifts, but they all think of themselves as brothers and sisters seeking together to master the academic disciplines while remaining mastered by the higher claims of discipleship to the Savior.

A spiritually strengthening education warms and enlightens students by the bright fire of their teachers' faith while enlarging their minds with knowledge. It also makes students responsible for developing their own testimonies by strenuous effort.

The intellectual range of a BYU education is the result of an ambitious commitment to pursue truth. Members of the BYU community rigorously study academic subjects in the light of divine truth. An eternal perspective shapes not only how students are taught but what they are taught.

Because it seeks to educate students who are renowned for what they are as well as for what they know, Brigham Young University has always cared as much about strong moral character as about great mental capability. Consequently, a BYU education should reinforce such moral virtues as integrity, reverence, modesty, self-control, courage, compassion, and industry. Beyond this, BYU aims not merely to teach students a code of ethics but to help them become partakers of the divine nature. It aspires to develop in its students character traits that flow from the long-term application of gospel teachings to their lives.

The development of character is so important that BYU “has no justification for its existence unless it builds character, creates and develops faith, and makes men and women of strength and courage, fortitude, and service.” The BYU experience should therefore strengthen character.

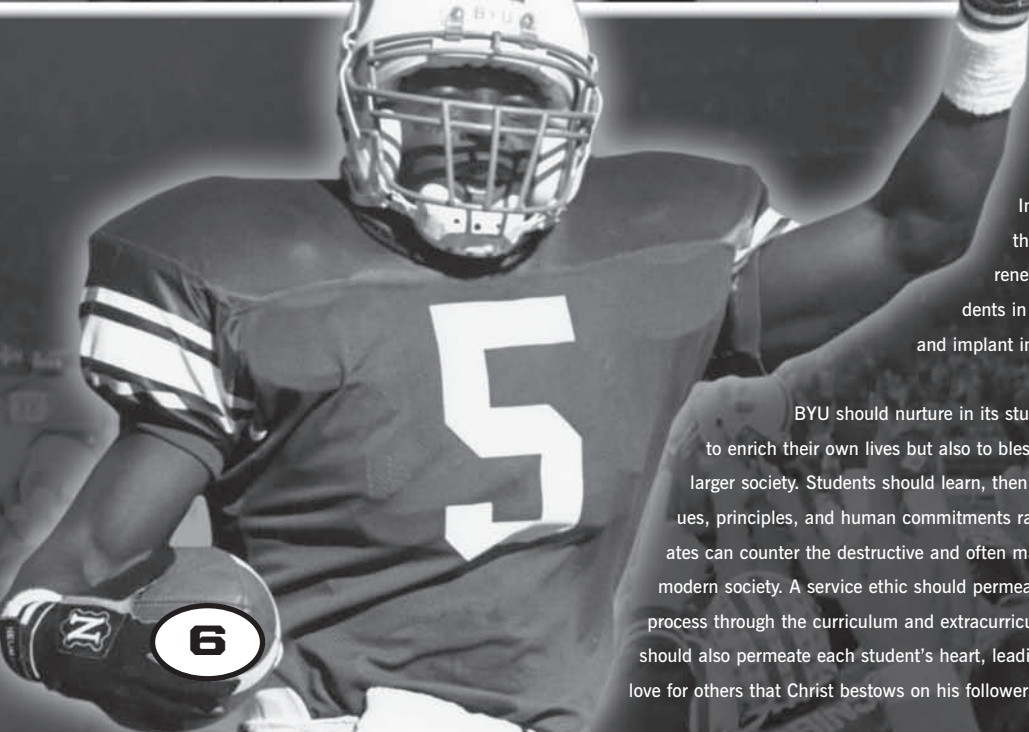

LIFELONG LEARNING AND SERVICE

LIFELONG LEARNING AND SERVICE BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY

By "entering to learn" and continuing to learn as they "go forth to serve," BYU students strengthen not only themselves - they "also bring strength to others in the tasks of home and family life, social relationships, civic duty, and service to mankind.

ENTER TO LEARN GO FORTH TO SERVE

"BYU should inspire students to keep alive their curiosity and prepare them to continue learning throughout their lives. BYU should produce careful readers, prayerful thinkers, and active participants in solving family, professional, religious, and social problems. A BYU diploma is a beginning, not an end, pointing the way to a habit of constant learning.

In an era of rapid changes in technology and information, the knowledge and skills learned this year may require renewal the next. Therefore, a BYU degree should educate students in how to learn, teach them that there is much still to learn, and implant in them a love of learning.

BYU should nurture in its students the desire to use their knowledge and skills not only to enrich their own lives but also to bless their families, their communities, the Church, and the larger society. Students should learn, then demonstrate, that their ultimate allegiance is to higher values, principles, and human commitments rather than to mere self-interest. By doing this, BYU graduates can counter the destructive and often materialistic self-centeredness and worldliness that afflict modern society. A service ethic should permeate every part of BYU's activities—from the admissions process through the curriculum and extracurricular experiences to the moment of graduation. This ethic should also permeate each student's heart, leading him or her to the ultimate wellspring of charity—the love for others that Christ bestows on his followers.

BYU—A PLACE FOR WINNERS

BYU is home to 46 All-America honorees who have earned 56 citations, five College Football Hall of Fame players, a College Football Hall of Fame coach, the 1990 Heisman Trophy winner, the 2001 Doak Walker Award winner, four Davey O'Brien Award winners, two Outland Trophy winners, seven Sammy Baugh Trophy winners and a two-time National Coach of the Year winner. Off the field, the Cougars have also excelled. BYU has 14 NCAA Post-Graduate Scholars, including Kellen Fowler in 2008, and has had 28 Academic All-Americans, including three in 2008, who have earned a total of 32 Academic All-America citations. Truly, BYU is a place for winners.

DID YOU KNOW ...

- BYU is one of only five schools in the nation that have had a player win the Heisman Trophy for the nation's top player, Outland Trophy for the nation's best interior lineman, Davey O'Brien Award for the nation's best quarterback and Doak Walker Award for the nation's top running back, joining Texas, Ohio State, Penn State and Iowa.
- BYU and Ohio State are the only programs in the nation who have had players win the Heisman Trophy, Outland Trophy, Davey O'Brien Award and Doak Walker Award in the past 20 years.
- BYU players have won the following national awards a combined 15 times: Heisman Trophy, Outland Trophy, Doak Walker Award, Sammy Baugh Trophy, Davey O'Brien Award.
- Former BYU head coach LaVell Edwards ranks as the sixth all-time winningest football coach, posting a record of 257-101-3 over 29 seasons.
- BYU has had a top-10 finisher in the Heisman Trophy voting 12 different times.

SCHEDULE & OPPONENTS

SCHEDULE & OPPONENTS

BYU traditionally schedules a challenging, well-balanced and nationally recognized nonconference schedule. Over the years, BYU has earned non-conference victories over top-ranked Miami (Fla.), Notre Dame, Oklahoma, Texas, Oregon, Washington, Washington State, Penn State, California, Texas A&M, Virginia, Mississippi State, Arizona State, Arizona, UCLA, Kansas State and Syracuse -- just to name a few. Continuing the tradition of scheduling nationally recognized programs, the Cougars will play nationally ranked Oklahoma and Florida State in 2009 as well as Tulane, Utah State and a strong Mountain West Conference slate including last year's No. 2 Utah and No. 7 TCU.

FAN & COMMUNITY SUPPORT

Few universities have a fan base as loyal, dedicated and die-hard as BYU. Cougar fans are some of the greatest fans on earth. Since 1982 BYU has consistently ranked among the top five in attendance in the West. In 2008, the Cougars produced an average of 64,102 fans per game -- that's an average of more than 100 percent of capacity, which ranked 27th nationally. All totaled, 384,613 fans attended games in Edwards Stadium last season, ranking No. 3 in the West in total attendance. Cougar fans have made BYU home games consistent sellouts. Entering the 2009 season, the previous 12 outings at Edwards Stadium have generated full-capacity crowds. With a large alumni base and with its affiliation with the LDS Church, BYU has a strong national and international following that supports the Cougars both home and away.

TRADITION & NATIONAL HONORS

For BYU football, the past 34 years have been packed full of championships, bowl games and national honors. Since 1974 BYU has played in 27 bowl games, won a National Championship, claimed 22 Conference Championships and earned 17 national top-25 finishes, including four top-10 finishes. Since the 1970s, BYU has established itself as one of the top football programs in the West. The Cougars have won nearly 80 percent of their conference games and 70 percent of all their games since 1972. The tradition continues under head coach Bronco Mendenhall. Over the last three seasons only five teams have won more games as BYU has achieved a 32-7 record over that span. The Cougars have won Mountain West Conference titles two of the past three seasons and have been to four straight bowl games with Las Vegas Bowl victories in 2006 and 2007 over Oregon and UCLA.

THIS IS COUGAR FOOTBALL

2009 COUGAR FOOTBALL SEASON PREVIEW

Coming off a nationally ranked 10-3 season in 2008, the Cougars are hungry to build on the many successes they have achieved under the direction of head coach Bronco Mendenhall. Since taking over a BYU program in 2005 that had not enjoyed a winning season since 2001, Mendenhall has guided BYU to four straight bowl invitations, two outright Mountain West Conference championships and consistent national top-25 rankings.

BYU is one of just eight teams to be ranked in the final USA Today Coaches Poll each of the past three seasons, and one of just nine programs to be ranked in the final BCS Standings and Associated Press Top 25 during that span. BYU has posted a 32-7 overall record the past three years, a record only surpassed by five teams—Boise State (35-4), Florida (34-6), Oklahoma (34-7), USC (34-5) and Ohio State (33-5).

The Cougars hope to build on the consistency achieved in the program under Mendenhall. BYU is one of only seven teams to win 10 or more games each of the last three seasons, something not accomplished in Provo since the glory years of the LaVell Edwards era from 1983-85.

With an experienced senior class returning in 2009, BYU should once again be a top-25 caliber team and one of the favorites to win the MWC title. The Cougars will play a strong schedule that includes three teams that finished in the top seven last year—No. 2 Utah, No. 5 Oklahoma and No. 7 TCU—as well as No. 21 Florida State.

“In addition to our MWC games, we have a strong nonconference schedule with teams from the Big 12, ACC, Conference USA and the WAC,” Mendenhall said. “We look forward to playing these games as we continue to work on improving our program and building on our past achievements.”

Among 18 offensive and 24 defensive lettermen returning, BYU will have 12 offensive and defensive starters back from last year's 10-3 Las Vegas Bowl team as well as eight other players with starting experience.

OFFENSIVE OVERVIEW

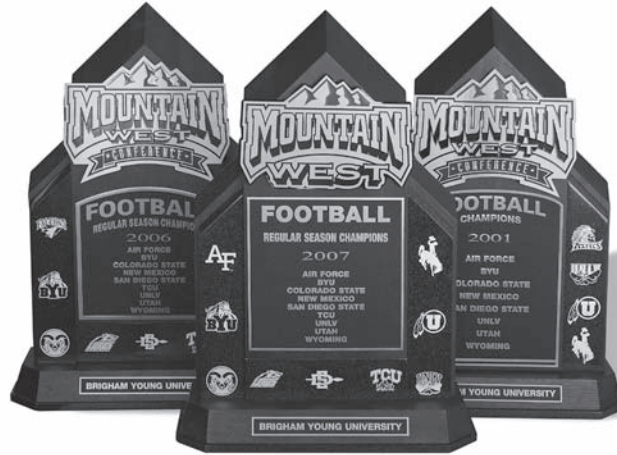

Over the years, BYU has developed a national reputation for being an offensive power. The Cougars were the nation's sixth-ranked passing offense last season at 310.38 yards per game and have been ranked in the top six in the country in three of Mendenhall's four seasons in Provo.

All of the team's key internal ball handlers on the offensive unit return in 2009. The Cougar offense will be led for the third-straight year by senior all-conference quarterback Max Hall. Like Hall, all-conference junior running back Harvey Unga and All-American senior tight end Dennis Pitta are back for their third season starting together, while senior reserve tight end Andrew George gives BYU another quality inside playmaker.

Including Freshman All-American left tackle Matt Reynolds, four offensive starters from 2008 return while six starters were lost to graduation and one, All-American wide receiver Austin Collie, to the NFL Draft. Five other Cougars return with starting experience, including the much-anticipated return of speedy sophomore receiver McKay Jacobson, who is back from a two-year mission. Backup Brenden Gaskins returns for his senior season. He appeared in six games as a sophomore and three games last year as Hall's understudy. Another player who could have an impact in 2009 is Utah State transfer Riley Nelson, who joins the team for fall camp after serving an LDS Church mission. Nelson earned being a little banged up last season, Unga enters fall camp in full health, poised to play a strong role in the Cougar offensive attack once again. Unga has totaled 2,380 yards over his two previous seasons along with 24 touchdowns while adding 964 yards and eight scores catching the ball. Sophomore Bryan Kariya impressed as a true freshman last year earning more and more playing time as the season progressed. He played in 12 games and averaged 5.6 yards a carry on his 12 attempts last season. Coming on strong during the spring was sophomore running back J.J. Di Luigi, who played in 11 games last season. Di Luigi is expected to see an increased role on the team in 2009. Freshman Malosi Te'o also turned some heads during spring practice after two years of missionary service.

WIDE RECEIVER

The Cougars will be without both starting wideouts from last year, most notably All-American Austin Collie who led the nation with 1,538 receiving yards in 2008. While Collie declared as a junior for the NFL Draft, the Cougars also lost through graduation the sure-handed Michael Reed on the other side. Reed was third on the team with 589 yards last year, including a season-high 117 yards in BYU's bowl game. The losses, however, are tempered by the much-anticipated return of Texas-product McKay Jacobson, who totaled 528 receiving yards and three lineman will step up to the challenge of replacing last year's starters. That will be the biggest question for an offense that should once again rank among the very best in the nation.

QUARTERBACK

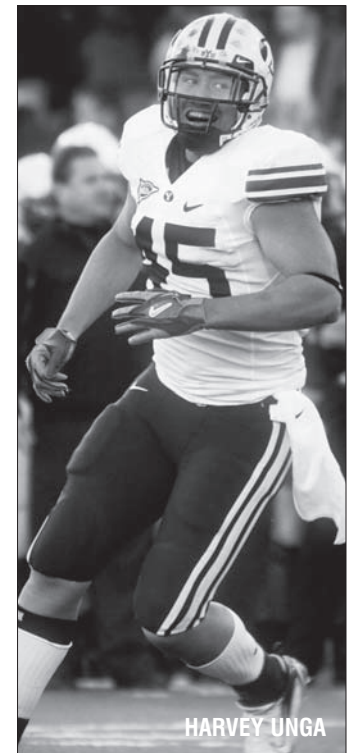

Max Hall, who has been among the nation's top quarterbacks the past two seasons, returns for his senior cam-the starting job as a true freshman at Utah State in 2006.

RUNNING BACK

Two-year starter Harvey Unga will be a junior in 2009 and headline the Cougar backfield. The bruising 239-pound back has posted consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons while earning freshman and sophomore All-America accolades. After touchdowns as a freshman in 2006 prior to serving an LDS Church mission. The speedy receiver also served as a returner as a freshman, returning his first-ever punt for a 77-yard touchdown. Jacobson was held out of most of spring ball while nursing a hamstring injury back to full health, but he will be ready to contribute in the fall. Sophomore O'Neill Chambers and junior Luke Ashworth are also expected to play significant roles. The 6-foot-2 Chambers served as the team's primary return specialist last year and played in all 13 games, including one start in Reed's absence. Ashworth, a two-year letterman, earned two starts last season while playing in all 13 games. Junior two-year letterman Tyler Kozlowski and sophomore Spencer Hafoka are among the other receivers who will compete to be part of the receiver rotation in 2009. Hafoka wasn't able to participate in spring practices after being quarantined with influenza.

MCKAY JACOBSON

BYU's tight end position may be the strongest in the country. All-American Dennis Pitta, the lone unanimous pick on the All-MWC First Team offense last year, is back and poised to improve upon his stellar junior campaign. Despite being slowed by an injury in BYU's final three games, Pitta totaled 1,083 yards on 83 catches last season while totaling six touchdowns. He has returned to full health and will be a dangerous weapon for Max Hall, whether over the middle or deep in the secondary. Andrew George is a starter talent who allows the Cougars to effectively utilize two tight end sets and not miss a beat when Pitta needs to catch his breath. He totaled 219 yards last year with six touchdown grabs. Waiting in the wings, redshirt freshman Braden Brown may earn some time on the field. A 6-foot-6, 260-pound athlete, Brown could also be used as a blocking back in the Cougar attack. Freshman Mike Muehlmann returned from his missionary service and will look to contribute after having a very strong spring. The Cougars also bring in several talented freshman tight ends in 2009, including the nation's No. 4 prospect Richard Wilson.

OFFENSIVE LINE

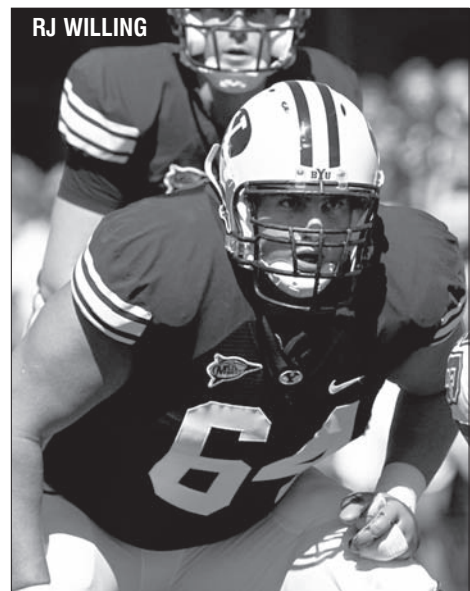

A key to BYU's offensive success will be the play of its line. Freshman All-American Matt Reynolds returns but the four other starters will need to be replaced in 2009. Gone are experienced starters Dallas Reynolds, Rey Feinga, Travis Bright and David Oswald. Reynolds (CFN All-America Third Team), Feinga (SI.com All-America honorable mention) and Bright were each an all-conference performer with Reynolds and Feinga first-team selections and Bright on the second team. While the four starters will be missed, BYU's coaches are confident in the players who will be taking over in the trenches. Senior center R.J. Willing is a three-year letterman with significant game experience, including nine starts. Sophomore Terence Brown (right guard), junior Jason Speredon (left guard) and junior Nick Alletto (right tackle) have parlayed their previous letter-winning experience into promising spring-practice efforts in first-unit roles. Reynolds, meanwhile, continues to hold down the left tackle spot where he allowed only one sack last year protecting Hall's blindside. While the Cougars lost junior two-year letterman Garrett Reden due to injury, junior transfer Jesse Taufi, who redshirted last season, and red-shirt freshman Braden Hansen showed during the spring that they are talents able to contribute at both the tackle and guard positions. Additional competition is expected during fall camp from returning missionaries Houston Reynolds and Ryan Freeman as well as some promising high school recruits.

DEFENSIVE OVERVIEW

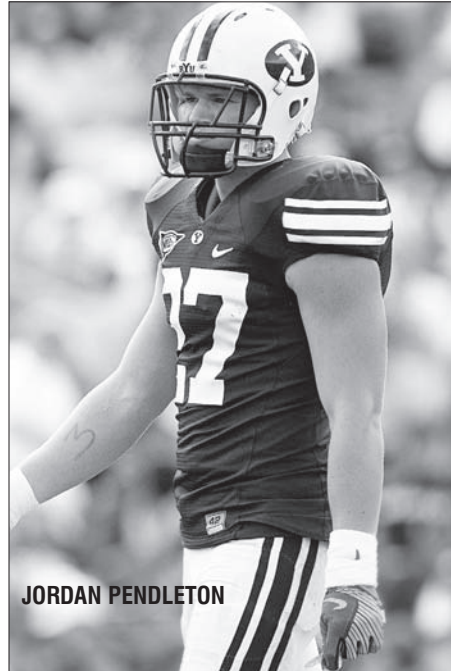

While BYU has a well-earned reputation of being one of the nation's top offenses, the Cougar defense has also achieved results placing it among the best in the safety and occasional starter Andrew Rich could fill the other safety spot. At the corners, Brandon Bradley, who started twice last year while seeing significant time in 12 games as a sophomore, could be the full-time starter at boundary corner, while the team hopes field-corner starter Brandon Howard is able to return after missing spring ball due to personal circumstances. The competition in the secondary will pick up in the fall with the addition of several talented junior college transfers and some Coleby Clawson all returning for their senior seasons. Bauman led the team with 108 tackles last year while also earning first-team Academic All-America accolades. Doman added 60 tackles, missing one game due to an appendicitis surgery, while Clawson took over the starting role in the third game of the year and responded with a team-leading 11.5 tackles for loss among his 55 tackles on the year. Gone is second-leading tackler and second-team all-conference performer David Nixon, who nation. During back-to-back MWC Championship seasons in 2006 and 2007, BYU's defense ranked in the top 10 nationally in fewest points allowed and was also rated the nation's No. 9 rush defense and No. 10 overall defense in 2007. Last year BYU tied an MWC record by not allowing an opponent to score for 11 consecutive quarters, including a 59-0 victory over UCLA. After finishing No. 39 in points allowed last season, this year's defense has the potential to again rank among the top 10.

The 2009 defense will mix a heavy blend of experience with the exciting addition of some talented newcomers. Eight starters and three others with starting experience are slated to return. The MWC's all-time sacks leader Jan Jorgensen will headline a defensive front potentially returning all three defensive-line regulars as well as three of the four starting linebackers. In addition, the defense returns athletic linebacker Vic So'oto, a starter who was sidelined by injury after only two games last season, and senior inside linebacker Terrance Hooks, who is back to full health and ready to make a difference after limited action last year. With the 6-foot-2, 228-pound Jordan Pendleton moving from defensive back to the outside linebacker position vacated by David Nixon, the Cougar linebacking corps will be a versatile and athletic group in 2009.

In the secondary, the team will see some new faces. Starting cornerback Scott Johnson will move to free highly touted high school standouts. With its experienced returners and some strong new talent, BYU's defense should be improved in 2009.

DEFENSIVE LINE

All-America candidate Jan Jorgensen is already the MWC's all-time sacks leader with one full season remaining. The Lombardi and Ted Hendricks awards candidate brings three years of starting experience at left end to a defensive front that also returns starting right end Brett Denney and starting nose tackle Russell Tialavea. Tialavea announced over the summer his decision to serve a two-year LDS Church mission and will leave at the conclusion of the 2009 season. Jorgensen will look to add to his 24 career sacks as the first-team all-conference performer anchors BYU's experienced front line. He and fellow senior starter Denney will receive support from Matt Putnam, who had a strong freshman season with 27 tackles, three sacks and an interception last year. Athletic linebacker Vic So'oto could factor in on the defensive line as well, while Junior Rick Wolfley, a two-year letterman, will help man the middle of the line for the Cougars while several newcomers will compete for time on the field.

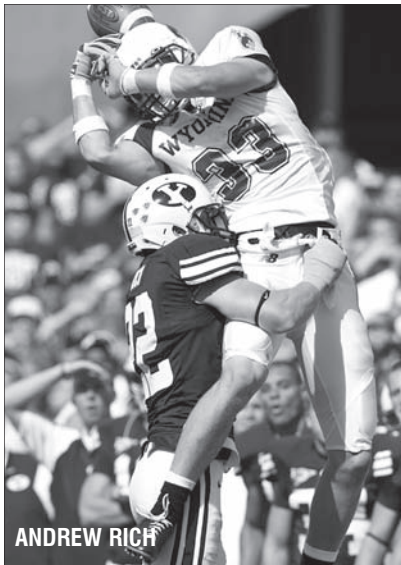

LINEBACKERS

leaves as the MWC's career tackle-for-loss leader with 43. Filling his spot during spring ball was the 6-foot-2, 228-pound sophomore Jordan Pendleton, who moved from defensive back to the strong-side linebacker position. Pendleton has all the physical tools to excel as a playmaker at the position as he adjusts from playing in the secondary. Joining this group is the athletic Vic So'oto, who started in Clawson's spot last season before suffering a season-ending injury in the second game. The Cougars will also see help from seniors Terrance Hooks and Dan Van Sweden as well as juniors Grant Nelson and Jordan Atkinson among others. Hooks, who returned from injury last year to see some limited action late in the season, had a good spring and could become a mainstay in the middle as a senior in 2009. Freshman tight end recruits Richard Wilson and Remington Peck will also have the opportunity to lend their abilities to the defensive side of the ball in 2009 with the team's current strength at the tight end position. In total, the Cougar linebacking corps will be a versatile and athletic group with good experience.

SECONDARY

In the secondary, the team will see some new faces with starting safeties Kellen Fowler and David Tafuna lost to graduation and starting field corner Brandon Howard lost due to personal circumstances. Starting boundary cornerback Scott Johnson moved to free safety in the spring where he teamed with last year's occasional starter Andrew Rich at the other safety spot. Johnson has excellent leadership skills and will quarterback the secondary as a senior in 2009. Last year he was fifth on the team with 59 tackles despite missing nearly three full games due to an injury. Rich, meanwhile, started in three games last year and appeared in all 13 games as a significant reserve at both safety and corner. Brandon Bradley could man the boundary corner after starting twice last year as a sophomore while seeing significant action in 12 games. Redshirt freshman Garrett Nicholson showed during spring ball that he is up to the task of being a regular on the field. Among the other returning secondary players that could challenge for playing time include sophomore safeties Shiloah Te'o and Travis Uale, who both contributed on special teams last year as freshman, as well as sophomore corner Steven Thomas and junior converted corner Landon Jaussi. Last year Jaussi played receiver. With the anticipated additions in the fall of several talented junior college corners, including Lee Aguirre and Brian Logan, and several highly touted prep standouts such as the nation's No. 10- and No. 23-rated safety recruits in Craig Bills and Jay Galea'i, respectively, the secondary has the potential to be a stronger unit overall in 2009.

BRANDON BRADLEY

SPECIAL TEAMS

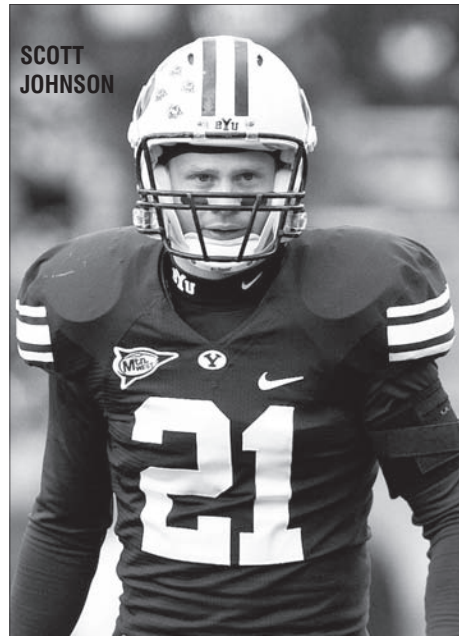

Junior kicker Mitch Payne returns for his third season as BYU's primary field goal and PAT kicker. Last year he made 10-of-14 field goals and converted 54-of-56 PATs after identical field-goal numbers in 2007 along with a 43-of-45 success rate on PATs as a freshman. He made a career-best 46-yard field goal last year while making 3-of-4 attempts from longer than 40 yards. With freshman kicker Justin Sorensen departed for an LDS Church mission, Payne will again assume the kickoff duties that Sorensen provided in 2008. Payne averaged 60.7 yards per kickoff as a freshman. BYU was the MWC's top punting team last year with C.J. Santiago putting his foot to the ball. With Santiago gone, the Cougars will look to either sophomore Tyler Holt or returning missionary Riley Stephenson. Holt impressed during spring practice drills and Stephenson returns with from a mission with the talent to earn the job. Deep snapper John Pace is a senior and a two-year letterman. In the return department, O'Neill Chambers is back as the team's primary return specialist. Last year BYU ranked No. 9 nationally in kickoff returns (24.6 yards). Receiver Luke Ashworth and cornerback Garrett Nicholson will also contribute as returners in 2009.

The Cougars will play 11 of 12 games on a Saturday this season, with the lone exception being a Friday night contest with Utah State on Oct. 2. BYU will start the 2009 season on Sept. 5 as part of the second-annual ESPN Kickoff Week against nationally ranked Oklahoma in a historic game being played at the Dallas Cowboys' new stadium in Arlington, Texas. After facing Oklahoma, the Cougars will travel to New Orleans to play at Tulane in the Louisiana Superdome on Sept. 12. BYU will play its home opener the next week against Florida State on Sept. 19 in a 5 p.m. MT kick. In addition to Florida State and Utah State, the Cougars' home schedule played at LaVell Edwards Stadium, where they have gone unbeaten for three straight seasons for the first time in school history, includes last year's No. 2-ranked

SCOTT JOHNSON

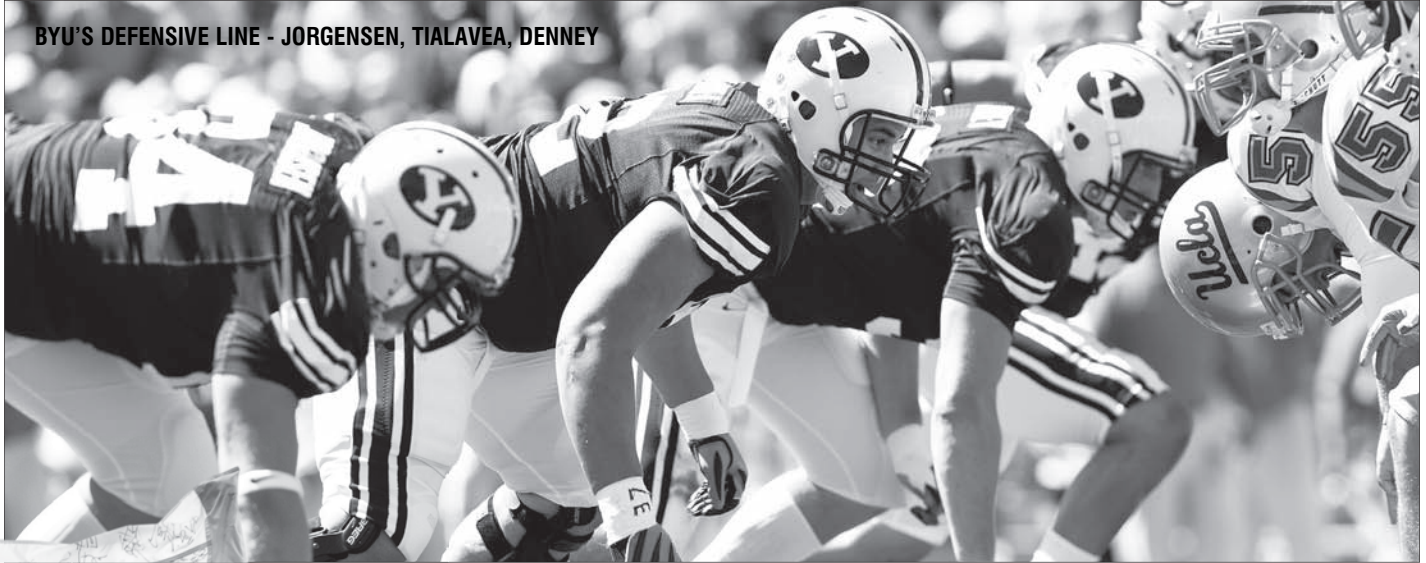

Utah Utes and No. 7-rated TCU Horned Frogs. The Cougars play six bowl teams in all during the 2009 season. BYU games will be televised on VERSUS, CBS College Sports Network and the ESPN networks twice apiece while seven contests will be broadcast on The Mtn., including a simulcast of the BYU-Utah game on Nov. 28 with CBS C.

BYU is one of only nine schools to be nationally ranked in final BCS standings each of the past three seasons (joining Oklahoma, Texas, Florida, USC, Ohio State, Boise State, Boston College and Virginia Tech). Final BCS standings are released prior to the bowls. BYU finished No. 16 in BCS in 2008. BYU finished No. 17 in BCS in 2007. BYU finished No. 20 in BCS in 2006.

BRONCO MENDENHALL

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY'S 14TH HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

During his four seasons as the head coach at Brigham Young, Bronco Mendenhall has returned the Cougars to the ranks of the nation's top teams. Taking over a BYU program in 2005 that had not enjoyed a winning season since 2001, Mendenhall has guided his teams to four straight bowl invitations, two outright Mountain West Conference championships and consistent national top-25 rankings.

After a 6-6 season in 2005, Mendenhall's Cougars have earned a 32-7 record over the past three seasons, including two Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl victories in 2006 and 2007. Only five teams in the last three years have won more games than BYU. Boasting a 38-13 overall record, Mendenhall has coached his team to 20 wins in the last 23 games to help the Cougars become one of only nine teams to be ranked in the final BCS standings in each of the last three seasons.

In his first season, Mendenhall led BYU to a 6-5 regular-season record and earned an invitation to the Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl -- the team's first postseason bowl appearance in three seasons. Over the next two seasons, he coached the Cougars to back-to-back 11-win seasons and claimed consecutive MWC titles with a combined record of 16-0 against league opponents.

In 2008, BYU posted a 10-2 regular season to achieve three straight 10-win seasons for only the third time in school history. In doing so, Mendenhall's teams became the first in Cougar history to go unbeaten at home over three consecutive seasons. While defending its home turf in 2008, BYU produced many memorable moments, including a 59-0 win over 2007 Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl opponent UCLA.

From his first day as a head coach, Mendenhall has stressed the importance of winning at home. After finishing 3-3 in Provo during the 2005 season, Mendenhall and the Cougars have registered perfect 6-0 records each of the past three seasons. In 2006, the Cougars finished the season as the most dominate home team in the country, and the most dominate home team in BYU football history, winning games by an average 35.16 points per game. In 2008 BYU won at home by 30.16 points per game. In 2007, the Cougars allowed just 11.3 points per game, marking the best scoring defense effort since the 1988 season when BYU held opponents to just 10.2 points per game.

The Cougars have received four straight bowl invitations for the first time since a string of 17 consecutive bowls invitations from 1978 through 1994. Mendenhall is the only coach in BYU football history to take his first four teams to a bowl game. In fact, with BYU's invitation to attend the 2007 Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl, Mendenhall became the first coach in BYU football history to take a team to a bowl game in three straight seasons during his first three years as a head coach.

On November 17, 2007, Mendenhall led the Cougars to a 35-10 victory over Wyoming to record his 25th career win. With the victory, Mendenhall became the only coach in BYU football history to win 25 games in his first 35 attempts.

Building on the success of his first-ever season as a head coach in 2005, Mendenhall and the Cougars posted an 11-2 record in 2006, winning the outright Mountain West Conference Championship with a perfect 8-0 record. As a result, BYU returned to the Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl to represent the MWC. In dominating fashion, and with a swagger similar to that of the glory years of BYU football, the Cougars handed Oregon a 38-8 defeat in the Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl.

Throughout the 2006 season, BYU climbed the national polls by winning nine straight games to finish the regular season. As a result, the Cougars earned top-20 rankings in the Associated Press Top-25, the USA Today Coaches Poll, the Harris Interactive Poll and the BCS rankings. The Cougars' nine-game win streak was the third longest in the country and marked only the seventh time in BYU football history the Cougars had recorded at least nine consecutive wins in a single season.

Following the 2006 season, Mendenhall was named the American Football Coaches Association Region IV Coach of the Year. In addition, Mendenhall was named by the Football Writers Association of America one of nine finalists for the prestigious Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award.

The 2007 season started out in similar fashion, winning just one of the team's first three games; however, under Mendenhall's direction, the Cougars rebounded to win the final 10 games of the season, and like the previous year, garnered the attention of local, regional and national voters. BYU finished the season ranked No. 17 in the final BCS standings--three places higher than the 2006 Cougars. In the final polls of the season, BYU finished ranked 14th in both the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches Poll, marking the highest finish for the Cougars since finishing No. 5 following the 1996 season.

Like the 2006 season, BYU ranked among the nation's leaders in several statistical categories. The Cougars led the MWC and ranked 14th in passing offense, averaging 298.4 yards per game. The Cougars also led the league and ranked 25th in total offense, averaging 442.8 yards per game.

Defensively, the Cougars ranked 10th nationally in total defense, allowing just 307.9 yards per game. During the regular season, the Cougars did not allow a single 100-yard rusher. BYU finished the year ranked 9th nationally, allowing an average 97.5 yards rushing per game. One of Mendenhall's jobs as the head coach and defensive coordinator was to manage points. Defensively, BYU ranked 9th in the nation, allowing just 18.5 points per game.

In 2008, BYU earned a spot in the national polls each week of the season, including a ranking as high as No. 7. With just two regular-season road blemishes on its resume at No. 6 Utah and No. 11 TCU, BYU earned a No. 16 ranking in the final BCS standings and an invitation to the 2008 Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl. Off the field, only Penn State (4) placed more student-athletes on the ESPN the Magazine Academic All-America First Team than BYU in 2008. Cougar starters David Oswald (offensive tackle), Matt Bauman (linebacker) and Kellen Fowler (safety) each earned the high honor as BYU had three first-teamers for the first time during the same season.

Mendenhall began his coaching career as a graduate assistant in 1989 at his alma mater, Oregon State. After earning his master's degree in 1990, he moved to Snow College in Ephraim, Utah, where he served as the secondary coach and defensive coordinator from 1991-92 under current BYU assistant coach Paul Tidwell. Following two seasons with the Badgers, Mendenhall became the secondary coach at Northern Arizona, where the Lumberjacks boasted the top-ranked defense in the Big Sky Conference. He was elevated to co-defensive coordinator for the 1994 season.

In 1995, Mendenhall returned to Oregon State to become the defensive line coach under then defensive coordinator Rocky Long. When Long left to become the defensive coordinator at UCLA, Mendenhall was promoted to defensive coordinator for the 1996 season. At just 29 years of age, Mendenhall was the youngest defensive coordinator in Pac-10 history.

In 1997, Mendenhall became the secondary coach at Louisiana Tech where he helped the Bulldogs to a remarkable 9-2 record as his defensive unit was credited with 17 interceptions, allowing just 15 touchdowns on the season.

In 1998, Mendenhall moved to Albuquerque, N.M., to become the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at the University of New Mexico. Over the next five seasons, the Lobos improved from just three wins in 1998 to seven wins and an invitation to the Las Vegas Bowl in 2002. In the Lobos' 27-13 loss against UCLA in the Las Vegas Bowl, the Mendenhall-led defense held the Bruins to a season-low 167 yards.

Under Mendenhall, the Lobos led the Mountain West Conference in rushing defense for three straight seasons. In 2001, New Mexico gave up just 87.4 yards per game over the season. In his final season in Albuquerque, Mendenhall led the Lobos to a top ranking against league opponents in total defense, allowing just 316.4 yards per game. The Lobos also led the MWC in sacks in both the 2000 and 2002 season, totaling 46 and 38, respectively.

At New Mexico, Mendenhall played a valuable role in the development of the 1999 Mountain West Player of the Year, Consensus All-American and first-round NFL Draft pick Brian Urlacher. The ninth overall selection in the 2000 NFL Draft, Urlacher was voted the NFL's Defensive Rookie of the Year and was a Pro Bowl selection. Urlacher was one of two rookies to play all 16 games, starting at middle linebacker the final 14 games to establish a team record for starts at the position by a rookie. He shattered Bears rookie records with 165 total tackles and eight sacks, making him the second Chicago first-year player to lead the team in tackles. Urlacher finished his collegiate career ranked third on New Mexico's all-time list with 442 tackles.

As a player, Mendenhall was a two-year starter at cornerback for Snow College from 1984-85. In his second season, Mendenhall captained the Badgers to a perfect 11-0 record and the NJCAA National Championship. That same season, he earned many accolades, including first-team all-conference, all-region, second-team NJCAA All-America and JC Gridwire Academic All-America honors.

Mendenhall transferred to Oregon State and was a two-year starter, playing free safety, strong safety and linebacker for the Beavers. Mendenhall was a team captain as a senior and received the Leo Gribkoff Memorial Award, given to the team's most inspirational player.

Mendenhall was raised in Alpine, Utah, and graduated from American Fork High School in 1984. He received a bachelor's degree in education from Oregon State in 1988 and a master's degree in education with an emphasis in exercise physiology also from OSU in 1990.

His older brother, Mat, played football at BYU from 1975-79, before spending four years in the NFL with the Washington Redskins. Another brother, Marty, was a former Mr. Utah bodybuilder. Mendenhall's father, Paul, was a defensive end at BYU from 1953-54.

Mendenhall, who resides in Alpine, Utah, is married to Holly Johnston of Missoula, Mont. The couple has three sons.

Bronco Mendenhall is the first BYU coach to take his teams to bowl games in each of his first four seasons. BYU is the only team in MWC history to go unbeaten in conference back-to-back seasons, winning consecutive outright titles in 2006 and 2007.

“If that’s how his (Bronco Mendenhall) teams are going to play in his tenure here, they are going to have some great football teams.”

- Gary Patterson, TCU Head Football Coach

“Coach Mendenhall is a great coach. All he preaches is excellence. All he preaches is ‘100 percent’ all of the time,”

- Justin Robinson, former BYU Cornerback

“Coach Mendenhall doesn’t underestimate us. He wants to bring out our best.”

- Fui Vakapuna, Former BYU Running Back and currently with the Cincinnati Bengals

“He communicates exactly what the expectations are for his team. It’s very uncommon. A lot of coaches will tell recruits what they want to hear.”

- Tom Holmoe, BYU Director of Athletics

CECIL SAMUELSON

University President

Cecil O. Samuelson began his work as the 12th president of Brigham Young University on May 1, 2003.

President Samuelson is a Salt Lake City native who has served at the University of Utah as professor of medicine, dean of the School of Medicine and vice president of health sciences. Prior to his call as a full-time General Authority of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, he was senior vice president of Intermountain Health Care. He holds a bachelor of science degree, a master's degree in educational psychology and a medical degree from the University of Utah.

Dr. Samuelson fulfilled his residency and held a fellowship in rheumatic and genetic diseases at Duke University Medical Center in Durham, North Carolina. He has received numerous scholastic honors and is the author or co-author of 48 original publications, eight books or chapters of books and 13 abstracts. He also has served as a director, officer or member of several national medical and hospital organizations.

Elder Samuelson was called in 1994 to serve the Church of Jesus Christ as a member of the First Quorum of the Seventy. At the time of his assignment to BYU, he was a member of the Presidency of the Seventy. He has served the Church of Jesus Christ also as a regional representative, stake president, stake high councilor, branch president and missionary and as an area president in the Utah North Area and the Europe North Area. He and his wife, Sharon Giauque Samuelson, have five children and nine grandchildren.

KEVIN J WORTHEN

Advancement Vice President

Kevin J Worthen enters his first year as the Advancement Vice President at BYU after serving as the dean of the J. Reuben Clark Law School. He oversees the areas of Alumni and External Relations, Athletics, Philanthropies, and University Communications.

Prior to being named the dean of BYU's Law School, Worthen served as a professor of law and also was BYU's faculty athletic representative to the NCAA for four years.

Worthen is the Hugh W. Colton Professor of Law at BYU and has particular expertise in federal Indian law. He is a former Fulbright scholar and clerked for Justice Byron R. White of the U.S. Supreme Court and Judge Malcolm R. Wilkey of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the D.C. Circuit. He also worked for the law firm of Jennings, Strouss & Salmon in Phoenix.

Worthen earned his bachelor's and juris doctor degrees from BYU. A native of Carbon County, Utah, Worthen earned an associate degree from the College of Eastern Utah, where he was co-captain of the varsity basketball team. While at CEU, he also worked during the summer months as an underground coal miner in the Plateau Mine in Wattis, Utah. He and his wife Peggy have three children.

TOM HOLMOE

Director of Athletics

Tom Holmoe was named Director of Athletics at Brigham Young University on March 1, 2005. He oversees a nationally recognized program with 21 intercollegiate sports, involving more than 600 student-athletes and a 150-person staff.

Since Holmoe's appointment, BYU has captured over 40 Mountain West Conference championships, and more than 100 student-athletes have earned All-America status. Over the past three seasons the football and men's basketball teams have together won five MWC championships and earned post-season invitations each year.

A former Cougar defensive back from 1978-82, Holmoe returned to BYU in July 2001 as Associate Athletics Director for Development. As part of his responsibilities, he supervised the Cougar Club, served as the department's liaison with the LDS Foundation, served on the BYU Alumni Association Board of Directors and worked on the capital campaign to raise funds for the University's new athletic facilities. Holmoe currently serves on the BCS Athletics Directors Advisory Committee.

A native of La Crescenta, Calif., Holmoe came to BYU on a football scholarship in 1978. He became a starter as a sophomore and went on to earn first-team All-WAC honors as a senior in 1982. Holmoe was selected in the fourth round of the 1983 NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers. Over a seven-year NFL career, he played on three Super Bowl championship teams with the 49ers. After retiring from professional football, Holmoe returned to BYU to serve as a graduate assistant under LaVell Edwards from 1990-91. He then accepted an offer from Bill Walsh to become the Stanford secondary coach in 1992, where he remained for two seasons. In 1994, he returned to the 49ers as defensive backfield coach for two seasons, where he earned a fourth Super Bowl ring. Two years later Holmoe joined the University of California staff as defensive coordinator and later became the head coach from 1997-2001.

Holmoe graduated from BYU with a degree in zoology in 1983 and received a master's degree from BYU in athletic administration in 1995. He and his wife, Lori, have four children: Shannon Packard, Danny, Erik, and Lauren.

THE BYU HISTORY

The 1875 establishment of the Brigham Young Academy offered an academically stimulating and gospel-oriented education to 29 students. The one-acre school grounds presided over by Karl G. Maeser have since developed into 560 acres and 97 academic buildings. The foundation of the University thrives with the fourfold focus of being 1) spiritually strengthening, 2) intellectually enlarging, 3) character building, leading to 4) lifelong learning and service.

Brigham Young University provides an outstanding education in an atmosphere consistent with the standards and principles of its sponsor, The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

“Our education should be such as to improve our minds and fit us for increased usefulness; to make us of greater service to the human family.” - Brigham Young

EXCEPTIONAL ACADEMICS AND OPPORTUNITIES

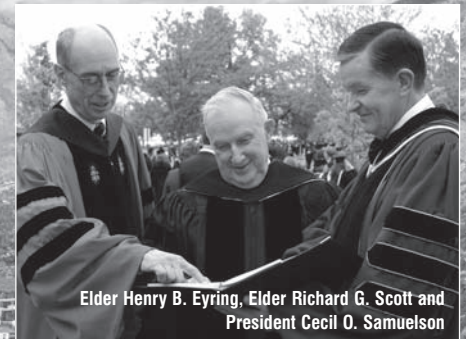

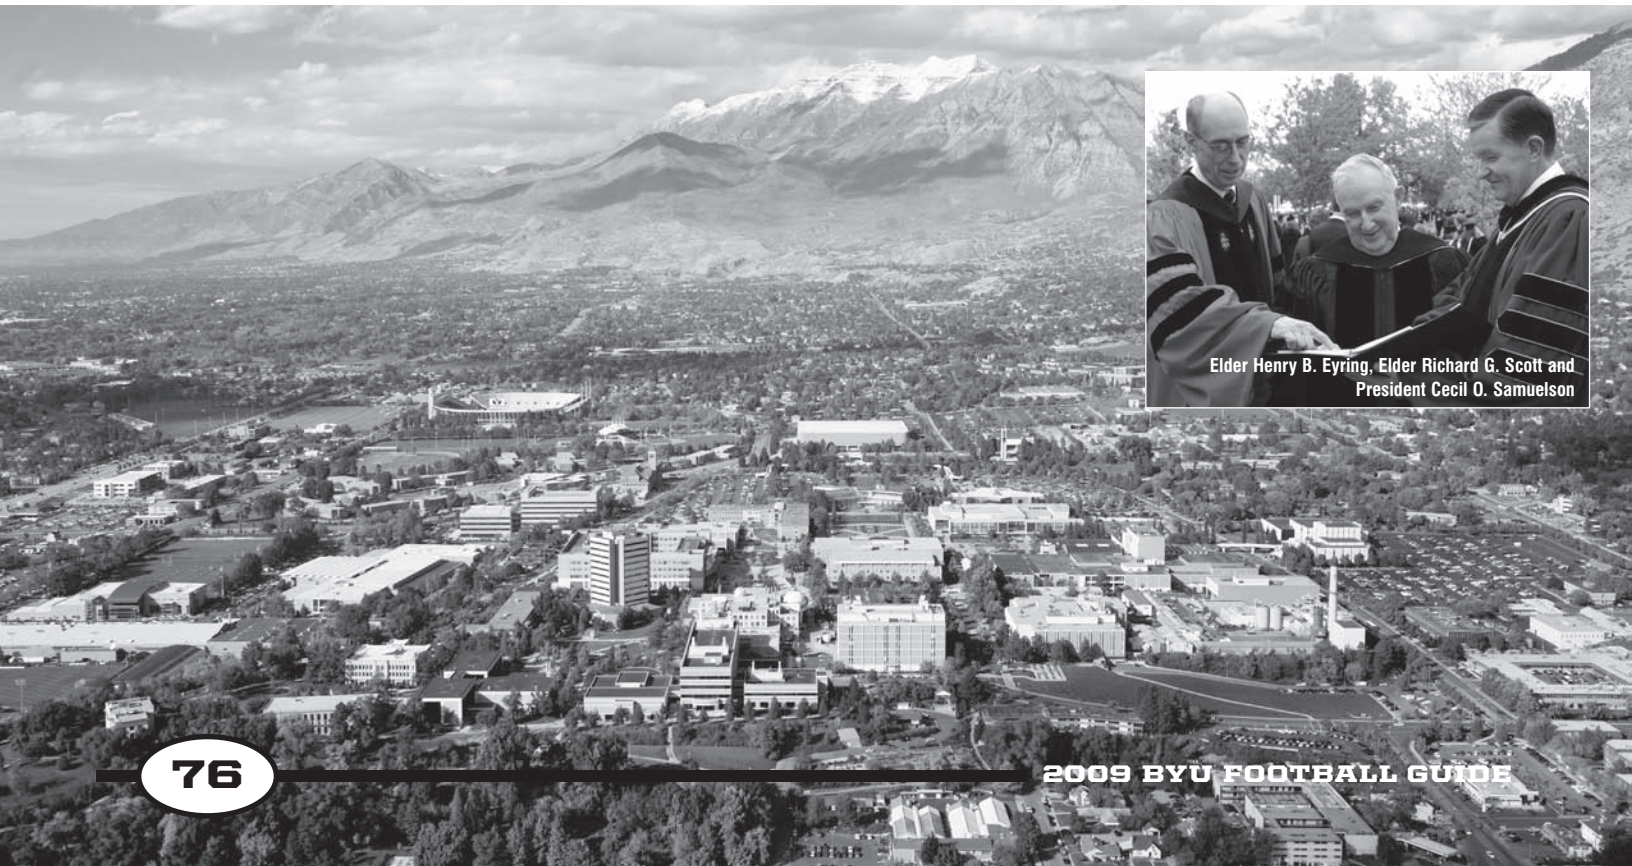

Graduates leave BYU with the skills and desire to make meaningful contributions all across the globe. With various opportunities for research and hands-on experiences, the BYU experience ensures students are well prepared to continue their education and are heavily recruited by employers.

The University consistently achieves national recognition, with students earning such distinction as Fulbright scholars, Mellon fellows and Barry M. Goldwater scholars.

OUTSTANDING STUDENT BODY

BYU students arrive with superb preparation. The entering class has an average high school GPA of 3.71 (on a 4.0 scale) and an average ACT score that ranks in the 89th percentile nationally. The University consistently places in the top 20 for enrollment of National Merit Scholars.

BEAUTIFUL CAMPUS SETTING

Located 45 miles south of Salt Lake City, Provo, Utah, is a city of more than 115,000 situated 4,500 feet above sea level. The campus sits at the western base of the Wasatch Mountains, part of the Rocky Mountain Range. Surrounded by mountains, Provo is at the heart of Utah Valley with a combined population of more than 440,000. Utah Valley is framed by the 23-mile-long Utah Lake on the west and 11,750-foot Mount Timpanogos on the east.

BYU has several other campuses serving an additional 12,000 students in La'ie, Hawaii; Rexburg, Idaho; and Salt Lake City, Utah.

DISTINGUISHED FACULTY

Faculty members hold advanced degrees from universities around the world. Their achievements are compelling and wide-ranging as they pursue consequential research work that is making a real difference. Alleviating hunger worldwide through more efficient agriculture, finding low-pollution energy alternatives and making significant contributions to the strengthening of families are among their many pursuits. Faculty members are regularly called upon to head national and international professional organizations and to consult with corporate and governmental entities. Above all, these high-principled men and women share an unmatched devotion to bringing the best possible education to their students.

Nearly half of these scholars have lived outside the United States, and three-fourths are fluent in at least two languages. The variety of cultures and backgrounds, coupled with an institutional commitment to the gospel of Jesus Christ, adds to an already rich academic experience that challenges the mind while feeding the spirit.

BYU has a full-time enrollment of 32,964. Students come to BYU from all 50 states and more than 120 countries.

“This institution is remarkable. It is a continuing experiment on a great premise that a large and complex university can be first-class academically while nurturing an environment of faith in God and the practice of Christian principles.”

- Gordon B. Hinckley, Former President, Board of Trustees of BYU and LDS Church

INTERNATIONAL STUDY AND LEARNING

BYU is a Center for International Business Education Research (CIBER), a program designed to promote the competitiveness of United States business through an integrated international curriculum, faculty and student international research and outreach programs. BYU's David M. Kennedy Center for International Studies provides support to colleges and departments in pursuing their international interests.

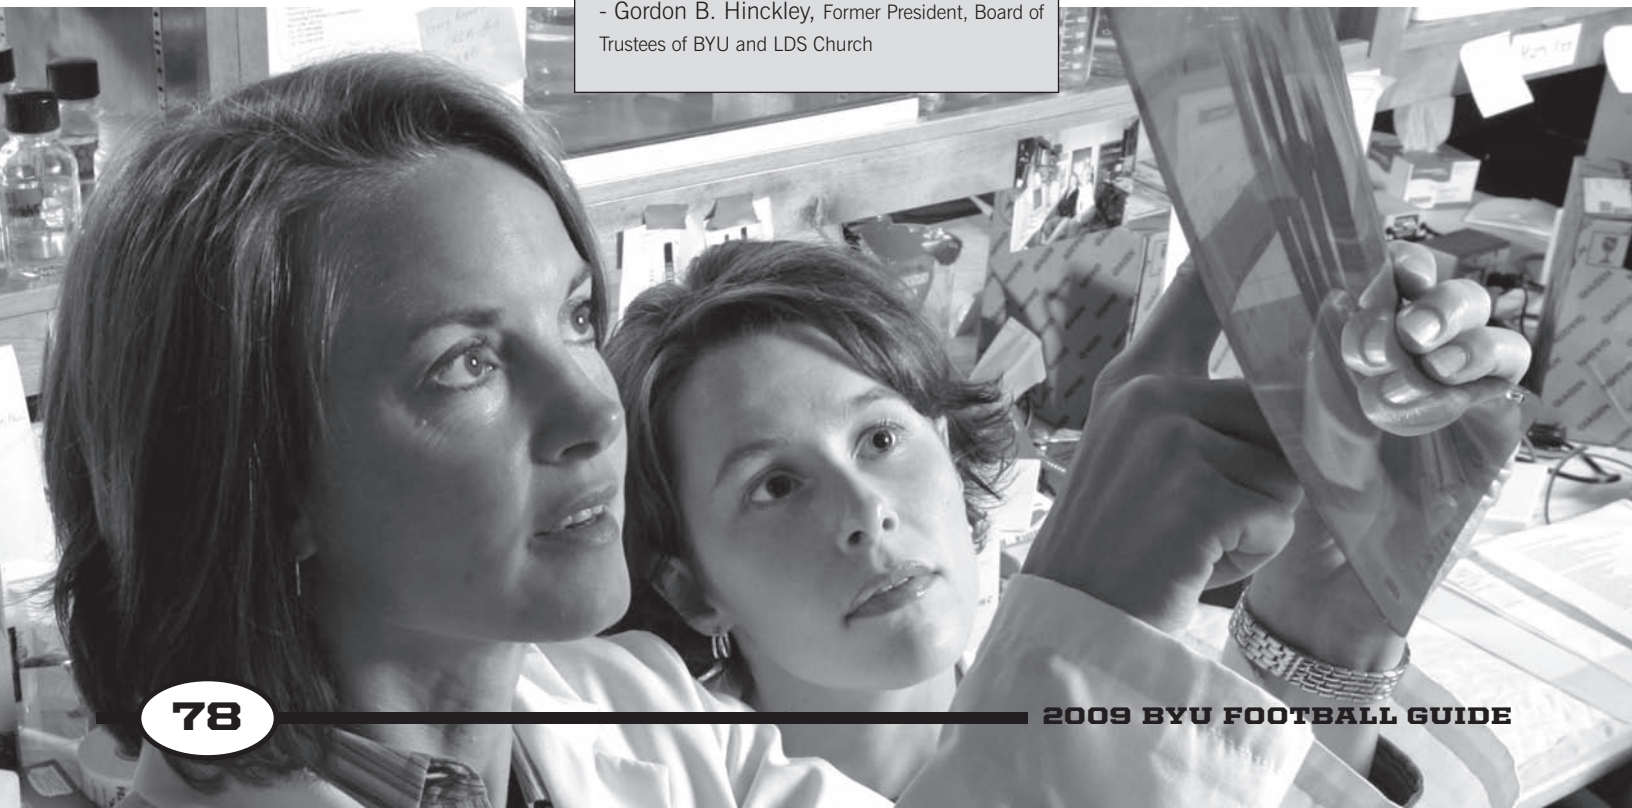

More than three-fourths of BYU students speak a language other than English -- 107 languages in all. Six percent of the student body is from outside the United States. Additionally, 82 percent of the men and 13 percent of the women at BYU have served missions for the Church, often gaining fluency in a second language from the experience.

Regular classes are offered in 43 languages, with an additional 23 available with sufficient student interest -- among the most offered anywhere in the country. The prior experience of many of the students allows for a higher standard of instruction, using the language to teach other ideas -- literature, history, culture -- and to enhance their opportunities outside the lab and classroom.

BYU MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of Brigham Young University--founded, supported and guided by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints--is to assist individuals in their quest for perfection and eternal life. That assistance should provide a period of intensive learning in a stimulating setting where a commitment to excellence is expected and the full realization of human potential is pursued.

All instruction, programs and services at BYU, including a wide variety of extracurricular experiences, should make their own contribution toward the balanced development of the total person. Such a broadly prepared individual will not only be capable of meeting personal challenges and change but will also bring strength to others in the tasks of home and family life, social relationships, civic duty and service to mankind.

BYU's faculty, staff, students and administrators should be anxious to make their service and scholarship available to The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in furthering its work worldwide. In an era of limited enrollments, BYU can continue to expand its influence both by encouraging programs that are central to the Church's purposes and by making its resources available to the Church when called upon to do so.

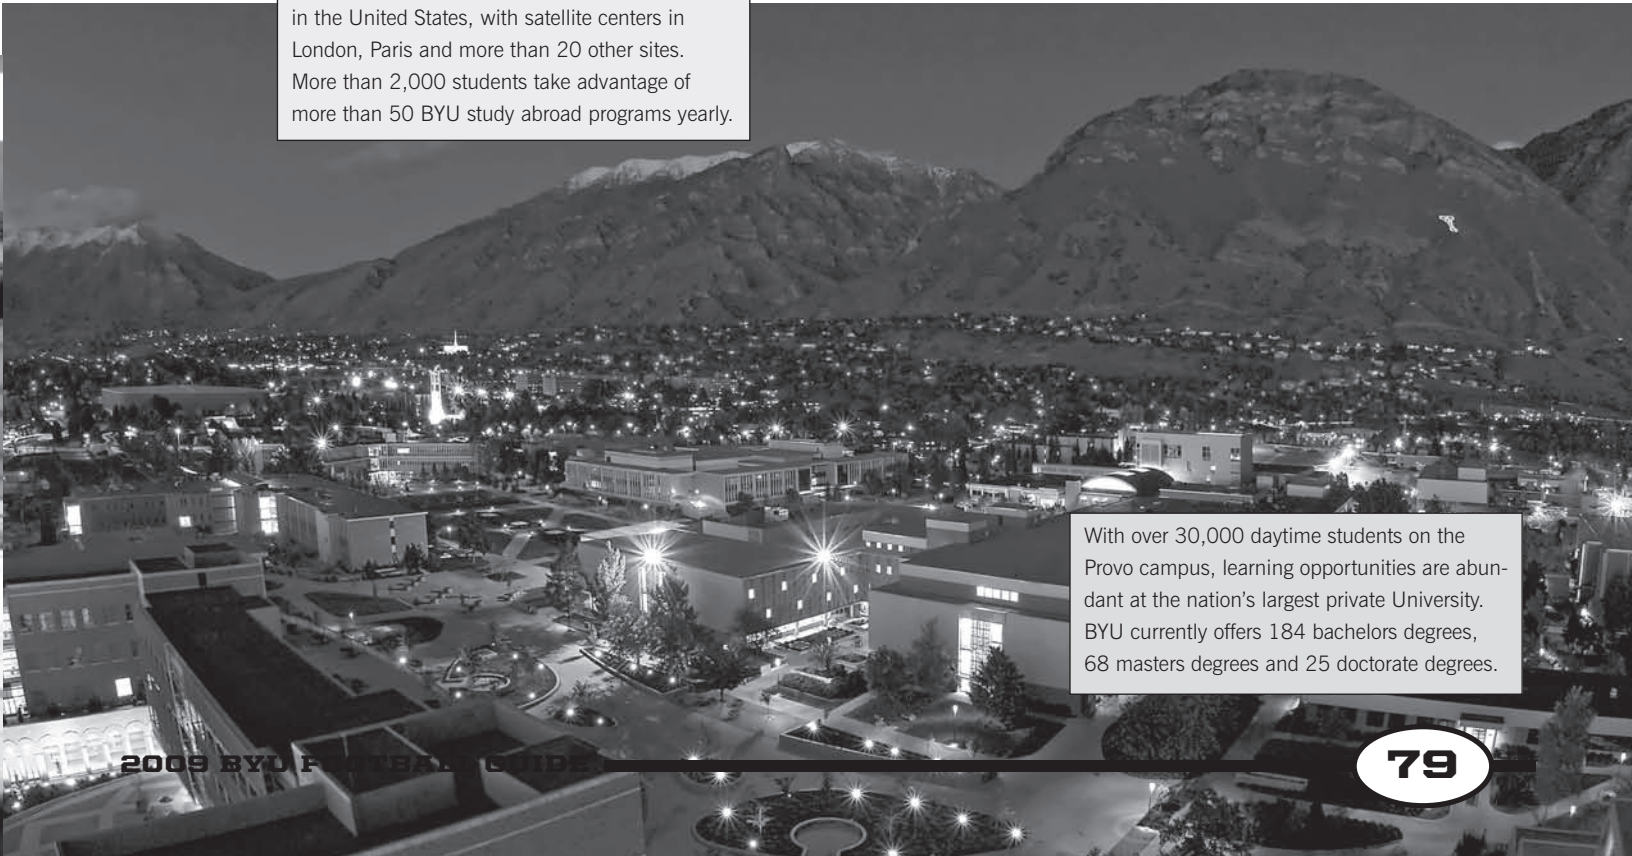

We believe the earnest pursuit of this institutional mission can have a strong effect on the course of higher education and will greatly enlarge Brigham Young University's influence in a world we wish to improve.

PREPARATION FOR THE FUTURE

A strong curriculum delivered by outstanding faculty is key to the academic excellence of BYU graduates. From business management to nursing, from the humanities to engineering, the University's 11 colleges -- supported by comprehensive offerings from religious education -- continue to be internationally recognized for the quality of their education and the professional preparation they provide. In addition to the challenging course work and hands-on research, numerous programs offer academic and service outreach opportunities. Study abroad centers, distance-learning courses and worldwide performing arts tours are a few of the offerings that enrich BYU's academic experience.

THE WORLD IS OUR CAMPUS

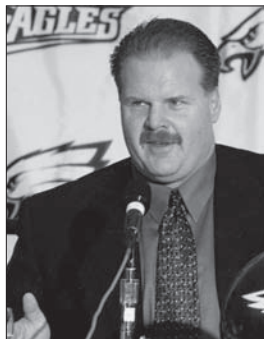

BYU operates the largest study abroad program in the United States, with satellite centers in London, Paris and more than 20 other sites. More than 2,000 students take advantage of more than 50 BYU study abroad programs yearly.

With over 30,000 daytime students on the Provo campus, learning opportunities are abundant at the nation's largest private University. BYU currently offers 184 bachelors degrees, 68 masters degrees and 25 doctorate degrees.

TODD HARRIS

One of the first questions Bronco Mendenhall was asked after becoming the head coach at BYU was what he thought about the missionary program and if he felt it helped or hurt the BYU football program.

"Serving missions is what makes this team, this university and the Church unique," Mendenhall said. "These unique characteristics are based upon sound principles and values. Why would we not embrace them?"

Brigham Young University is owned and operated by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. The missionary emphasis of the Church is perhaps one of its most recognized characteristics. Since the organization of the Church in 1830, over one million missionaries have served.

The Church operates 347 missions around the world in 145 nations speaking 164 languages. A mission covers a geographic area and has a central headquarters. Each is presided over by a mission president who is called from the ranks of the Church membership to serve for a period of three years. The mission president directs the work of the missionaries assigned to his mission.

More than 53,000 missionaries representing The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints are serving proselytizing missions in 330 missions around the world. Seventy-five percent of the Church's proselytizing missionaries are young men between the ages of 19 and 26. A substantial number of young women and older couples also serve proselytizing missions.

Missionaries work long hours—seven days a week for two years or 18 months for women and couples—teaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ and participating in community service.

In addition, about 5,100 individuals (including couples) are given special service assignments. Health specialists and doctors go to developing countries where the Church's health services program teaches preventive care. Craftsmen, artisans and construction supervisors train members in local building projects. Agricultural experts train people to produce food more effectively and economically. Other mission assignments include education, family history research and leadership training.

The missionaries and/or their families donate money to the Church to pay for their personal expenses. When his or her assignment is completed, the missionary returns home to pursue vocational, academic or other personal goals. Aside from their brief orientation at a missionary training center, missionaries receive little formal training for their ministry. Missionary preparation comes primarily from personal study and, in many cases, from examples taught in the home from childhood.

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints was officially organized on April 6, 1830 with six members. Today, congregations of the Church are found in more than 160 nations and territories. With over 13 million members, it is one of the fastest growing religions in the world and one of the largest Christian churches in the United States.

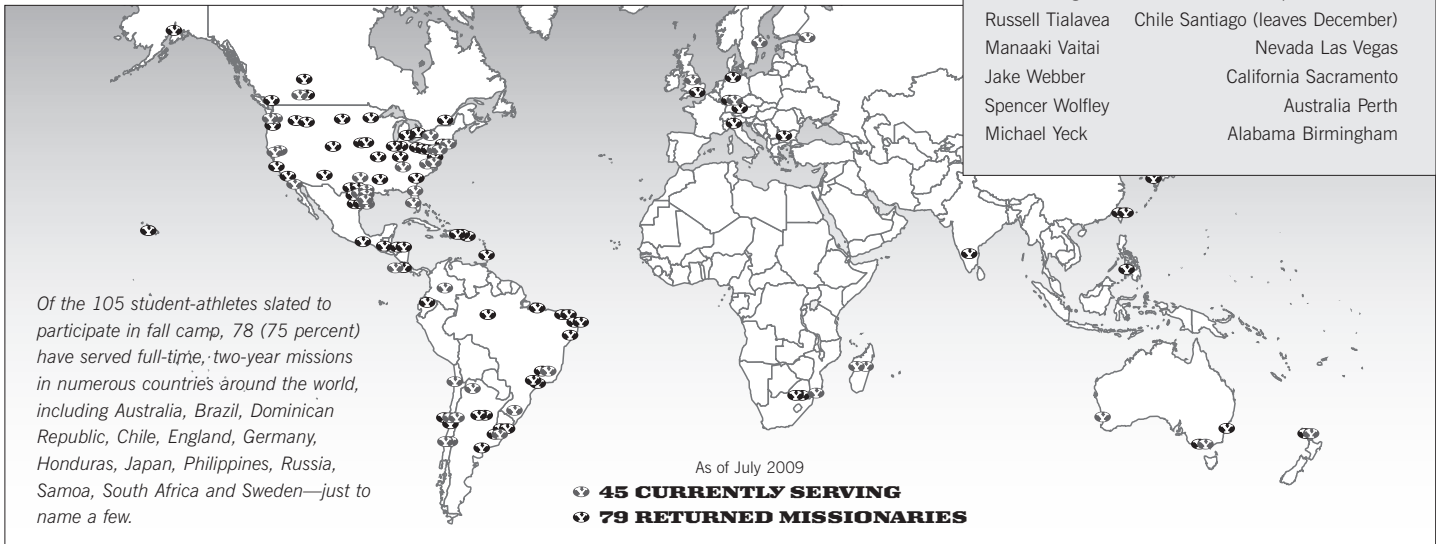

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is Christian, but is neither Catholic nor Protestant. Rather, it is a restoration of the original church established by Jesus Christ. For more information on the beliefs of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, visit www.lds.org.

TRUE SERVICE: Before starting his college football career, highly-recruited tight end Devin Mahina (center below) took two years away from the game to serve an LDS Church mission to Madagascar.

AMONG THE VERY BEST

BYU's 10 NCAA team championships, 1,128 All-Americans and 315 conference championships have created a tradition of excellence. The Cougars consistently rank among the nation's top-25 athletic departments according to the NACDA Directors Cup standings, which measures the overall performance of athletic departments. BYU's 21 athletic teams continually establish themselves among the top teams in the nation.

TO BE A CHAMPION?

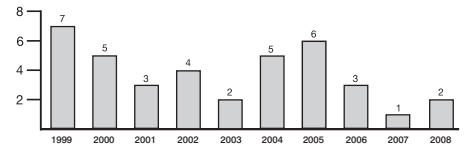

FOOTBALL

For the third consecutive season BYU finished ranked in the nation's top 25. The Cougars have won at least 10 games the last three seasons and only five teams in the country have won more games than BYU over that span. In 2008, BYU football had seven Cougars named All-American.

A DECADE OF SUCCESS

BYU's 21 athletic teams consistently rank among the best in the nation. The past ten years have brought numerous successes in Cougar athletics. BYU teams have finished their respective seasons ranked in the nation's top 25 on 96 occasions and in the nation's top 10 on 40 different occasions. During that span, BYU averages 10 top-25 finishes and 3.4 top-10 finishes each year. BYU has also produced six national champions in the last decade. In the ten-year history of the Mountain West Conference, the Cougars have won 118 of 296 conference championships. That is 40 percent of all championships, by far the most of any school in the Mountain West. In 2000-2001, BYU won all but three conference championships (16 of 19). BYU also dominated the Western Athletic Conference from 1962-1999, winning more championships than any other WAC school. In fact, during the last three decades in the WAC, the Cougars won 60 percent of the WAC Championships. For the sixth-straight season, BYU teams claimed at least eight MWC Championships in 2008-09.

CROSS COUNTRY

In fall 2008 the BYU men earned a ninth-place finish at the NCAA National Championships and secured their 11th MWC title in the last 12 years. BYU's women's team owns four cross country national titles (1997, 1999, 2001, 2002).

SOFTBALL

After claiming their third MWC Championship in the last five years, BYU softball earned their fifth-straight NCAA Tournament appearance in 2009. BYU softball has had nine consecutive winning seasons and five consecutive 40-win seasons.

MEN'S VOLLEYBALL

For the second straight season BYU finished ranked in the nation's top 10. With nearly all of BYU's starters returning in 2010, the Cougars look ready to make another final four. BYU has won three national titles (1999, 2001, 2004).

WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL

BYU volleyball is 11th all-time in NCAA tournament victories. BYU's most recent NCAA tournament success came in 2007 when they reached the Elite Eight and finished the season with a No. 12 national ranking. BYU has won 23 conference volleyball titles.

TRACK AND FIELD

Winning both men's and women's MEC indoor and outdoor championships, BYU's track and field teams were simply dominant in 2009. BYU had three national champions at their respective events. The women finished 3rd and 15th at the indoor and outdoor NCAA Championships while the men finished 13th at the outdoor NCAA Championships.

After capturing their second consecutive MWC championship, the Cougars made their 11th appearance in the NCAA Tournament in 12 years, nearly knocking off defending national champion USC in double overtime in the NCAA second round.

EQUIPMENT AND LOCKER ROOMS

The 75-yard-long locker room is patterned after the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles. There is also a special locker room for former BYU players who want to train in Provo during the offseason.

TRAINING FACILITIES

Sponsored by Dynatronics, this area features a rehabilitation room and a hydro area with a cold pool, a hot tub with power jets, a treadmill pool with two cameras and a doctor's office. Trainers provide electrical stimulation and ultra sound treatments as well as bikes, treadmills and Cybex machines.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING CENTER

Most of the Strength and Conditioning Center's equipment was custom built by Free Motion and is sponsored by Icon Health and Fitness. Among the features are 12 full power racks with platforms, seven half racks, three jerk racks, Sorinex hurricane racks, reverse hypers, Agaton Fitness Systems, an outdoor mondo plyometric warmup area, two super leg drive sleds, two different dumbbell areas and a medicine ball wall. The first floor also has a nutrition area sponsored by Pharmanex. The second floor is the speed development area and has Tomahawk spinning bikes and TVs, five Nordic Track incline trainers, three Versaclimbers, two Scifit upper body bikes, Woodway force treadmills, H/P Cosmos treadmills with Pneu Weight devices, vibratory boards, a step mill, a turf agility drill area with resistance and a testing area.

STUDENT ATHLETE ACADEMIC CENTER

Tutors and mentors work through these offices. Athletes have access to 42 computer stations, an interactive classroom, 10 small study areas and one large quiet room. Also on staff are a sports psychologist and a nutritionist.

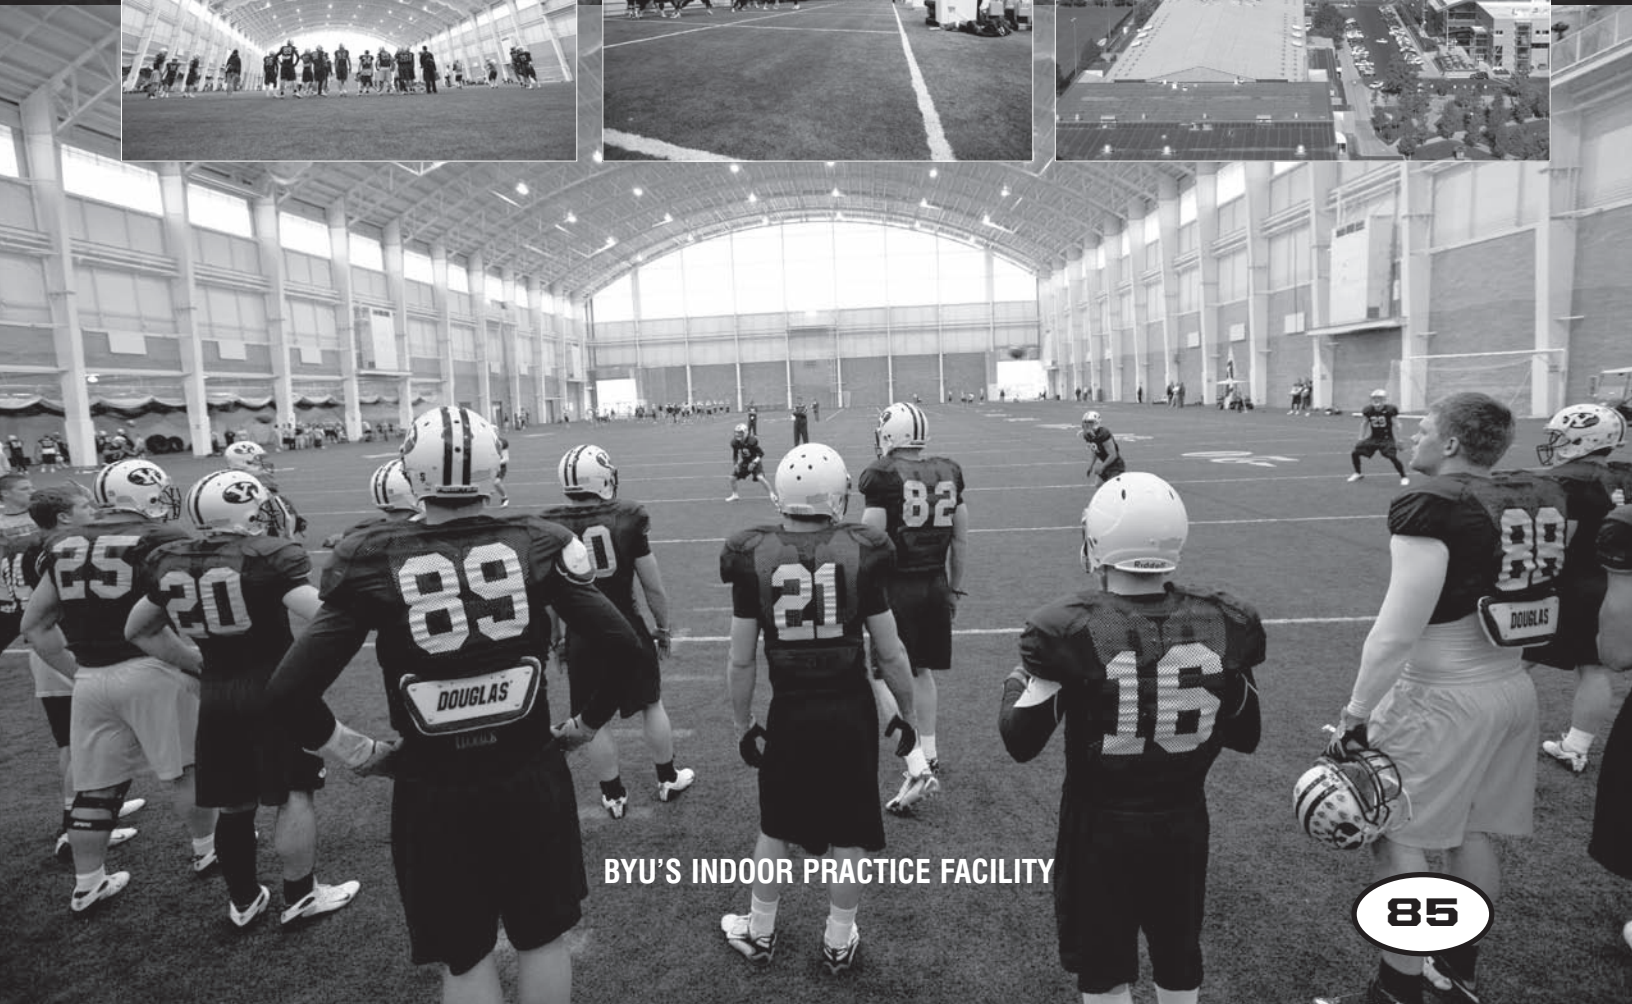

LEGENDS GRILLE

Fans, coaches and athletes can view 11 plasma TV screens, a ticker tape with world wide sports scores or view specialty events on a projection screen while catching a bite to eat.

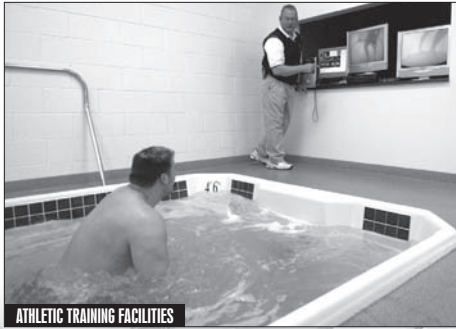

INDOOR PRACTICE FACILITY

The IPF is 422 feet wide and 222 feet deep with a height of 86 feet at the center (106,000 square feet). Among its features are two artificial turf fields (55 yards & 65 yards), retractable goalposts on each end, a sideline staging facility for offensive linemen and four batting cages. The indoor surface is field turf and the building features four video platforms located 40 feet above the playing surface. The IPF serves as an indoor practice arena for the football, soccer, golf, baseball and softball teams and a variety of other sports programs, including extramurals and intramurals.

Conditioning encompasses all facets of physical performance. From speed and quickness to cardiovascular endurance and brute strength, BYU's strength and conditioning head coach Jay Omer creates programs designed to increase them all. Training programs are sport-specific and position-specific within each sport, allowing athletes to focus on what they need to succeed in their individual competitive endeavors.

In no sport is the need for strength more evident than in football. Each game, each play, can be decided by who tires first. Week in and week out, players give and take a beating and are expected to come back for more of the same the next week. Less than a year after his arrival in 2001, Omer's subjects were seeing huge returns on their investment. Most players had increased their personal lifts 15-25 percent. Mike Tanner, a line-backer who was bench-pressing 330 pounds when Omer arrived, was lifting 400 at summer's end.

Conditioning also increases the production of athletes as it helps to prevent injury. Although football is a contact sport where injuries are common, proper conditioning can help to avoid major injuries and reduce the recovery time of minor injuries. An athlete in top condition tends to recover faster and is better able to withstand the rigors of physical activity.

Not only does the conditioning program improve each player as an individual, but it also improves the team as a whole. Working and sweating with each other in the weight room helps bring the players together. Seeing each person sacrifice and succeed in the off-season builds a camaraderie that carries over to the field as players work to make each other and the team better.

"He (Omer) has brought us a feeling of team chemistry, working out together and being accountable," said Teag Whiting, a former offensive lineman. "There's nothing we're going to see on the football field this season that's any tougher or harder than we're facing in our workouts. It makes us close."

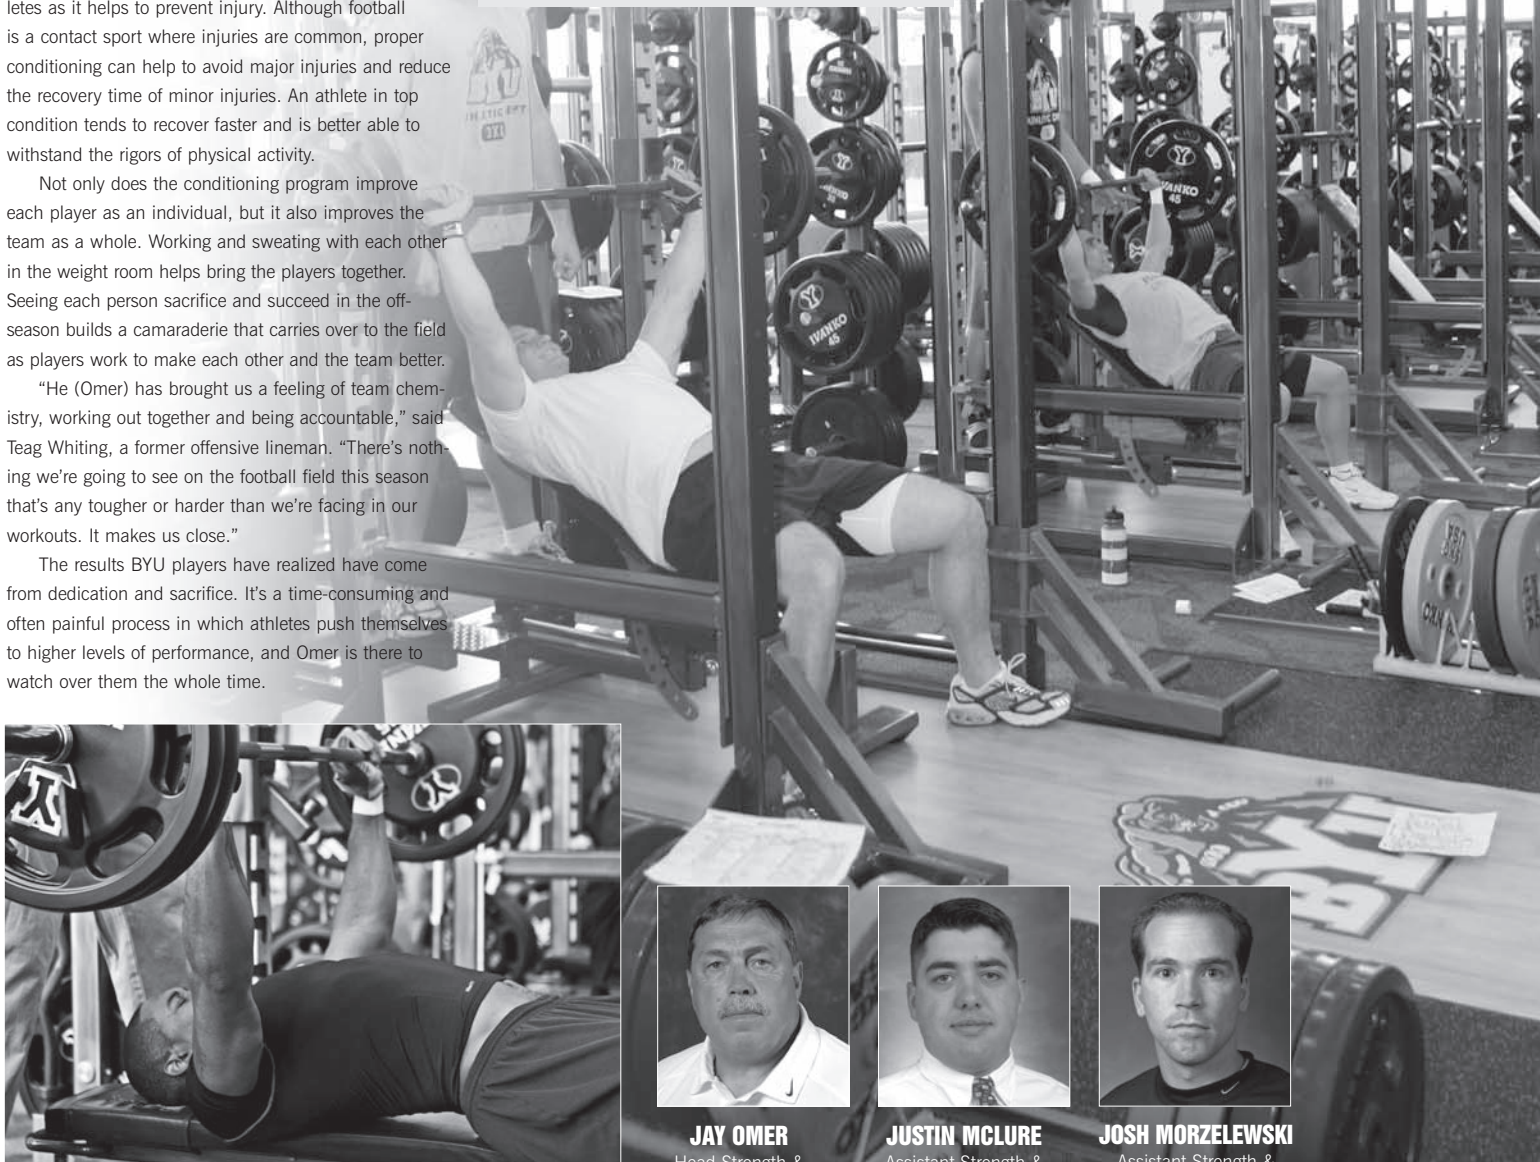

The results BYU players have realized have come from dedication and sacrifice. It's a time-consuming and often painful process in which athletes push themselves to higher levels of performance, and Omer is there to watch over them the whole time.

"I like to see kids work hard, make something of themselves and improve their abilities. That's the joy of this job. I'm also on the same page with Coach Mendenhall. We believe a team can only be successful if it prepares well and has team chemistry. You can have a team of super stars, but I'd rather have a team of less talent that works hard, cares about each other, has team chemistry and will go to war because they believe in each other. That's what it's all about, and that's what we're trying to get done here."

— Jay Omer, BYU Head Strength & Conditioning Coach

"The man is a sadist," said former offensive guard Jason Scukanec, "[but] you find yourself doing it. You find yourself pushing yourself and you don't know why. You don't want to disappoint him because it means something to you and your teammates."

Each fall when the Cougars take the field, they carry with them the hopes of BYU fans across the nation. With each passing week and after every win, those hopes get bigger and weigh more on the players. Arriving at the gym before most people are out of bed and staying until long after most people have gone home for the night, Jay Omer takes those hopes very seriously. It's his job to make sure the players are strong enough to carry those hopes to one more victory, one more title, one more bowl.

PICTURE PERFECT

With its 64,045-seat capacity, huge video scoreboards and immaculate press boxes, LaVell Edwards Stadium is home to legendary BYU football. Since its expansion in 1982, the stadium has consistently ranked among the nation's top 30 in attendance every year. Some of the stadium's well-known features include a box-bowl seating configuration, a grass playing surface and a four-level press box.

THE FIELD

The field is covered with a sand-based natural turf capable of draining eight inches of rain per hour. The well-kept grass field is consistently deemed one of the best in the country.

LAST EXPANSION

As a result of increased seating demands, BYU made yet another renovation in 1982, adding stands to the north and south end zones, lowering the field eight feet and removing the track surrounding the field (which hosted the 1967 and 1975 NCAA Track and Field Championships). The stadium expansion increased the seating capacity to over 65,000. The crowd of 64,253 that gathered for BYU's first game in the expanded stadium on September 25, 1982 was reportedly "the largest gathering ever in Utah history" at the time. In 2003 BYU added a luxury "Club Seating" area to the east stands taking the capacity of Edwards Stadium down to 64,045.

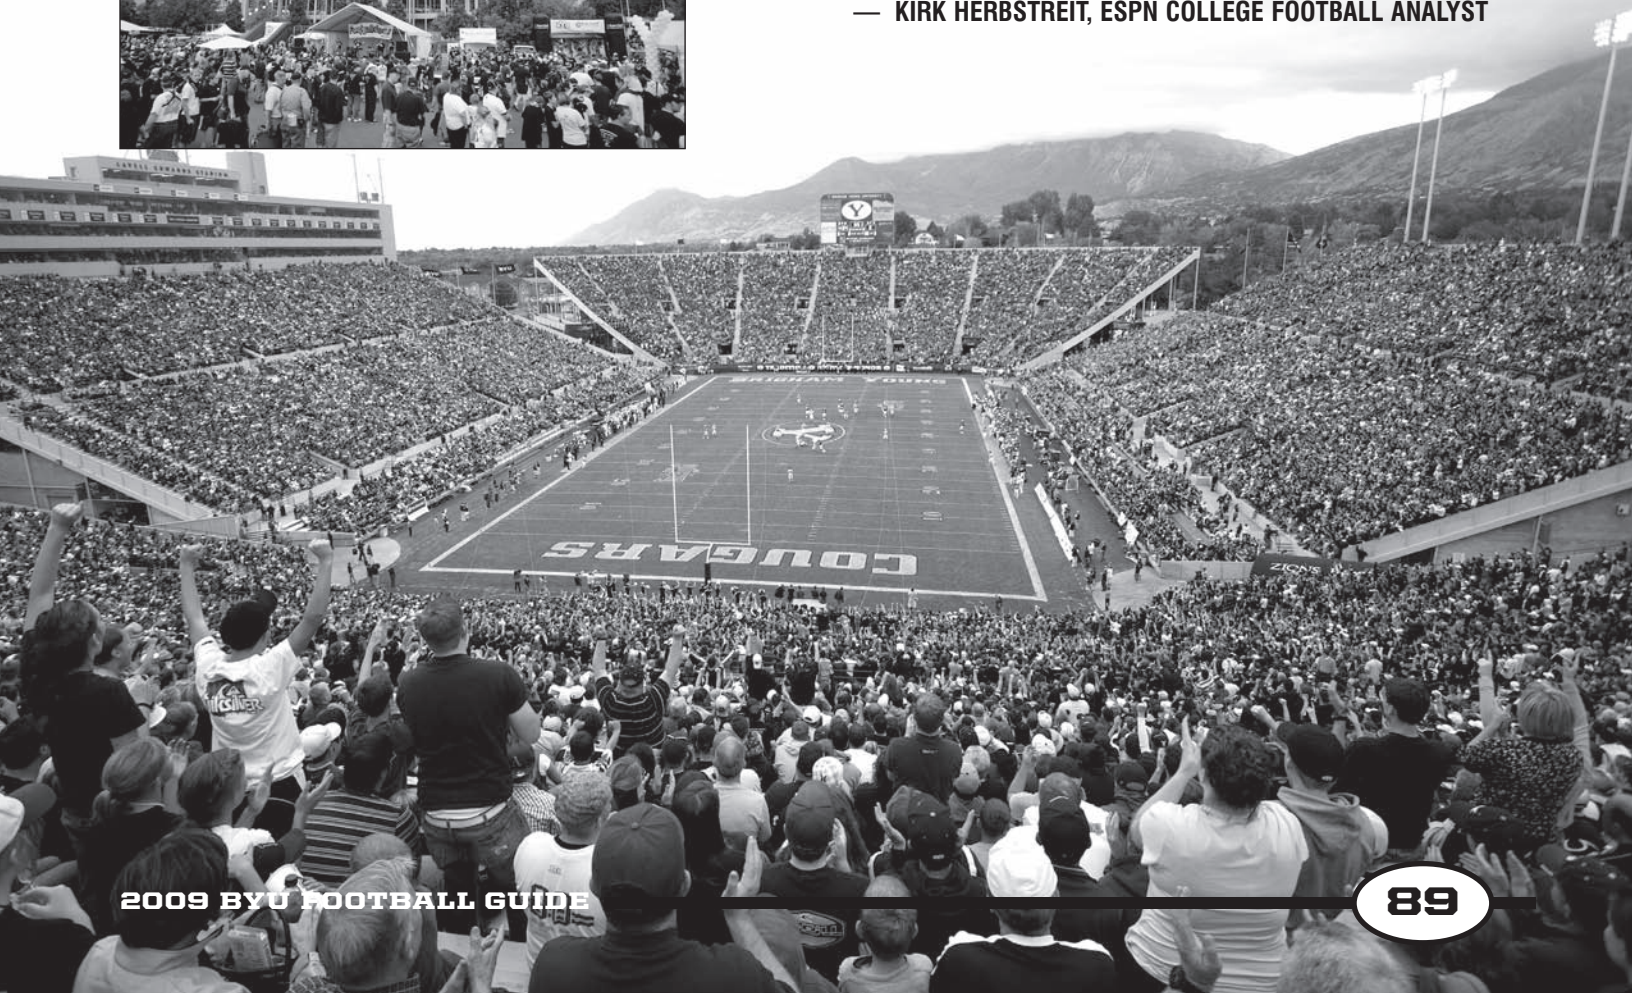

PRESS BOX

In 1982, 1988 and 1997, the Football Writers Association of America cited BYU for its "outstanding press box working area." Rising over 10 stories high, the four-level press box is located on the west side of the stadium and runs the entire length of the stands. Levels one and two of the press box contain 42 private loges, each equipped with 12 padded chairs, a television, radio, telephone, refrigerator, sink and game programs. The BYU President's box, which includes 163 padded chairs, five television sets and a buffet area, is also located on the first floor. Level three is reserved for the print and electronic media along with all the game operators. The statistics, public address, sound and scoreboard controls are all located on the third level. Altogether, approximately 300 people work on the third level during games. Level four is used for television game filming.

"YOU GUYS WILL AGREE THAT [LAVELL EDWARDS] STADIUM IS ONE OF THE PRETTIEST SETTINGS OF COLLEGE FOOTBALL. THIS STADIUM IS JUST UNBELIEVABLE."

— KIRK HERBSTREIT, ESPN COLLEGE FOOTBALL ANALYST

THE EDWARDS STADIUM EXPERIENCE

Hours before kickoff, fans gather across the street from LaVell Edwards Stadium for food and soft drinks, sharing stories of past football heroics and anticipating another triumphant victory. With the Wasatch Mountains serving as a picturesque backdrop, the stadium is filled with 64,045 of some of the nation's best fans, young and old alike. The BYU marching band entertains the blue and white clad crowd with spirited tunes and the Cougar Fight song, amplified by the voices of BYU fans. The BYU cheerleading squad, Cosmo the BYU mascot and halftime shows with the Cougarettes, the defending national champion dance team, all help make LaVell Edwards Stadium one of a kind. The offense is high-powered and the fans await the boom of the Army ROTC cannon after every scoring play.

“Probably the loudest and best stadium is whenever things are going good for BYU and their fans start beating on the metal bleachers. That can be a very tough place to play.”

— Former Air Force head football coach Fisher DeBerry on why Edwards Stadium is one of the toughest places to play in the West.

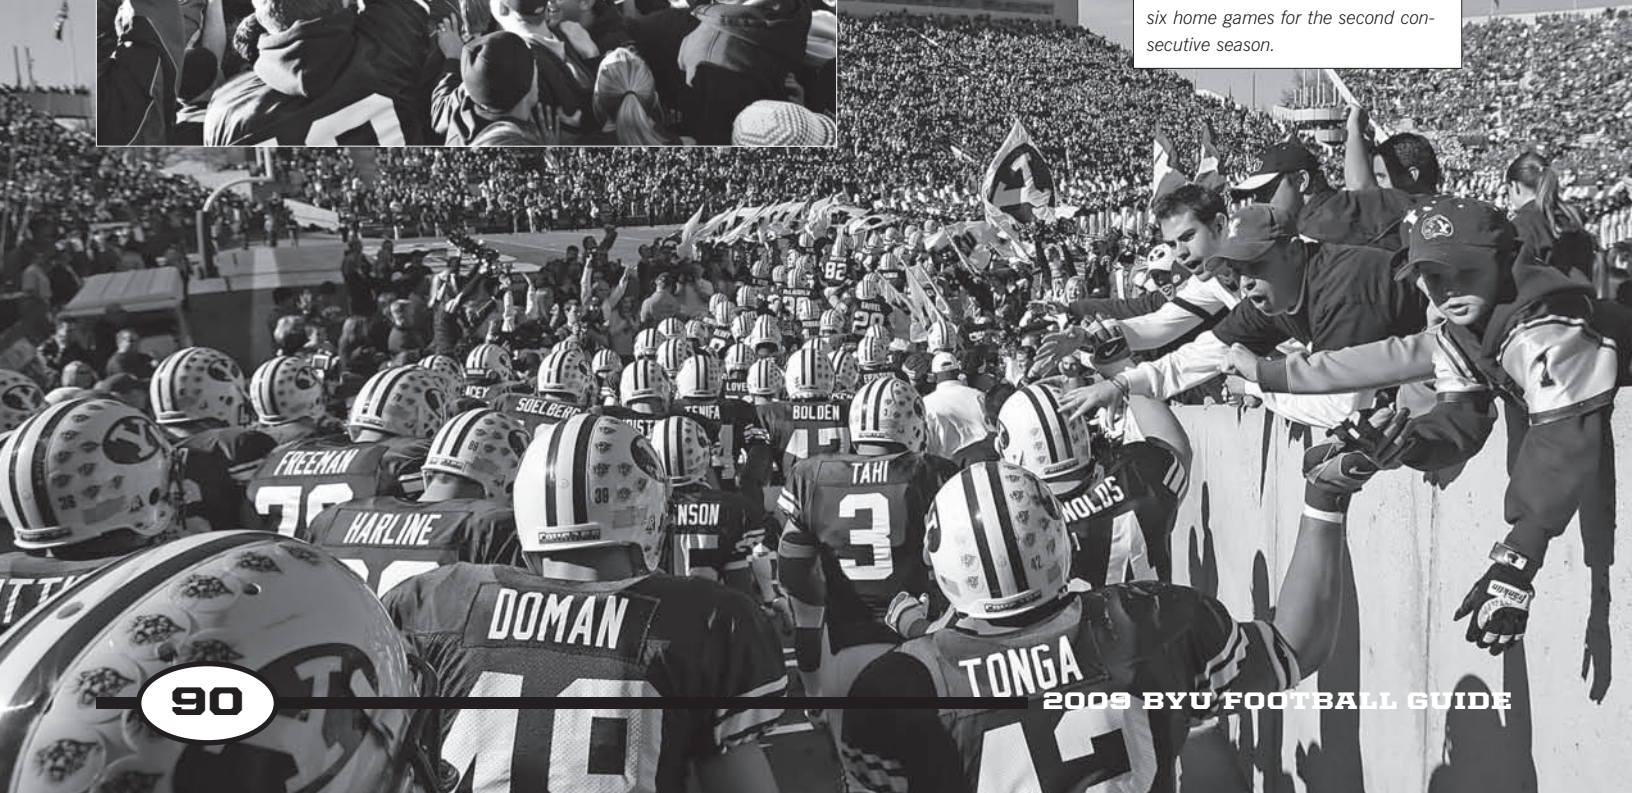

“Running out of the tunnel before every game ... The first time I ran out, I felt like Rudy. You get the chills, you get the butterflies, you’re running with the band and the fans are cheering. That’s something that is special. And to be running with your brother is something else that’s special and that’s something that’ll be remembered.”

— 2001 Doak Walker Award Winner Luke Staley
(On what he would miss most about playing football at BYU)

BYU posted a perfect home record for the third consecutive year. LaVell Edwards Stadium was sold out for all six home games for the second consecutive season.

Y MOUNTAIN

Preparations for placing the initials BYU on the mountainside began in April of 1906 when president George H. Brimhall commissioned surveyors for the letters "B," "Y" and "U." The letter "Y" was first laid out to ensure that the initials were properly centered on the mountain. Beginning in the early morning, students formed a line that zigzagged up the mountain. Standing eight feet apart, each student would carry a load up to the next and then return for another.

The project, which many expected to be completed by 10 a.m., lasted until 4 p.m. and only the "Y" was covered. After such a laborious day of work, plans to fill in the other two letters were scrapped. Covered with a thin layer of lime powder, the letter was in need of constant repair. Hoping to make it more permanent, a layer of rock was added in 1907. The next year, 20,000 pounds of sand and cement were carried up the mountain to form a three-foot high wall around the letter to hold it together. Several years later the letter underwent a facelift as the blocks, or serifs, were added to it to give it its current appearance.

A nationally recognized symbol of BYU, Y Mountain is a featured shot of almost every Cougar game broadcast on television. Located about half a mile east of campus and halfway up the mountain, the "Y" looks out over the valley and is one of its most prominent features.

COSMO

The cougar, chosen as BYU's mascot by former coach Eugene L. Roberts in the early 1920s, has undergone a tremendous evolution since its inception to become what is now known as the feline phenomenon of Cosmo the Cougar. Beginning in 1924 when BYU purchased a pair of cougar cubs for 50 cents each to excite BYU fans at athletic events, live cougars prowled the sidelines of BYU games on a regular basis through the late '40s and on special occasions through the '60s.

The original cubs were housed on the south side of campus until 1929 when they managed to break out of their cage, kill two dogs and begin stalking livestock on nearby farms. Both were recaptured later the same day. Three weeks later, one cougar died and the other was taken to the old Salt Lake Zoo. BYU procured its mascots from nearby zoos and local bounty hunters but never owned its own cougars again.

Cosmo the Cougar, the brainchild of pep chairman Dwayne Stevenson, made his first official appearance before BYU fans on Oct. 15, 1953. At a cost of 73 dollars for the costume, Daniel T. Gallego, Stevenson's roommate, became the first man under the fur. The name given the big cat was derived from BYU's diverse student body.

"BYU was a very international, cosmopolitan school and that is where we got the name Cosmo," said Gallego.

With over a half-century of service to the BYU community, Cosmo has become an icon of Cougar sports to fans and foes across the country. Through Cosmo's Kids Club and Cosmo's Corner, he is helping raise another generation of BYU fans. Prowling the sidelines for the Cougars, his antics add to the experience of game day at BYU. Cosmo brings out the best of Cougar spirit in fans at athletic competitions both home and away.

THE BEEHIVE BOOT

First instituted in 1971, the Beehive Boot is the symbol of gridiron supremacy in the state of Utah. The idea for the rotating trophy originated with Dave Schulthess, former Sports Information Director (SID) of BYU, and was agreed upon by SIDs from Utah, Utah State and Weber State. As the trophy would represent dominance within the confines of the Beehive State, it was decided that the trophy should be symbolic of the people Utah was built by—the Mormon pioneers.

Finding a suitable pioneer boot for use as a trophy proved to be a difficult task. As pioneers wore their boots until there simply wasn't much left of them, there weren't many pioneer boots lying around. After an arduous search that included numerous personal calls and radio announcements, Tom Beasley, an antique dealer living in Cache Valley donated a pair of boots for use as the trophy. Estimated to be 100 or more years old, the Beehive Boot is an authentic piece of Utah history.

Awarded to the team with the best record against in-state opponents, the Beehive Boot lived its first four years at Utah State University. BYU then began a dominant run as it ascended into the realms of football's elite, claiming the Boot 19 times in the past 30 years. Utah has won the boot nine times. The longest streak in the history of the Beehive Boot is a five-year span from 1983 to 1987 by BYU. After a four-year stint in Salt Lake, the Boot was brought back to Provo in 2006. The Cougars look to keep it at home for the third straight year this season.

If Utah's teams should end the season with identical records against in-state opponents, a winner is chosen by vote of the in-state media who covered the schools' games. This situation has occurred twice in the history of the boot (1973 and 1997), and Utah State was given the trophy each time.

THE COUGAR FAN

Be it a home game or a distant rival, BYU fans prove faithful to the Cougar cause. Rain or shine, the blue and white cheers faithfully on through the best fans collegiate sports has to offer.

THE VICTORY BELL

The original Y bell traveled across the plains with the early pioneers of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and was used to call meetings among the saints and to announce any deaths in the community. Donated to the Brigham Young Academy in 1875, it was used to begin and dismiss classes until it was destroyed in a fire in 1884. The Academy went without a bell for the next 28 years, using instead a variety of instruments as a class bell.

Rung after each BYU victory, the bell was quieted in 1949 after a basketball win over rival Utah. Several overzealous students climbed the tower and vigorously beat upon the bell until it cracked. Repaired with a bronze patch in 1954 by Frank Hemingway, the bell was removed from the education building and mounted on a trailer so it could travel with BYU's teams to away games.

Its mobility proved its downfall as it was stolen in 1958 to be found six months later in nearby Springville. The theft prompted the construction of a bell tower on BYU's upper-campus overlooking the Smith Fieldhouse. Dedicated in 1959, the tower served well until 1973 when the bell fell while ringing in the dedication of the Marriott Center. The supporting yoke above the bell was broken and the bell shattered. The bell was soon repaired by Ray Mortenson of the BYU Maintenance shop using electric welding—miraculously maintaining its previous tone—and was remounted in the tower.

In 1978, the bell was moved to its current home on the southwest corner of the Marriott Center. The open arch tower was designed by BYU landscape architect Boyd Dawler and is made of the same cast stone as the exterior pillars of the Marriott Center. Although the old bell tower above the Smith Fieldhouse no longer stands, the massive steel I-beams that supported the tower have now been converted into the strongest park benches in the Intermountain West.

Over the years, the ringing of the bell has come to represent honor, achievement and spirit, and has inspired several poems and songs from BYU faculty and alumni. Clyde D. Sandgren, who composed the Cougar Fight Song, penned a verse that was sung at the dedication of the upper-campus bell tower. As BYU victories have become more and more commonplace in recent decades, the ringing of the "Y bell" after each win has renamed it the "Victory Bell."

THE DESERET FIRST DUEL

In 2007-08 BYU and the University of Utah formally began a rivalry series named the Deseret First Duel presented by Deseret First Credit Union. The rivalry series includes competition in the 12 sports the two universities compete head-to-head during regular-season play. The Deseret First Duel uses a system that awards points to the winner of each head-to-head competition. Points won by the individual sports will count toward each school's overall total. At the conclusion of each school year, a granite traveling trophy is awarded to the overall rivalry series champion. BYU and Utah have split the series the last two seasons.

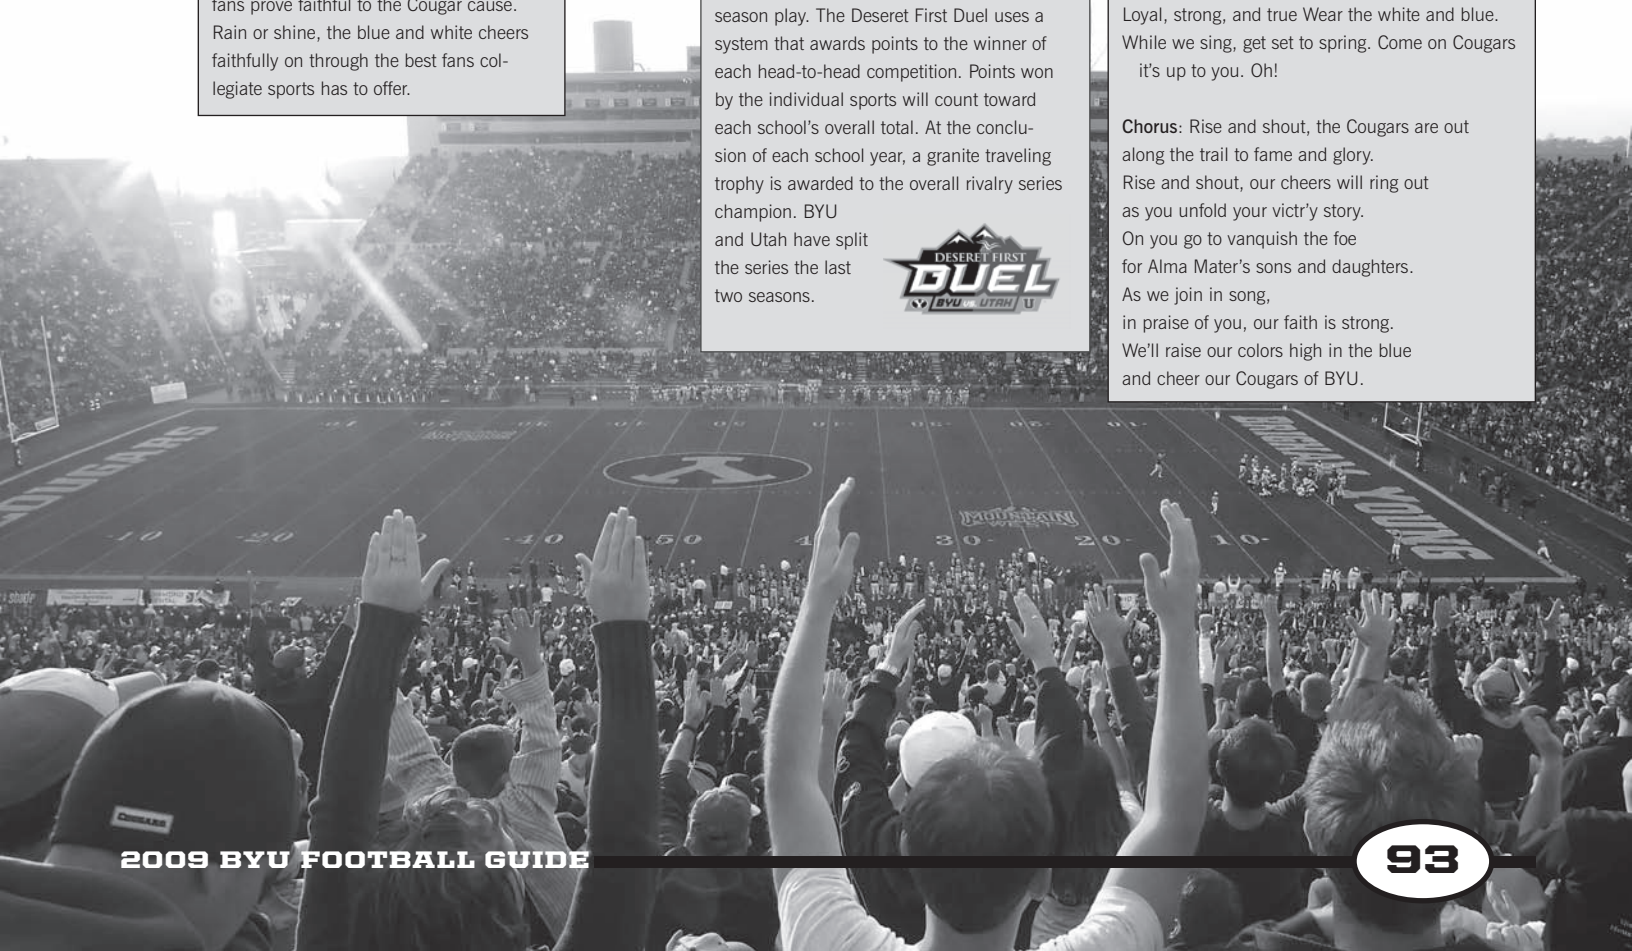

THE COUGAR FIGHT SONG

Brigham Young University
By Clyde D. Sandgren, '32

Rise all loyal Cougars and hurl your challenge to the foe.
We will fight, day or night, rain or snow.
Loyal, strong, and true Wear the white and blue.
While we sing, get set to spring. Come on Cougars it's up to you. Oh!

Chorus: Rise and shout, the Cougars are out along the trail to fame and glory.
Rise and shout, our cheers will ring out as you unfold your vict'ry story.
On you go to vanquish the foe for Alma Mater's sons and daughters.
As we join in song,
in praise of you, our faith is strong.
We'll raise our colors high in the blue and cheer our Cougars of BYU.

THE BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY ATHLETICS DEPARTMENT IS COMMITTED to abiding by all National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) and Mountain West Conference (MWC) rules and regulations. The BYU Compliance Office seeks to assist administrators, coaches, faculty, student-athletes and representatives of the University's athletics interests, in understanding the rules and regulations of NCAA athletic participation. Early and frequent education is a key component of compliance to all rules and regulations.

ARE YOU A REPRESENTATIVE OF BYU'S ATHLETICS INTERESTS (BOOSTER)?

- If any of these apply to you, then you are a booster:
- Been a member of Cougar Club or any other group that supports athletics;
 - Made any financial contributions to the athletics department;
 - Provided benefits, such as summer jobs, to enrolled student-athletes or their families;
 - Been a season ticket holder; or
 - Been involved in promoting BYU's athletics program in any way.

RECRUITING DO'S AND DONT'S

- Only BYU coaches may be involved in the recruiting process. Boosters may not make any recruiting contact with prospective student-athletes (prospect or recruit). Boosters are prohibited from the following:
- DO NOT telephone, write or make in-person contact with a prospect for recruiting purposes.
 - DO NOT contact a prospect's coach, principle or counselor in an attempt to evaluate the prospect.
 - DO NOT become involved in making arrangements for a prospect, the prospect's relatives or friends to receive money or financial aid of any kind.

- DO NOT visit a prospect's school to acquire films or transcripts in an attempt to evaluate the prospect's academic or athletics eligibility.
- DO NOT have contact with a prospect, their relatives or friends during any of their visits to BYU's campus.
- DO NOT contact student-athletes enrolled in other four-year institutions regarding the possibility of transferring to BYU.

Even though there are many rules prohibiting your involvement with prospects and the recruiting process, as a booster you are permitted to do the following:

- Notify BYU coaching staff about noteworthy prospects in your area.
- Attend a prospect's athletics event on your own initiative, provided no contact with the prospect, the prospect's parents or coach occurs.
- Continue existing friendships, provided solicitation of a prospect's enrollment does not occur.

WHAT IS AN EXTRA BENEFIT?

An extra benefit is any special arrangement by an institutional employee or booster to provide a prospect, student-athlete or their relatives or friends a benefit not expressly authorized by the NCAA.

Examples of impermissible "extra benefits" include, but are not limited to:

- providing cash, loans or co-signing for a loan
- gifts of any kind
- special discounts for goods and services
- the use of an automobile
- free or reduced-cost services, purchases or rentals
- entertainment on- or off-campus
- free or reduced-cost rent or housing

STUDENT-ATHLETE EMPLOYMENT

Student-athletes may have a job during the academic year, but information must be provided to the Compliance Office.

NCAA Bylaw 12.4.1:

- Compensation may be paid to a student-athlete:
- Only for work actually performed; and
 - At a rate commensurate with the going rate in that locality for similar services.

Also, student-athletes may not be hired because of their athletic ability or reputation.

ASK BEFORE YOU ACT!

QUESTIONS?

The above information is a brief overview of Compliance and rules pertaining to boosters and their interactions with prospective student-athletes. For more information or any questions, please contact the Compliance Office or visit our website at www.byucougars.com/compliance

BYU student-athletes are seeking to excel academically, athletically, and are preparing for life after they graduate. The transition into university life can be challenging for any student. This is especially true for student-athletes who are expected to be good students and outstanding athletes. They are also under obligation to understand and comply with a variety of NCAA rules and regulations in order to be eligible to compete. The Student Athlete Academic Center was created to provide a place where student-athletes can receive support and resources as they pursue their goals.

E.J. CAFFARO
SAAC Director

One of the main priorities of the Center is to assist student-athletes as they transition into the BYU culture and the world of college athletics. Student-athletes are assigned an academic advisor to help them register for classes and monitor their progress toward graduation. The advisor is the contact person for student-athletes who have academic or eligibility questions and concerns.

ACADEMIC ADVISEMENT

The main focus of the Student Athlete Academic Center is to help student-athletes graduate on time. To achieve this goal, academic advisement is provided to all student-athletes. Advisors are available to help student-athletes register for classes, monitor athletic eligibility, secure tutorial help, and provide on-going support and encouragement. The academic advisors assist student-athletes by having them set weekly and semester goals, teaching them time management and academic success strategies and helping them communicate effectively with their professors. Advisors also assist the coaching staff in monitoring the day-to-day progress of student-athletes who struggle academically.

TUTORING

Personal tutors are available for every student athlete through the Student Athlete Academic Center with funds made available by the Cougar Club. Tutors are hired to tutor multiple subjects. To obtain a tutor, student-athletes may contact their academic advisor.

MENTORS

Mentors are available for any student-athlete through the Student Athlete Academic Center. Incoming freshmen will be assigned a mentor for their first semester. Mentors are most often fifth-year student-athletes or graduate students. Mentors provide time management help, study skills, test taking tips, help adjusting to college, etc. To obtain a mentor, see the academic advisor assigned to your team.

COMMITMENT TO ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

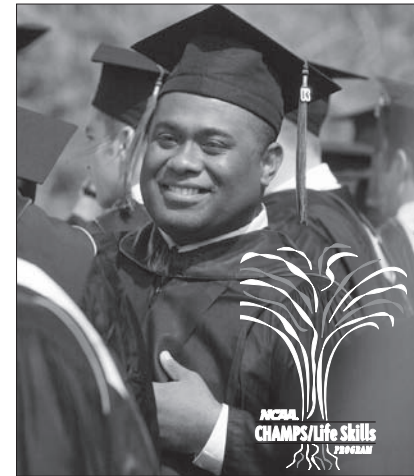

A primary goal of the Student Athlete Academic Center is to ensure that every student-athlete graduates with a Bachelor's degree in their chosen field of study. To achieve this goal, the Center provides a team advisor as part of the comprehensive academic support program. Each athlete has regular visits with his/her team advisor who assists with registration and monitors progress toward graduation.

COMMITMENT TO PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT

Student Athlete Academic Center personnel are also active in teaching classes designed to promote leadership, emotional well-being, personal growth and decision-making skills. Student-athletes are taught about some of the unique issues they face in the world of college athletics and how to thrive in the university setting and beyond.

COMMITMENT TO CAREER DEVELOPMENT

A career specialist is available to assist student-athletes with a variety of career issues. They receive help in choosing a major, building their resume, establishing a career network and preparing for their transition from college athletics into the world of work. These services are available through individual consultation, workshops, computer programs and University courses. Career exploration and career transition classes are highly recommended to all student-athletes. Internship and employment opportunities are also made available through the Career Network, which is made up of Varsity Club and Cougar Club members.

SERVICES AVAILABLE IN THE STUDENT ATHLETE CENTER INCLUDE:

- Academic Advising
- Career Counseling and Testing
- Community Service Opportunities
- Computer Lab
- Group Study Sessions
- Laptop Computers
- Leadership Opportunities (Cougar Council)
- Mentoring
- Sport Psychology
- Study Facilities
- Tutoring

TOP OF THE MOUNTAIN WEST

From its inception in 1999, the Mountain West Conference has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MWC continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level, while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. Now in its tenth year, the MWC has been assertive in its involvement with the NCAA governance structure and has taken a leadership role in the overall administration of intercollegiate athletics.

The Mountain West Conference is noted for its geographic diversity. Some of the most beautiful terrain and landscapes in the nation can be found within Mountain West Conference boundaries, including the majestic Rocky Mountain range, which borders four MWC schools (Utah, BYU, Air Force and Colorado State). The high plains of Wyoming (elevation 7,220 feet – the highest Division I campus in the nation) contrast with the desert city of Las Vegas (the fastest growing metropolitan area in the West) and the Pacific Ocean locale of San Diego State. The southwestern flavor of New Mexico complements the western heritage and culture of Fort Worth, Texas, home of the MWC's newest member, TCU.

The Mountain West Conference was conceived on May 26, 1998, when the presidents of eight institutions —

Air Force, BYU, Colorado State, New Mexico, San Diego State, UNLV, Utah and Wyoming — decided to form a new NCAA Division I-A intercollegiate athletic conference. The split from the former 16-team conference re-established continuity and stability among the membership within the new league and signaled the continuation of its tradition-rich, long-standing athletic rivalries. Five of the MWC's eight original members have been conference rivals since the 1960s (BYU, Utah, New Mexico, Wyoming, Colorado State), while San Diego State (1978) and Air Force (1980) were longtime members as well. UNLV entered the fold in 1996 and TCU began its first year of competition in 2005-06, completing the membership in the MWC as it stands today.

In the summer of 2006 saw the historic launch of The Mtn. – the first sports network dedicated to serving a single collegiate athletic conference. The Mtn. provides sports fans blanket coverage of MWC athletics across multiple sports, including football, men's and women's basketball, and men's and women's Olympic sports. The Mtn. features more than just live games and has added its own original programming. Fans get a comprehensive array of news, features and analysis about their favorite MWC teams and players.

The MWC television package will continue to reach a national audience in 2009-10 through a combination of telecasts on The MountainWest Sports Network (The Mtn.), CBS College Sports Network and VERSUS. The Mtn. is available to cable subscribers throughout the Western U.S. and nationally through DirectTV and Comcast.

The MWC has remained steadfast in its mission to promote the league's athletic events to national and regional television audiences and will continue to grow its new TV model. Previously, ESPN served as the league's inaugural official television partner, while in-house productions guaranteed coverage for several MWC Olympic sports. Through the league's first nine years, excluding institutional local packages, 1,200 football, volleyball, men's basketball and women's basketball events have aired on television, with 178 football games and over 159 men's basketball contests broadcast nationally.

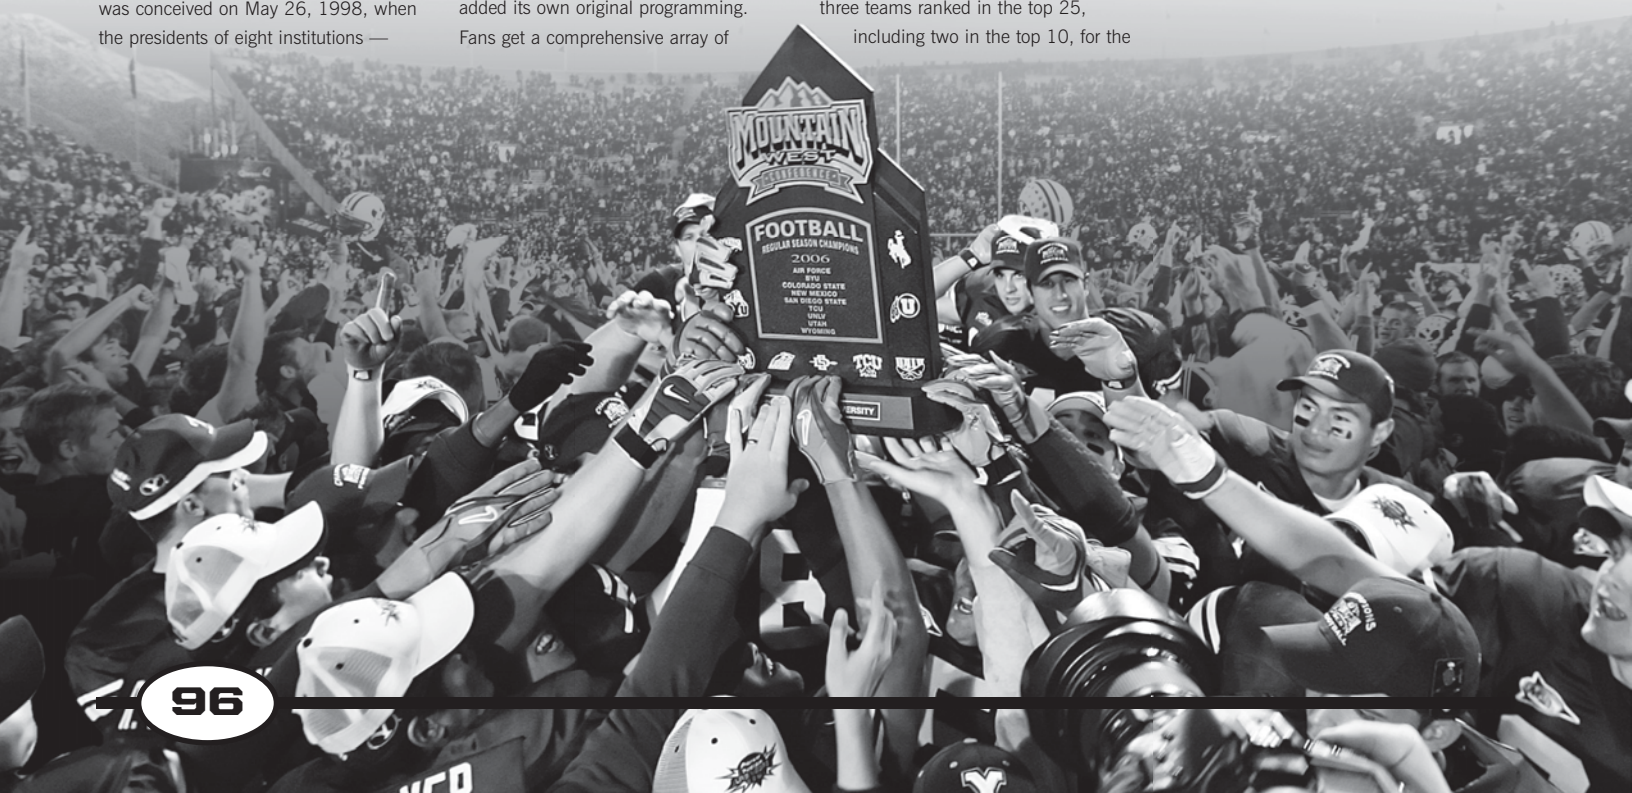

The 2008 season was a landmark year for Mountain West football. The MWC finished the 2008 season with three teams ranked in the top 25, including two in the top 10, for the first time in league history. Utah finished No. 2 in the Associated Press and No. 4 in the USA Today Coaches' polls. TCU was No. 7 in both polls, while BYU was No. 21 in the Coaches' poll and No. 25 in the AP. The MWC was tied with the Big 12 and SEC with two teams in the top seven.

Over the past five seasons, the MWC owns the best win percentage in bowl games among the 11 conferences with a 14-7 mark (.667). The SEC is second with a 24-13 (.649) record, followed by the Pac-10 at 18-10 (.643). The MWC also is 7-3 against BCS automatic-qualifying conferences in bowl games since 2004.

Over the last two years, Utah is 22-4 and BYU is 21-5 overall. Only five teams in the country have achieved more wins over that two-year span (USC, Oklahoma, Boise State, Texas, Missouri).

BYU is one of only nine teams to be ranked in final AP Poll each of the past three seasons (Florida, USC, Texas, Oklahoma, Ohio State, Georgia, Virginia Tech and West Virginia). BYU is the only program from a non-automatic qualifying BCS conference to be ranked in the final polls each of the last three seasons.

THE MWC – AN ELITE FOOTBALL CONFERENCE

The MWC became the first non-automatic-qualifying BCS conference to have three teams ranked all eight weeks of the BCS Standings in 2008. The MWC was one of three conferences with at least three teams ranked in the top 16 (Big 12 - 4, SEC - 3) of the final standings - Utah ranked No. 6, TCU 11th and BYU at No. 16. The MWC is the first non-automatic-qualifying conference in the BCS era to have three teams ranked in the top 25 of the final Associated Press and USA Today Coaches' polls. It is also the first time two teams have finished in the top 10 (Utah No. 2 and TCU No. 7). Three MWC teams ranked among the top 20 in the national polls for eight consecutive weeks during the regular season.

NUMBER OF TEAMS IN 2008 FINAL BCS STANDINGS BY CONFERENCE

BIG 12	5 Teams – (1) OU, (3) Texas, (7) Tex Tech, (13) OK St., (21) Missouri
SEC	4 Teams – (2) Florida, (4) Alabama, (15) Georgia, (25) Mississippi
BIG 10	4 Teams – (8) Penn St., (10) Ohio S., (18) Mich. St. (23) NW
MWC	3 Teams – (6) Utah, (11) TCU, (16) BYU
ACC	3 Teams – (14) Georgia Tech, (19) Virginia Tech, (24) BC
PAC 10	2 Teams – (5) USC, (17) Oregon
BIG EAST	2 Teams – (12) Cincinnati, (20) Pittsburgh
WAC	1 Team – (9) Boise State
MAC	1 Team – (22) Ball State

The Mountain West Conference is made up of nine universities from eight Western states. TCU was added to the conference on 2005.

THE 2009 SCHEDULE

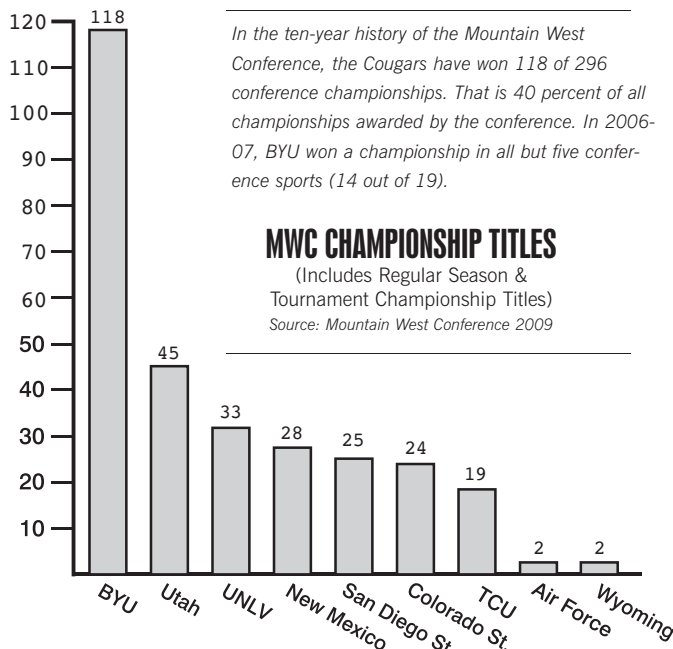

The 2009 Mountain West Conference football schedule is comprised of 72 games. Fifty-four of the 55 MWC-controlled games are set for Saturdays (98 percent). The MWC will play 14 games against BCS automatic-qualifying conference opponents, including six against the Big 12, three match-ups with both the ACC and Pac-10, and one each against the Big East and Big Ten. The remainder of the nonconference schedule features 10 games against the WAC, three match-ups with CUSA and one contest with the Sun Belt. The non-conference schedule also features 13 contests against teams that earned bowl berths in 2008, including Clemson, Florida State, Hawai'i, Minnesota, Navy, Nevada (two games), Oklahoma, Oregon, Oregon State, Texas, Texas Tech and Tulsa. Six opponents finished ranked in last year's final Top 25 polls (USA Today/AP) – #3/4 Texas, #5/5 Oklahoma, #9/10 Oregon, #12/12 Texas Tech, #19/18 Oregon State and #23/21 Florida State.

RECORDS AGAINST NON-CONFERENCE BCS OPPONENTS

The Mountain West posted the best record in the Football Bowl Subdivision this season against automatic-qualifying-BCS Conferences with a 10-6 mark (including Notre Dame). Five of the nine MWC teams chalked up victories.

2008 RECORDS VS. AQ-BCS OPPONENTS

CONFERENCE	WINNING PCT.
MOUNTAIN WEST	10-6 (.625)
Pac-10	10-8 (.555)
Big East	11-9 (.550)
ACC	17-14 (.548)
SEC	11-10 (.524)
Big 12	11-11 (.500)
Big Ten	7-13 (.350)
WAC	5-14 (.263)
MAC	6-23 (.207)
Sun Belt	2-20 (.090)
C-USA	2-23 (.080)

In the ten-year history of the Mountain West Conference, the Cougars have won 118 of 296 conference championships. That is 40 percent of all championships awarded by the conference. In 2006-07, BYU won a championship in all but five conference sports (14 out of 19).

VS.

The BYU vs. Utah rivalry has become one of the most-heated and most-anticipated match-ups in the nation. The Utes and the Cougars have met 84 times since 1922. Utah dominated the rivalry until 1965 when the Cougars began to hold the advantage over the Utes. Since 1965 BYU is 28-16 against the Utes. Except for 2004 and 2008, the last nine meetings in this rivalry have been decided by seven points or less including four last-minute comebacks by BYU in 2000, 2001, 2006 and 2007.

“I think people from the South and from the Midwest ought to see this. This is a big-time football rivalry.”

– Bill Curry, former ESPN College Football Analyst and current head coach at Georgia State

It all started on October 14, 1922. Well, according to BYU, anyway. Utah claims the first meeting between the schools was on April 6, 1896, when BYU was still Brigham Young Academy.

It's just one of many things the two schools don't agree on. The Academy played Utah six times between 1896 and 1898, before Provo could officially boast its own full-fledged university. Each team won three games.

The Cougars and the Utes have built a strong tradition of intense competition in the 83 years of the rivalry. With the exception of the war years from 1943-45, the two schools have faced each other every year since 1922.

The Utes dominated the series early on, avoiding defeat until 1942, when the Cougars finally won, 12-7, in Salt Lake City behind Coach Floyd Millet. The success was short-lived, however, as it took BYU another 16 years to win another contest, 14-7, again in Salt Lake City in 1958. In all, Utah won 34 of the first 40 contests, four of which were ties.

In 1965, the momentum began to turn in BYU's favor. The Cougars took three in a row from the Utes from 1965-67, and although Utah won the next four, the competition had become much more interesting.

In 1972, the series took on an entirely different feeling with the arrival of LaVell Edwards as BYU's new head coach. He took on a program that had gone 5-38-4 (.149) against its fiercest rival and proceeded to post a 22-7 (.757) record against Utah in 29 years, including wins in 15 of his first 16 meetings with the Utes. In the Edwards era, the Cougars outscored the Utes an average of 34.9 to 20.9 per contest. Coach Edwards' career included winning streaks of nine (1979-87) and six (1972-77) games against Utah.

The annual showdown generates considerable interest throughout the state, making it a virtual certainty that whatever stadium the teams play in will be sold out well in advance. In all, seven of Utah's top ten home crowds before the expansion of Rice-Eccles Stadium were for games against BYU.

Meanwhile, 45 miles south in Provo, the grudge match has accounted for five of the 20 largest crowds in the history of LaVell Edwards Stadium.

One of the more memorable moments in the rivalry was the 1989 contest in which the Cougars pasted the Utes, 70-31, in Provo. It was a game in which the home team scored touchdowns in each of its first seven possessions and in all eight with Ty Detmer as quarterback. In a move of mercy, Detmer was replaced by backup Sean Covey late in the second quarter.

Then there were the infamous back-to-back, 34-31, losses at the hands of the Utes in 1993 and 1994, giving rebirth to a rivalry that had become ridiculously lopsided in the 80s and early 90s. In all, the Utes won three in a row (1993-95) under coach Ron McBride.

The Cougars responded to the new aggression in 1996 with a dominating, 37-17, victory in Salt Lake City. BYU employed an extremely unconventional approach, gaining 376 yards in 63 attempts on the ground and attempting only 12 passes.

In 1998, a well-placed ESPN microphone picked up an audible “clank” as the potential game-winning kick bounced off the right goal post and BYU escaped with a, 26-24 victory. BYU let the Utes back into the game after having seemingly put the game away in the fourth quarter, allowing Utah to set up a 32-yard field goal to win the game. Mysteriously, the short chip shot hooked right at the last possible moment, giving the Cougars reason to celebrate.

In 2000 LaVell Edwards worked his magic for the last time as Brandon Doman's touchdown with 23 seconds remaining finished an amazing last minute comeback to send the legendary BYU coach out a winner.

Lately home field advantage seems to have become less of a factor, as the Utes won three straight at Edwards Stadium (1995, '97, '99) and the Cougars won three in a row in Salt Lake City (1996, 1998, 2000).

In 2001, BYU changed the trend in a miraculous, come-from-behind victory in Provo. With less than four minutes left in the game and down 11 points, BYU's hopes for a perfect season seemed dim. But Luke Staley scored two touchdowns in just over two minutes to erase the deficit and give the Cougars the 24-21 victory. The game was far from over after Staley's 30-yard touchdown. Lance Rice led Utah on a final drive in the last minute. Rice converted a key fourth-and-10 with a trick play, advancing the ball to the BYU 30-yard line. But on the very next play, Jernaro Gilford stepped in front of a Rice pass and intercepted the ball to seal the game.

2006 may have been one of the greatest games in the history of the rivalry. With the lead switching hands several times in the final minutes, BYU drove 75 yards in 10 plays in the last 1:19 to win the game, responding to a nine-play, 83-yard Utah drive. All-American John Beck connected with wide open tight end Jonny Harline in the end zone on the game's final play in what has been deemed “the 13-second miracle” for Cougar fans. The 33-31 victory sealed a perfect league record for BYU and their first victory over Utah since 2001.

In 2007 both teams brought seven-game winning streaks into the matchup, causing temperatures to be at an all-time high. No. 23 BYU defeated its archrival on the final drive to take a 17-10 win. Austin Collie's game-saving 49-yard reception on a fourth-and-18 during the Cougars' final drive set up Harvey Unga's 14-yard touchdown run with 38 seconds remaining. With the win the Cougars became the outright Mountain West Conference Champions for the second season in a row. The win also allowed Mendenhall's club to move ahead in the national polls to No. 19.

In 2008 Utah got revenge from two heart-breaking defeats with a win in Salt Lake City that helped propel them into a BCS berth in the Sugar Bowl.

JONNY HARLINE, 2006

In 2006, the Cougars performed one of the most memorable plays in BYU football history when John Beck found Jonny Harline (above) all alone in the end zone as time expired, giving No. 21 BYU a 33-31 come-from-behind victory over rival Utah. Jonny Harline hauled in three touchdowns on the day but none were bigger than his final TD as time expired. The late-game heroics also gave BYU an unblemished conference record of 8-0.

Over the past three seasons BYU is 22-2 against Mountain West Conference opponents. BYU's 45-42 come-from-behind victory over Colorado State in 2008 was one of the most exciting games during that span. (above) Dennis Pitta's winning TD catch.

THE COUGARS QUEST IN 2008

In 2008 BYU continued to strengthen the tradition, spirit and honor that have helped re-establish its standing among the nation's elite football programs.

BYU earned a spot in the national polls each week during the 2008 season, including a ranking as high as No. 7. The Cougars went through the regular season with a 10-2 record, with road blemishes at No. 6 Utah and No. 11 TCU. Utah went on to finish No. 2 in the nation while TCU earned a No. 7 final ranking as the Mountain West Conference produced three Top 25 teams. BYU finished third in the MWC at 6-2 and received an invitation to the 2008 Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl ranked No. 16 in the final BCS standings before a 31-21 defeat to Arizona in Las Vegas.

At 10-3 overall, BYU added to the tradition of Cougar football by achieving 10 or more wins for the third-straight season—something only accomplished twice previously (1979-81, 1983-85) during the program's storied history. In doing so, the current Cougars did something not accomplished by any of their predecessors, going unbeaten at home for the third-straight season. While defending its home turf, BYU produced many memorable moments, including a 59-0 win over 2007 Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl opponent UCLA.

BYU became one of only nine schools nationally to be ranked in the top 25 of the final BCS standings each of the past three seasons, joining Oklahoma, Texas, Florida,

USC, Ohio State, Boise State, Boston College and Virginia Tech. In fact, over the past three seasons only five teams have won more games than the Cougars. With BYU's 32-6 three-year record, only Boise State (35-3), Florida (34-6), Oklahoma (34-7), Ohio State (33-5) and USC (33-5) have more victories over that span.

The Cougars showed the spirit and honor of their program in 2008 with a firm commitment to the ideals of Brigham Young University. The team again conducted firesides the night before each game during the season, reaching out to fans, followers and any others with interest in learning more about the guiding principles that provide direction and balance to the lives of the members of the team. With 80 returned missionaries on the team, BYU boasted a group of young men with a proven record of service to others and that tradition was continued during the season through various service and speaking opportunities.

Academically, only Penn State (4) placed more student-athletes on the ESPN the Magazine Academic All-America First Team than BYU as starters David Oswald (offensive tackle), Matt Bauman (linebacker) and Kellen Fowler (safety) each earned the high honor. Dating back to 1966, 28 BYU football players have received Academic All-America honors but never before have the Cougars had three members earn first-team accolades during the same season.

On the field, five Cougars were named to the 2008 All-Mountain West Conference First Team while four others earned All-MWC Second Team honors. Junior wide receiver Austin Collie, junior tight end Dennis Pitta and senior offensive linemen Ray Feinga and Dallas Reynolds were named to the first-team offense, while junior defensive lineman Jan Jorgensen was named to the first-team defense. Pitta and TCU defensive lineman Jerry Hughes were the only unanimous selections on this year's teams. With Pitta's selection, BYU has claimed first-team tight end honors the past four seasons with Pitta earning back-to-back recognition after Jonny Harline accomplished the feat in 2005 and 2006.

Fellow Cougars Feinga, Reynolds and Jorgensen joined Pitta and Utah's Louie Sakoda as the only MWC student-athletes to repeat as first-team members in 2008. Collie, a second-team selection last season, earned his place on the first team in 2008 after leading the nation in receiving yards with a BYU single-season record 1,538 receiving yards. The Cougars placed a league-high four players on the first-team offense along with Utah. Junior quarterback Max Hall, sophomore running back Harvey Unga, senior offensive lineman Travis Bright and senior linebacker David Nixon earned second-team recognition while senior defensive back David Tafuna and senior punter CJ Santiago received honorable mention.

Seven Cougars received All-America accolades for their play on the field. Collie, was named to six different BYU finished the regular season with 10 wins for the third straight year. Over the past three seasons only five teams have won more games than the Cougars. With BYU's 32-6 three-year record, only Boise State (35-3), Florida (34-6), Oklahoma (34-7), Ohio State (33-5) and USC (33-5) have more victories over that span.

BYU has gone unbeaten at home over each of the last three seasons to become the first BYU teams to ever go three consecutive seasons undefeated at home. BYU's MWC record streak for consecutive home wins is currently at 18.

BYU has sold out 12 consecutive games at LaVell Edwards Stadium (average attendance was 64,102 in 2008). BYU was one of 23 teams nationally to average 100 percent capacity or better at home in 2008.

teams, including first-team All-America recognition from CBSsports.com and second-team accolades from The Associated Press. Pitta and Dallas Reynolds were a third-team selections while Hall and Feinga received honorable mention. Matt Reynolds was named to four Freshman All-America teams, including three first-team awards, and Unga earned honorable mention for Sophomore All-America. Collie, Hall, Pitta, Jorgensen, Reynolds and Feinga were also among the top considerations for national awards at their respective positions.

The Cougars got off to a strong start on the season going 6-0 with wins over Northern Iowa, Washington, Wyoming, Utah State and New Mexico. After a loss at nationally ranked TCU, the Cougars put themselves in contention for a third straight MWC title with four straight victories before falling to BCS-bound Utah in Salt Lake City. With the loss, the BYU placed third at 6-2 in a strong MWC that went 9-2 against the SEC, Big Ten and Pac-10 in 2008.

The Cougars boasted a powerful and exciting attack that finished ranked No. 6 nationally in passing offense at 310.38 yards per game, No. 13 in passing efficiency (155.10), No. 16 in total offense at 444.77 yards per game and No. 20 in scoring offense at 34.23 points per game. BYU was also No. 2 in the nation in fumbles recovered (21) and 39th in scoring defense (allowing 21.92 points per game) while ranking No. 9 in kickoff returns (24.6 yards).

Individually, Collie led the country in total receiving yards (1,538) and in receiving yards per game (118.31) and was 12th nationally in all-purpose yards each game (162.46). Pitta was second among tight ends and 27th among all receivers at 83.31 receiving yards per game while Max Hall was No. 6 in passing yards per game (304.38), No. 7 in total passing yards (3,957), No. 8 in completions per game (25.38), No. 9 in total offense (313.23) and No. 11 in passing efficiency (157.21) while completing 69.2 percent of his passes and totaling an MWC single-season record 35 touchdowns, including seven scoring throws vs. UCLA. Unga provided BYU a 1,000-yard runner for the second-straight season with 1,132 yards after 1,227 during a Freshman All-America campaign in 2007.

Max Hall was sensational in the season opener, throwing for 486 yards and leading BYU to a 41-17 victory over Northern Iowa. Dennis Pitta was his primary target. Pitta had the 10th highest receiving performance in BYU history with 11 catches for 213 yards.

BYU VS. NORTHERN IOWA GAME RECAP

The Cougars opened the 2008 season increasing the nation's longest-active winning streak to 11 games by defeating Northern Iowa 41-17 in front of a sell-out home crowd at LaVell Edwards Stadium. Junior tight end Dennis Pitta racked up 213 yards receiving on the afternoon with 11 catches, while junior quarterback Max Hall threw for 486 yards with two touchdowns, marking the most yards since posting a career-high 537 yards against Tulsa in 2007. Hall connected with senior receiver Michael Reed to score the season opening touchdown, while running back Harvey Unga made a 19-yard reception for the Cougars' second touchdown. Unga rushed for two additional touchdowns before the end of the half. Hall rushed for a one-yard touchdown and freshman running back Bryan Kariya made a 14-yard run for back-to-back touchdowns by the Cougars in the fourth quarter. The defense allowed a field goal and a 76-yard pass and Northern Iowa recovered a fumbled and returned it for a touchdown.

BYU's offense, led by Harvey Unga (above), rolled up 475 yards of total offense against the Huskies, but it was the defense that made the play of the day. After Washington drove down the field to score with three seconds remaining and cut BYU's lead to one point, defensive lineman Jan Jorgensen broke through the line to block Ryan Perkins extra point attempt and preserve a BYU victory.

BYU VS. WASHINGTON GAME RECAP

BYU narrowly defeated the Washington Huskies on the road with a blocked PAT by junior defensive lineman Jan Jorgensen in the final seconds to secure a 28-27 win. The Cougars were up 28-21 following a 15-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Max Hall to tight end Dennis Pitta with less than four minutes remaining in the game. The BYU defense was unable to hold back the Huskies as their quarterback ran in a three-yard touchdown. The Huskies were charged with a 15-yard penalty for celebrating following the touchdown and attempted the blocked PAT from the 25-yard line. BYU got on the board first with Hall completing to junior receiver Austin Collie for a 38-yard touchdown pass, but the Huskies answered back to tie the game, before taking a 14-7 lead on their following drive. Sophomore running back Harvey Unga rushed BYU downfield before Hall completed a one-yard touchdown pass to junior tight end Andrew George tying the game 14-14 at the half. Washington scored on a one-yard touchdown pass and the Cougars answered back with a 14-yard touchdown run by senior running back Fui Vakapuna. The Cougars took the lead with Hall's 15-yard pass to Pitta before the Huskies matched the touchdown, but failed on the extra-point. Unga rushed for 136 yards, Pitta caught 10 balls for 148 yards and Hall passed for 338 yards and three touchdowns.

BYU's offense was unstoppable against the Bruins while the defense earned their first shutout since 2006. During a wild second quarter BYU racked up 35 points, including a beautiful 37-yard Max Hall to Austin Collie touchdown pass (above) just moments after Jan Jorgensen forced a UCLA fumble.

BYU VS. UCLA GAME RECAP

In one of the biggest shutouts in school history, the 15th-ranked Cougars dismantled the UCLA Bruins 59-0 at LaVell Edwards Stadium and gave BYU at 3-0 mark on the season. Quarterback Max Hall set the BYU single-half touchdown record with six in the first half and finishing with seven in the game before being relieved in the third quarter. The seven touchdown passes tied the school record held by Jim McMahon and Marc Wilson. Hall spread his arsenal across many options of the offense. Junior receiver Austin Collie totaled 110 yards and Dennis Pitta added five receptions for 47 yards. Receiver Michael Reed matched Pitta's five receptions for a total of 90 yards and one touchdown. Harvey Unga proved to be a valuable tool running for 71 yards and grabbing 42 yards off of five receptions. The Cougars effectiveness on the offensive side of the ball was matched by the defense's performance. They stopped all UCLA scoring attempts and forced six turnovers. Matt Putnam grabbed an interception and both Ian Dulan and Jan Jorgensen sacked UCLA quarterback Kevin Craft. BYU scored one touchdown on a 10-yard pass from Hall to Pitta in the first quarter before pouring on an additional 35 points in the second quarter. Hall and Collie totaled back-to-back touchdown receptions, including a 37-yard pass. Reed was the beneficiary of a 12-yard pass, while Unga caught a 15-yard touchdown pass. Hall connected with Pitta on a two-yard touchdown pass to head into the half with a 42-0 lead. Hall met Unga for a six-yard touchdown before leaving the game in the third quarter. Mitch Payne made a 24-yard field goal and Wayne Latu made a 13-yard run into the end zone to give the Cougars a 59-0 victory.

BYU VS. WYOMING GAME RECAP

BYU recorded back-to-back shutouts for the first time since 1985 with a 44-0 win over the Wyoming Cowboys after defeating UCLA 59-0 the previous week. The Cougars improved to 4-0 on the season with the win. The BYU defensive unit rolled over Wyoming. BYU forced six turnovers and only allowed the Cowboys to convert on 4-of-13 third-down attempts, yet the defense was most impressive for returning two turnovers for touchdowns. Junior defensive back Scott Johnson returned a dropped ball from a Wyoming receiver to record a 64-yard touchdown, putting the Cougars up on the board first. The offense was unable to get much done until the second quarter when an 86-yard scoring drive culminated with a 1-yard touchdown run by Harvey Unga. The Cougars scored on their next possession when BYU junior quarterback Max Hall connected with junior receiver Austin Collie on a 62-yard touchdown reception. The Hall and Collie tandem met for another touchdown off a seven-yard pass and the Cougars finished the first half with a 27-0 lead. On its first possession of the third quarter BYU got to work quickly as Hall was 5-for-5 on the drive with an 11-yard touchdown pass to Unga. BYU linebacker David Nixon returned an interception for the defense's second touchdown. The Cougars marched downfield and settled for a 31-yard field goal from freshman Justin Sorensen, which gave BYU a 44-0 lead to ride out on for the remainder of the game. Unga totaled 95 yards on the ground and Collie 122 through the air to lead the Cougars.

Austin Collie's 76-yard touchdown reception in the first quarter (above) helped BYU jump out to a 34-0 lead. The Cougars defense held opponents scoreless for 11 quarters before Utah State was able to crack BYU's armor for 14 points in the final quarter.

BYU VS. UTAH STATE GAME RECAP

Junior receiver Austin Collie led the Cougars with his third-straight game with more than 100 receiving yards while BYU improved to 5-0 with a 34-14 victory over the Utah State Aggies in Logan, Utah. Collie totaled eight catches for 132 yards with two touchdowns. Junior Quarterback Max Hall threw for 303 yards spreading the ball to seven different receivers during the night. BYU had 406 yards of total offense as sophomore running back Harvey Unga ran for 92 yard on 22 carries. The Cougars extended their streak of shutout quarter to 11 before Utah State scored on a 40-yard touchdown run with just under 14 minutes remaining in the fourth quarter. Prior to Utah State's touchdown BYU had scored 137 unanswered points against three different opponents. Hall and Collie began making an impact with a 76-yard touchdown during BYU's first series of the game. The Cougar defense recovered a fumble after junior linebacker Coleby Clawson rushed the quarterback for a sack. Sophomore Mitch Payne kicked a 45-yard field through the uprights. Linebacker David Nixon followed with an interception to set the Cougars up for an 11-yard touchdown run for Unga. Payne kicked his second field goal of the game from 21 yards out before the Cougars scored their final points when Hall and Collie met again on a 12-yard pass to the corner of the end zone. The Aggies scored two touchdowns in the fourth quarter for the 34-14 final score.

NEW MEXICO 3

BYU extended its winning streak to 16 games as they defeated a determined Lobo team with a very stingy defense. Tight end Andrew George grabbed two touchdowns (above) and Max Hall led the Cougars on a key 11-play 76-yard scoring drive in the games final minutes to give BYU a three-score advantage. Linebacker Coleby Clawson had two sacks on New Mexico's final drive to seal the game.

BYU VS. NEW MEXICO GAME RECAP

BYU became bowl eligible for the fourth-consecutive season and improved to 6-0 after a 21-3 victory over New Mexico at LaVell Edwards Stadium. During BYU's scoreless first quarter, the Lobos put up the first points of the game with a 27-yard field goal, giving New Mexico its only points of the day. Junior quarterback Max Hall came to life connecting with junior tight end Andrew George on a 1-yard touchdown pass to overcome the deficit. Hall and George also connected on an 11-yard pass in the third quarter. Hall finished the day completing 22-for-34 passes for 258 yard. Collie led the team with a career-high 155 yards on nine catches. Hall and Collie added another touchdown to the BYU lead with an 8-yard pass into the end zone. The BYU defensive unit continued to keep the Lobos out of the end zone.

Against one of the top defenses in the nation, BYU's high powered offense struggled to get into the endzone. After a Max Hall third-quarter touchdown, the Cougars looked like they were ready to make a comeback against the Horned Frogs, but turnovers ended key drives and the nation's longest winning streak came to an end in Ft. Worth.

BYU VS. TCU GAME RECAP

The nation's longest football winning streak came to an end as No. 8 BYU fell to No. 24 TCU, 32-7. The Cougars had won 16-straight games dating back to Sept. 22, 2007. Among the limited highlights on the night for BYU was wide receiver who totaled more than 100 receiving yards for the fifth straight game to tie a Mountain West Conference record. Junior Austin Collie caught 6 passes for 116 yards. Junior defensive lineman Jan Jorgensen also tied the MWC career sack record at 20.5 with a sack of TCU's Jeremy Kerley in the second quarter. The majority of the night belonged to TCU. On BYU's opening possession, the Horned Frogs forced a Max Hall fumble at the 40-yard line. TCU scored two plays later. TCU led 23-0 at the break. The scoreless half was BYU's first since trailing Boston College 10-0 at home on Sept. 3, 2005. TCU opened the second half with a field goal on its first possession. BYU responded with a 15-play, 72-yard drive capped off by a Hall scamper on fourth and goal from the 2-yard line to make the score 26-7. Unfortunately for the Cougars, TCU answered with a 76-yard drive for a touchdown and the final score of the game, 32-7. Hall finished the night 22-42 for 274 yards, but was sacked six times. Tight end Dennis Pitta, a John Mackey Award candidate, caught eight passes for 84 yards. Running back Harvey Unga carried the ball 14 times for 54 yards and caught four passes for 40 more.

UNLV 35
NO. 17 BYU 42

After Max Hall led BYU on an 11-play 74-yard drive in the final minutes to put BYU ahead for good, the Cougar defense made a big stop against the Rebel passing attack. With 17 ticks on the clock, UNLV quarterback Omar Clayton was chased down and sacked by freshman lineman Matt Putnam to force the Rebels back to the 25. The Rebels had one more play at third-and-22 and seven seconds left but Andrew Rich intercepted Clayton's pass in the end zone to finish the game with BYU's 42-35 lead intact.

BYU VS. UNLV GAME RECAP

No. 17 BYU started and ended the game against UNLV with big plays and endured a hard-fought battle in between to secure a 42-35 victory. BYU junior wide receiver Austin Collie started off the game with a 75-yard kickoff return to set up BYU's earliest scoring strike of the season when Andrew George hauled in an eight-yard touchdown pass from Max Hall with just 2:35 gone off the clock. The Cougars and Rebels stayed within one scoring possession of each other during the entire game. Every BYU touchdown was answered by a UNLV touchdown until 28-28 when BYU pulled away with back-to-back field goals by Mitch Payne, bringing the score to 34-28. But the Rebels weren't finished as they achieved their only lead of the game at 35-34 with just 6:49 remaining. BYU's urgency to score produced another Cougar touchdown as Hall connected to Dennis Pitta with 1:46 left in the game, bringing the score to 42-35. The game ended when sophomore defensive back Andrew Rich intercepted UNLV in the end zone as time expired to end the Rebels' last-chance attempt to force overtime. Hall led the offensively dominated game going 24-of-31 for 245 yards and four touchdowns, while Collie led the team with seven receptions for 113 yards. Collie set a new MWC record with his sixth straight 100-yard receiving game. BYU totaled 454 yards of total offense with a season-high 209 yards rushing and 245 yards in the air.

Tight end Dennis Pitta scored two clutch fourth-quarter touchdowns that helped give the Cougars a 45-42, come-from-behind victory over Colorado State. Pitta's first touchdown was a sensational grab (above) between two CSU defenders while the second gave BYU the win with 22 seconds remaining in the game.

BYU VS. COLORADO STATE GAME RECAP

No. 17 BYU defeated Colorado State 45-42. BYU rolled up 551 yards of total offense with quarterback Max Hall completing 28-of-37 passes for 389 yards and five touchdowns. The nation's leading receiver, Austin Collie had nine receptions for 156 yards and a career-high three touchdowns. Dennis Pitta had a career-high 12 catches for 175 yards and two touchdowns, while Unga had 24 carries for 143 yards rushing. After a 66-yard BYU touchdown from Hall to Collie was called back, CSU recovered a Hall fumble and returned it 20 yards for a touchdown with just 2:02 off the game clock. BYU evened the score on its next possession as Hall found Collie, who made an incredible one-handed grab for a 58-yard touchdown to even the score at 7-7. The Rams scored again with 3:27 to go in the first quarter to take a 14-7 lead, but BYU answered with a Hall to Collie strike again. Both teams scored late in the second quarter to knot the score at 21-21 at the half. The Rams struck first in the second half with a touchdown for a 28-21 lead, answered by a 30-yard Mitch Payne field goal to make the score 28-24 at the end of the third quarter. BYU took its first lead of the contest as Hall found Pitta over the middle for a touchdown with 13:15 to play in the fourth quarter and a 35-31 lead. But another CSU score took the lead back at 35-31 at the 7:20 mark. Four plays later, Harvey Unga raced 40 yards up the middle to give the Cougars a 38-35 lead with 5:49 to play. After both teams failed to score on their next possession, the Rams scored another touchdown with just 1:44 to play. Hall then led his team to cover 76 yards in six plays, taking just 1:14 on the clock. It was capped by a 17-yard strike to Pitta with just 22 seconds on the clock.

BYU's defense, led by senior linebacker David Nixon's 14 tackles, shut out the Aztecs in the first half as the Cougars cruised to a 41-12 victory in their home finale. Nixon had an interception in the second quarter and gave the Cougar faithful a lot to cheer about in his last home game in LaVell Edwards Stadium.

BYU VS. SAN DIEGO STATE GAME RECAP

The BYU football team capped a remarkable third straight undefeated home season with its 41-12 win over San Diego State. The team remains undefeated at home dating back to 2005, while the 18 straight home wins marks the most in BYU history. BYU junior quarterback Max Hall led the Cougars, passing for 317 yards, completing 25-of-30. In nine of Hall's completions he found junior receiver Austin Collie, who had another standout game with a total of 127 yards, marking his eighth straight game over the century mark and 14th overall. With that, Collie became the Mountain West Conference all-time leader for 100-yard games. On the defensive side of the ball, BYU senior linebacker David Nixon had a career-best 14 total tackles and one interception. Nixon served as a catalyst for the entire defense that limited SDSU to 280 offensive yards and only one touchdown. From SDSU's first possession the BYU defense took control of the game, forcing a turnover on the first snap, setting the Cougars up for their first touchdown. BYU led 20-0 at the half. On the second-half kickoff SDSU fumbled the ball and BYU recovering it set up a Cougar touchdown by Wayne Latu. The Aztecs ruined BYU's hope for a third shutout of the season when SDSU kicked a 49-yard field goal, followed by a Cougar turnover and another Aztec field goal. To start the final quarter of play, Hall and Collie connected for a 61-yard touchdown. The near-perfect defense surrendered only one touchdown during the game at the tail end of the fourth quarter. A missed PAT made the score at 41-12.

After trailing 10-14 at halftime, the Cougars exploded to a 21-point third quarter en route to a huge road victory. BYU's special teams helped turn the momentum in the third quarter in BYU's favor. The Cougars' kickoff unit forced an Air Force fumble (above) that led to a Harvey Unga touchdown and pushed the BYU lead to 24-14 in the third quarter.

BYU VS. AIR FORCE GAME RECAP

All-America candidate Austin Collie continued his record-setting pace with 130 receiving yards and two touchdowns while quarterback Max Hall threw for 354 yards to lead No. 14 BYU to a 38-24 win at Air Force. Collie totaled more than 100 receiving yards for the ninth straight game to extend his MWC record and set the new conference mark for total 100-yard games overall at nine. With 1,315 receiving yards on the season, Collie became BYU's all-time single-season leader. Collie was joined by tight end Dennis Pitta, who caught nine balls for 113 yards as the Cougars rolled up 354 passing yards among 480 yards of total offense. The Cougars put the only points of the first quarter on the board when Fui Vakapuna powered his way to the end zone from 11 yards out. Hall was a perfect 9-for-9 in the air for 97 yards in the first quarter, while linebacker David Nixon put an end to Air Force's best scoring chance of the quarter by blocking a field-goal attempt. After a Mitch Payne 46-yard field goal, the Falcons turned the momentum their way with back-to-back touchdowns on drives of 32 and 83 yards to claim the advantage at 14-10. In the third quarter the Cougars became the first team all year to score 21 points in a single quarter against the Falcons. Running back Harvey Unga scored twice on runs of 1 and 2 yards and Hall connected with Collie for a 6-yard touchdown. The Falcons fought back in the fourth quarter with an 85-yard drive to pull within seven at 31-24 with 7:37 remaining. The Cougars, however, delivered the knockout blow minutes later when Hall connected with Collie for a 45-yard score to give BYU the final 38-24 margin.

For the first time in three years the Cougars lost the state title game, falling to No. 7 Utah on the road. The Cougars were down just three points at the start of the fourth quarter but three turnovers in the final 15 minutes doomed the Cougars' hopes of a third-straight MWC title.

BYU VS. UTAH GAME RECAP

In what was billed as the game of the decade, No. 7 Utah took advantage of six Cougar turnovers to turn a close contest into a 48-24 victory over No. 14 BYU. Before a crowd of 46,488 at Rice-Eccles Stadium, the second largest in Ute history, the two nationally ranked teams matched field goals, touchdowns, punts, but not interceptions and fumbles. Quarterback Max Hall completed 21-of-41 passes for 201 yards, but had a career-high five interceptions. A bright spot for the Cougars was the performance of wide receiver Austin Collie, whose 104 yards receiving gave him his 10th consecutive 100-yard performance. He also surpassed Eric Drage to become BYU's all-time leading receiver, setting a new school record with 3,136 receiving yards. Sophomore running back Harvey Unga had 116 yards rushing on 15 carries to go over 1,000 yards for consecutive seasons. Utah got the scoring going early with a field goal, countered by Collie's 70-yard kickoff return, setting up a 40-yard field goal by Mitch Payne to knot the score, 3-3. Utah scored a touchdown next, putting the Utes up 10-3. After Utah scored again, Unga rushed for a touchdown, which closing the gap to 17-10. After forcing Utah's first punt of the game, BYU went on a nine-play, 75-yard drive to tie the score at 17-17. With 1:41 left in the first half, a field goal gave the Utes a 20-17 lead. On the next BYU possession Collie broke the BYU all-time career reception record, but a Hall interception ended the drive, allowing the Utes to score and tally a 10-point lead at the half (27-17). With 6:36 in the third quarter, Hall scrambled up the middle for an 11-yard touchdown to draw within three at 27-24. BYU's defense stiffened, forcing a third consecutive Utah punt, this time three-and-out. Utah, however, forced a Hall fumble, recovering it and ending the Cougar scores for the night. The fourth quarter was all Utah as three BYU interceptions led to three Ute touchdowns in a game that was much closer than the 48-24 final score.

Arizona's Marquis Hundley intercepted a pass intended for BYU's Austin Collie keeping the Cougars from completing a successful second-half comeback against the Wildcats in their fourth consecutive trip to the Las Vegas Bowl.

LAS VEGAS BOWL GAME RECAP

BYU totaled 444 yards of total offense compared to Arizona's 416, but the No. 16 Cougars fell short of their third-straight bowl victory, falling 31-21 to the Arizona Wildcats in the 2008 Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl at Sam Boyd Stadium on Dec. 20. Trailing late in the game, BYU put pressure on Arizona with a comeback attempt when the Cougars followed a touchdown with a successful on-side kick. Wide receiver O'Neill Chambers recovered the ball for BYU, but the ensuing field-goal attempt hit the upright and left the Wildcats with a two-possession lead, enough to hold on for the win. Despite the loss, the Cougars boasted two 100-yard receivers for only the third time on the season with wideouts Austin Collie and Michael Reed recording 119 and 117 yards, respectively. With his performance, Collie continued to set BYU records in career receptions (215) and single-season receptions (106). The All-American receiver also tied an NCAA single-season record held with Texas Tech's Michael Crabtree with his 11th consecutive 100-yard receiving game. BYU quarterback Max Hall completed 30-of-46 passes for 328 yards and one touchdown pass. He also scrambled into the end zone for a 1-yard touchdown with 3:38 remaining in the game. Sophomore running back Harvey Unga recorded a rushing touchdown for the Cougars and ended the night with 71 yards on 17 carries. The Cougars finished the year 10-3 while the Wildcats improved to 8-5. BYU is one of only seven programs in the nation to win 10 or more games each of the past three seasons. The Cougars last accomplished the feat from 1983-85. A crowd of 40,047 watched the game, marking the fourth-highest attendance at a Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl and the seventh-best attendance in Sam Boyd Stadium history.

BYU did not allow a score for 11 consecutive quarters to tie a Mountain West Conference record. BYU outscored its opponents 137-0 during that stretch, including a 59-0 win over UCLA.

BYU's defense had back-to-back shutouts in September. A 59-0 shutout of UCLA and a 44-0 shutout of Wyoming.

BYU's winning tradition was built by legendary Cougar head coach LaVell Edwards. After taking over the program in 1972, Edwards erected an offensive powerhouse that rewrote the record books and established itself among the nation's elite football programs. Edwards, a two-time NCAA National Coach of the Year and the sixth winningest coach in NCAA history, taught his players and the nation what a passing offense truly was. The Cougar offense passed 103,562 yards (about 59 miles) throughout Edwards' 29 seasons as head coach, and now BYU's football stadium is branded with a namesake worth a lifetime of amazing stories. Since 1972 the Cougars have won 22 conference championships, a national championship in 1984 and 27 postseason appearances.

1972 LaVell Edwards, defensive coordinator for the Cougars, is named head coach in January... had been a member of the BYU staff since 1962... halfback Pete Van Valkenburg wins NCAA rushing title beating out All-Americans Greg Pruitt and Otis Armstrong with a 138.6 yards-per-game average... the Cougars also lead the league in defense against the rush.

1973 The Cougars begin to move offensively... quarterback Gary Sheide is runner-up in NCAA passing and third in total offense... teammate Jay Miller leads the nation in pass receiving (100 receptions for 1,181 yards)... Cougars finish second nationally in passing and eighth in total offense... Miller sets a NCAA record for most pass receptions (22) in one game... running back Steve Stratton is named the first Academic All-American in school history.

1974: LaVell's first WAC Championship

1974 Team ranks high in two NCAA statistical categories: seventh in passing offense, third in rushing defense... Gary Sheide is runner-up in passing for the second year in a row (behind Steve Bartkowski of California) ... Sheide's career completion percentage is fourth all-time.. Bartkowski's final pass completion edged Sheide (182-181) for title... LaVell wins first WAC championship and a trip to the Fiesta Bowl against Oklahoma St.—BYU's first bowl.

1975 A year of adjustment: the Cougars falter through the first part of the season, then win six of their last eight games... Gifford Nielsen, a sophomore reserve, comes off the bench in the fourth game (New Mexico) to spark a come-from-behind victory... Nielsen sets WAC record with 10-of-12 passing... becomes starter... Cougars finish 10th nationally in team passing.

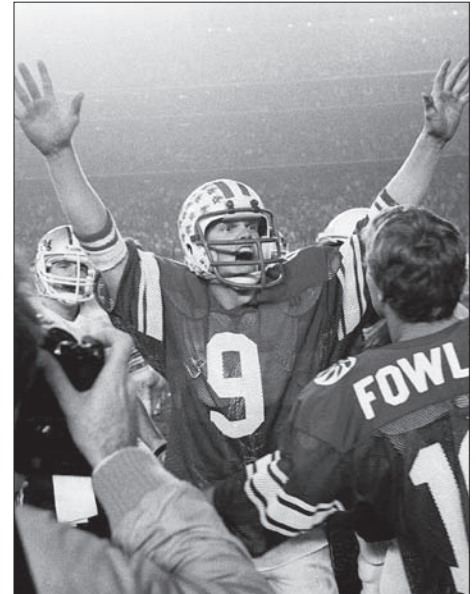

1976 Gifford Nielsen places fourth in NCAA completions per game (18.8) with only one-tenth completion separating him from Jack Thompson (Washington State) in second place... Nielsen finishes second to Tommy Kramer (Rice) in total offense... Cougars finish first in passing (307.8), sixth in total offense (424.4) and eighth in NCAA scoring (31.9)... Nielsen voted first team All-American... BYU ties for WAC title and plays Oklahoma State in the Tangerine Bowl.

1977 Gifford Nielsen unexpectedly exits scene with injury in fourth game (Oregon State) and Marc Wilson takes over... by the end of the year, the two have combined for 40 TD passes, 3,585 yards passing and a .605 completion percentage... Wilson finishes eighth in passing and third in total offense... Cougars lead nation in passing (341.6), finish second in scoring (39.4) and third in total offense (470.2)... BYU's 341.6 yards passing per game was third highest in NCAA history, and 41 TDs was second... Cougars top the nation in takeaways (fumbles recovered or interceptions) with a total of 56... Cougars tie for first in WAC and make a post-season trip to play two Japanese all-star teams.

1978 Both Marc Wilson and sophomore Jim McMahon see action in 10 games as they share quarterback duties... Cougars are eighth in passing and fourth in fumble recoveries... Cougars win the WAC, play their final regular-season game in Yokohama, Japan, against UNLV, and meet Navy in the first Holiday Bowl.

1979 With two all-conference quarterbacks to choose from, Edwards decides to redshirt McMahon and play senior Wilson... Cougars upset Texas A&M in season opener and go on to record 11 straight wins ... Wilson leads the nation in total offense (325.5) and is fourth in pass efficiency (147.1)... finishes the year as consensus All-American with 10 NCAA records to his credit... Cougars lead the nation in four categories: passing (368.3), total offense (521.4), scoring (40.6) and kickoff returns (26.3)... Cougars are 12th in scoring defense (11.4) and sixth in punting (40.1)... BYU becomes first Division I school to pass for more than 4,000 yards in a season... LaVell receives the Bobby Dodd Coach-of-the-Year award... Cougars win the WAC and play Indiana in Holiday Bowl II.

1980 The school's first 12-win season... BYU leads the nation in three statistical categories: total offense (535.0), scoring (46.7) and passing (409.8)... quarterback Jim McMahon is named to the Kodak All-America team along with tackle Nick Eyre... McMahon is the first Division I player to pass for more than 4,000 yards in a season (4,571)... sets or ties 26 NCAA records, most in total offense and passing... pass efficiency (176.9) was the highest ever... also led the nation in total offense (385.6)... after losing the first game to New Mexico, BYU wins 12 straight ... Cougars win WAC and defeat SMU in Holiday Bowl III by scoring 21 points in the final four minutes.

Jim McMahon was named the NCAA Co-Offensive Player of the Year, with Marcus Allen, after an amazing 1981 season. McMahon set 70 NCAA records at BYU, was a consensus All-American and was third in the Heisman balloting.

1981 Another 11-win season for the Cougars... have a 17-game win streak and rank eighth in the polls before losing to Nevada-Las Vegas... BYU leads the nation in passing for the third consecutive year... McMahon earns All-America honors and finishes his career with 70 NCAA records and sets record with all-time high in career pass efficiency (156.9) ... McMahon wins the first Davey O'Brien Award ... Cougars win WAC and play Washington State in Holiday Bowl IV... LaVell coaches West team to a victory in the Hula Bowl... also coaches in the Japan Bowl... Edwards' 86-32-1 record ranks among top 10 in the nation.

1982 BYU expands Cougar Stadium to 65,000 seats and sells out each game... loses home opener to Air Force (39-38) but comes back to win seventh straight WAC title and plays Ohio State in Holiday Bowl V... Gordon Hudson is named consensus All-American... BYU finishes third nationally in total offense... Steve Young is named WAC Offensive Player of the Year.

1983 Another 11-win season... Cougars are ranked seventh in final polls, highest ever for a BYU team... quarterback Steve Young and tight end Gordon Hudson both named consensus All-Americans... after losing to Baylor in the opening game, BYU wins final 11 games... BYU leads the nation in passing and total offense and is second in scoring... Cougars set NCAA total offense record with 584.2 yards per game... BYU wins eighth straight WAC title and defeats Missouri in Holiday Bowl VI... Edwards surpasses the 100-victory milestone... Young wins the Davey O'Brien Award and finishes runner-up for the Heisman.

1984 Cougars win the National Championship by becoming only the third team in NCAA history to win 13 games in a season... win streak is extended to 24 games... quarterback Robbie Bosco leads the nation in passing and finishes second to Doug Flutie in pass efficiency (151.8)... defensive back Kyle Morrell named first team All-American... team leads the nation in passing (346.2) and total offense (486.5)... defensively, Cougars finish 10th in scoring defense... another WAC championship and a victory over Michigan in Holiday Bowl VII... Edwards named NCAA Coach of the Year by most organizations ...Bosco is runner-up for the Davey O'Brien Award and third in the Heisman.

1985 Cougars' defense of the National Championship begins with win over Boston College in the Kickoff Classic... that game plus a bowl and playing at Hawaii allows BYU to become the only collegiate team to play 14 games in a season... defensive tackle Jason Buck is named third team All-American and WAC Defensive Player of the Year... Mark Bellini earns second-team All-America honors... a tie with Air Force for the WAC championship... quarterback Robbie Bosco ranks second in total offense and seventh in pass efficiency... finishes third in the Heisman Trophy balloting... BYU defense ranks 19th against the rush and 18th overall... Cougars lose to Ohio State in the Florida Citrus Bowl and end the season ranked 16th in both polls.

1986 Edwards passes Frank Kush as the winningest coach in WAC football history... Jason Buck becomes only the third player in the Western United States to win the Outland Trophy and is named consensus All-America ... Shawn Knight is also named to several All-American teams ... Lakei Heimuli comes on strong toward the end of the season to break Jeff Blanc's record for career rushing yards... Cougars fail to win WAC championship for the first time in 11 years but post an 8-5 record and play UCLA in the Freedom Bowl.

1987 BYU defense leads the nation with 50 takeaways (28 interceptions and 22 fumble recoveries) with Troy Long getting the most defensive points... after offensive line is decimated in pre-season camp, Cougars bounce back from 1-2 start to win eight of final nine regular season games... Cougars come within a two-point conversion of another WAC title... Chuck Cutler begins the first of two years as a GTE Academic All-America first teamer... Leonard Chitty sets career records for consecutive conversions (42) and for field goals (34)... Cougars rank ninth nationally in passing offense and 22nd in scoring offense... Cougars win Gridiron Bowl (the final regular-season game against Colorado St.) in Melbourne, Australia, but injuries prove costly in the All American Bowl versus Virginia.

1988 Cougars win seven straight but drop to third in WAC race... punter Pat Thompson named All-America and finishes second nationally while team is first in punting and net punting... behind quarterbacks Sean Covey and Ty Detmer, BYU is fourth in passing, 13th in total offense and 13th in scoring... BYU plays second-ranked Miami even for three quarters... Bob Davis is a finalist for the Butkus Award as the country's top linebacker... 11th straight bowl trip (Freedom Bowl) is 20-17 upset over Colorado.

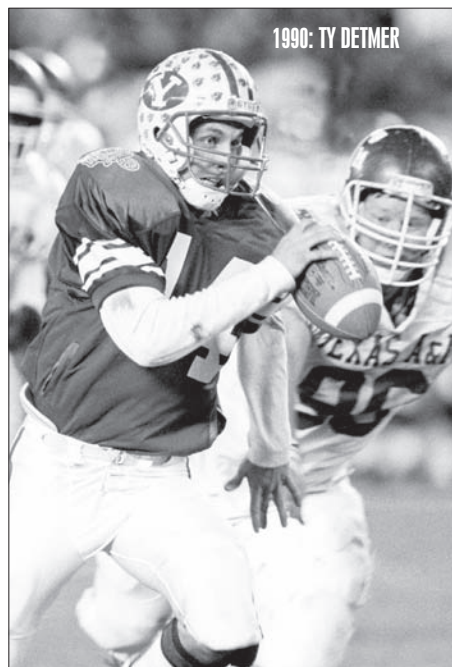

1989 BYU returns to the top of the WAC after a three-year absence... offensive lineman Mohammed Elewonibi becomes the second BYU player in four years to win the Outland Trophy and is consensus All-American... Bob Davis and Chris Smith are named to several All-American teams ... Fred Whittingham is first team Academic All-America... sophomore Ty Detmer breaks 11 NCAA records and ties two others... Cougars make 12th straight bowl appearance but drop a tough game to Penn State in the Holiday Bowl.

1990 Ty Detmer, a consensus first team All-American, becomes the first player in the Rockies to win the Heisman Trophy...also wins the Davey O'Brien Award...finishes with 5,188 yards passing—the most ever—and increases his NCAA records to 47... Chris Smith also is consensus All-American and has more reception yards (1,156) than any tight end in history... Andy Boyce gains more yards receiving (1,241) than anyone who has played at BYU... Matt Bellini breaks the career record for catches with 204... BYU shocks the nation by upsetting top-ranked Miami but loses a shot at being number one with a loss at Oregon... BYU wins the WAC and goes to its 13th straight bowl.

1991 Cougars go undefeated in the final 10 games as Ty Detmer finishes his incredible career with 62 NCAA records, including an amazing 15,031 yards passing and a career passing efficiency of 162.7 (nearly five points above Jim McMahon's previous record)... BYU ties seventh-ranked Iowa, 13-13, at the Holiday Bowl, its 14th straight bowl game... Shad Hansen sets a school record with 325 career defensive points... Peter Tuipulotu winds up with the best career rushing average (5.5)... Detmer repeats as the Davey O'Brien Award winner.

1992 Cougars are forced to use three different quarterbacks (and a fourth in the bowl game) but finish fifth nationally in passing and seventh in total offense... 23rd in rushing defense... among the highlights were beating powerful Penn State (30-3 until the closing minutes), a first-ever game against Notre Dame, finally taking the series lead against Utah State and the 19th win by Coach Edwards in 21 games against Utah... Ryan Hancock finishes third in total offense and passing... BYU wins WAC title and goes to the Aloha Bowl...BYU's 15th straight bowl.

1993 BYU ties for the WAC title and goes to the Holiday Bowl (16th straight bowl game), nearly beating Big Ten co-champ Ohio State...Cougars win all four league games in September before injuries hit and team loses four games in October... BYU gains 20th straight non-losing season... team ranks second in passing and ninth in total offense and John Walsh is fifth in total offense and ninth in passing efficiency... freshman Alan Boardman finishes ninth nationally in punting and Eric Drage sets career records for touchdown receptions (29) and yardage (3,066)... BYU's NCAA record of 53-straight games with a touchdown pass ends at CSU, but Cougars extend the nation's longest streak without being shut out to 236 consecutive games.

1994 It's a historic season with victories over Notre Dame and Oklahoma to finish 10th in the final CNN/USA Today poll... five players are drafted, the most ever... Ronney Jenkins' rushing attack helped lead the sixth-ranked Cougars offense in 1996.

In 2001 BYU led the nation in scoring and total offense behind the versatility of QB Brandon Doman.

Bryan Kehl helped lead BYU's 10th ranked defense in 2007.

BYU'S NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

After posting a perfect 13-0 season, the Cougars were awarded gold national championship rings after winning the 1984 National Championship.

The Cougars were named No. 1 by the Associated Press, the United Press International, Sports Illustrated, CNN-USA Today and the Football Writers of America. They won the Grantland Rice Trophy and the MacArthur Bowl. LaVell Edwards was selected as the NCAA National Coach of the Year and was invited to visit President Ronald Reagan in the White House.

The dream season featured plays like wide receiver Adam Haysbert's deep touchdown catch at third-ranked Pittsburgh, safety Kyle Morrell's timed leap over the center on a goal-line stand at Hawaii, tight end David Mill's catch with a clouded eye against Wyoming and running back Kelly Smith's winning TD catch against Michigan, who had been ranked second earlier in the season.

With a TV blimp in the sky over Jack Murphy Stadium, junior quarterback Robbie Bosco left the Holiday Bowl in the second quarter with an ankle injury and returned taped to play shotgun late in the second quarter. The 24-17 victory over Michigan was the first time a No. 1 team played in a non-New Year's Day bowl. Other injuries throughout the season were to offensive lineman Craig Garrick and circus-catching wide receiver Glen Kozlowski, who came through time and again.

The Cougars ascended to the number one spot on Nov. 17 following a 24-14 victory at Utah combined with a Nebraska loss to Oklahoma and a Navy upset over unbeaten and then second-ranked South Carolina.

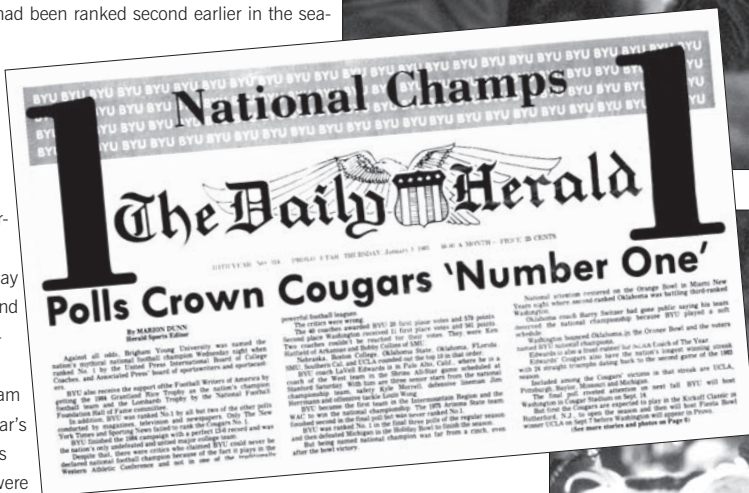

The Cougars rose from no ranking to 12th, sixth, fourth, down to eighth, to fifth for two weeks, back to fourth, then third, back to fourth, again to third and then first in the 1984 campaign. Baylor Coach Grant Teaff, whose team lost at BYU 47-13, in game two, was the first to cast a No. 1 vote for the Cougars.

Controversy was abundant as many of the so-called experts such as NBC announcer Bryant Gumbell and Oklahoma head coach Barry Switzer, accused BYU of playing a "Bo-Diddley Tech" schedule.

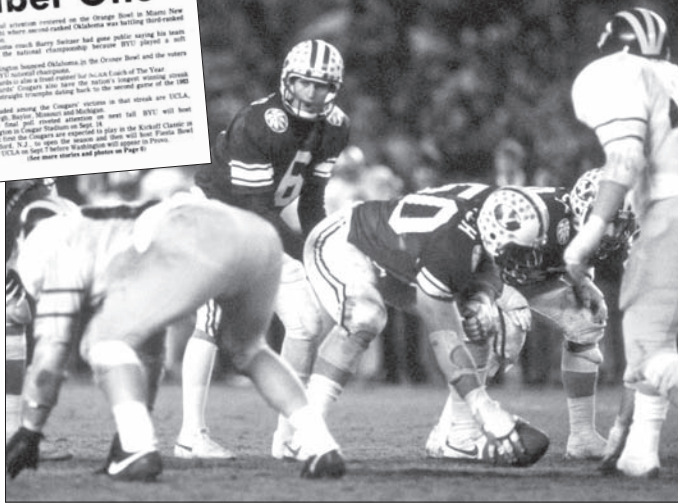

Fifteen players from the 1984 team were drafted by the National Football League. Seven different teams held the No. 1 spot in 1984, but in the end it belonged to undefeated BYU.

TY DETMER: 1990 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

“He had me running around like a chicken with my head cut off. We didn’t play that bad, Detmer is just that good.”

—PENN STATE LINEBACKER ANDRE COLLINS (1989 HOLIDAY BOWL)

On December 1, 1990, Ty Detmer and his teammates gathered pool-side at the Princess Kaiulani Hotel just hours prior to kickoff with Hawaii. Via satellite hookup with national TV, Detmer and the BYU faithful waited patiently and listened as Downtown Athletic Club President C. Peter Lambos announced, “Ty Detmer, Ty Detmer of BYU,” — soon Ty was doused in the pool.

Detmer, a junior, became the first collegian from the Rockies to win the Heisman Trophy. Named in honor of John Heisman, the coveted 25-pound honor has been awarded annually to the outstanding college football player of the year since 1935.

A 28-21 upset over No. 1-ranked Miami in Provo vaulted Detmer to the forefront in the Heisman race his junior season. Combined with a massive public relations “necktie” campaign for Ty, the 6-0, 175, gunslinger from San Antonio, Texas, guided BYU to a Holiday Bowl berth that season and a 10-3 record with 41 touchdowns and 5,188 yards passing.

Detmer polled 1,482 points to beat out Notre Dame’s Raghib “Rocket” Ismail at 1,177 and finished first in all six regions. Detmer finished third in the Heisman ballot in 1991.

“Winning the Heisman was a great honor,” said Detmer. “There have been a lot of great players, like my teammates and previous BYU quarterbacks, that contributed to it. They opened the door. It shows the strength of the program at BYU.”

Detmer’s portrait hangs alongside other recipients on the third floor of the DAC of New York City. A duplicate portrait of Detmer also hangs on display in the Cougar Room of LaVell Edwards Stadium.

BYU'S TWO OUTLAND TROPHY WINNERS

BYU is one of only 11 schools to have two Outland Trophy winners, joining the likes of Notre Dame, Ohio State, Nebraska, Oklahoma and Texas.

JASON BUCK • 1986

Transfers Jason Buck, a defensive tackle, and Mohammed Elewonibi, an offensive guard, won the Outland in 1986 and 1989, respectively.

Buck, a 6-6, 270-pound senior from St. Anthony, Idaho, was a quarterback going into junior college at Ricks College. Buck led the 1986 Cougars with 218.5 defensive points and registered 26 unassisted tackles, 33 assisted tackles, 13 tackles for losses, 17 quarterback hurries and 12.5 sacks.

Buck rode a publicity campaign of "One Buck" dollar bills in leading BYU to an 8-5 record and a berth in the Freedom Bowl in 1986.

"For me it was just a thrill to be on the field every Saturday at BYU," said Buck. "To win the Outland Trophy was a dream come true."

MOHAMMED ELEWONIBI • 1989

Mohammed Elewonibi, a 6-5, 290, senior from British Columbia, Canada, spent his childhood in his native Nigeria and didn't play football until after high school, at Snow Junior College. "Mount Mohammed" led BYU to a 10-3 record, a berth in the Holiday Bowl in 1989 and graded out four times with perfect pass protection as a senior.

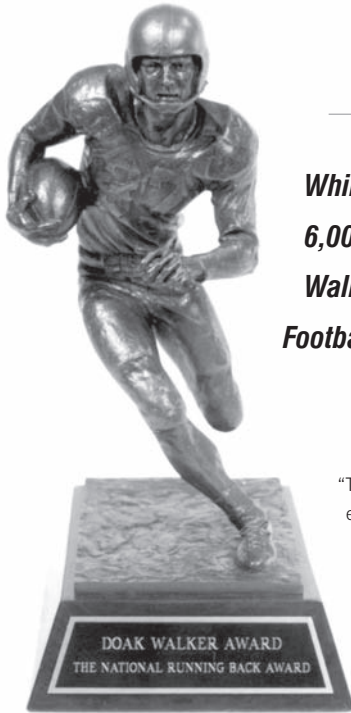

The Outland Trophy honors the outstanding interior lineman in the nation and was first presented in 1946 by the Football Writers Association of America.

The award is named for its benefactor, Dr. John H. Outland.

LUKE STALEY • 2001 DOAK WALKER AWARD WINNER

While his teammates and coaches were watching in their hotel rooms from Hawaii, over 6,000 miles away, BYU running back Luke Staley was named the winner of the 2001 Doak Walker Award. The annual award, which was presented on the ESPN Home Depot College Football Awards Show from Orlando, Fla., is presented to college football's top running back.

"This is a great honor," Staley said. "I can't express how grateful I am for my family, my teammates, my coach - everyone who made this possible."

In addition to winning the Doak Walker Award, Staley was also named as a first-team member of the prestigious Walter Camp Foundation All-America Team. Staley is the first BYU consensus All-American since Ty Detmer was twice selected in 1990 and 1991. In addition to the Walter Camp Foundation All-America team, Staley was named a first-team All-American by the American Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association of America, the Associated Press, The Sporting News, Football News and CNSI—just to name a few.

"We're very proud of Luke and all his accomplishments," BYU head coach Gary Crowton said. "Since we started this season back in August, we have been telling these guys to work hard, stay focused and great things will happen. This award, although presented to Luke, is a tribute to the hard work and commitment each and every player and coach has made this season. Luke is probably one of the best examples we have had, in terms of working hard and staying focused. This is a great tribute for a great athlete, a great teammate and a great young man. We couldn't be more proud of him."

Staley, from Tualatin, Ore., led the nation in scoring (15.5 p/game), yards per carry (8.1 y/carry) and finished the 2001 season ranked third in the nation in rushing, averaging 143.8 yards per game. He helped pace the Cougars to a 12-2 record on the season, scoring a BYU single-season record 28 touchdowns. Staley also racked up a BYU single-season record 1,582 yards rushing on the season.

ESPN's Chris Fowler interviews an injured Luke Staley after he was awarded the 2001 Doak Walker Award at the ESPN Home Depot College Football Awards show.

Legendary Cougar coach LaVell Edwards has twice been recognized as one the greatest coaches in college football. The sixth-winningest coach in NCAA football history earned the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Award in 1979 and the Kodak Coach of the Year Award in 1984.

Along with his teams' successes during his coaching tenure, LaVell Edwards accumulated many personal accolades to match. Edwards' first national recognition for his coaching prowess came in 1979 when he was honored with the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Award. A panel of 11 former college football coaches selected the BYU coach. On the heels of BYU's first national championship five years later, Edwards' coaching peers honored him with what he then called his greatest personal accolade, the Kodak Coach of the Year Award.

As successful as his teams were on the field, Edwards' coaching philosophy did not reflect a win-at-all-costs mentality. He didn't bark orders or rule the sideline with an iron fist. Generally, the assistant coaches were delegated the duty of handling the Xs and Os while he saw to the administrative tasks of the program. His personal demeanor also gave him the ability to relate well with his players whether teaching them about football or other more personal matters.

"Just seeing how he handles himself with the media and with people in general ... he's always genuine with them.

He treats everybody well." Former BYU quarterback and current BYU athletic administrator Robbie Bosco said. "Those are the things he'll leave with me, more than winning football games."

SAMMY BAUGH TROPHY

On February 21, 1997, Steve Sarkisian became the seventh BYU quarterback in the past 22 years to win the prestigious Sammy Baugh Trophy. Presented each year by the Touchdown Club of Columbus, the Sammy Baugh Award recognizes the college passer of the year. In winning, Sarkisian joined Gary Sheide (1974), Marc Wilson (1979), Jim McMahon (1981), Steve Young (1983), Robbie Bosco (1984) and Ty Detmer (1991) as Cougars who have won the award. Other notables who have won the award include Bob Griese (1966), Don Strock (1972), Tommy Krammer (1976), John Elway (1982), Vinny Testaverde (1986), Steve Walsh (1988), Jeff George (1989), David Klingler (1990), Elvis Grbac (1992), Trent Dilfer (1993), Kerry Collins (1994), Danny Wuerffel (1995), Ryan Leaf (1997), Daunte Culpepper (1998), Chad Pennington (1999), Chris Weinke (2000), David Carr (2001), Kliff Kingsbury (2002), B.J. Symons (2003), Matt Leinart (2004), Brady Quinn (2005), Colt Brennan (2006). BYU has more Sammy Baugh winners than any other university in the nation.

THE DAVEY O'BRIEN AWARD

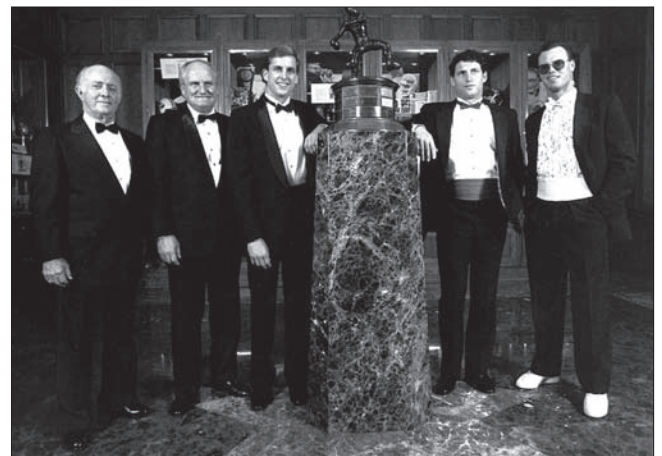

In 1981, the Davey O'Brien Educational and Charitable Trust of Fort Worth, Texas, named Jim McMahon the first recipient of the annual Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award — honoring the nation's best quarterback. BYU quarterbacks have won the Davey O'Brien Award four times — more than any other school. In addition to winners McMahon (1981), Steve Young (1983) and Ty Detmer (1990 & '91), Robbie Bosco finished runner-up in 1984 and Steve Sarkisian finished third in 1996. Others who have won the award include: Todd Blackledge (1982), Doug Flutie (1984), Chuck Long (1985), Vinny Testaverde (1986), Dan McPherson (1987), Troy Aikman (1988), Andre Ware (1989), Gino Torretta (1992), Charlie Ward (1993), Kerry Collins (1994), Danny Wuerffel (1995 & '96), Peyton Manning (1997), Michael Bishop (1998), Joe Hamilton (1999), Chris Weinke (2000), Eric Crouch (2001), Brad Banks (2002), Jason White (2003 and 2004), Vince Young (2005), Troy Smith (2006). STEVE SARKISIAN SPOTLIGHT: After tutoring a Heisman Trophy winner (Carson Palmer) and winning a national championship at USC, the former Sammy Baugh Trophy winner and BYU signal caller continues to excel in the football world. In 2008 he became head coach at the University of Washington. While at BYU, Sarkisian had a record-setting two-year (1995-96) career. Sarkisian completed 549-of-824 passes (66.6 percent) for 7,755 yards and 55 TDs in his career. As a senior in 1996, he led the nation in passing efficiency (173.6, the seventh best mark ever) as the Western Athletic Conference champion Cougars went 14-1 and won the Cotton Bowl. He was the WAC Offensive Player of the Year in 1996 and a second-team All-American. As a junior, he was All-WAC and led BYU to the WAC title. Against Fresno State that season, he set an NCAA game completion percentage record when he hit 31-of-34 passes (91.2 percent)

EVER SINCE GARY SHEIDE IN 1973, BYU HAS PRODUCED AN ASSEMBLY LINE OF OUTSTANDING QUARTERBACKS IN PROVO THAT HAVE EARNED UNPRECEDENTED SUCCESS IN THE MARKET OF COLLEGE AND PROFESSIONAL FOOTBALL.

Volumes have been written about BYU's passing game and great quarterback tradition. BYU quarterbacks own the NCAA record books and have won the Davey O'Brien award for best quarterback in the nation four times with one runner-up and one third place finish. BYU's quarterback factory has also produced a Heisman Trophy winner in Ty Detmer and many other Heisman Trophy candidates. Quarterbacks Gifford Nielsen, Marc Wilson, Jim McMahon and Steve Young have been inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in recent years, and several other BYU quarterbacks will likely be added to the list. In the last 20 years, two different BYU quarterbacks (more than any other school) have led their teams to NFL championships (Jim McMahon and Steve Young).

On seven different occasions, BYU quarterbacks have finished as the NCAA total offense leaders. Three of the top five career passing efficiency leaders are from BYU. In the 29 years LaVell Edwards coached at BYU, the Cougars have led the nation in passing eight times and finished in the top five 17 times. In 2006 Mountain West Conference Player of the Year quarterback John Beck was the No. 4 passer in the nation as he helped lead a resurrection of the storied BYU offense of old. The tradition continues with current quarterback Max Hall who enters was the nation's top-ranked sophomore quarterback in his first season as the starter and was the nation's No. 6 overall passer as a junior in 2008.

When Edwards was named head coach at BYU in 1972, he realized he couldn't compete initially with the big schools for the big-time athletes. So he installed a passing attack that allowed smaller, less physical-type players to win with finesse, rather than muscle.

The offense worked, and the Cougars began passing the competition. BYU became one of the first universities to use the forward pass consistently and effectively in a time when throwing the football was a mere alternative to running the ball. The pass has been good to BYU. Prior to Edwards, the program had won a total of 171 games and had only 16 winning seasons. Since 1972, BYU has won or tied for the WAC or MWC championship 20 times, played in 26 post-season bowl

FACTOID:

Taking Turns: From 1978 to 1984 — seven straight years — a BYU quarterback was named first-team All-Western Athletic Conference. McMahon got the ball rolling in 1978 as a sophomore. Wilson followed as a senior in 1979, then McMahon twice (1980, 1981), Young twice (1982, 1983) and finally Bosco in 1984.

FACTOID:

Rewriting the NCAA Record Book: From Wilson in 1978 to Detmer in 1991 BYU quarterbacks broke or tied an amazing 165 NCAA records. McMahon led the way with an unheard of 70 records.

BYU's football program has tapped into the Pacific Islands to find players since 1951 when Harry Bray of Hilo, Hawaii'i transferred from Weber College to play for the Cougars. Other Pacific Islanders who followed included: Famika Anae (1954-55; father of current BYU Offensive Coordinator Robert Anae), John Kapele (1957-59), John Kawaa (1962-1963); John Lupoi (1967-1969) and Henry Nawahine (1964-1965). Some of BYU's most celebrated and decorated players have come from the Pacific islands, including All-Americans, national record holders and players who have gone on to compete in the NFL.

Since 1951, hundreds of Polynesian players have suited up for BYU, including 21 that will don the blue and white in 2009. The Cougars' Polynesian players have come from Hawaii, Tonga, Samoa and Fiji. Some of the most notable players include Vai Sikahema, the NCAA's career leader in punt returns, All-American and NFL veteran tight end Itula Mili and BYU's second all-time rushing leader Lakei Heimuli. Eight former BYU Polynesian players are currently on NFL rosters.

Of the more than 100 Polynesian players, several rank among the top statistical leaders in BYU history. Two of the top-10 career rushers are Polynesian as are two of the top-10 leaders in career receiving yards. Since 1982, nine of BYU's season-rushing leaders have been Pacific Islanders.

Some of other standout Polynesian athletes who excelled on the gridiron for BYU include: Mekeli Ieremia (1974-1977), Wally Molifua (1972-1973), Pili Saluone (1970-71), Charles Ah You (1973-74), Keith Uperesa (1974-77), Pisa Finai (1975), Marcus Kanahete (1975-76), Pulusila Filiaga (1979-81), David Aupiu (1979-82), Allen Salanoa (1982), Brad Anae (1980-81), Louis Wong (1982-84), Robert Anae (1982-84), Lakei Heimuli (1983-1986), Kurt Gouveia (1983-85), Ladd Akeo (1984-86), Andy Kato (1984-1987), Steve Kaufusi (1983-86), Thor Salanoa (1985-87), Chris Bisho (1986-1987), Alema Harrington (1986-88), Tau Harrington (1988-1990), and Sim Tiatia (1988-90), Tom Tuipulotu (1983-85), Peter Tuipulotu (1989-91), Wayne Faaluafua (1981-1982); Fotu Katoa (1989) Rich Kaufusi (1989-90); Chris Matau (1985-1986); Micah Matsuzaki (1989-1993); Phil Nauahi (1987-1988), Alema Fitisemanu (1985-90), Spencer Reid (1994-97),

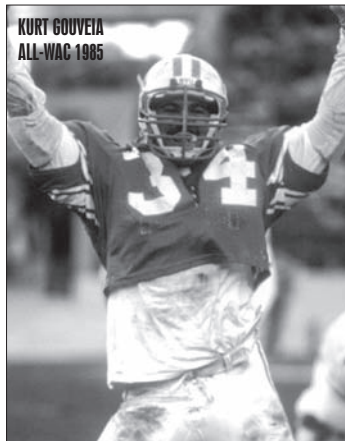

Gabriel Reid (1999-02), Donny Atuaia (1996-1999); Mark Atuaia (1991-1996); Justin Ena (1997-2001); Elias Faupula (1994-1995); Setema Gali Jr. (1997-2000); Fred Katoa (1990); Harland Ah You (1995-97), K.O. Kealaluhi (1995-1996); Henry Bloomfield (1995-96), Tevita Liava'a (1997); Issiah Magalei (1996-1998); Shane Magalei (1996-1999); Reno Mahe (1998-2002); Itula Mili (19991-1996); John Moala (1996-1997); John Moeaki (1994); Stan Moleni (1998); Kelepi Ofahengaua (1996); Tevita Ofahengaua (1997-2000); Vaha Ongoongotau (1994-1995); John Raass (1994-1995); Stan Raass

Although known as the Quarterback Factory, BYU signal callers wouldn't make the record books without someone on the receiving end of their throws. With BYU's tradition of wide-open offenses, the tight end position has thrived in its offensive scheme.

Tight ends have thrived in the BYU offensive system for years. Like no other school in the nation, BYU's tight ends have earned unprecedented success as a featured position in BYU's wide-open offense. Over the years, Cougar football has emerged as the home of some of the best pass-catching tight ends in NCAA history.

Starting with "Miracle Bowl" hero Clay Brown in 1980, eight BYU tight ends have earned All-American status. Since 1976, 12 Cougar tight ends have received 18 First-Team All-Conference citations. In this decade alone eight different Cougar tight ends have made NFL rosters. Four former Cougars helped lead their teams to the Super Bowl—Doug Jolley with the Oakland Raiders in 2003, Chad Lewis with Philadelphia Eagles in 2005, Itula Mili with Seattle in 2006, and Gabriel Reid with Chicago Bears in 2007. Two former BYU tight ends Todd Christensen and Chad Lewis have been named to several Pro Bowl teams during their successful professional careers. Three of the past four seasons, tight ends have led the Cougars in receptions and a BYU tight end has been named first team all-conference (Jonny Harline in 2005 and 2006 and Dennis Pitta in 2007 and 2008). This season BYU continues its storied tight end tradition as the Cougars return a plethora of talent at the position. Senior tight ends Dennis Pitta and Andrew George will once again lead the way for BYU.

The College Football Hall of Fame, located in South Bend, Indiana has honored six of BYU's Football Greats. The sixth Cougar to be inducted into this prestigious hall is BYU All-American tight end Gordon Hudson. Established in 1947 by the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame, Inc., the first class was inducted in 1951. In order to be eligible for the Hall of Fame, a nominated player must be out of college at least ten years and a first team All-America selection by a major selector during his career. The voting is done by a 12-member panel made up of athletic directors, conference and bowl officials and media representatives. The College Football Hall of Fame is located in South Bend, Indiana and is open year round. For more information visit <http://collegefootball.org/>. Six Cougars have been inducted into the Hall of Fame.

GORDON HUDSON

Inducted: 2009

Hudson is the sixth former Cougar to be elected to the College Football Hall of Fame. Legendary coach LaVell Edwards was inducted in 2004, while former BYU quarterbacks Gifford Nielsen (inducted 1994), Marc Wilson (inducted 1996), Jim McMahon (inducted 1998) and Steve Young (inducted 2001) are also College Football Hall of Famers. Hudson is the first non-quarterback to represent BYU as a player in the Hall.

A unanimous All-America First Team pick in 1982 and 1983, Hudson is still the NCAA FBS record holder for most passes caught per game by a tight end (5.4), most career yards per game by a tight end (75.3) and most yards in a single game by a tight end (259). Hudson helped BYU win four conference championships (WAC) and earn four Holiday Bowl invitations during his career from 1980-83. He totaled 2,484 receiving yards and 22 touchdowns during his All-American career.

Hudson and the rest of the 2009 College Football Hall of Fame Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) Class will be inducted at the NFF Annual Awards Dinner on December 8, 2009, at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York City.

LAVELL EDWARDS

Inducted: 2004

A coaching icon, whose success and longevity are paralleled by few, Edwards guided BYU to heights never before reached in the program's history. Edwards posted a record of 257-101-3 (.716) over a span of 29 seasons at BYU. From 1972 until his retirement following the 2000 season, Edwards roamed the sidelines at BYU--a tenure that ranks fifth all-time among coaches at one school. In 20 of those 29 seasons, the Cougars claimed the league title. Guiding BYU to 22 bowl game appearances, including a streak of 17 straight bowl appearances, Edwards reached the pinnacle of coaching success in 1984 by winning the National Championship. His 257 wins rank him sixth in NCAA Division I-A history, and he has more victories than every other coach in BYU history combined. At the helm, Edwards compiled a program best .716 win percentage, coached one Heisman Trophy winner, two Outland Trophy recipients, four Davey O'Brien award winners and 32 All-Americans--not to mention countless players who went on to professional careers in the NFL.

One of the greatest collegiate quarterbacks of all time, Steve Young was consistently at the top of all the nation's statistical categories for quarterbacks en route to setting 13 NCAA records. As a junior, he averaged 318.8 yards per game of total offense, earning All-Western Athletic Conference recognition and Conference Player-of-the-Year honors.

In his senior season, he repeated as a first-team All-WAC selection, completed 306-of-429 pass attempts for an impressive .713 percentage and led BYU to its second straight Holiday Bowl. His .713 completion percentage, 3,902 yards passing, 4,346 yards of total offense and 33 touchdowns all led the nation. Few rival Young's career totals. He completed 592-of-907 attempts for a .653 average, threw for 7,733 yards and 56 touchdowns and his 8,817 yards of total offense in only 31 games is among college football's all-time greatest career numbers.

A unanimous All-American and academic All-WAC selection, Young was the runner-up for the Heisman Trophy and received a National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete Award in recognition for his excellence on the field, in the classroom and in the community -- a tradition he maintains today with the successful Forever Young Foundation.

Young retired after 15 seasons in the NFL, where he earned two MVP awards, seven trips to the Pro Bowl and led the San Francisco 49ers to the Super Bowl Championship in 1995, earning most-valuable-player honors. Young will be inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame in 2005.

JIM MCMAHON

Inducted: 1998

In 1998 Jim McMahon (1977-78, 80-81) joined former BYU quarterbacks Gifford Nielsen and Marc Wilson, who were inducted into the National Football Foundation Collegiate Hall of Fame in 1994 and 1996, respectively.

McMahon set 70 NCAA records at BYU, was a 1981 First Team All-American by Kodak (Coaches), College & Pro Weekly, Associated Press, UPI, Football Writers Association of America, and second team NEA. In 1980 he earned First team All-America from the FWAA. McMahon balloted third place for the Heisman Trophy in 1981 and fifth in 1980. In 1981, he won the Davey O'Brien Trophy, the Sammy Baugh Award, the Utah Sportsman of the Year and the NCAA Co-Offensive Player of the Year with Marcus Allen (Pigskin Club of Wash., D.C.). He led the NCAA in pass efficiency (155.0) and total offense (345.8) in 1981 as well as pass efficiency (176.9) and total offense (385.6) in 1980. He set 29 Western Athletic Conference records and was three-time WAC Player of the Year and first team all-league. He broke 23 school records, was MVP of the 1980 and 1981 Holiday Bowls and has been inducted to the Holiday Bowl Hall of Fame. McMahon passed for 9,536 yards, threw 84 touchdowns and completed 653 of 1,056 passes during his career at BYU.

McMahon played for the Chicago Bears from 1982-88 (1985 Super Bowl Champions, 1985 Pro QB of the Year, and Pro Bowl); San Diego Chargers in 1989; Philadelphia Eagles from 1990-92; Minnesota Vikings in 1993; Arizona Cardinals in 1994; and Green Bay Packers from 1995-96 (1997 Super Bowl Champions).

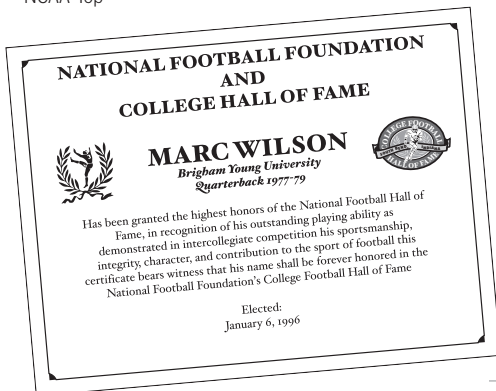

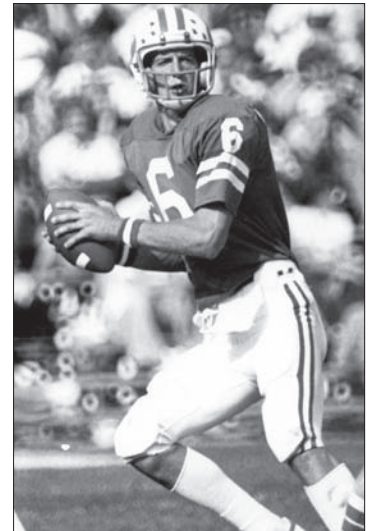

MARC WILSON

Inducted: 1996

One of the most celebrated quarterbacks in Cougar history, Marc Wilson earned consensus All-America honors in 1979 and was inducted into the Hall of Fame on Dec. 10, 1996. In Wilson's first game as a starter, he was 15 of 25 for 332 yards with seven touchdowns in a 63-17 triumph over Colorado State and was consequently named Sports Illustrated's Offensive Player of the Week. In Wilson's career at BYU, he set ten NCAA records. The 6-5, 204 pound quarterback ranked fourth in the nation in passing efficiency with a 147.1 rating in 1979. That same year, Wilson finished third in the Heisman balloting, led his team to an undefeated regular season, and was named the Holiday Bowl's Offensive MVP. A true student-athlete, Wilson was the recipient of the NCAA Top Five Award and its Post Graduate Scholarship. A first round draft pick of the Oakland Raiders, Wilson played eight seasons before finishing his career with the New England Patriots.

Presently, Wilson is a land developer in the North Seattle area. He and his wife, Colleen, live in Woodinville, Washington with their four children.

GIFFORD NIELSEN

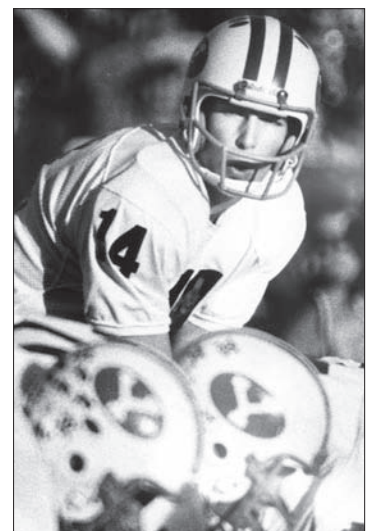

Quarterback: 1975-77
Inducted: 1994

Nicknamed the "Mormon rifle," Gifford Nielsen became BYU's first Hall of Fame inductee in 1994. His prolific passing career began when he came off the bench in the third game of his sophomore season to lead the Cougars to a 16-15 come-from-behind win by completing 10 of 12 passes.

"From that point on," Nielsen said, "everything clicked, and it's just amazing what happened." As a junior, in 1976, Nielsen really made fans sit up and notice. He passed for 3,192 yards and 29 touchdowns, set 13 WAC records and made All-American. Next season promised even more. He threw five touchdown passes against New Mexico, six against Utah State and was twice named Player of the Week. For the first time, a BYU football team was nationally ranked.

"It was like a little dream world," said Nielsen, a product of Provo High School. "The numbers were just mind-boggling. Everything you could ever dream of as a kid in Provo, Utah, was in the palm of my hand." On Oct. 8, 1977, his season and college career ended when he suffered a serious injury. He left a mark, however. Over three years Nielsen averaged an astounding 243 yards passing per game.

Nielsen played six years with the Houston Oilers and was the last quarterback to lead the Oilers to the AFC finals. He is currently a broadcaster in Houston. He and his wife Wendy have six children.

In 1984, BYU solidified its position among the nation's elite by defeating Michigan 34-17 in Holiday Bowl VII to claim the national championship.

With the arrival of LaVell Edwards, BYU football began to shape itself as a national powerhouse. From 1976 to 1985 (10 consecutive seasons), BYU won the WAC championship. Since 1989 BYU has claimed the conference championship in 11 out of 19 seasons.

 OSU – Bain 40-yard pass from Thompson (kick failed)

GAME SUMMARY:

Competing in its first post-season bowl game ever, BYU played Western Athletic Conference host to the Oklahoma State Cowboys before a crowd of 50,878. The Cougars got off to a quick start with two field goals during the first quarter before All-WAC quarterback Gary Sheide suffered a dislocated shoulder in the last moments of the quarter. He was replaced by junior reserve Mark Giles. The Cowboys took the scoring lead during the second quarter on a touchdown run around left end, giving Oklahoma State a 7-6 halftime advantage. OSU regained possession of the ball on the Cougars' 17-yard line after intercepting Giles, but the Cowboys were unable to convert on the turnover. A field goal from 32 yards out put the Cowboys in front 10-6 at the end of the third quarter. With 1:14 remaining in the game, Oklahoma State scored another touchdown on a 40-yard halfback pass to complete the scoring. The Cougars out-gained Oklahoma State in total yardage, 301-214. Giles was 11 of 26 for 138 yards. After three losses and a tie to open the season, the Cougars reeled off seven straight victories prior to the bowl game.

GAME SUMMARY:

Powerful Oklahoma State, sparked by All-American Terry Miller (173 yards rushing on 23 carries), used four pass interceptions and a fumble recovery to capture the 31st annual Tangerine Bowl contest. Defensively, the Cowboys yielded only 46 yards rushing. The Cougars, however, stayed close in the first half, which ended 28-14. Dave Lowry returned the second-half kickoff 102 yards (a Tangerine Bowl record) to move the Cougars to within seven at 28-21. From there, it was all Cowboys. BYU's Gifford Nielsen completed 23 of 34 passes for 209 yards and one touchdown, but the Cougars could only roll up 255 yards to Oklahoma State's 402. BYU entered the game with a 9-2 record, while Oklahoma State came in after tying for the Big 8 title. The Cowboys missed out on the Orange Bowl because of the conference tie-breaking formula. Later, the stadium was expanded and the name changed to the Florida Citrus Bowl.

GAME SUMMARY:

The inaugural Holiday Bowl pitted two teams with local drawing power, the Naval Academy and Brigham Young University. Despite chilly temperatures, the two teams engaged in a hard-hitting battle. Defense dominated the first two quarters. Brent Johnson put the Cougars on the scoreboard first with a 33-yard field goal with 8:26 left in the first quarter. But Navy's Bob Tata boomed a 40-yard field goal to tie the score at 3-3. Jim McMahon sent the Cougars ahead with a 10-yard pass to Mike Chronister, but Johnson missed the PAT. McMahon ran another in from two yards out in the third period for a 16-3 BYU lead. Navy cut the lead to 16-10 after three quarters and then tied the game on two field goals in the fourth quarter, but it was a 65-yard pass to Phil McConkey that did the Cougars in. Some 52,500 witnessed the game in person. McConkey was named Best Offensive Player and BYU's Tom Enlow won Best Defensive Player honors. Navy finished the year at 9-3, BYU at 9-4.

GAME SUMMARY:

The 1979 season ended with BYU leading the nation in scoring, passing and total offense. At 11-0, the Cougars were one of the few undefeated, untied teams in the nation. Those kinds of credentials, along with its No. 9 national ranking in the UPI and AP polls made BYU the favorite over the at-large entry, Indiana. The opportunistic Hoosiers played the Cougars tough, holding a 21-17 lead at the half. BYU jumped ahead in the third quarter, 24-21, on a 13-yard pass from All-American Marc Wilson to Homer Jones. The Cougars fell behind, 31-24, but regained the lead at 34-31 on a 15-yard pass to Eric Lane. With 12:14 left to play, BYU padded the lead on the third field goal of the game by Brent Johnson. But midway through the fourth quarter, Indiana's Tim Wilbur returned a punt 62 yards to push the Hoosiers ahead 38-37. With 2:06 remaining, the Cougars moved the ball 69 yards to the Indiana 10. Then, with 11 seconds left, Johnson missed a 27-yard field goal that would have won the game. Wilson was voted the MVP on offense (28 of 43 for 380 yards) and Indiana's Wilbur won the honor for defense. Clay Brown caught nine passes for 142 yards. Lane grabbed nine passes for 79 yards and also scored a rushing touchdown. Jones scored a touchdown and had 126 yards on seven kickoff returns.

GAME SUMMARY:

One observer said the 1980 Holiday Bowl was actually two ball games--a contest which lasted most of four quarters and another of four minutes duration. SMU controlled the "first game," leaving the Cougars behind 20 points with only minutes remaining. Unfortunately, many fans either turned off their TV sets or left the stadium in San Diego before the "second game" began. In the final four minutes, BYU surged to a stunning 46-45 win. For 56 minutes the Mustangs taught the Cougars a lesson in running the football. The Mustangs' two great running backs, Craig James and Eric Dickerson, rushed for a combined total of 335 yards. With 4:07 remaining in the game, SMU scored to go ahead, 45-25. From there the Cougars connected on a TD pass, recovered an on-side kick, scored on a one-yard run by Scott Phillips, blocked a punt. Finally, with three seconds left on the clock, Jim McMahon connected on a "Hail Mary" pass of 41 yards to Clay Brown. With the score tied, Kurt Gunther kicked the extra point to send BYU fans streaming onto the field. McMahon was 32 of 49 passes for 446 yards. It may have been the most exciting bowl game ever, with the Cougars getting 21 points in the final 2:33. Ironically, four passes on conversion attempts had failed before McMahon hit Phillips after the next-to-last touchdown to cut a 45-31 deficit to 45-39 and put the Cougars in a position to win the game with one more score. The 50-yard drive was set up when Todd Shell recovered a Brent Johnson on-side-kick at midfield. SMU got the ball back with 1:57 but had to punt. The kick was blocked by defensive back Bill Schoepflin and recovered by the SMU punter, Eric Kaifes, with 13 seconds left. McMahon threw one incomplete pass intended for Brown and another for Lloyd Jones before unleashing the famous pass to Brown in the end zone with no time left on the clock.

THE CATCH:

Clay Brown (85) pulled down a Jim McMahon Hail Mary pass to complete one of the greatest comebacks in NCAA history.

GAME SUMMARY:

The 1981 edition of the Holiday Bowl fit the mold of its predecessors. This time it was the Cougars of BYU versus the Cougars of Washington State, playing before a crowd of 52,419. BYU held a 24-7 lead at halftime, then pushed the score to 31-7 as Tom Holmoe intercepted a pass and returned it 35 yards to give the WAC champions a comfortable edge. As the second half progressed, it appeared BYU would be the come-from-behind victim in this one. With only 59 seconds left in the third quarter, Washington State scored to make it 31-28. But Jim McMahon took over moving BYU 82 yards for a score to stretch the lead to 38-28. Statistically, it was a typical McMahon game, 27 of 43 with no interceptions and three touchdowns. Tight end Gordon Hudson had an excellent game, collecting seven catches for 126 yards and a touchdown. Dan Plater also caught a touchdown pass and Waymon Hamilton scored on the ground. Washington State quarterbacks Clete Casper and Ricky Turner completed only eight passes for 106 yards but Turner had 82 yards rushing while Don LaBomme had 79. Each team scored five touchdowns, so the difference actually came midway through the second quarter when Kurt Gunther connected on a 20-yard field goal after a BYU drive stalled on the Washington State three.

GAME SUMMARY:

The Cougars had their two-game Holiday Bowl win streak snapped by Ohio State, 47-17. BYU's bubble burst at the outset of the third quarter, when the Buckeyes reeled off 17 unanswered points. Tim Spencer blew through the Cougar defense for 167 yards, including a record-setting 61-yard touchdown run in the second quarter that put Ohio State up, 10-7. Steve Young completed 27 of 45 passes for 341 yards, but BYU had a tough time getting into the end zone. The Cougars turned the ball over to Ohio State three times inside the 30 and saw the Buckeyes convert each turnover into a score. The Cougars took the lead early in the second quarter with a seven-yard strike to Neil Balholm. But Spencer's long gallop and a blocked punt put the Buckeyes up, 17-10, at halftime. Big fullback Vaughn Broadnax scored on the opening drive of the second half, and on the next play, Young was intercepted and Spencer ran 18 yards to put Ohio State in control for good. BYU's only other score came midway through the fourth quarter when Gordon Hudson caught a 13-yard pass. Ohio State quarterback Mike Tomzak had only 132 yards passing and no touchdowns, but his fleet of running backs scored six times on the ground. Ten different BYU players caught passes, led by Hudson with seven receptions for 81 yards and Balholm with 58 yards receiving.

GAME SUMMARY:

Yet another chapter was added to the saga of impossible, thrilling Holiday Bowl finishes when BYU defeated Missouri, 21-17. The game was billed as a classic matchup between Missouri's stubborn defense and BYU's explosive offense, led by quarterback Steve Young. Missouri held BYU to just 167 yards and seven points in the first half, while BYU's defense allowed the Tigers only 157 yards and 10 points. Missouri got its first-half points on a two-yard run by Eric Drain and a 37-yard field goal by Brad Burditt. BYU's touchdown came on a 10-yard quarterback draw by Young. In the second half, Young hit Eddie Stinnett with a 33-yard touchdown pass. But Missouri came right back with another two-yard plunge by Drain. A valiant goal-line stand by BYU gave the Cougars the ball on the six-yard-line with 3:57 left in the game. Led by Young, the Cougars moved down the field to the Missouri 15 with under a minute to play. On first-and-10 at the Tigers' 15, Young handed to Stinnett, who faked a sweep right and threw back across the field to Young. The Stinnett pass barely cleared the outstretched hands of Missouri's Bobby Bell allowing Young to gather it in and scramble 15 yards to the end zone. The PAT gave BYU a 21-17 lead with 23 seconds left. Kyle Morrell intercepted a Missouri desperation pass at the BYU two-yard line and returned it to the 17 to seal the win.

GAME SUMMARY:

Holiday Bowl VII lived up to all the glamour and excitement of the previous six bowls, plus it had a new dimension--national championship luster--thanks to BYU's undefeated, untied season and No. 1 ranking. The 24-17 Cougar victory marked the first time in years that a non-New Year's Day bowl game determined the national championship. The contest was played in typical Holiday Bowl fashion. After a scoreless first quarter in which Cougar quarterback Robbie Bosco was forced to the sideline with an injured knee and ankle, the game began to develop drama. BYU scored first with 8:37 left in the first half on a five-yard run by Kelly Smith. The touchdown was set up when a limping Bosco returned to the lineup and engineered an 80-yard drive. The Wolverines responded by putting together an 80-yard scoring drive of their own, culminating on Rick Rogers' five-yard touchdown run up the middle. The PAT tied the score at seven. The tie was short-lived however, as a 31-yard field goal by Lee Johnson with time running out in the first half gave BYU a 10-7 lead at the break. Midway through the third period, Michigan went on top for the first time at 14-10 on a 10-yard scoring strike from Bob Zurbrugg to Bob Perryman. The Wolverines added to their lead when Bob Bergeron nailed a 32-yard field goal to make the Michigan lead 17-10 with 14:14 to play. The Cougar offense then produced an 80-yard drive that culminated with a seven-yard Bosco-to-Glen Kozlowski touchdown pass to tie the game at 17 with 10:51 to go. Bosco's 13-yard scoring toss to Smith with 1:23 remaining made it 24-17. Two plays later Marv Allen intercepted a pass to clinch a 13-0 season and the Cougars' first-ever national championship. David Mills finished with 11 catches for 103 yards receiving and Smith had 10 for 88. Lakei Heimuli led BYU with 82 yards rushing while Bob Perryman had 110 for Michigan.

SCORING:

- BYU – Miles 38 yard pass from Bosco (Webster kick)
- OSU – Kolic 14 pass interception (Spanglerr kick)

GAME SUMMARY:

In what promised to be an offensive showdown between pass-happy BYU (11-2) and rough and tumble Ohio State (8-3), two of the nation's top defenses took center stage. In fact, the game's only touchdowns were produced by a noseguard on an interception and a reserve wide receiver on a broken play. Buckeye kicker Rich Spangler tallied the first points of the game with a 47-yard field goal early in the second quarter to give Ohio State a 3-0 lead. BYU attempted to answer with a long drive of its own, only to come away empty after Vai Sikahema fumbled on an apparent touchdown plunge. Before the first half ended, quarterback Robbie Bosco rolled left, whirled right and found wide receiver David Miles on a 38-yard strike to give the Cougars a 7-3 halftime lead. In the second half, Ohio State noseguard Larry Kolic intercepted Bosco and took it in for a touchdown to give the Buckeyes a 10-7 lead. Leon White and Kyle Whittingham recovered fumbles but Kolic got another interception and Terry White intercepted two in the end zone to stop BYU threats—one with 3:38 to play and again with three seconds left. Ohio State was the benefactor of six Cougar turnovers, and the Buckeyes went home the victor. Mark Bellini had 89 yards receiving while Lakei Heimuli added 10 receptions for 77 yards.

GAME SUMMARY:

Although BYU failed to win the WAC title, the Cougars kept alive an impressive streak of nine bowl appearances in a row by being invited to the third annual Freedom Bowl. There they met familiar foe UCLA. The two teams had met in 1985 when the Bruins came from behind to win a tough game in Provo, 27-24. The Freedom Bowl, however, proved different as UCLA outstanding running back Gaston Green broke open a close game in the third quarter and the Bruins went on to win 31-10. Green finished with 266 yards on 33 carries. The first half was all defense as the two teams punted nine times in the first 30 minutes. BYU struck first when linebacker Andy Katoa recovered a UCLA fumble at the Bruin 47 and Leonard Chitty put the Cougars ahead 3-0 with a 32-yard field goal. UCLA stormed ahead to stay with a 71-yard touchdown drive highlighted by a 49-yard run on a reverse by Bruin receiver Karl Dorrell. From then on, it was UCLA most of the way. Cougar quarterbacks Bob Jensen and Mike Young managed to pass for over 200 yards, but UCLA and Green did most of the damage. Costly injuries to standouts Mark Bellini and Katoa hindered the Cougar effort, but Outland Trophy winner Jason Buck turned in another strong effort.

GAME SUMMARY:

The 11th annual All-American Bowl began with temperatures in the 40s and BYU never warmed up. The Cougars' 10th consecutive bowl appearance included several records, but BYU lost 22-16 in its first-ever meeting with Virginia. Sean Covey attempted 61 passes, David Miles had 188 yards in receptions and Pat Thompson only punted once, but BYU fell short several times. Darren Handley, BYU's leading receiver, dropped a touchdown pass in the first quarter before BYU settled for a 20-yard field goal by Leonard Chitty. However, Chitty, who set a season mark for field goals (18) and consecutive PATs (29), missed from 51 and 47 yards as Virginia took a 14-3 lead into the intermission. BYU got to the Virginia two-yard-line midway through the third quarter only to have a fourth-down pass tipped away. Later, Freddie Whittingham scampered eight yards to cut the lead to 14-9 at the end of the third quarter. Virginia, led by quarterback Scott Secules, the game's MVP, made a crucial 76-yard drive to go ahead 22-9 with 11 minutes left. Then, BYU went the same distance to score on a one-yard pass to Whittingham with seven minutes remaining. But that was as close as the Cougars would get. Ironically, nine years earlier on the same date Virginia coach George Welsh was head coach of Navy, which beat BYU 23-16 in the inaugural Holiday Bowl.

GAME SUMMARY:

A star was born in the fifth annual Freedom Bowl when Ty Detmer came off the bench to earn MVP honors while leading the Cougars to an upset victory over Colorado. Cool weather didn't hamper diminutive Eric Bieniemy, who rushed 33 times for 144 yards and two touchdowns. But his heroics couldn't offset Detmer's 11 for 19 and 129 yards in the second half. Scott Peterson made an interception to set up the game-winning field goal. It was an exciting contest for the 35,941 fans (49,694 tickets were sold) in attendance. A fumble at midfield led to the Buffaloes' first score, before Sean Covey found Mike Salido to tie the score. An interception in the end zone stopped a BYU drive early in the second quarter as the Cougars trailed at the half, 14-7. A Detmer to Chuck Cutler pass tied the game in the third quarter but Colorado took a 17-14 lead early in the final quarter. BYU then moved from its own four to the Buffalo 14 and tied the game with 4:11 left on a 31-yarder by Chaffetz. Three plays later, Peterson's interception and a 15-yard penalty put the ball at the Colorado 32. With 2:33 left, Chaffetz booted a 35-yarder for the victory. Halfback Matt Bellini carried eight times for 78 yards and caught four passes for 41 yards.

GAME SUMMARY:

Two unusual plays late in the game kept BYU from downing Penn State and offset 576 yards passing by Ty Detmer—the highest total ever in a bowl game. For his effort, and thanks to blocking from Outland Trophy winner Mohammed Elewonibi, Detmer had the rare privilege of sharing MVP honors despite playing on the losing team. BYU, which trailed 41-26 with nine and a half minutes remaining, scored twice to cut the lead to 41-39 with 2:30 to play. The Cougars went for a two-point conversion to tie the game, but Detmer's pass was intercepted in the end zone by Penn State linebacker Andre Collins and returned 102 yards for two points. Down 43-39, the Cougars, led by Bob Davis, forced the Lions to punt, giving BYU the ball on its own 12 with two minutes left. Passes to Brent Nyberg, Matt Bellini, Chris Smith and Andy Boyce moved the ball to the Penn State 38 with a minute left to play. Then, what appeared to be a sack by Penn State safety Gary Brown turned into a score for the Nittany Lions. Brown stripped the ball from Detmer at the Penn State 47 and raced 53 yards for the touchdown. Penn State finished the season ranked 14th by UPI and 15th by AP and CNN/USA Today. BYU was 18th in the UPI poll and 22nd in the others.

GAME SUMMARY:

Led by quarterback Bucky Richardson and All-America running back Darren Lewis, underdog Texas A&M was out to show it belonged among the nation's elite. The Cougars entered the game beat up. Defensive backs Tony Crutchfield and Norm Dixon weren't able to suit up and Heisman Trophy winner Ty Detmer was playing with a slight separation in his non-throwing shoulder. The second largest Holiday Bowl crowd ever (61,441) watched the Aggies march 80 yards in 13 plays to take a 7-0 lead. The Cougars tied the score on an eight-yard Detmer-to-Chris Smith touchdown pass, but after that, the game was all Texas A&M. The Aggies went on to score 23 points in the second quarter en route to a 37-7 halftime lead. With the game out of hand, the big story was William Thomas' crunching sack that separated Detmer's throwing shoulder and put him out of the game early in the third quarter. The Aggies continued to dominate by racking up nearly 200 yards rushing in the second half. Texas A&M's Richardson would go on to be named Offensive Player of the Game by piling up 344 yards in total offense. Thomas was named the top defensive player. BYU finished the season ranked 17th by UPI, 20th by CNN/USA Today and 22nd by AP. BYU had been as high as fourth prior to its first loss.

GAME SUMMARY:

A tipped pass that was picked off in the end zone with less than 30 seconds remaining stifled BYU's hopes of knocking off seventh-ranked Iowa in the 14th annual Holiday Bowl. Ty Detmer turned in another great performance in his last appearance as a Cougar, passing for 350 yards and two touchdowns against a team that led the Big 10 in defense and sacks. Quarterback Matt Rodgers led Iowa on a 74-yard scoring march on the game's opening drive. The Hawkeyes also scored on another long drive in the second quarter. Down 13-0, BYU finally got things rolling. Starting on the BYU 22, Detmer connected on five of six passes to move the Cougars to the Iowa nine. From there, he found fullback Peter Tuipulotu for the touchdown. The PAT failed and the halftime score was 13-6. BYU opened the fourth with an 87-yard drive that culminated with a Detmer-to-Tyler Anderson touchdown from 29 yards out. Earl Kauffman connected on the PAT to tie the score at 13. Each team threatened to score late in the fourth quarter. Iowa missed a 40-yard field goal with 4:19 left. On the game's final drive the Cougars moved inside the Iowa 20 with 33 seconds left to play, but Detmer's pass to tight end Byron Rex was tipped and picked off by Hawkeye safety Carlos James in the end zone to preserve the tie. Josh Arnold of BYU earned defensive MVP honors as BYU finished the season ranked 23rd in the AP and CNN/USA Today polls. Iowa was 10th in both polls.

GAME SUMMARY:

Kansas kicker Dan Eichloff booted a 48-yard field goal with 2:57 left to play, giving the Jayhawks a victory over BYU, the WAC tri-champion. Tom Young, who completed 15 of 31 passes for 262 yards in his first varsity start, was named Most Valuable Player for BYU. Tackle Dana Stubblefield, who had three of the six sacks on Young, won the honor for Kansas. Young had been pressed into action when Ryan Hancock suffered knee ligament damage against Utah in the final regular-season game. The Cougars took an early lead when Hema Heimuli scrambled 94 yards on the opening kickoff for a score. Kansas tied the game two plays later when wide receiver Matt Gay threw a 74-yard touchdown pass to tight end Rodney Harris. BYU took a 14-9 lead in the second quarter when Jamal Willis ran 29 yards for a score. Eichloff then cut the halftime score to 14-12 with a 42-yard field goal. But the kicking game would prove the downfall as the Cougars missed a 36-yard field goal in the first quarter as well as a 31-yarder and misplayed an extra point attempt in the third quarter. Young threw 10 yards to Otis Sterling for the only score of the third quarter. Kansas quarterback Chip Hilleary then tied the game by directing a 75-yard drive in a minute and a half, scoring the touchdown and then running for a two-point conversion.

GAME SUMMARY:

The Cougars took Big 10 Co-Champion Ohio State to the wire at the 16th annual Holiday Bowl and came up just short. BYU had four downs and 32 seconds to tie or win the game from the OSU six-yard line, but four straight John Walsh passes into the end zone fell to the ground and OSU slipped away with the win. BYU got to the Ohio State six, 14, 22-yard lines in the second half without scoring. Meanwhile, Raymont Harris, OSU's senior halfback, battered the BYU defense all night long, scoring three touchdowns on his way to a record 235 yards rushing. Despite Harris' rushing, the Cougars managed to go into the halftime break tied at 21. Chad Lewis made a spectacular one-handed touchdown grab in the corner of the end zone to bail the Cougars out of a fourth-and-eight situation. After Harris' short touchdown run late in the third, BYU and OSU traded possessions until late into the fourth quarter. After forcing a rare Buckeye punt, BYU got the ball back on its own 42 with 43 seconds left. On first down, Walsh hooked up with senior co-captain Eric Drage who ran away from Buckeye defenders and advanced the ball 52 yards to the OSU six-yard-line. Walsh had 389 yards and fullback Kalin Hall rushed for 42 yards on 11 carries. Tyler Anderson returned five kicks for 145 yards, including an exciting 45-yarder. Harris and Walsh shared MVP honors.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU fans celebrated the New Year early as the Cougars dominated Oklahoma and ended its five-year winning drought in bowl games. Quarterback John Walsh and the offense clicked on all cylinders and the Cougars' defense was dominating throughout the ESPN telecast. Walsh threw a seven-yard TD pass to Bryce Doman in the first quarter and had a 25-yard pass to Mike Johnston in the second quarter. A four-yard scoring pass to Johnston in the third quarter and a 28-yard touchdown pass to Doman in the fourth quarter vaulted Walsh's stats to 454 yards and four touchdowns on 31 of 45 passes with no interceptions against the Sooner defense which had held national champion Nebraska to 13 points. BYU's defense was dominating as it held Oklahoma to just 72 yards rushing and 163 yards passing—most of those in the last quarter. The Sooners did not cross midfield until their ninth possession on the second-to-last play of the third quarter. Jamal Willis caught seven passes for 103 yards and was chosen Offensive Player of the Game. Walsh was named MVP in what would be his final game at BYU. BYU finished 10th in the CNN/USA Today poll and 18th in the Associated Press poll.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU assumed the nation's longest winning streak with a come-from-behind 19-15 victory in the 61st annual Cotton Bowl. It was the first New Year's Day appearance for both 14th-ranked Kansas State and fifth-ranked BYU. More than 40,000-purple clad Kansas State supporters out-numbered the 15,000 Cougar patrons as 71,928 fans filled the Cotton Bowl. BYU got on the board first with a safety, then turned the ensuing punt into a field goal to lead 5-0 in the first quarter. The safety came when linebacker Shay Muirbrook, the game's defensive MVP, collected one of his six sacks. Kansas State took a half-time lead with a 41-yard Hail Mary pass and a successful two-point conversion with no time left on the clock. The Wildcats increased the lead to 15-5 in the third quarter when offensive co-MVP Kevin Lockett caught a 72-yard TD. Fueled by consecutive controversial interference no-calls, quarterback Steve Sarkisian engineered two fourth-quarter drives capped by touchdown passes of 32-yards to James Dye and 28-yards to K.O. Kealaluhi. Sarkisian, an offensive co-MVP, completed 21 passes to tie a Cotton Bowl record held by Roger Staubach of Navy. KSU drove the length of the field before Cougar cornerback Omarr Morgan juggled an interception from a Wildcat slant pattern at the 12 yard line to secure the game.

GAME SUMMARY:

In BYU's first ever appearance at the Liberty Bowl, the Cougars ran into tenth-ranked Tulane that entered the New Year's Eve game with a perfect season record. The Cougars struck first on an 11-yard pass from Kevin Feterik to receiver Ben Horton. Tulane would score 20 unanswered points in the first half. With just 41 seconds remaining in the half, BYU looked to put an end to the Green Wave momentum, but came up short as Feterik was sacked by Phil Henderson for a 10-yard loss to end the half. Things didn't get much better for the Cougars in the second half, as Tulane scored its third touchdown of the game on the opening drive of the half. On its next possession, the Green Wave would strike again on a 13-yard pass from King to Jamaican Dartez to give Tulane a 34-6 lead with just over seven minutes remaining in the third quarter. On its first drive of the final period, BYU scored for the first time since the 8:49 mark in the first half on an Aaron Cupp three-yard run. Trailing by 28 midway through the fourth quarter, BYU finally crossed the Tulane 20-yard line for the first time since the first half and went on to score 14 unanswered points before time expired.

 MU – Chapman 30-yard pass Pennington (Malashevich kick)
 MU – Chapman 87-yard run (Malashevich kick)
 MU – Chapman 1-yard run (Malashevich kick)

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU squared off against Marshall in the first meeting between the two schools at the Cougars' first-ever appearance in the third annual Motor City Bowl. The Cougars scored first on a field goal by Owen Pochman with 1:58 remaining in the first quarter. That score was set up by a pair of 20-plus yard receptions by Donny Atuaia and Jonathan Pittman. In the second quarter, Marshall drove the ball down to the BYU five-yard line, but failed to convert as a 22-yard field goal attempt by Billy Malashevich missed wide to the right. On the Herd's next possession, Chad Pennington put Marshall on the board with a 30-yard touchdown pass to Doug Chapman. On BYU's ensuing drive, Feterik connected with Margin Hooks for a 67-yard pass play that took the Cougars all the way to the nine-yard line. However, the Cougars couldn't capitalize inside the red zone and Feterik suffered a collarbone injury off a blind-side corner blitz. Pochman, who had connected on 18

of 25 attempts in the regular season, missed wide left on his field goal attempt. Feterik attempted to play in the second half, but left the game midway in the third quarter when Freshman Bret Engemann took the QB controls. Just before the end of the third quarter, Marshall struck a big play when Chapman rushed 87 yards for a touchdown. Chapman, to cap off his MVP performance, scored Marshall's final touchdown. The Cougars missed a final chance to score when Brian Gray had a clear path to the end zone, but dropped a sure interception.

 BYU – Payne 29-yard field goal
 LOU – Branch 34-yard pass from Ragone (Smith kick)
 LOU – Ghent 27-yard pass from Ragone (Smith kick)

GAME SUMMARY:

The Champions of the MWC faced Louisville, the champions of Conference USA. The Cardinals, led by quarterback Dave Ragone, took an early lead, scoring on a one-yard dive by Henry Miller that was set up by Zek Parker's 70-yard return of the opening kickoff.

Midway through the second quarter the Cougar offense came alive, driving to the Louisville 10-yard line. Quarterback Brandon Doman dropped back and rolled right as if to pass, then turned to his left and threw the ball to Dustin Rykert on a tackle-eligible play. All 6-foot-7, 305 pounds of offensive tackle outran the Cardinal defense to the corner and rumbled 10 yards to the end zone to tie the game 7-7. Louisville just managed to take a 14-7 lead into the break, scoring with only 14 seconds left. Louisville contained the Cougar attack for the remainder of the game while reaching the end zone twice more themselves. Although Louisville went on to win 28-10, BYU's defense played one of its best games of the season, holding the Cardinals' high-powered offense to 228 yards passing and only 58 yards rushing.

GAME SUMMARY:

Trailing 35-14 in the fourth quarter, BYU stormed back with two touchdowns and had the ball with 2:20 remaining but John Beck was intercepted after he was hit when releasing the ball, ending the Cougars' comeback hopes. Beck had a record-setting performance, completing 35-of-53 attempts for 352 yards and three touchdowns. The 35 completions, 53 attempts and 352 yards were all Las Vegas Bowl records. Nathan Meikle caught a game-high 12 passes for 95 yards while Jonny Harline had seven receptions for 73 yards and one score and Todd Watkins added five catches for 95 yards and a touchdown. BYU fell behind 7-0 in the first quarter but scored early in the second when Beck found Curtis Brown for a 19-yard touchdown pass. California scored again but Fahu Tahii scored on a three-yard run to tie the game at 14 with 38 seconds left in the second quarter. The Golden Bears struck again before the half, going 58 yards in 27 seconds to take a 21-14 lead into the locker room. In the fourth, Beck engineered a 74-yard drive that ended with Harline scoring and then a 96-yard drive that ended with Watkins catching a nine-yard touchdown pass from Beck. California's ensuing drive ended with a missed field goal and the Cougars had a chance to tie but the drive ended on Beck's interception.

GAME SUMMARY:

The 2006 BYU championship run ended with a Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl championship as the Cougars (11-2) dominated Oregon (7-6), 38-8, to finish the season with a 10-game winning streak in front of a Sam Boyd Stadium record crowd of 44,615. The Mountain West Conference champion BYU team set a school record for margin of victory in a bowl game, beating the Ducks by 30 points. Previously, the largest margin of victory for a BYU team in a bowl game was a 25-point defeat of Oklahoma in the 1994 Copper Bowl. BYU dominated all facets of the game, out-gaining Oregon 548 total yards to 260 total yards. BYU passed for 375 compared to Oregon's 166 and rushed for 173 compared to the Ducks 94. BYU seniors John Beck, Jonny Harline and Curtis Brown finished their careers in style. Beck completed 28-of-46 passes for 375 yards and two touchdowns. Harline, who was named Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl MVP, caught nine passes for a career-best--and Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl record--181 yards and a touchdown. Brown had 17 carries for 120 yards and two touchdowns and also caught seven passes for 55 yards. Brown also became the first BYU runner to rush for over 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons. Beck and Brown became the first quarterback/running back combo to pass for 3,000 yards and rush for 1,000 in the same season twice.

GAME SUMMARY:

No. 17 BYU (11-2) won its second consecutive Las Vegas Bowl, 17-16, against UCLA (6-7) in dramatic fashion -- by blocking the Bruins' potential game-winning field goal attempt as time expired. With only three ticks on the clock, true freshman Eathyn Manumaleuna extended his right hand at the right time to block UCLA's potential game-winning, 28-yard field goal as time expired to create what will be known as one of the most memorable bowl finishes in BYU Football history. The victory also avenged an early-season loss to the Bruins -- one of only two losses the Cougars suffered during the season. The Cougars, who finish the 2007 season on a 10-game winning streak, were led by sophomores Max Hall and Austin Collie. Hall threw 21-35 for 231 yards and two touchdowns. Sophomore receiver Austin Collie was named the 2007 Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl Most Valuable Player after racking up a game-high 107 yards on six receptions. Collie's 14-yard touchdown reception from Max Hall with 10:32 left in the second quarter gave the Cougars a 10-3 advantage. He was also credited with a game-high 195 all-purpose yards, including three kick returns for a total of 88 yards. The win marked the first time BYU has won back-to-back bowl games since the 1994 Copper Bowl and the 1996 Cotton Bowl. The win over UCLA extended the Cougars' win streak to 10 straight games, which marked the nation's longest, active winning streak.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU totaled 444 yards of total offense compared to Arizona's 416, but the No. 16 Cougars fell short of their third-straight bowl victory, falling 31-21 to the Arizona Wildcats in the 2008 Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl at Sam Boyd Stadium on Dec. 20. Trailing late in the game, BYU put pressure on Arizona with a comeback attempt when the Cougars followed a touchdown with a successful on-side kick. Wide receiver O'Neill Chambers recovered the ball for BYU, but the ensuing field-goal attempt hit the upright and left the Wildcats with a two-possession lead, enough to hold on for the win. Despite the loss, the Cougars boasted two 100-yard receivers for only the third time on the season with wideouts Austin Collie and Michael Reed recording 119 and 117 yards, respectively.

With his performance, Collie continued to set BYU records in career receptions (215) and single-season receptions (106). The All-American receiver also tied an NCAA single-season record held with Texas Tech's Michael Crabtree with his 11th consecutive 100-yard receiving game. BYU quarterback Max Hall completed 30-of-46 passes for 328 yards and one touchdown pass. He also scrambled into the end zone for a 1-yard touchdown with 3:38 remaining in the game. Sophomore running back Harvey Unga recorded a rushing touchdown for the Cougars and ended the night with 71 yards on 17 carries. The Cougars finished the year 10-3 while the Wildcats improved to 8-5. BYU is one of only seven programs in the nation to win 10 or more games each of the past three seasons. The Cougars last accomplished the feat from 1983-85. A crowd of 40,047 watched the game, marking the fourth-highest attendance at a Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl and the seventh-best

BYU'S NFL DRAFT FACTS

- The Cougars have had 10 players selected in the first round of the draft, including eight different players who were drafted in the first round of the NFL Draft, one player selected in the first round of the USFL Draft (Steve Young).
- Bryan Kehl became the 14th BYU linebacker to be selected in the NFL Draft since 1972, and the first linebacker to be drafted since Brady Poppinga was picked by the Green Bay Packers in 2005. Interestingly, Poppinga and Kehl were both the 24th pick in the fourth round of their respective drafts. Since the 2004 NFL Draft, more linebackers have been drafted from BYU than any other position. Kehl is also the first player from BYU to be drafted by the Giants since David Futrell was selected in the 12th round in the 1988 draft.
- BYU has had 66 players drafted over the past 24 years, including 38 players over the past 18 years.
- Four members of the BYU coaching staff were selected in the NFL Draft, including Lance Reynolds (1978, Pittsburgh Steelers), Robert Anae (1985, New England Patriots), Steve Kaufusi (1988, Philadelphia Eagles) and Brandon Doman (2002, San Francisco 49'ers.) Additionally, two BYU athletic department administrators were also selected in the NFL Draft, including Robbie Bosco (1986, Green Bay) and Tom Holmoe (1983, San Francisco).
- Over the past 23 seasons, 37 offensive players from BYU have been drafted, as well as 27 defensive players and two special teams players.
- BYU's all-time leading receiver Austin Collie was drafted by the Indianapolis Colts in the fourth round of the 2009 NFL Draft. A 6-foot-2, 206-pound wide receiver, Collie was the 27th pick of the fourth round and the 127th overall selection in this year's draft. He was the 19th receiver selected.
- Fui Vakapuna was the 20th running back taken and in the 2009 NFL Draft. He becomes the 10th Cougar running back to be drafted by the NFL and the first since Doak Walker Award winner Luke Staley was a seventh-round pick by the Detroit Lions in 2002.

John Tait proved why he was a first-round draft pick and one of the NFL's best in 2003 as he helped pave way for RB Priest Holmes to set the NFL single-season TD record while totaling 1,420 rushing yards for the NFL's top scoring offense (Kansas City). In 2006 he help lead the Chicago Bears to the Super Bowl as the starting left tackle. In 2009 Tait retired from the NFL after 10 seasons and 123 starts and two Pro Bowl Selections (2001, 2006).

PRO SCOUT DAY: Every year a large contingent of NFL scouts converge on the BYU campus to get an up close look at BYU's future NFL hopefuls. Every year more than 60 NFL personnel, representing every NFL team, visit Provo.

TOP OF THE CLASS: BYU's rich football tradition has bred some of the top football minds in the country. Two former BYU players and coaches are currently successful coaches in the NFL. Former BYU offensive lineman Andy Reid led the resurgent Philadelphia Eagles into Super Bowl in 2004. Former BYU assistant coach under LaVell Edwards, Mike Holmgren, has also won a world championship when he led his Green Bay Packers to the 1997 Super Bowl title.

TRUE BLUE COUGARS: Chris Hoke (Steelers), Ryan Denney (Bills), and Brett Keisel (Steelers) were once teammates at BYU and now they are making an impact in the NFL. Heading into 2009, 18 Cougars are on NFL rosters. Four NFL teams have multiple Cougars on their rosters (Steelers, Eagles, Raiders, Bengals)

The 2009 BYU Football Media Guide has been designed to provide local, regional and national media with useful information about the BYU football program, its history and tradition. Should you require additional information, such as photographs, video or additional media guides, please contact the BYU Athletic Communications office at (801) 422-8948. We sincerely appreciate your coverage of BYU football and look forward to working with you this season.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

All requests for credentials to cover BYU football should be sent on company letterhead to: Brett Pyne, BYU Athletic Communications; 30 SFH; Provo, UT 84602. Fax requests may be sent to (801) 422-0633.

All single-game credential requests should be received no later than one week prior to the date of the game. Requests received later than noon on the day prior to the game will not be accepted. Credentials for working media, including print and electronic (radio & television) media outlets, are restricted in accordance with BYU, Mountain West Conference and NCAA rules and guidelines. It is our intention to ensure proper, professional use is made of the space available for credentialed media.

PRESS BOX

Working press box credentials shall be issued only to accredited newspaper, radio and television reporters only. Requests from other media sources shall be evaluated on a game-by-game basis. Reporters representing newspapers with next-day editions, daily editions, national magazines, wire services, live television and radio broadcasts and television and radio stations covering for nightly news shall be given priority. Spouses, dates, children and other non-working persons will not be credentialed and are not allowed in the working media areas during the game as dictated by NCAA guidelines.

Credentials must be displayed prominently throughout the game, including pre- and post-game coverage. Pre-game interviews with players and/or coaches will not be permitted under any circumstances. Properly credentialed media representatives shall be allowed field access with four minutes remaining on the game clock. Interviews with players and/or coaches may not be conducted until the NCAA-mandated 10-minute cooling off period has expired. Individuals or organizations violating this policy may be required to surrender their credentials and be removed from the stadium.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Sideline credentials will be issued only to accredited photographers and television reporters/camera operators on assignment. Television organizations shall be restricted to one camera operator and one reporter on the field at all times, except by prior approval from the BYU Athletic Communications office. Freelance and amateur photographers, not on assignment, are not eligible for sideline credentials.

All Mountain West Conference and NCAA rules will be enforced regarding media representatives on the sidelines. Photographers are not permitted to shoot between the 25-yardlines. Sideline supervisors will patrol both sidelines to make certain all rules are enforced. Individuals or organizations violating sideline policies may be required to surrender their credentials and be removed from the stadium. For additional questions regarding photography guidelines, please contact University photographer Mark Philbrick at (801) 422-7322.

MEDIA SERVICES

The working media area is located on the third floor of the press box, situated on the west side of LaVell Edwards Stadium. Access to the press loge may be obtained via either the north or south elevators.

The BYU Athletic Communications staff will provide working media with game notes, season stats, depth charts, flip cards, programs, game stats, post-game quotes and media guides for both teams.

With four minutes remaining on the game clock, media are invited to take the south elevator to ground level in preparation for the post-game press conference. BYU Head Coach Bronco Mendenhall and selected players will be available in the media room following the mandatory 10-minute cooling-off period. The BYU locker room is closed to all media.

The BYU press box is also equipped with high-speed internet access. Wireless passwords will be provided with other game materials to media working in the press box.

PARKING

LaVell Edwards Stadium is located on the northwest corner of the BYU campus, just off Canyon Road (200 East) and University Parkway (1650 North) in Provo. Media parking is in Lot No. 2, immediately west of the stadium. Parking passes are required and must be obtained in advance.

INTERVIEWS

During the season, all player and coach interviews must be scheduled through Brett Pyne in the Athletic Communications office at (801) 422-8948. Interview requests must be made 24 hours in advance. Interviews with players and coaches may be conducted following selected practices during the week. Players and coaches will not be available for interview prior to practice. Telephone interviews for out-of-town media can be arranged through the Athletic Communications office. Interviews with players are not permitted after Wednesday each game week. No player interviews will be conducted during regular class hours.

WEB SITES

To have access to athletes, coaches, practice, games, etc., Internet sites must be held to the same professional standards required of traditional media. Website personnel must show caution, restraint and professional judgment in covering potential student-athletes and the recruiting process. Websites covering BYU recruiting must be familiar with and follow all NCAA rules. Proper judgment and an understanding of NCAA rules must be displayed at all times. Access will be determined on a case-by-case basis. Failure to adhere to the standards and regular media policies established by the BYU Athletic Communications office may result in the loss of privileges. Live, real-time updates will not be permitted. Websites interested in seeking credentials or access should contact the Athletic Communications office for specific rules and guidelines.

SPORTS RADIO

All interviews must be arranged through the Athletic Communications office. The Athletic Communications office will not facilitate the broadcast of live guests during regular class hours. All interviews for sports talk radio must be conducted with players after practice or during the weekly media luncheon. Radio stations will be responsible for attending practices and for providing their own equipment (i.e. tape, digital recorders, telephones, etc). All sports talk radio stations will be issued one credential per home game.

WEEKLY MEDIA INTERVIEWS

Each Monday, Coach Mendenhall and selected players will be available for interview purposes from 10 a.m. until 11 a.m. in the Student Athlete Building. All live electronic interviews are for credentialed media only and must be arranged in advance with the Athletic Communications office. Coach Mendenhall will participate in the MWC weekly teleconference on Tuesdays, beginning at 10:52 a.m. (MT).

DISCLAIMER

The Brigham Young University Athletic Media Communications department reserves the right to revoke or deny working media credentials and/or access to any individual or organization at any time for any reason. All credentials are the property of Brigham Young University and must be surrendered upon request.

TELEVISION PARTNERS

In the fall of 2006, CBS College Sports Network and the MWC kicked off an unprecedented 14-year relationship to offer the most in-depth coverage ever centered around one Division I-A conference. The centerpiece of this historic relationship is the launch of The Mtn. ("The Mountain")—MountainWest Sports Network, the first-ever sports network serving a collegiate athletic conference 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. On July 19, 2006, Comcast was named an equity partner in The Mtn.

The Mtn. delivers more access to MWC sports coverage than has ever been offered before and brings fans more coverage of the teams, rivalries and action of the MWC. In addition to live game coverage, fans get a comprehensive array of news, features and analysis about their favorite MWC teams and players. Together, CBS College Sports Network and The Mtn. will showcase the passion and pageantry of the Mountain West Conference while delivering unparalleled 24/7 coverage to fans across the nation.

CBS College Sports Network, part of CBS Corporation, connects more fans to more college sports than any other company and is now available to more than 65 million households across the nation. In addition, CBS College Sports Network offers a variety of original programming and studio shows featuring expert analysis and in-depth coverage of the Mountain West Conference, in addition to the entire landscape of college football.

Another broadcast partner with the Mountain West Conference is VERSUS. Now in more than 73 million homes, the network is the national cable home of the National Hockey League (NHL) and the Stanley Cup Playoffs as well as best-in-class events like The Tour de France, the America's Cup, the Professional Bull Riders (PBR), World Extreme Cagefighting (WEC), Professional Boxing, the Boston Marathon and Davis Cup. The network also offers collegiate sports from top conferences such as the Mountain West, Big 12 and Pac-10. VERSUS, a wholly owned company of Comcast Corporation, is distributed via cable systems and satellite operators throughout the United States.

Direct TV, the nation's leading satellite television service provider, launched the MountainWest Sports Network – The Mtn. on Aug. 27, 2008. Fans from across the country have the ultimate access to Mountain West Conference sports through Direct TV.

The Mtn. is available on channel 616 on DIRECTV CHOICE™ and above packages for the states servicing Mountain West Conference institutions (Colorado, New Mexico, Nevada, Utah, Wyoming and the designated market areas of Dallas/Fort Worth and San Diego). Customers throughout the remainder of the country can access The Mtn. with a subscription to DIRECTV's Sportspack.

RADIO

The exclusive radio home of BYU Football and flagship of the Cougar Sports Network is KSL Newsradio in Salt Lake City. The "Voice of the Cougars" is Greg Wrubell, now in his 9th season as play-by-play commentator.
